No Objection to Everett.

Aldermen Casper, Wood and Smith were discussing yesterday the reported movement in the council to sust Councilman Everett that was given the public under flaring headlines by a couple of papers yester my morning. They all denounced the report as unqualifiedly false, and denied that the matter had even been thought of, much less discussed in the council during the absence of the interested alderman.

"The story was cut out of whole cloth," said Alderman Casper. "I don't think there is a man in the council who would be willing to vote to accept Everett's resignation if it was tendered. Not one of the democratic members have said one word about it to me or any other member that I have heard of and I don't believe the democratic members would go into such a conspiracy when they know it would fail. Alderman Everett will remain president of the council as long as he remains in the council, so far as J am concerned."

"I was just on my way to Everett's office to tell him if he attempted to resign I would vote against accepting his resignation," said Alderman Smith. "I do not know how the town originated Londo Leave here the set story originated; I only know there is no truth in it at all.' "The use of my name in connection with

Poll Tax Collections in Arrears. City Poll Tax Collector McCleran has put in nearly five months of the hardest kind of work in finding and notifying the male citizens of the city who are liable for poll tax. The average citizen, whom the Inw subjects to the penalty of paying $1 a year for the privilege of being called a freeman and exercising the political prerogatives it gives him, is pretty hard to find, and when found he is willing to pay almost any other debt than this one. The new collector has been very active and persistent in his efforts to keep up the extraordinary record established by his predecessor, but the probability is that he will fall short of the $1,005 estimated as collectable. He commenced serving no-tices on April 1, and about three weeks ago he finished this part of the work, having served in all 2,333. The conditions of these notices are that the parties notified must call at the treasurer's office in the city building at the treasurer's office in the city building at the end of thirty days from the receipt of the notice and pay their tax, or report for street duty to work out the tax, which is $2 per man. The collec-tor has been punching the tax pay-ers up with all the vm he could muster, but somehow they won't pay. Out of all the notices served but 305 have been returned with the cash, and 500 taxes worked out upon the street, making in all $1,610 thus far col-lected out of the $1,966 which should be in by lected out of the $1,966 which should be in by the first of next week, at which time the thirty days of grace given in the notices expire with those last served by the collector. After temorrow all these notices will be come void, and the collector will then have to resort to the courts to collect the outstanding tax. This he has determined to do in a systematic manner. He will take in whole blocks where the residents have neglected to pay their tax, and every man who can't show a receipt he will arrest and take into court. He is determined that the law shall not be evaded, and will prosecute the igorously.

EIGHTH WARD DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

L. M. Anderson Endorsed for Re-Election as County Commissioner-Republican Meeting Wednesday Night.

Swedish Anti-Prohibitionists,

The Swedish anti-prohibition club met last night in Green's ball. The meeting was largely attended and quite enthusiastic.

Vigorous speeches were made by Gus An dreen and A. J. Dahlstrom. The gentlemen spoke in the Swedish language and were listened to with marked attention, Mr. Andreen referred to the signal failure of prohibition in Iowa and Kansas, and predicted that a business depression would follow the adoption of the prohibitory amendment in this state. Mr. Dahlstrom is quite an eloquent speaker and he held the audience for more than half as hour while he arraigned the advocates of prohibition and punished them severely, "When you see a man wearing a long black cost, worn around the edges, a plog black cost, worn arcind the edges, a plug hat five years old, and with a weather beaten grip in his hand, you may set him down as a tramp prohibition crater," said Mr. Dahl-strom. "He is imported for the fall cam-paign. He will tell the people about his home and his wife, when the fact of the matter is most of these imported prohibition sneakers have no home. They prohibition speakers have no home. They are a set of trainps, trying to make a few dol-lars by preaching their delusive doctrine to

John Sicele offered a few remarks upon the question. He stated that there was great need of extraordinary effort being put forth in Omala in order to poll every available rote against prohibition, for in his trips through the western part of the state he had ob that the sentiment was very strong in favor of the amendment.

This club is composed exclusively of Sweder and has a membership of nearly six hundred. The books containing the list of names show ot only the full name of every member, the place of residence, so that very effective work may be done through the membership by the distribution of documents, issuing calls, etc.

John Steel was elected vice president in place of John Nordvall, resigned. The club adjourned to rate, in the same place in two weeks from last night.

Eighth Ward Democrats.

The eighth ward democratic club met last night in Schroeder's hall, corner of twentyfourth and Cuming streets. There were about twenty-five of the faithful present, and they proceeded to elect officers for the club. George J. Sternsdorff was elected presi dent, and in a short speech promised the club that be would do all in his power to increase the membership of the democratic host in the Eighth ward. Other officers cleeted were: Matt Usher, vice president: J. P. Connolly, secretary, and A. F. Wolfe, treasurer.

An executive committee was also ap pointed, consisting of Messrs. Peter O'Mai ley, L. M. Anderson, J. E. Burdish, W. E. Hughes and Henry Schröder. Peter O'Malley addressed the club briefly upon the issues of the campaign, and partie plaring with regard to the selection of a suc cessor to Mr. L. M. Anderson as county commissioner at the approaching election. Mr. O'Malley eulogized Mr. Anderson and recommended that the club endorse him for re-election. Several others were also warmly in favor of endor-ing Mr. Anderson. Mr.

Schroder thought the matter had been sprung too soon. He was in favor of Mr. Anderson for re-election, but he thought there should be no burry in the matter of enlorsing him.

A motion to endorse Mr. Anderson was A motion to endorse Mr. Anderson was finally carried without an opposing vote. Mr. Anderson was called upon and thanked the club for the expression of confidence and good will. He promised that if re-elected he would endeavor to discharge the duties of the office of county commissioner honestiy and fearlessly to the best of his ability. Schröder's hall was selected as the regular meeting place of the club, and Saturday night of each week will be the meeting night during the campaign.

The police force are commencing to com-plain bitterly over the number of vagrants and suspicious characters who are arrested and discharged by the police judge upon exand discussion. They claim that among some of the vagrants recently arrested and discharged were some of the most dang roots crooks and barghays that have ever been in the city. Sufficient testimony could not be adduced to show this, but the officers are positive as to the redirects of the men and chang that if there pedigrees of the men, and claim that if they had been enceded a little by the court in the way of a sentence of a few days on the chair sang they would be willing to leave the city before they committed any crimes, but they are still here and cannot be reached until they have done some work. Half a dozen of them are under the surveillance of the officers, who manage to know where they are every hour in the twenty-four.

Under the prohibition law the attorney prosecuting the case is entitled to a fee of at least $25. Frequently cases and settled, and the defendant retiring from business and paying the costs, including the attorney fo allowed to depart in peace. Attorney fee, is representing the law and order league, has been bringing most of the suits. Judge Boulton, while not especially prominent as a prohibitionist, either in theory or practice, has been bringing to four difference of the suits. has brought no few suits against saloon-keepers. Yesterday Attorney Sims filed a batch of thirty-six cases. It is slyly whispercel that Judge Boutton was preparing an almost requally large batch of petitions against the same parties, and the law and order league hearing of his intentions, made haste to get their cases started first. If there was any such race Sims evidently won, for when his petitions were filed none had arrived from Judge Boulton's office.

"The use of my name in connection with the presidency of the council, even if Alder-man Everett was to die or resign, would not be permitted at all," snid Alderman Wood, "There is not a particle of truth in the report. If Alderman Everett should believe the story and tender his resignation I would vote against accepting it. I have been investi-gating it a little, and from all I can learn the story originated in the office of the newspaper that m, blished it first. The first intim I had of it was when one of the attaches of the newspaper came to me and asked why we wanted to bounce Alder-man Everett. It was a surprise to me and I had to call for an explanation. When it was given I assured the gentleman in pretty trong terms that there was no truth in it a all. Such a thing would be without prece-dent and there would have to be some very strong reasons for such a movement before it would be considered. Everett has made a good presiding officer whenever he has been called into the chair, which has not been very often on account of the punctuality of Mayor Macrae. He will remain in the office as long as his term of office as alderman in the office as long as his term of office as alderman lasts, so far as any of the republican members of the council are concerned, and I think too much of my democratic colleagues to believe for a minute that any of them have ever seriously considered such a thing, and you can state that iff just as strong language as you please.7

Did Not Work Against Council Bluffs Life is miserable and the world generally is very unhappy for the Council Bluffs man who has anything to do with any kind of a public gatheving that will bring delegates to a city for an hour or a week and neglects to do everything he can to make Council Bluffs the seat of that gathering. If he should happen to think that some other town affords better facilities for the gathering and says so with his vote when the question of a location comes up for consideration, then misery is added to misery and he is made very unhappy when he returns home, S. S. Keller, L. Blederman and several other gontlemon are defending themselves in the city papers against the criticisims of their fellow estizens for their vote in favor of Omaha at the recent conclave of Oddfellows at Plattsmouth when the location of the next nanual conclave was made. The conclave will be composed of members of the order in Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas, and will comprise about twelve hundred delegates. Both Keller and Biederman opposed the selection of Council Bluffs, and in answer to the question of why he was opposed to having the conclave here, Mr. Keller said :
