HAS THE SOLDIER BEEN SWINDLED? To the Editor of The Bee: I noticed the cross-fiber resulting from your silver war greenback paper. Don't you think you were a little out of your mind when you said...

clearly that a proper regard for the interests of the farmers demanded that this be done. He stated, and the truth of the statement will not be questioned, that the entire business is governed by a combination of rail, or substantially all, of the manufacturers of cordage and binding twine—a combination which exists both for the purpose of buying the raw material, which absolutely controls...

tion of court will not be selected for several days, the county commissioners are besieged by a swarm of would-be jurors, who look upon the position as a soft job. Their ideas of the grave responsibilities involved are circumscribed by the salary of two dollars a day. The time is ripe for reform in the selection of jurors. Every man who has asked for an intimation of a desire to serve should be rigidly excluded. An honest administration of the law cannot be had if incompetents and mercenaries are permitted to sit in judgment on issues involving the vital interests of litigants.
