TENTH STREET VIADUCT TAX

How It Will Be Assessed Against the Property Benefited.

RULE OF RINGSTERS AT FLORENCE.

Claim of Architect Meyers Against the County and the Disposition Made of the Request to Settle It.

The tax levy for the Tenth street viaduct has been completed by the city engineer. It is the heaviest special tax levy ever prepared in the history of the city. It consists of forty-five large pages of figures, and represents the work of two expert accountants for three weeks.

The compilation shows the tax per front foot as follows: Of Tenth street between Jackson and Farnam, $2; Farnam and Dodge, $1; between Mason and Hickory, $2, and from Hickory south, $1. The rest of the territory runs east of Eleventh street, south of the viaduct and north between Dodge and Jackson and Seventh and Fourteenth streets.

The list contains 1,600 name and descriptions, and the amount of the levy is $35,000.

The tax in that territory in which the amount per front foot is not specified above varies from 9 cents to $1.280 on each lot.

THE FLORENCE GANG.

How the Citizens Propose to Root It Out of Existence.

It was the intention of the Florence council to hold a meeting last evening, but, owing to the absence of Councilman Larson, a postponement was decided upon.

Possibly a special meeting will be called for some time this week, but the chances are that all matters for consideration will go over until next Monday night, when the regular semi-monthly meeting will be held.

Three of the councilmen, Messrs. Larson, Reynolds and Walker, have declared for better law and order, and propose to have it, though some official heads should drop into the basket.

A prominent citizen of Florence who was in the city yesterday said: "The first blow in the way of breaking up the most rotten ring that has ever disgraced any community was struck when Justice Ransom was forced to resign.

"It is common talk that he was standing in with Mayor Tracy, City Attorney Eller and the ring, and an effort to convict law-breakers was worse than useless.

"Marshal Mattox will testify that, of his own knowledge there was an understanding between these three worthies by which, if they were arrested, they should not pay any of the penalties for violating the liquor law.

"So well were they organized, it is said, that Ransom and Eller were to see that the saloon keepers were not prosecuted, but by chance, if a prosecution and conviction was forced upon them, Tracy was to remit the fines.

"The better element of the town is up in arms and it is a fact that the whole outfit must go.

"An attorney has been retained, and should Ransom and Eller fail to hand in their resignations, impeachment charges will be brought against them.

"Thetown is suffering on the account of certain ordinances that should have been passed months ago, but Councilmen Larson, Reynolds and Walker refuse to vote for them as long as the question of their enforcement is to be in the hands of the lawless element which is headed by Tracy, Eller and Ransom."

"Ransom's resignation is now in the hands of Councilman Walker, and will be accepted, and Mr. Cowin, a respectable merchant of the town will no doubt be appointed to fill the vacancy.

"Mayor Tracy scents the danger from afar and has already taken steps towards emigrating. He has locked up his store, packed his goods and shipped them to Omaha. It is predicted that before the next regular meeting of the council his resignation will have reached the hands of some councilman.

"With Eller the case is different. His salary, $60 per month, is too nice a little nest-egg to throw away, and he proposes to hang on until he is deliberately fired. He claims that Larson and Brown are with him and that with their support he cannot be removed. Larson denies this and says he is for law and order.

MEYERS' CLAIMS.

What His Attorneys Claim the County Owes Him.

At the meeting of the board of commissioners last Saturday the attorney for E. E. Meyers, the architect of the new county hospital, presented a communication asking that a committee be appointed to adjust the claim of Mr. Meyers against the county. The communication was ordered on file.

Mr. Meyers' counsel was seen and asked what was claimed by his client. He said:

"Under his contract, Meyers is entitled to an additional $1,000 upon the acceptance of the building, together with 4 per cent on the entire cost and another 4 per cent on all extras that should be allowed. The total amount, therefore, that we claim is, in round numbers, $4,000.

"Now, some time ago, Commissioner O'Keefe claimed that the county had to pay for the making of certain blue plans which he said Mr. Meyers should have executed.

"Even if this be true it would amount to a very small matter compared with our bill. While I remember of Mr. O'Keefe having made this claim on the side, yet I do not know that the board claim anything. What we want is to get together with the board, or a committee representing them, and to settle these claims in private, for I am sure we can do so. I want to get some money out of this thing. After we have settled this then we will turn our attention to the court matter, into which Mr. Meyers has been drawn. And, let me tell you, that when that court matter comes up [referring to the indictments pending against Mr. Meyers] we will give you fellows [members of the press] all the news you want."

A Choice List of Summer Resorts.

In the lake regions of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and the two Dakotas, there are hundreds of charming localities pre-eminently fitted for summer homes. Among the following selected list are names familiar to many of our readers as the perfection of northern summer resorts. Nearly all of the Wisconsin points of interest are within a short distance from Chicago or Milwaukee, and none of them are so far away from the "busy marts of civilization" that they cannot be reached in a few hours of travel, by frequent trains, over the finest road in the northwest—the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway:

Oconomowoc, Wis.	Clear Lake, Iowa.
Minocqua, Wis.	Lake Okoboji, Iowa.
Waukesha, Wis.	Spirit Lake, Iowa.
Pokaywa, Wis.	Frontenac, Minn.
Tamahawk Lakes, Wis.	Lake Minnetonka, Minn.
Lakeside, Wis.	Ortonville, Minn.

MORTUARY.

The funeral of Mrs. Edward Nott took place yesterday from the late residence of the deceased, 916 Pierce street. Services were held in St. Philomena's cathedral, after which the remains were interred in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Nott was the wife of Edward Nott, the well known switchman of the Union Pacific yards, and her death was the culmination of a series of misfortunes which have lately visited that gentleman's family. Mr. Nott himself recently sustained the loss of a limb, and for the last six months his son has been suffering from injuries sustained by being run over by a street car.

The Brotherhood of Switchmen, sympathizing with Mr. Nott in his affliction, turned out in a body at the funeral of his wife.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Plans Submitted for the New Building on the High School Grounds.

Mr. Robinson, Mr. W. V. Morse and others interested in the building of a temporary structure on the high school campus, were on hand last night to labor with the board of education. The gentlemen are very enthusiastic and earnest in their efforts to secure school facilities for the children who reside in the vicinity of the high school.

"We must have a place to send children of the primary grades to school," said Mr. Robinson. "We are not asking for this temporary building on the high school grounds with the thought that the building will remain there for any length of time, for we want to see a fine permanent building there. But we are without school facilities, and this looks to us to be the most practicable at present."

When the board was called to order the first business taken up was a communication from C. W. Bush, who addressed the board in a lengthy protest against his discharge from the position of janitor of the Paul school. The communication was placed on file.

Miss Mary Starr of Beatrice handed in her resignation.

The committee on salaries submitted the following report: Salary of superintendent, $3,000; superintendent of buildings, $1,80; substitute teachers, $60; secretary to clerk of board, $800; teacher of drawing, $1,400; teacher of music, $1,300.

Considerable discussion arose over the salary of the superintendent of buildings. Some of the board seemed to think the salary was too large.

Morris Morrison was not in favor of cutting this salary down, for the reason that the superintendent has to employ two teams and gets paid for only one.

Mr. Babcock was also opposed to cutting the salary of the superintendent of buildings. He said that the board had refused to economize when salaries could have been cut that should have been reduced, and now to make a cut upon the salary of the superintendent of buildings would be very unjust.

Mr. Smyth replied in a very energetic and somewhat sarcastic manner, saying that it was unfair for Mr. Babcock to charge that members of the board were opposed to the cutting of salaries, and that he had been about the only one in favor of economy. Mr. Babcock had been in favor of cutting the salaries of principals in a very unjust manner, giving teachers who had charge of sixteen-room buildings no greater salary than those who have charge of twelve-room buildings. Smyth thought that Babcock should not assume that he was the only economist on the board.

The committee on text books recommended that 200 of Mr. Eller's Art Educators be purchased for the primary department, the rest of the slates not to exceed over 38 cents each. After some discussion the report was adopted.

Mr. Wooley, superintendent of buildings, submitted plans and specifications for an eight-room temporary building to be erected on the high school campus, a short distance west of the high school building, for the accommodation of the primary pupils. The plans were referred to the committee on buildings and property with instructions to submit recommendations at the next meeting. The board then adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening.

DAKOTA TRADE.

How Some of it is Being Directed to Other Towns.

William Russell, a wealthy citizen of Yankton, a ranch owner and big stock dealer, is in the city reviving the erstwhile enthusiasm in the proposed railroad from Omaha to the Jim river valley.

"Omaha capitalists and business men are apparently blind to two facts," said Mr. Russell. "The first of these is that a road to the Jim river valley could be built and put on a paying basis within a year, so great are the resources of that fertile country.

"The second fact which Omaha seems slow to note is that Sioux City is alive to the trade of that country and is getting it. Sioux City is now in touch, by every road that touches Omaha and Sioux City, the Northwestern excepted, discriminates against Omaha and in favor of Sioux City. As an instance of this Milwaukee trains coming to Omaha are held four hours at Sioux City, and rates and all the wires are being pulled for that place. If Omaha wants any of that Dakota trade she'd better begin figuring on it pretty soon."

RELICS OF PRATT.

The Little Rope Which Closed His Murderous Career.

It is somewhat remarkable that few lynchings or legal executions have taken place in this city relics of which have not found their way to this city. The case of Pratt in Blair, whose life was snuffed out by an angry posse of citizens a few days ago, forms no exception to the rule. Lew Hibben is in possession of a photograph of the murderer after he had been placed in his coffin. The latter was placed on end beside the jail wall and the occupant as shot by the camera is anything but handsome.

Mr. Hibben has also the noose which choked out Pratt's life. It is made of three-quarter inch rope and was cut from a small derrick which was used in the erection of a building near the jail. Whoever tied the slip knot must be known in his business, because it may well be doubted if a professional hangman could have done the work more artistically.

What is Your Choice?

Carleton opera company engagement which begins on next Sunday evening at Boyd's opera house will be as follows: Sunday and Wednesday, "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief;" Monday, Wednesday matinee and Friday, "The Brigands;" Tuesday and Saturday matinee, "Nanon;" Thursday, "Ermine;" Saturday, either "The Mikado" or "Dorothy." As both operas are great successes by this company the public will be allowed to say which one shall be given by naming its choice at the box office. Which ever has the majority on next Saturday evening will be selected and the result announced in THE BEE on Sunday morning.

Woes of Melon Shippers.

Superintendent Gilmore of the Missouri Pacific freight yards is fondly hoping for the end of the watermelon season. His life has been made miserable by the complaints of shippers regarding the damaged melons that are found in the cars.

"The boys of this country like watermelons, you know," said Mr. Gilmore yesterday, "and they do not always take the trouble to purchase them in the market, but they watch about the yards when a melon car comes in, and, although they cannot get the melons out of the car whole, they can slip a hand through between the strips, for melons are usually shipped in stock cars, and with a pocket knife they can slice the fruit up into small pieces and take it out. If you go out there in the yard you might see several melons in those cars with the inside carved out of them. These losses are trifling, but the shippers make about as much complaint over the loss of a melon as a stockman would over the loss of a steer, and I shall be glad when we have finished the season."

THROWN FROM THEIR CART.

Two Boys Seriously Injured in a Runaway.

Louis and James Peacock, sons of Mr. John Peacock, who resides at 1009 South Eighteenth street, were out driving last evening with their broncho and dog cart. As they passed down Farnam street near Eighteenth the pony became unmanageable and began to run and kick vigorously. Half a block further on, when the animal was going at full speed, the cart struck a telegraph pole and the two boys were thrown violently to the pavement. They were both very badly stunned, and when carried into the drug store across the street they appeared to be almost lifeless.

James, the younger one of the boys, is blind. He soon regained consciousness, when his injuries were found to be not very serious. The other boy seemed to be suffering from internal injuries. A physician was called and the boys were removed to their home.

An examination showed that Louis, who was vomiting blood quite freely, had three broken ribs and was seriously bruised in other places. His injuries were pronounced by the attending physician as not being dangerous, however, and his speedy recovery will probably follow. Louis Peacock lost his watch in the accident.

Invited a Conflagration.

At 9:30 last night the fire department was called to extinguish a fire smouldering in the basement of Austin's shoe store, at the corner of Thirteenth and Howard streets. There was a great deal of smoke issuing from the basement, and in a short time the building would have been in ruins. The cellar was filled with old boxes and miscellaneous rubbish, and some bitter words passed between the health officer, who examined the premises after the fire was extinguished, and one of the proprietors. The officer claimed that he had ordered the proprietors of the store to clean out their basement long ago, but it was found last night in a very dangerous and shameful condition.

The damage to the building and stock was light.

The following permits were issued by the superintendent of buildings yesterday:

A man giving the name of Herman Roberts was arrested yesterday by Officer Haze on the Sixteenth street viaduct with a sack of shoes on his back. When taken to the station it was discovered that he had five pairs of new shoes, some of them No. 8 and some No. 9. He claimed to have purchased them of a Kansas City traveling man.

BARILLAS SIGNS FOR PEACE.

He Ratifies the Protocol and Ezeta Will Probably Do Likewise.

GUATEMALA (via City of Mexico), August 25.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The plenipotentiaries assembled Saturday for the last time. The party in conference consisted of Mr. Mizner, United States minister; Senor Arellano, minister of Spain; M. Reynaud, minister of France, and the German and Belgian representatives, together with the plenipotentiary of Nicaragua and also that of Costa Rica. In company with Dr. Galendo, official delegate of Salvador, they met at the presidential palace in order to have a conference with President Barillas and his cabinet, to ratify and sign the preliminary of peace which has been in preparation for the last five days. The president received them, and being informed of the object of the call, said he was ready to ratify the agreement, and with his secretary of foreign affairs, Senor Anqueria, signed the protocol. The highly satisfied ministers then dispersed. Today the Asucrian minister, in company with the Spanish minister, will go to Salvador to present the matter to Provisional President Ezeta and request him in the name of the diplomatic body of Central America, for the sake of humanity, to ratify the agreement and conditions as accepted by Guatemala. As the treaty is very honorable to Salvador it is thought there is no doubt of Ezeta's signature and sanction for Salvador. Senor Galendo will go to Salvador with Minister Mizner. The United States steamer Thetis takes them from San Jose. The full text of the proposed treaty will be made public in a day or two.

The Pupil Excelled the Master.

[Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.]

PARIS, August 25.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to THE BEE.]—Mlle. Courbet, sister of the celebrated painter, has discovered the existence of an establishment which has been for some time past turning out canvasses signed Courbet. These forgeries were on the whole admirably done, and were put upon the market by a Brussels dealer, who was supplied principally by two artists, one of whom had been a pupil and close friend of Courbet. This latter has so well succeeded in imitating his master's work that one of his forgeries was accepted for the Paris exhibition last year, while the real Courbet was referred to a jury.

A Great Tunnel Completed.

PORT HURON, Mich., August 25.—The workmen engaged upon the two ends of the St. Clair river tunnel between Port Huron and Sarnia, Ont., shook hands with each other this morning under the St. Clair river and made the great subterranean highway echo with their cheers. This marks the completion of the greatest river tunnel in the world and probably the greatest piece of engineering in this country. It is eleven feet longer than the Brooklyn bridge.

VILAS VERSUS BRAGG.

The Old Democratic Fight in Wisconsin Opened Up Again.

CHICAGO, August 25.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The old Vilas and Bragg factions, which have divided the democracy of Wisconsin for so many years, are at war once more, and this time the contest is a bitter one. General Bragg wishes to be elected to congress again and the Vilas faction is striving to compass his defeat. The present congressman, Charles Barwig of Dodge county wants to be returned. Bragg has his own county, Fond du Lac, and a part of the delegation from Waukesha. Barwig has Dodge and the fight is over Washington. Dodge and Washington together have a bare majority in convention. Barwig doesn't know much about the detail of politics, but he has the help of the Vilas people. Barwig is a distiller and rectifier, and in company with his boys sells any amount of whisky and gin through the county. They run wagons and do the original package act, selling any quantity from a pint to a barrel. Every Barwig wagon is an active electioneering argument against General Bragg. The Barwig boys have taken to the shady roads in out-of-the-way localities and talk to the farmers. They are doing missionary work with the crews that go with the steam threshing machines, and the result will be that the farmers, and the threshers, and the jags, and the Barwig boys will beat him out of the delegation from Washington. It will require a good many packages of corn juice to do the work, but that amounts to nothing to the Barwigs, "pere et fils."

Two Accidents at Arcadia.

ARCADIA, Neb., August 25.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—While a party of young men were bathing near the Arcadia roller mills, A. B. Amison, one of Arcadia's most prominent business men, made a dive from a bridge that crosses the stream into what he supposed was a very deep hole, but which proved to be only about two feet deep. He made a leap of from twelve to fifteen feet and struck his head on solid bottom, causing injuries of the spine which it is feared will prove fatal.

Saturday evening a number of boys were fooling with a loaded shotgun when it was discharged accidentally and the full load of shot struck a boy in the ankle, tearing a hole through the joint. Medical aid was called at once and it was found necessary to amputate the leg. The boy is now doing well. He is a son of J. G. Cory, one of Arcadia's pioneer business men.

Automatic Couplers Demanded.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Representative Caldwell, from the committee on railroads and canals, today reported to the house the bill agreed upon by the committee to compel railroad companies engaged in interstate commerce, within a reasonable time to equip their cars with such safety or automatic safety couplers as will not require trainmen to go between the ends of cars to couple or uncouple them, and with automatic brakes, so that the speed of trains can be controlled by the engineer. The report submitted by the bill points out the fearful loss of life and limb by keeping in use the link and pin couplers and hand brake on freight cars, and says: "From the statistics of railroad accidents of this nature we have the terrible intimation that 20,000 young men in the nation must suffer painful or fatal accidents from these two causes annually.

Oklahoma's Destitute Condition.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Senator Platt, chairman of the committee on territories, today laid a letter before the senate from Secretary Noble transmitting a telegram from Kingfisher, Oklahoma. Secretary Noble says the department has no resources with which to relieve the destitution and therefore it laid the information before congress. The message was signed by representatives of the interior department, who had been sent to investigate the matter.

AN EATING SORE

Henderson, Tex., Aug. 23, 1889.—"For eighteen months I had an eating sore on my tongue. I was treated by the best local physicians, but obtained no relief, the sore gradually growing worse. I concluded finally to try S. S. S., and was entirely cured after using a few bottles. You have my cheerful permission to publish the above statement for the benefit of those similarly afflicted." C. HOUSEHOLD WORDS ALL OVER EUROPE.
VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA
"BEST & GOES FARTHEST."
Now that its manufacturers are drawing the attention of the American public to this first and, ever since its invention, the best of all cocoas, it will soon be appreciated here as well as elsewhere all over the world. All that the manufacturers request is simply one trial, or, still better, a comparative test with whatever other cocoa it may be; then VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA itself will convince every one of its great superiority. It is because of this superiority that the English paper Health, says: "Once tried, always used."
☞ To avoid the evil effects of Tea and Coffee, use constantly VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA, which is a STRENGTHENER of the NERVES and a refreshing and nourishing beverage. [32
