LINCOLS, Neb., August 2.- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-John R. Clark, one of Lincoln's best known citizens and capitalists, dropped dead while talking to the members of his family on the porch of his elegant residence on Twentieth and F streets, about 8 o'clock this evening.

The deceased was forty-two years old, and leaves a wife and three daughters, all young ladies. He was president of the First National bank, treasurer of the Nebraska stock yards company and secretary of the Journal publishing company, of which he owned a fourth interest. He was a prominent figure in Nebraska financial circles and leaves a fortune of about $500,000. For several years he has suffered with heart disease.

A Hastings Woman Terribly Burned.

HASTINGS, Neb. August 2.- [Special Tele-gram to THE BEE.]-At 10:30 this morning the large frame residence of Frank Taylor, a prominent stock raiser living two miles north of Hastings, was destroyed by fire originating from a gasoline stove explosion. Mrs Taylor was preparing to get dinner when the explosion occurred. In herendeavor to sub-due the flames she was frightfully burned. She was removed to a neighboring house to receive the care of physicians. Her entire body is burned from head to foot and she is suffering intense seony. Frank Taylor is at Nelson, Neb., and has been wired for.

Killed by a Wind Mill.

FREMONT, Neb., August 2.- [Special Tele-gram to THE BEE.]-John Magritz, the seventeen-year-old son of W. H. Magritz, a farmer living two miles east of this city, was fatally injured yesterday afternoon. The boy had gone to the top of a wind mill, which pumps water for the stock, to oil the machinery. While doing this the nill was suddenly vecred by a strong gust of wind. The boy was struck on the head and fearfully cashe Howas found lying on the platform at the top of the tower in an insensible condition from which he never recovered. He was low-ered to the ground by ropes and carried to the house, and died about 5 o'clock last even-

Nance County's Crops Saved.

GENOA, Neb., August 2.-[Special to THE BEE.]-After the terrific hot winds of Sunday, Monday and Tuesday THE BEE correspondent interviewed several prominent farmers from different parts of the county in regard to the effect upon the corn crop and was informed by each and every one that the corn in their respective sections was nearly, if not completely, ruised, and that only a small portion could be redeemed under the most favorable circumstances, and as a matter of news telegraphed it to Tun Ban. Its appearance created a commotion among the real estate dealers in this section and your correspondent has been roasted until he is baked browner than the corn was reported to be. Consequently, that no injustice might be done the county, a trip was taken into the country after the refreshing rain on Thursday and your correspondent is happy to re-port that a large partion of the corn, although somewhat injured, has again lifted its head heavenward and a good crop is assured, and Nance county will not this year break her glorious record of never having a failure of COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Bids for Supplying the Hospital With Furniture Opened.

The county commissioners met in regular adjourned session at 2 o'clock vesterday afternoon, with all the members present. Nearly half an hour was consumed by Clerk Webb in rending the minutes. Bids were then opened for supplying the farniture for the new county hospital. There were three bidders-Dewey & Stone, N. B. Falconer and the Omaha mattress company, The bids were referred to the committee on onstruction to examine and report.

The work of pointing the new structure drew bills from Voss Brothers, D. Hartsen, J. J. Worthy, Sherlock Wagner, Omnha wall paper and paint company and Van Pelt & Co. Commissioner Berlin moved that all bids be rejected and the certified checks be re-turned to the bidders. Mr. O'Keeffe wanted the bids referred to the committee on construction

Mr. Berlin stated that the contractors had gone into court to get their money, and he was opposed to "playing into the hands of the enemy" by expending $2,000 or $3,000 to put the "ornery job" in better looking trim, so that a jury would award the contractors their ow

Mr. O'Keeffe declared that the work had been accepted, and denied that the appear-ance of the building would have any effect on a jury, as everybody knows just how the work was done. OChairman Anderson declared that the OChairman Anderson declared that the work had not been accepted by the superin-tendent, and a wrangle ensued. On a call of ayes and mays, Mr. Corrigan being absent from the room, the vote resulted in a tie. The president declared the motion lest and the matter laid over until the next meeting. The petition of the county superintendent that a warrant for $50 for the institute be drawn was referred to the fluor encouncilities. The protect of E. M. Steinberg against the grading of a road through Rose Hill addition was referred to the committee on roads. It was decided to furnish Justice Roberts a ocket and statute for West Omalia precinct The petition of W. M. Rogers for a reduc ion of assessment and a refund was referred to the judiciary committee, A large number of bills were read and reforred to the proper committees. The report of the finance committee was re ceived and 2,000 copies were ordered printed. A resolution was adopted ordering the grading of Park street from East avenue to the city hmits, the city to do all sewer work. Appropriation sheet No. 75, general fund, amounting to $2,650.63, was passed to its sec ond and third reading, placed upon its pas sage and carried. Appropropriation sheet No. 1 of the road fund, amounting to $9,004,03, was likewise placed upon its third reading and passed.

District Court. John I. Purcupile and Otto Lang do not get along well together. Purcupile came to Omaha about a year ago and engaged in the commission business. Shortly thereafter, he and Lang had some trouble, and the outcome of the whole affair is that the commission man has gone into the district court and asked Lang to pay for a damaged reputation. He commenced his sult yesterday, and in his petition he avers that when he came to Omaha he had a reputation that was unblemished. He then goes on in his petition and sets forth the fact that as soon as Lang dis ished. deClellag, 2h covered this fact he commenced to circulate reports to the effect that he (Purcupile) was a thief, a fraud and a liar. In view of these charges, Purcupite has commenced a suit it ie alleges that it will take $10,000 to repair the injuries to his reputation. Samuel Prayn has commenced suit against Wendal Benson et al to collect a $1,300 note which is secured by a real estate mortgage, John Hoggerty has a mechanic's lien upe the property of Thomas Cunningham, an yesterday he brought suit to foreclose the same.

WASHINGTON, August 2 .- The senate met at 10 o'clock this morning and after the presentation of a number of petitions, Mr. Morrill was granted unlimited leave of absence on account of the condition of his health. The senate joint resolution to permit Jolonel Corbin of the United States army to accept a civil position in the world's Columban commission was reported and passed. The resolution offered yesterday by Mr.

Blair, instructing the committee on rules to report within three days a rule for the incorporation of the previous question or of some method for limiting and closing debate in the parliamentary proceedure of the senate, was taken up. After some debate upon it it was referred to the committee on rules.

The tariff bill was then taken up, the question being upon Mr. Vest's amendment to reduce the duty on decorated china to 50 per cent ad valorem and on plain white uucorated china to 40 per cent instead of 60 d 55 per cent in the house bill, and of 55 and M per cent as proposed by the finance right of way through the city. In the second count in each information the accused are charged with fraudulently, unlawfully and corruptly receiving and accepting a bribe from Michael D. Roche of $50 to corruptly influence their votes on said ordinance. Officer Reardon went to Mr. Rowley's residence and arrested the First ward council-man. Mr. Rowley was released on his prom-ise to appear Monday morning.

THE BEE representative called on Mr. Rowley, who said that he had noth-ing to say at present about the charge. On calling on Mr. Dougherty at his residence the councilman said to Tug BEE representative that he had not heard of the charge be-fore and of course had nothing to say. He scenned surprised, however, that he had not been arrested.
