GOSSIP FRESH AS THE SPRAY. Sayings and Doings of the Omaha People Who Are Taking Their

Summer Outing on the Shores of Spirit Lake. SPIRIT LAKE, Ia., August 7 .- [Special to The Bee, ]-Spirit Lake is as gay this week as any week since the regatta, and the reason is an influx of young men. The "twenty love sick maidens" who spentlast week repairing their rosy cheeks and bright eyes came out this week in full assortment of tennis gowns, stunning Gainsborough hats with modding flowers, picturesque umbrellas and most captivating smiles The storm on Sunday was magnificent. It accurred about 10 a.m. and at 4 p.m. quantities of hailstones still remained heaped in corners of the piazza. The half like the rain fails here on "the just and the unjust" the same as at home, and did not leave the

LITTLE CHAPEL ROUND THE CORNER uninjured. In fact the stained-glass window on the north side was pierced in every pane. Monday morning the sun shone as bright and the lake was as calm as if no wind nor hair had visited the spot. Mr. Joseph Barker of Omaha chartered the Spirit Lake steamer and ok his friends to Omaha beach during the

Monday evening a progressive high five was given in the hotel parlors by Mrs. Br was given in the notel parlors by Mrs. Branch of Omaha. The game was a success. Mrs. Guy C. Barton and Mr. Whitelaw of St. Louis carrying off the first prize. Tuesday evening Mrs. Whitelaw entertained her friends at progressive six-handed cuchre, refreshments being served. Quite an amusing incident occurred during refreshments. A young Englishman, not an invited guest, sauntered into the parlor and perched upon the friendly arm of a fellow countryman's chair. "Perched and sat and nothing more," because he had not been presented to the guests nor invited to the enertainment, and because his fellow Britishe did not feel it incumbent upon himself to pre-

STARED AND LOOKED ENGLISH and finally took his departure much to the relief of his friend. A new game is on the tapis this week. It is called Fiddledewink. Each player has a number of wafers given him, a small round box is placed in the middle of the table, and he who succeeds in popping all of his wafers into the into the box first wins the garne. This and high five form the chief amusements of mamma and papa on the porches while young Annabel fishes with her eyes, sails forth to conquest, or keeps in the swim some way or other. Mr. Joseph Barker is the beau of the highfive table, and may be seen every morning surrounded by

Fred Nye is the hero of the bowling alley. He made a score of 216 this morning, which was just fourteen points ahead of the score made by E. C. Snyder. His face has been wreathed in smiles since and rather indicates an inward satisfaction. At a clock every one bathes. The beach being sandy and the water clear, nothing could be more refreshing. Our Omaha women here take the palm as swimmers and divers. Mr. Joseph Garacau, sr., of St. Louis sits on the beach every day to watch the fair bathers, and in spite of his white head and eighty-two summers, still seems to

Most of the bathing suits are decollete at the heels, but a few vain young women with pretty shoulders cannot resist the temptation to display them, and the bathing suit is abbreviated there also. There are women here with a great deal of embenpoint who ACTUALLY WEAR CORSETS under their suits and swim in them, Imagiae swiming hampered by skirt and corset. It is doubtful if any man here could perform this feat. Right here comes to mind the story of the old maid at Newport, who, when her nice told her to take off her glasses before going into the water answered that she was not going to take off another thing.

"Annie Rooney" is the most popular girl here. No boating or riding party is complete without her, and she is every fellow's sweet-heart, from seven years of age up to the gray heads. It is rather amusing to pick up the books on the plazzas and find what light liter-atureone is compelled to read for want of being near a great metropolis. At the regular meeting of county commis sioners yesterday afternoon bids for grading a county road through sections 11, 12 and 14 were opened, as follows: J. C. Root, 14.9-10 cents; John M. Latason, 1214 cents; Lamoraux, Bros., 12.9-10 cents; H. Hall, 14% cents; Thomas Ryan, 22.9-10 cents; L. O'Keefe, 215 cents. The bids were all referred to the committee on roads. The board took under consideration the question of carrying the George E. Timme back salary matter up to the supreme court. W. R. Vaughan was on hand, and with him he brought a letter. The letter was from County Atterney Mahoney, and it stated that the suit of the Democrat Publishing company vs Douglas county had been dismissed. After this was handed up Mr. Vaughan presented his bill, in which he claimed the county owed him $1,430.49, a balance due for publishing the 1889 tax list. The whole matter was re ferred to the committee on judiciary,
