THE CITY.

The bank clearings yesterday amounted to $714,860.97.

Yesterday was pay day at the postoffice. Uncle Sam disbursed between $12,000 and $13,000 among his 185 employes.

O. F. Belles was arrested yesterday for embezzlement. The charge was preferred by the Albright agency, by whom Belles was formerly employed.

William A. Grant, who was recently appointed as a paving inspector, was yesterday assigned to duty on Twentieth street from Vinton to Van Camp avenue.

The applicants for positions as deputy sheriffs during the fair should be at Sheriff Boyd's office at 10 o'clock this morning, when the thirty-five necessary men will be selected and sworn.

A man named William Grain is in jail at Chadron charged with defrauding Musky Robs, an Indian. Deputy Marshall Mercer and United States Attorney Baker leave for Chadron today to attend to the case.

Mrs. Fenn, who was arrested for practicing medicine without the required certificates of registration, appeared with her attorney in police court yesterday and gave bail for her appearance on Saturday, September 6.

The remains of Cornelius Merman, the man who committed suicide last Tuesday, will be interred in Allan's cemetery in McArdle precinct today. The funeral will be from Merman's late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. William Stadleman of this city writes THE BEE a letter denouncing physicians in Plattsmouth who attended his niece recently. He also extols an Omaha doctor whom he claims saved the lady's life. The letter is not published because the average physician has such a loathing for free advertising.

Paul Harrington and Terry Connors were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Kissane and an important discovery followed. They had in their possession ten pocket knives which showed that they belonged to Lambert Brothers of Kearney, Neb., whose store was robbed last Sunday night. The two thieves claimed to be on their way from Washington to New York.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Zanzic, the magical wonder, still draws crowded houses at the Eden Musee. His wonderful tricks of legerdemain perfectly astounds his audiences. Gleason's dog circus is another drawing card. This wonderful troup of dogs seem to comprehend everything that transpires, and their intelligence seems to have no bounds, in fact they do everything but talk. The curio hall is well filled with curiosities. Saturday is children's day in this popular resort, and between 1 and 5 children have free use of reserved seats.

Box-Car Vagrants.

Charles Emmett and Herman Roberts were pulled out of a box-car. They were loaded down with new shoes and were arrested as vagrants. Taken before Judge Helsley at different times, they told conflicting stories and were sent up for twenty days.

Milk License.

The milkmen, under the ordinance recently passed, are required to pay a license of $1 per year for every vehicle. To the ordinance establishing the license an amendment is now pending requiring every person who peddles milk on foot to pay the same amount also.

Motors on Harney.

Motor trains commenced running on Harney street yesterday, and they give an element of life to that thoroughfare which has been sadly wanting since the retirement of the cable cars. The motors run every ten minutes, the termini being Twenty-fourth and California and Harney and Tenth streets.

In Honor of John Boyle O'Reilly.

On next Saturday night there will be a memorial meeting in Royal Arcanum hall in honor of the late poet, editor and patriot, John Boyle O'Reilly. The meeting is called under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and will be addressed by Hon. John Rush and others. The public is invited.

Aged and Absent-Minded

John Francis, an aged man, who has had a varied prison experience, picked up a suit of underwear in front of the Erie clothing house and was arrested. His plea of drunkenness and absent-mindedness secured a postponement of the case.

Lost Their Guns.

Charles and Will Sharpe were before Judge Helsley charged with carrying concealed weapons. They were boys, but wanted to be tough and were walking arsenals. They succeeded in convincing the court that they were not as really as bad men as appearances would indicate and were allowed to depart, their firearms being confiscated for the benefit of the police relief fund.

The system is rendered malarial proof when the blood is kept pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. At this season, all should have this admirable preparation at hand. Malarial poison is harmless when Ayer's Sarsaparilla is used.

The Facts in the Bachman Estate.

STANTON, Neb., August 26.—To the Editor of THE BEE: In your issue of the 22d inst. you publish a report of an interview between a Mrs. Bachman of West Point and District Attorney Baker, that would seem to reflect somewhat on her son-in-law.

In Stanton county, where Mr. John C. Wunner is known, no defense is needed. Mrs. Bachman on her own petition, and after much persuation, induced Mr. Wunner to take the administratorship of the estate of Mr. Bachman, and he is doing the best he can to settle the estate.

This woman has had her case thoroughly investigated by such attorneys as Judge Crawford of West Point, Allen, Robertson & Reed of Madison, Holmes & Hayes of Norfolk, W. W. Young and A. A. Kearney of this place and all have found that Mr. Wunner is doing everything possible for the old lady.

There is not a respectable attorney between Norfolk and Fremont who will listen to her, five minutes.

As to the eighty acres of land the facts are that Mrs. Wunner earned the money that paid for the land. The title was put in her name and rather than have any trouble Mr. and Mrs. Wunner deeded the property to Bachman before he committed suicide rather than live with Mrs. Bachman. Yours for the truth, JOHN A. EHRHARDT.

A Choice List of Summer Resorts.

In the lake regions of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and the two Dakotas, there are hundreds of charming localities preeminently fitted for summer homes. Among the following selected list are names familiar to many of our readers as the perfection of northern summer resorts. Nearly all of the Wisconsin points of interest are within a short distance from Chicago or Milwaukee, and none of them are so far away from the "busy marts of civilization" that they cannot be reached in a few hours of travel, by frequent trains, over the finest road in the northwest—the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway:

Oconomowoc, Wis.	Clear Lake, Iowa.
Minocqua, Wis.	Lake Okoboji, Iowa.
Waukesha, Wis.	Spirit Lake, Iowa.
Polmyra, Wis.	Frontenac, Minn.
Tamahawk Lakes, Wis.	Lake Minnetonka, Minn.
Lakeside, Wis.	Ortonville, Minn.
Kilbourn City, Wis., (Dells of the Wisconsin.)	Prior Lake, Minn., White Bear Lake, Minn.
Beaver Dam, Wis.	Big Stone Lake, Dakota.

OMAHA'S FIRE-LADDIES.

Jack Galligan Says They Can Show Heels to the Chicago Men.

Chief Galligan has returned from Detroit, where he has been in attendance upon the eighteenth annual session of the national association of fire engineers of the United States.

The meeting was attended by 400 fire chiefs, every city of importance in the United States, with the exception of San Francisco, being represented.

"We had a great time," said the chief, "and the entire trip was a continued round of pleasure.

"We were in session five days, during which time we discussed matters pertaining to fire fighting.

"The display by manufacturers was not as large as it has been in former years, and there was but little that was new to the old firemen. In fact I saw nothing that we need except a flexible pipe end. The nozzle-holder is a machine by which a child can hold a pipe if pressure should be turned on.

"The flexible pipe is for working around corners in buildings where men cannot go. I think the commissioners should get one of these, as it would soon pay for itself.

"The last day of our stay we were treated to a ride on the City of Detroit, a fine passenger steamer. We went out to Star island, where Chief Battles of the Detroit fire department gave a fish dinner. Over five thousand plates were laid.

"Omaha was well represented, as Chris Hartman, John A. Creighton, John H. Butler, Charles Smith and Mr. Hall of the water works were present.

"John A. Creighton was elected an honorary member of our organization."

The chief on his return stopped over night in Chicago and was present during the burning of McVicker's theater. In speaking of it, he said:

"I was sound asleep when the alarm was turned in. The hotel where my wife and I were stopping was only two blocks away, and at the first tap of the gong I was out of bed, and, with my clothes in my hands, started to run, not thinking but that I was in Omaha.

"My wife called out and said: 'Jack, where are you going?' That brought me to my senses and I leisurely put on my clothes and walked out.

"They have a great department in Chicago, and at this fire there were twenty-four steamers, six hook-and-ladder companies and four chemicals.

"There were 300 men working, but with all of that they can't beat my boys. They are slow in getting out. My men would have been on the ground in half the time it took the Chicagoans to get to work.

"People in Omaha think I swear, but they should hear those Chicago chiefs. I was standing in an alley watching the men, and it actually made me shudder and turn pale to hear the oaths they used.

"One man came along where I was standing, and supposing I was some fellow who had slipped through the line, commenced swearing at a rate that made me feel faint. I could not stand it, so pulling back the lapel of my coat I showed him my badge. This had the desired effect, and he at once apologized."

The Great Benefit

Which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

A DIPLOMAT.

Prof. R. B. Anderson, ex-Minister to Denmark, Arrives in the City.

Prof. R. B. Anderson, ex-minister to Denmark under Cleveland's administration, and one of the foremost authors and translators of this country, arrived in the city on a brief visit to his old friend City Physician Capen.

Prof. Anderson is a resident of Madison, Wis., where for many years in the university in that state he occupied the chair of Scandinavian language and literature. He is the author of the works entitled "Norse Mythology," "America Not Discovered by Columbus," and a number of others. He is the translator of Bjorn Bjornsen's famous stories, and is rated as one of most eminent Scandinavian scholars of the day. He is a man of ultra positive ideas, and this fact is demonstrated very forcibly when expressing his views on a subject connected with which there is ever so slight a suggestion of political comment.

Ex-Minister Anderson is a democrat and is thoroughly imbued with the old-time as also the more modern doctrine of his party.

He is so warm and grateful an admirer of ex-Postmaster General Vilas that he has dedicated to him what is perhaps the greatest work of his life. He is also a most ardent admirer of Cleveland.

He sees in the reciprocity policy of Mr. Blaine little to recommend. Personally, however, he finds very much to admire in the present secretary of state.

Bright, capable and industrious, this man of letters and diplomatic reputation finds in the affairs today of national importance many things which he hopes yet to assist in changing for the better, as he believes.

This is his first visit to Omaha and for what he finds here he has only words of the warmest commendation.

M. L. Blair, alderman 5th ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '83. He had used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

ON THE RAIL.

Some Men Are Promoted and Some Asked to Retire.

C. A. Starr, formerly private secretary of the late Mr. Warrack when he was assistant general freight agent of the Union Pacific, has been appointed traveling freight agent of the Union Pacific, with headquarters at Cincinnati, and will leave for his new field of work at once. He will report to the general agent of the Union Pacific at Cincinnati, Mr. J. D. Welsh.

E. H. Wood, assistant general freight agent of the Union Pacific, returned yesterday after a month's absence. He has been attending freight meetings and looking after freight business at various points on the company's territory.

Mr. McAllister of the Union Pacific land department will have charge of the excursion of the National farmers' congress to Denver. The train will be a handsome one and every preparation has been made for the accommodation of 200 excursionists.

Official announcement has just been made of the appointment of E. McNeil as general manager of the Pacific division of the Union Pacific, vice C. J. Smith, resigned. W. P. Robinson, jr., freight agent at St. Joe, succeeds Mr. McNeil as superintendent of the St. Joe & Grand Island division.

C. B. Moore & Co. have been appointed wholesale agents for the celebrated waters of Excelsior Springs, Missouri.

A Graduate in Disgrace.

Ed Coleman was arrested as a suspicious character. Under the name of Murray he was sent to the penitentiary two years ago for highway robbery. When he was arraigned before Judge Helsley the fact of his having been a convict was recited. In reply Coleman gave the court quite a talk.

"I have been a convict," he said, "but I left the prison with good resolutions and am trying to live and lead an honest life. I have deported myself as a gentleman, and I claim that there was no provocation at all for my arrest. I have been a gentleman and can be again. I am a graduate of the college at Notre Dame, Indiana, and am trying to break away from the associates who led me into trouble that sent me to prison."

Under the promise that he would leave the city at once Coleman was released.

Slashed With a Razor.

A colored woman named Mrs. Riley filed a complaint in the police court charging John Harris, a colored man, with an assault with intent to kill.

The complaint was the result of a row Wednesday night.

Mrs. Riley was visited at home in North Omaha by Harris, who demanded his supper, which she furnished. He then wanted her to get a can of beer for him. This she refused to do, and Harris attempted to carry away a lot of her clothing. When the woman interfered Harris drew a razor and made a vicious assault upon her. One slash laid the flesh of the woman's right arm open to the bone and another cut her clothing and made a dangerous wound in her breast. Her screams brought assistance and Harris was driven away. He went to South Omaha and was arrested by Marshal Maloney. He will be brought to Omaha for trial. Harris is employed in one of the packing houses.

PRATT, THE MURDERER.

He was Known by Miss Town only as a Common Farm Hand.

In THE BEE's first report of the wanton murder of Farmer Town of Kennard, and the shooting of Miss Hattie Town by the fiend, Pratt, our correspondent stated that the murderer had a few years ago made love to Miss Town, who had rejected him. This was given as a possible motive for the atrocious crime, as none other could be even imagined by the neighbors of the unfortunate family. The publication elicited several denials, which were given space in THE BEE. Wednesday the following letter was received from Mr. Harry M. Town, a son of the murdered man.

KENNARD, August 27.—To the Editor of THE BEE: The statements regarding my sister are all entirely false.

The differences were between my father and Pratt individually. My sister did not even recognize him, it being four years last May that he worked for father, only staying one month and fourteen days; in fact, none of us knew him, being here so short a time and leaving so suddenly, going we knew not whither and neither seeing nor hearing of him since.

Pratt could not have known father himself, because sister Hattie heard him (Pratt) ask father: "Is this Mr. Town?" Father answered: "Yes." These were the only words exchanged. Respectfully,

HARRY N. TOWN.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Republican Club Reorganized.

Pursuant to a published call by Captain Hart, president of the old republican club, the leading republicans of South Omaha met Wednesday night at Blum's hall and reorganized by electing officers as follows: President, Colonel E. P. Savage; first vice president, Captain J. E. Hart; second vice president, Dan Condon; secretary, J. B. Erion; treasurer, W. S. Cook.

After the election of officers, the new club appointed an executive committee of five, one member from each ward and one at large, as follows: First ward, D. B. Waugh; Second ward, Patrick Traynor; Third ward, William McCreath; Fourth ward, Robert Funston; at large, Dan McGuckin. Committee on speakers and entertainment, J. H. Vandusen, Joseph Kuncl and Dan McGuckin.

D. McGucken, Mark Boukal and Nels Peterson were appointed a committee to assist foreigners in securing naturalization papers.

The following preamble was adopted and signed by nineteen voters:

We, the undersigned, hereby enroll ourselves as members of a political organization to be known as the "South Omaha republican club," endorsing the platform adopted by the last republican convention, and pledging ourselves to vote and work for the election of the entire republican ticket.

After arranging for a grand rally to be held at Blum's hall on Friday evening, September 5, the meeting adjourned to that date. Before adjourning the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, It has come to the knowledge of members of the republican club that a certain party who was recently honored with a place on the county central committee has used that position as a means of soliciting and collecting funds ostensibly for campaign purposes; therefore,

Resolved, That we denounce such disreputable action, and hereby announce that the executive committee of this club alone has authority to solicit or collect funds for the republican campaign in this city.

D. B. Waugh, Pat Traynor, William McCreath, Robert Funston and D. McGuckin are the duly authorized committee.

Democratic Meeting.

Local democrats turned out in force Wednesday and filled Rowley's hall to arrange for the big democratic meeting in Blum's opera house Saturday evening when W. J. Bryan will speak.

A committee on arrangements consisting of Messrs. James H. Lowry, Charles Harrigan, C. M. Hunt and Thomas E. Foley were appointed.

Messrs. James H. Lowry, Judge J. Levy, James H. Fleming, Robert Parks, Judge Joseph J. Breen and Warner A. Root were appointed a reception committee.

The Saturday night meeting promises to be one of the largest political gatherings ever held in the city.

The Record Broken.

Shipments of packing products from this point have been very heavy of late and last Monday the Armour-Cudahy packing company broke all records by shipping sixty-four carloads. From Saturday last to Wednesday inclusive that house shipped 232 carloads, or an average of forty-eight carloads per day, including Sunday. As it requires between two and three cars of live stock to make a car of product, one may realize the immense business which is being done at this point.

In Memory of J. B. O'Reilly.

A memorial meeting will be held in honor of the late John Boyle O'Reilly in St. Agnes' hall, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Hon. M. V. Gannon, John C. Shea, John Rush and others will deliver addresses. As Sunday will be the 200th anniversary of the siege of Limerick, "the city of the violated treaty," it is expected that fine and interesting speeches will be made.

Fell and Broke his Arm.

Jacob, aged eight years, son of Jacob Bechtel of the Third ward, while at play, fell and fractured his right arm.

Notes About the City.

Manager W. N. Babcock is having two switch tracks laid south of the old unloading chutes.

Michael Lanahan carried away some wood from William Martin's place and Judge Ring fined Michael $2 and costs.

Mrs. Breen, wife of Judge Joseph J. Breen is seriously ill.

Ole Oleson, who has been sick with typhoid fever, has recovered.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ely died Wednesday forenoon.

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs Martin Walker.

Agent Charles N. Broderick of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad announces that his line is in working order, and that stock and perishable freight will be received.

An infant son of Mrs. Libby Moore died Wednesday morning and was buried in Laurel Hill cemetery yesterday afternoon.

As a Rule,

It is best not to attempt to remedy costiveness by the use of saline or drastic purgatives. When a cathartic medicine is needed, the most prompt and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. Their effect is to restore the regular action of the bowels, without weakening them. Being sugar-coated, these Pills retain their medicinal virtues for a long time, and are easy to take.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"In 1858, by the advice of a friend, I began the use of Ayer's Pills as a remedy for biliousness, constipation, high fevers, and colds. They served me better than anything I had previously tried, and I have used them in attacks of that sort ever since."—H. W. Hersh, Judsonia, Ark.
