

THE OMAHA BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE, NO. 12 PEARL ST. Delivered by Carrier in any part of the City. H. W. TILTON, MANAGER.

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. P. Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal. It required twenty suppers to supply the demand at the police station last evening.

Among the noted flyers now in training at Union driving park is the gray pacing wonder, Ed Rosewater. He was sent a mile Saturday morning in 2:35 and repeated it a little later in 2:27, a two-year-old he reduced the pacing record to 1:30.

Arrangements are being made to give a free racing matinee at Union driving park on the afternoon of the Fourth. There are a number of the owners have consented to start their horses. Several good races will be given and no admission fee charged.

T. J. Freeland languishes in the county jail charged with forgery and embezzlement. He was an agent of the Singer sewing machine Co. and sold a machine to Neal, a saloonkeeper, receiving $5, but instead of turning in the money presented the saloon man a note for the sum due in thirty days.

It looks very much as if the bottom had dropped out of the Sunday shaving fight. The Bershad opened a shop yesterday morning. One warrant was sworn out before Justice Schurz and served by Marshal Templeton, but Fred was not taken.

The travel between this city and Manawa was not unusually heavy yesterday. During the day several hundred people visited the lake, but there was no special attraction. The liveliest scene was on the south side, Odell & Hart.

From now until July 1 we are going to knock all prices down to low prices. We will guarantee to sell you goods cheaper than you ever bought the same quality and money returned. Best quality India chilies, 12 1/2 cents; yard wide, 40 cents; 10 1/2; 2 1/2; cents yard; the quality cannot be duplicated in the city at the price.

Mrs. C. R. Tyler has gone east to spend the summer on the coast. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Armour of Chicago.

Superintendent James Bradley of the mail and freight trains returned yesterday from a thirty days' leave of absence, during which time he visited several eastern cities.

Miss Anna K. Thompson of Fort Smith, Ark., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dr. F. S. Thomsen, on South Eighth street, and will remain here during the summer.

A Few of Our Specials for This Week. Peruse this carefully. Something interesting to almost every family can be found in these columns. Don't fail to come early, as these bargains will not last long.

Kelley Wants to Shout Off. A very much excited individual appeared at the police station yesterday and outrated the officers to hasten to South Madison street and arrest W. Kelley, who had threatened to kill his daughter and commit suicide.

Donsey Bree, 105 Main street, is the only place in town where you can get fresh and delicious confectionery.

SUNDAY NEWS IN THE BLUFFS

Indignant Citizens Insist That Another Census Must Be Taken.

A SERMON FROM THE BAPTIST PULPIT.

William Kelley Swears That He Will Summarily Take This Wile of Tears and Leave His Daughter with Him.

Another census has been demanded. Whether or not it will be secured is a question that will agitate the Bluffs for several days to come. The general sentiment is in favor of making an appeal to Superintendent Porter for permission to ask for a new census.

The speaker introduced his subject by alluding to the magnificent fountain in the park in front of the church. In a few minutes of prophetic description he painted a brilliant picture of the park and its gem. The thoughts of the sermon were: First, the persons to whom this promise is given.

It is generally conceded that Captain Hight conscientiously tried to do his duty, but he was handicapped by an insufficient force of men and material. There were a great many demands for the first few days to be allowed to stop and that what they were constantly wanting to do was to take a full and complete census.

"Why," said a banker yesterday, "keeping the enumeration at work was just like whipping a lazy school boy to make him study. He will study just enough to dodge the whipping, and those enumerators took their own way of doing it."

Said another citizen: "I discovered fifty people in a very small portion of my ward who had not been enumerated, and I gave names to the enumerators. He looked them up and found every one of them and gave them a place on his list."

Sweltering St. Louis. St. Louis, Mo., June 29.—The hot weather which has prevailed for a week past was checked somewhat this afternoon by a heavy shower, which cooled the atmosphere to a considerable extent.

Heavy Rain at Louisville. LEXINGTON, Ky., June 29.—A heavy storm of rain and wind passed over this city this evening. Many houses in the lower portion of the city have their first floors submerged and a number of trees were blown down.
