SOME INTERESTING FIGURES.

THE AMOUNT LIKELY TO BE SHIPPED.

And the Ratio These Amounts Bear to Last Year's Crop-Estimates on the Oats and Corn Yield.

THE REP presents below a statement of corn on hand at rallway stations in Nebraska. the amount likely to be shipped and the ratio these amounts bear to last year's crop. The Fowler elevator company and Mr. William Loudon, grain receivers of Omaha, sent a request for these figures to the shippers in the towns and cities on the lines of the several railroads in Nebraska, and from their responses the following information has been deduced.

The figures relate exclusively to the corn crop and show that there is in farmers hands about 7,000,000 bushels of corn (old crop) of which about 3,500,000 bushels will be shipped

The replicareceived estimate the quantity of oats in farmers' hands to be marketed at about 3,000,000 bushels and of a better quality than last years crop.

The total corn in farmers' hands is 7,000,000 bushels, of which about 3,500,000 will be mar-leted. Answers differ groutly as to probable results to be obtained from this year's corn-erop, but in the districts where drought pre-valed it is reported that where there are the state of the term on hand none will be shipped and in many cases farmers will be competed to buy to supply the home demand. The estimates as to the probable crap of corn this year vary from nothing in some districts or counties to 100 per cent in others The out crop shows 48 per cent of last year's House. Washington, August 15.-After an unsuc essful effort was made to secure the passage of the senate bill granting leaves of absence to per diem employes in the customs service the house proceeded to the consideration of sthe conference report on the Indian appropriation bill.

Mr. Cannon of Illinois criticised the report as being the most extraordinary one which had ever been submitted during his experience in the house. The senate had agreed to amendments aggregating $1,200,000. The house had non-concurred in these amendments. Then this strange thing hap-pened: The conference report carried the pened: The conference report carried the full amount of the bill as it passed the house with the full amount of the senate amend-ments and $12,000 more. The bill created a number of new offices and increased a num ber of salaries.

After considerable debate, in which Mr. Springer moved to recommit the bill to the committee on Indian affairs, the conference eport was agreed to.

The house then resumed consideration of the Nat McKay bill, the question being on its reference to the committee on claims. This was rejected.

Pending further consideration of the Mc Kay bill Mr. Cannon, by ununimous consent called up the senate joint resolution provid ing that the unexpended balance of the ap propriations for the aid of the Mississipp sens in Oklahoma. The amendment provided that the money shall be disbursed under the direction of the secretary of war. The joint days, 50—no quorum.

A call of the house was ordered, but failed to develop a quorum.

Mr. Thomas of Wisconsin offered a resoluion directing the sergeant-at-arms to arrest he absent members.

Mr. Baker of New York created some little excitement by offering a substitute therefor, the resolution reciting an editorial appearing in the New York Sun of this morning upon the declaration of Roger Q. Mills of Texas that "this (Washington) is no place, for a campaign is on," etc. Scarcely had the clerk begun to read the preamble when he was interrupted by pro-tests from both sides of the boose. Mr. Buker declined to accept the speaker's suggestion that he withdraw the resolution, out he finally withdrew the preamble.

In spite of the protests the resolution was It revokes all leaves of absence "except those granted for illness or to Roger Q. Mills and others employed like him in an uneducational company,"

The speaker, disregarding entirely Mr.
Baker's resolution, put the question on Mr.

NIPPED THE DIAMONDS.

Frank Tyler, a Notorious Crook, Arrested by the Police. Officer Ryan captured a yery smooth criminal and dangerous crook yesterday afternoon at the corner of Tenth and Howard streets. The fellow gave the name of Frank Tyler, and was trying to dispose of an elegant pair of diamond earrings. When taken to the station and questioned by Captain Mustyn he stated that his sister was a widow residing at the corner of Fortieth and Hamilton, and the diamonds belonged to her. He said she was in indigent circumstances and had sent him to sell the jewels. When informed that the captain proposed to go out there and see if the story was true, Typer laughed and said he "guessed he neen't go, for he wouldn't find the woman." He then stated that he had just arrived from Denver, and claimed that he found the diamonds in a room in that city. He was stripped and searched, and it was found that his underclothing was marked with the name of Frank Graham. He says he is eighteen years of age, but is apparently about twenty or twenty-one years old. The The earrings are new, and have been worn very little if at all.

POLL WOULDN'T TALK.

An Amusing Suit in Progress in Justice Holmes' Court. A suit is in progress in Justice Holmes' court which is exciting considerable amusement among the friends of the plaintiff.

Herman Schafer keeps a saloon on South Thirteenth street, and he conceived the idea that a talking parrot would be last week; for the corres a fine drawing card and afford his patrons a great deal of amusement. Accordingly be interviewed a local dealer in birds, etc., and was informed by that gentleman that he had just the kind of a bird Mr. Schafer wanted. It was a young bird and had not yet learned the art of talking, but the dealer would guarantee that inside of ten days the bird would be a fluent conver-sationalist in several languages. After considerable talk over the patter Mr. $20.50 in collateral and became the happy nesessor of a beautiful young parrot, warranted o talk in on days, etc. Visions of wealth to be acquired from the many people who would visit his piace to hear his extraordinary blift talk to them in their native language floated efore Mr. Schafer's eyes. Poll was hung in a glided cage in a position where he could hear all that was going on and have every opportunity in the world to acquire a classical education. Day after day passed by, but Poll did not mainfest any dis position to talk. Instead, he maintained i ogged silence. This exasperated the worthy roprietor, but he waited a little longer until patience ceased to be a virtue, ten days had elapsed Mr. : carried the bird back to the carried the bird back to the dealer and turned it over to him with a demand for his money. The bird was put back into his old cage, but the money was not forthcom-ing. Again Mr. Schafer waited, but with no result. Then he commenced suit against pird dealer and demanded the return of money. Justice Holmes wrestled with the case, but withheld his decision.

The Deadly Phylloxera.

Pauls, August 15.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Sad news comes from the wine growing distracts in the neighborhood of Rhimes, where are produced the best wines for champagne. It appears to the dreaded phylloxera has attacked the department of Marne and has already more or less completely invaded the arondissements of Chalons Epernay Sainte Manchoid and Vitry Le-francois. Roche, minister of commerce, has despatched Doutte, a professor of the science of agriculture, who studied phylloxera in the south of France, to the meaned district and instructed him, if necessary, not to hesitate to piace in operation in the layaded locality the rules adopted by the government for stamping out the disease. The greatest consternation prevails in wine growing districts. Telegrams from Berlin amounce that great alarm also provalls in the wine growing local-ties along the Rhine, as phy loxera has made its appearance in that section, notably in the neighborhood of Mayenee, Bisocrick, Rudes-heim, Bingen and other places.

Stole an Overcoat. Ernest Jackson has presided over thecheck from at the Murray hotel for some time, and it seems that he has not neglected to take advantage of his opportunities. It was given out some time ago that he was unlawfully appropriating various articles, but no direct proof was secured until yesterday, when Officer Meals was informed that if he would search Jackson's room be would find some stelen property. The search was made and sure enough the officer found a fine overcoat belonging to a Chicago traveling man named Leghart, which Jackson had and admitted his guilt and also confessed that he had been engaged for some time in the same kind of work. He was locked up, but the value of the stolen property will have to be ascertained before it is determined whother to make the charge grand or petit larceny.

Industries Are Doing Rather Less and the Speculators More.

THE PRICES OF COMMODITIES RISING.

At Omaha Trade is Good and at Ransas City About the Average-Failures for the Past Week.

New York, August 13 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- R. G. Dan & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says the industries are doing rather less and the speculators are doing more-that is, the week's history in brief. The general average of prices of com modities is rapidly rising and has advanced more than 25; per cent during the past week. Wheat has advanced 41; cents with sales of 3,000,000 bushels here, outs Is and corn, having been pushed quite high before the report appeared, has since declined 114 cents on sales of 8,500,000. Pork is 50 cents pe barrel lower, but bors are coming for ward in great numbers and do not advance. The exports of grain are already affected by prices, and flour and corn ship ments are less than half those of the same week last year. Cotton has fallen three-sixtoonths, but is still so high that purchases are limited. Coffee has not changed, and considerable demand for the cheaper grades is reported. Oil has risen 2% c. A heavy decline appears in the weekly output of pig fron, which was 164,70 tons August 1, ngainst 175,724 July 1, and 180,391 June. The decrease is nutributed mainly to the closing of furnaces for repairs, but last year the production increased 8,000 tons from June 1 to August 1, and is is noticed that some southern works, which were to have begun operating two months ago, are still waiting. Prices short little change, though one large southern concern is reported to be cutting liberally.

The demand for finished products is full and well sustained and some forms of plate iron are a little higher. The wool manufacture shows no improvement and many makers express a growing disgust at the scantiness of purchases except for the cheaper imports of goods continue. Coal is very dull and the output still falls below last year. Dry goods jobbers note that southern and by goods probers note that southern and western buyers are more numerous in this market than usual, but white cotton goods are well sold up, the demand for woolens is only fair. The reports from other cities are generally favorable, no complaint being anywhere made as to the volume of current business. Chicago notes that drouth in some localities has affected crops so that burechases will be discipled on the that purchases will be diminished, but the injury is not supposed in commercial circles

There appears in beard of trade figures a marked decrease in receipts of grain and butter compared with last year, with some decrease in decrease in cared means, lard, hides and cattle, and year and collections were never better. At Milwaukee rains are held to have improved crop prospects, St. Paul reports the crop equal to and Minneapolis notes a good lum-ber trade and satisfactory building, though low water restricts the flour output At Omaha trade is good, at Kansas City about the average, at Detroit excellent will

Terrible Double Tragedy. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., August 15.-Telegram to Tue Ben. |- Lust evenling Fred

Newman shot and killed his wife and then suickled with the same weapon. The residents of the north side were sturled about 6 o'clock by a little child at Newman's house screaming that her mother needed help, followed by two shots. The murshal was hastily called and found the doors locked. After looking through the window and seeing two bodies on the bed he broke open the door and entered, where a horrible signt met his eyes.

Lying on the bed, with her head hanging partly off, was Mrs. Newman, with a bullet iole just back of the ear and blood running in pools across the floor. On the same bed lay her husband with a revolver in his hand. He was shot in about the same place: He had apparently shot himself while sitting on the bed and fallen back on the pillow.

Newman was a young man about twenty-two or twenty-three years of age. Mrs. Newman was about thirty-five years old and came here from Texas with a daughter seven years old some time last summer. She was married to Newman in November last. The couple were out at the cemetery in the after noon and Newman made some remark as to how he would like to lie in one of the grayes, indicating a grave that the sexton as dirging. Jealousy is supposed to be the
