ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Joseph Haworth will personally look after the production of 'Paul Kauvar' in this city. He will have Mackaye's great play mounted without regard to the expenditure of money. Handsome scenery, new costumes and fine effects will help make "Paul Kauvar" the greatest event of the sesson at Boyd's. The engagement is but for two nights only. Thursday and Friday, and it would be well to secure seats well in advance.

Nervous debility, poor memory, diffidence, sexual weakness, pimples, cured by Dr. Müles' Nervine. Samples free at Kuhn & Co.'s 15th and Douglas.

Holding the Prisoner. Captain Mostyn has a letter from Officer

McKnig of Ottumwa, Ia., asking the authorities to hold the colored man, Clem Davis, whom they have in custody, till requisition pers can be secured. Davis was arrested a suspicious character and is supposed to be the man wanted to answer the charge of npe in Ottomwa. McKaig will be here to-tay to identify the prisoner.

Lays: "I have used it as an accessory in cases of melancholia and nervous debility, and as a pleasant and cooling drink in fevers, and have been very much pleased with it."

Prince Napoleon.

Eugene A. Orr is the name of a demented young farm-hand, brought to the county jail, who imagines himself Prince Napoleon and heir apparent to the imaginary throne of France. He is from Silver City, Ia., and evidently has been a great reader of French history. The Empress Josephine, he says, was a "political nice" of one of his great aunts, but he knows that he is Prince Napoleon notwithstanding.

Allyn-Allen.

At 11 o'clock yesterday Mr. W.C. Allyn and Miss Hattie M. Allen were married in Trinity cathedral by Dean Gardner. Miss E. Mc-Gilvray and James McArdle were the attendants, and only the relatives of the couple were present.

Miss Allen has been connected with the Omaha schools for eight years. Mr. Allyn is a prominent stockman of Lexington, Neb. The couple will be at home in Lexington after July 2. No cards.

Work Night and Day. Three hundred very vigorous kicks on the tax assessment have been registered with the county board of equalization.

It is anticipated that this number will be nearly trebled by July 10, the expiration of time for filing complaints. In case this anticipation is realized it will be necessary for every commissioner on the board to work al-most night and day to dispose of them by the time named in the statute for doing this Commissions on Loans. According to the decision of the supreme court of Minnesota, in the case of Peet vs Sherwood et al, the rights and duties of a broker employed to secure a loan depend upon the same principles which govern the broker who undertakes to find a purchaser of property. He is entitled to his commissions when he has procured a lender ready, willing and able to lend the money upon the authorized terms. On the other hand, the borrower when employing such a broker alvaya does so upon the implied conditions (if there be no express stipulation in respect to the matter) that he has the ability and will make or render to the lender a title free from in-

MOVING DAY.

Some of the Changes Made in Railroad Circles.

The official staff of the St. Joe and Grand Island division was at Union Pacific headquarters yesterday, perfecting arrangements for the taking of control today of the Omaha & Republican Valley line.

All the books and accounts heretofore kept in Superintendent Barr's office go to St. Joe. In the party were General Manager E. Mc Neill, General Freight Agent W. P. Robinson and General Passenger Agent F. L. Lynde. Superintendent Rhodes of the stone department will have his headquarters in Denyer. All the correspondence and accounts belonging thereto have been forwardto that place.

The changes made vesterday created a scene of unusual activity in and about the headquarters. Mr. Dickinson leaves for Baltimore today or tomerrow. His chief clerk, John Lichteberger, has been promised another position here, but the others of the force seek employment else-

Division Superintendent Barr will move his office from the depot today into Dickinson's vacated apartments at headquarters. Mr. Kimball says he thinks they will be ready to attack the old cow shed in about two weeks with force large enough to raze it to the ground in a short time. Arthur Johnson has been given a contract to tear the weather-stained structure down and rebuild it as a freight depot. Just as soon as the necessary tracks can be laid to reach the temporary depot the old shed will be vacated, and when torn down work will be commenced on the
