

It Will be Passed Upon by the State Supreme Court.

HAD THE COUNCIL RIGHT TO DEPOSE HIM?

The Ex-Mayor's Claim For Salary Granted by Judge Clarkson and an Appeal Ordered Taken.

The case of Champion S. Chase against the city, through which he seeks to recover a balance of $906.67 with interest at 7 per cent from April 14, 1885 to May 13, 1890, claimed to be due as a balance on salary for mayor, was brought to a sudden termination yesterday when Judge Clarkson surprised all concerned by announcing his decision to them and thereupon, after a long and heated discussion, decided to grant the bill as a point of law, instructing the jury to find for plaintiff and have the case go to the supreme court forthwith.

So far as they have gone, the proceedings have proved interesting for several reasons. When the city council ousted Colonel Chase from the office of mayor he was succeeded by Patrick Murphy, who had been president of the council. The council brought quo warranto proceedings to oust Murphy. Shortly after the close of the term Judge Waleley decided that the council had no power to impeach a mayor; that Chase was entitled to the office and Murphy was a usurper.

The present case was called late Wednesday afternoon. Messrs. Poppleton and Baldwin were not present. Mr. Poppleton was represented by Messrs. Baldwin and Estelle. Mr. Chase was represented by Messrs. Poppleton and Baldwin. The case was argued by Messrs. Poppleton and Baldwin. The case was argued by Messrs. Poppleton and Baldwin.

There was no particularly lively light shinning in the eyes of Messrs. Poppleton and Baldwin when court opened yesterday morning, but they "held" themselves quite well considering the circumstances.

Mr. Baldwin seemed to make a special point of objecting and taking an exception to almost every question put to witnesses by Mr. Poppleton. This course of action was continued with so much pertinacity and persistence that Mr. Poppleton's face began a whole entertainment of the pantomime order, because he said really but about one word to Mr. Baldwin's demand that he should object.

Mr. Poppleton asked a question to the witness when Mr. Baldwin's long right arm would be directed moving aloft like a miniature derrick. It was the signal for Mr. Poppleton to object, and Mr. Poppleton, catching sight of the towering member and divining with an acuteness born of long experience as to just what was coming, would turn intensely red, gasp with worried amazement at the persistence of his opponent and then gradually square around with his features expressive of "Well, Baldwin, you'd better never stop talking!"

No finer exhibition of self control has been seen before the Douglas county bar in many a long term of years. Isaac S. Hascall was called by the defense. He was a member of the council at the time Chase was removed. His testimony was to the effect that he was just before Chase was removed he found him at home prostrated.

Joe Redfield, another ex-councilman of the Chase regime, was called by the prosecution. He was not offered to perform any after his removal. Mr. Poppleton then called John Groves, the present city clerk, who brought with him a volume that he described as the records of the council meeting of June 30, 1884, which contained the ousting proceedings.

Mr. Baldwin's right arm sought the ceiling without a moment's delay. "Well—now what?" asked Mr. Poppleton from behind his rapidly redening face.

"We conclude that the door against Colonel Chase," began Mr. Baldwin, "but if the council had no power to take such action, the action can have no legal effect."

Here the court took a hand and asked: "Is your claim, Mr. Baldwin, that the council had no power to remove Chase based on Judge Waleley's decision?"

Mr. Baldwin—No, it is based on the law, but is backed up by Judge Waleley's opinion. "The court—Do you consider Judge Waleley's decision correct?"

Mr. Baldwin—Yes, sir. At least it has never been reversed. "The court—I would like to hear Mr. Poppleton."

Mr. Estelle—One word, your honor. It strikes me there is but one issue in this case, and that is did or did not Colonel Chase refuse to perform the duties of the office of mayor?"

Mr. Poppleton—I had not prepared myself to answer the point raised by Mr. Baldwin. I like Mr. Estelle, so but one point, whether or not Colonel Chase performed the duties of the office of mayor, and I propose to show that if Chase was ousted it was because of the very point I have just named. None of the city councilmen were called into that decision by Judge Waleley's which Mr. Baldwin is continually talking about. That decree was solely and entirely a Patrick Murphy affair.

Judge Clarkson then proceeded to temporarily adjourn the hearing in the manner noted above.

District Court. The trouble in the Coliseum association has broken out again. This time General W. W. Lowe and W. L. Maris bring suit in the county court against M. S. Lindsay for $500, which is alleged to be the balance due on a contract in which Lindsay transferred to Lindsay 100 shares of Coliseum stock for $2,000. Of this amount $1,400 was paid and the suit was brought for the balance. General Lowe has also commenced suit on his account against Lindsay for $375 on three notes.

Ernestus A. Benson has commenced suit against Fred Drexler to recover $418, principal and interest on a real estate mortgage. Meyer Hellman has received Eva Oliver for $700, due on ground rent.

Joseph H. Gallaher et al. have sued E. H. Sheldon to recover $250.56 on a judgment obtained in Iowa.

An Absolute Cure. THE ORIGINAL ALBETINE OINTMENT is only put up in large two-ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for all sores, burns, wounds, chapped hands and all skin eruptions. Will positively cure all kinds of piles. Ask for the ORIGINAL ALBETINE OINTMENT. Sold by Goodman Drug company at 25 cents per box—by mail 30 cents.

UNION PACIFIC PIONEERS. Arranging for an Excursion to Salt Lake City. After the day's work had been finished at the Union Pacific shops yesterday afternoon the "Pioneers," to the number of forty, assembled at the Durant house here to consider the advisability of holding a picnic some time during the present summer. After a lengthy discussion Salt Lake City was decided upon, and the president of the association, T. H. Dailey, instructed to confer with Vice President H. C. Galt for the purpose of making arrangements as to transportation and report at a meeting to be called at some future time.

This organization was organized in 1880 by the employees of the company in Omaha, with a membership of about two hundred, the only requisite to membership being ten years' continuous service in the employ of the company. Since that time the working force at the shops has been reduced, old-timers have died, and others have moved away, so that now there are but about seventy members left. Of the officers T. H. Dailey is president, A. H. Smith secretary, and John Rice treasurer.

It has been years since the association took an excursion, but this year they hope to have one which in the amount of pleasure enjoyed will be sufficient to make up for the summers lost.

None of the veterans were affected by the recent reduction. Bad drainage causes much sickness and bad blood and improper action of the liver and kidneys is bad drainage to the human system, which Burdock Blood Bitters readily cures.

CREIGHTON'S TWELFTH.

A Highly Interesting Closing of the College on the Hill.

The faces of Edward Creighton and his lovely wife, both of whom are now numbered amongst the great and silent majority, smiled down from painted canvass upon the pupils of Creighton college Wednesday night. They were reverently gazed upon, also, by three hundred friends of the institution who had gathered to listen to the exercises of the twelfth annual commencement.

To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Creighton, this college, which has now left the memory of such beginnings as it has begun to achieve things that are greater, owes its existence and the students that come and go, year after year, learn to love and revere the memory of the generous founders.

It was the gala night of the year at the college. Twenty young gentlemen with white society badges sat upon the stage. They were the members of the debating society who were to conduct the principal exercises of the evening and were as follows:

James C. Kinsler, vice president, William E. Barry, John Danahy, Patrick Dolan, Patrick A. Donovan, Maurice Donegan, Bart E. Ford, William P. Flynn, Francis P. Gallagher, Cornelius H. Healy, Francis J. Kennedy, Albert V. Kinsler, Patrick A. McGovern, Patrick E. McKillip, Philip M. McMillan, Charles P. Moriarty, Martin B. Murray, Richard P. O'Connor, James P. O'Connell, Edmund J. Snyder, Francis A. Stockdale.

As many learned professors in black cassocks occupied seats in the front row of the chairs and students in white gowns and caps sat in the rear, the friends of the institution filled the remaining space.

Among the resident clergy present were Fathers Chloka, Colaneri, Moriarty, Molloy, Hillman, S. J., Koopmans, S. J., and Fitzgerald of Fremont.

It was an evening of debate and a most enjoyable evening. The intention of the management being to exhibit a regular meeting of the society, evidenced by musical selections prepared for the occasion.

Resolved, That the Government Should Own the Railroads. Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

The Hoffman orchestra rendered as an overture "The Calliphi Bagdad," most acceptably, and the debate opened with argument by Mr. Patrick McKillip.

The salutary effect that a governmental control of the railroads would have upon the labor situation was the first point to be argued by the speaker. If this great enterprise should be achieved, he said, strikes and lockouts would no longer ensue; but, as the railroad system was now controlled by a few monopolies, competition would not periodically be affected if all shippers could transport their goods at the same rates.

These monopolies, he said, controlled the railroads and other monopolies of trade had already absorbed more than one-half of the resources of the nation, thereby leaving to an equal number of small enterprises, pooling and the other evils that the railroads are said to be heir to were touched upon by the speaker.

Resolved, That the Government Should Own the Railroads. Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Estelle moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

Mr. Poppleton moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds. Mr. Baldwin moved that the affirmative be carried by a majority of two-thirds.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

It Will be Held at Plattsmouth on September 23.

The republican central committee of this congressional district met at Lincoln yesterday to fix a time and place for holding the convention. There were nine members present, J. B. Furay, chairman, representing Douglas county. The object of issuing the call so early, as explained by Mr. Furay, was to let the various counties that feel so disposed kill two birds with one stone; that is, enable one convention to select delegates for both the state and congressional conventions.

In accordance with a resolution introduced by Church Howe and unanimously adopted at a meeting held September 21, 1888, the appointment of delegates was based upon the vote received by Hon. W. J. Connell. As he left the committee no discretion, it determined to give one delegate at large to each county and one for every 150 votes or major fraction thereof received by Mr. Connell. On that basis the apportionment will be:

Table with 3 columns: County, Votes, Delegates. Includes Douglas, Lancaster, Cass, etc.

By a unanimous vote, also, the committee advised that no proxies be admitted to the convention but that the delegates and alternates present be authorized to cast the full vote of each county.

Then followed quite an animated discussion as to the place for holding the convention. A majority seemed to think that it ought to come simultaneous with the various legislative district conventions, consequently September 23 was selected as the date and Plattsmouth as the place.

A Former Omaha Teacher Dead. Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

It Will be Held at Plattsmouth on September 23.

The republican central committee of this congressional district met at Lincoln yesterday to fix a time and place for holding the convention. There were nine members present, J. B. Furay, chairman, representing Douglas county. The object of issuing the call so early, as explained by Mr. Furay, was to let the various counties that feel so disposed kill two birds with one stone; that is, enable one convention to select delegates for both the state and congressional conventions.

In accordance with a resolution introduced by Church Howe and unanimously adopted at a meeting held September 21, 1888, the appointment of delegates was based upon the vote received by Hon. W. J. Connell. As he left the committee no discretion, it determined to give one delegate at large to each county and one for every 150 votes or major fraction thereof received by Mr. Connell. On that basis the apportionment will be:

Table with 3 columns: County, Votes, Delegates. Includes Douglas, Lancaster, Cass, etc.

By a unanimous vote, also, the committee advised that no proxies be admitted to the convention but that the delegates and alternates present be authorized to cast the full vote of each county.

Then followed quite an animated discussion as to the place for holding the convention. A majority seemed to think that it ought to come simultaneous with the various legislative district conventions, consequently September 23 was selected as the date and Plattsmouth as the place.

A Former Omaha Teacher Dead. Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and a year or two later died of pneumonia, until her death, she remained an invalid.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Miss Susan McCowen, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., on the 18th inst. Ten years ago Miss McCowen taught in the Omaha schools and subsequently taught in the deaf and dumb institute. While teaching in this city Miss McCowen fell over a high embankment at 229 Cass street. She sustained serious injuries and in a suit against the city recovered $1,000. She never regained her health, and