Sheriff Boyd is sending out notices broadcast over the country offering $50 re-ward for the arrest of P. C. Johnson, the confidence man who broke out of the county jail on the night of August 31. The following description is given: "Height five feet, eleven inches; about forty years old; weight about 150 pounds; full dark brown beard. When in juil wore dark brown Prince Albert coat and black soft hat."

Is He a Vagrant?

Thomas Martin and Jim Duffy were each given twenty days in the county jail for vagrancy. Duffy has, for some time, had a standing plea that he was not a vagrant be-cause his mother runs a boarding house. The court thought differently. Martin had sev-eral skeleton keys in his possession, and was charged with carrying burglar's tools, but Harness Thieves.

James Russel and M. Barker were arrested by Detectives Dempsey and Savage at Orchard Hill charged with harness stealing. It is claimed they make a practice of picking good harness, taking them art and mixing their parts with others of a different make so as to render it difficult to recognize them. They then sell the harness to some innocent purchaser.

Littletick Suspects.

George Allen and Alf Cornett have been arrested onsuspicion of being connected with the murder of Ole Littletick last Saturday night. They will be held to see if either of them can be identified as the mysterious stranger who was seen to leave the saloon at Sixth and Pacific streets on the night of the murder and follow Littletick when the latter was last seen alive.

Both men were seen by parties who had seen the murdered man late Saturday sight, and it was claimed that they were not the parties suspected of the crime.

District Court.

John Daval has entered suit for $20,000 against the Omaha street railway company. The plaintiff says that on March 19 last he was riding horseback along Twenty-fourth street and was ran into by an electric motor car. He was thrown violently upon the pavement, sustaining a fracture of the skull and spine which has incapacitated him from working at his trade, that of carpenter, for life, and has finally resulted in his being sent to the insane asylum. Hansen A. Darner has sued M. S. Bartlett, Fred Sonnenschein and Kimball Valentine, and in his petition he alleges the defendants and in his petition he alleges the defendants owe him $316.60 upon a premissory note that was due on the 20th of last January.

M. S. Barilett is the plaintiff and Hanson Darner is the defendant in a law sult. Bartlett alleges that he is a trader by profession, and, as such, Damer last July employed him to trade a $20,000 stock of dry goods, located in the town of Thurman, for Omahareal estate. A few days later he found a customer who would make the deal, but Darner would not trade. It view of this fact Bartlett has now sued for his commission, which he alleges is 1525.

The Council Committee on Sewers Ascertain Whyit Was Done. The council committee on sewerage met the board of public works vesterday to investigate the declination of the latter to approve the bond of Ed Walsh for constructing the North Omaha sewer, the contract involving some $40,000. City Attorney Poppleton was present and did most of the questioning for the committee, while Mr. Walsh had counsel present

The investigation opened by Mr. Klerstead explaining the rejection of the bond by reason of the board's considering some of the bondsmen as not responsible, and while others, he said, had declined to remain on the bond, as already published several times in these columns.

Ex-Sheriff Coburn was the first man questioned. He had gone on the bond in the first place is good faith, but owing to having been "bothered" by Walsh afterward, asking him whether he "intended to stick," he had asked that his name be taken off. When asked whether he would now go on Walsh's ed Mr. Coburn returned a very emphatic

Mr. Kierstead and Chairman Birkhauser told the committee low Chris Specht, another of the bondsmen, had sent the board a written request to have his name withdrawn from the bond. They also explained that Mr. Timme, a third tendsman, had done the same thing. At one time during the session Mr. Popple-ton asked Chairman Birkhauser whether it was the custom of the board to permit the signer of a bond to estimate his own recorces or worth. Mr. Birkhauser answered in the negative.

Mr. Poppleton then asked whether a bondsman was obliged to certify as to his bebondsman was obliged to certify as to his being worth the amount which he qualified for.
Mr. Birkhauser answered that he was not.
Aftermore cross-questioning, Walsh was asked to make his statement, and proceeded to do so, telling the same story that has already appeared in the papers. His recital of the frequency with which he was told that he had better getan additional bondsman evoked considerable laughter. He claimed that he had his bond perfected within three days after the blank reached his hands, and days after the blank reached his hands, and had presented it to the board.

Mr. Furay made a statement. "Knowing

"Ole Olson," a comedy based on the life of a Swedish emigrant in America, and which is said to be very amusing, will be the attraction at Boyd's opera house on Sunday eventure. The statement of the Walsh is a bank-rupt, that a little $3 judgment obtained before Lee Helsley by a neighbor of mine retrains unpund and can't be collected; knowing and can't be colle bid was signed by another man. Dan Condon, and knowing much more, I could not approve the bond, the board could not approve it. We told Mr. Walsh that for this large and important contract we must insist on a giltedge' bond. After he had handed in the bond containing the names that have been mentioned, and we had heard this and that about these men wanting to pull off the bond, we told him he should take a new blank and get the names anew, and that would show us how much there was in these suspicious ru-mers, reports, etc. He didn't do it, notwithmors, reports, etc. He didn't do it, notwith-standing the fact we waited an additional ten-or tweive days. All I've got to say then about this matter is that if this board of public works should take every regtail, bobtail and devil that comes along and wants to go on a bond, we would be in a bottomics pit of distress all the time?

all the time." Secretary Balcombe of the board answered various questions as to his communicating to Walsh the wishes of the board. Coursel for Walsh made a speech about Walsh's intentions being good and honorable.

Mr. Poppleton said that it was the duty of the board to weed out unreliable contractors, and he thought it was the duty of the council to uphold the action of the board of public

"Well, now!" exclaimed Walsh, "I want to tell Mr. Poppleton right here to his face that Walsh has always done his work well!" "Yes, you have," rejoined Mr. Poppleton. "Yes, you have done your work well! disgraceful county hospital job shows that you have always done your work well, don't it?"

Mr. Walsh replied: "The best evidence of what kind of work I did on that county hospital is the fact that it was accepted by the board of county commissioners and approved by an expert."

"Yes," said Mr. Poppleton, "approved by an expert, by Meyers, a man who is under indictment, now.
"Oh," retorted Walsh, "that's all right for you totalk that way here for effect!"
"I he effect will take care of itself, I guess," replied Mr. Poppleton.

At this point Frank L. Reeves came in and Chairman Birkhauser exclaimed: "Here's Reeves! Let's find out whether he ever offered Walsh $500 to withdraw from this contract, as Walsh said he did in the news-

Mr. Reeves stepped within the circle and entered a very craphatic denial that he had ever asked Walsh to throw up the contract, also that had he offered him $500 or even a penny to do so.
This concluded the investigation and the

The committee withdrew.

The members of the board remained long enough to approve C. E. Fanning & Co.'s bond for building the sewer which had been taken away from Walsh. It bore the signatures of Victor Caldwell and Byron Reed.

Walsh's hid was $10, 12 per light foot the Walsh's bid was $10.12 per lineal foot, the next lowest bid was that of F. L. Reeves, On readvertising, the contract was let to Fanning & Co., at $10.45 per foot.

The Omaha Shot and Lead Company Builds a New Tower.

A ramor has been in circulation, mainly in the east, to the effect that the sixteen shot tower companies of the country have formed a trust and that under the agreement they surrender their individual existence, cancel their capital stocks and are merged into the trustat avaluation placed by an appraising committee, which has just completed its labors. The title of the new jorganization it is said is the American Shot association, with a capital of $3,000,000, incorporated under the laws of Illinois with headquarters at Chicago. All the plants will be bought outright for stock in the new association. The officers are: President, John Farrell, Pittsburg; secretary, E. W. Lowe; treasurer, E. A. Leroy, New York.
Inquiry was made at the office of the Northwestern shot and lead company of tais city as regards the rumor, but no information regarding it could be obtained. It was stated that Mr. F. B. Lawrence, the president of the company, had gone to Chicago, but it was not thought that his visit had been occasioned by a call to consider the trust question. The Omaha institution, it was stated, had a number of eastern capitalists among its stockholders, one of whom was Mr. Blatchford of the Chicago shot-tower.

The home company has been doing a prosperous business for some years, having commenced on a small capital. Recently, it is stated, it became a part of a combination which permitted it to sell at Chicago prices, thus readering it impossible for Chicago houses to sell in this territory without adding the cost of freight to their prices. It will knock the members of the council and the citizens silly when they hear what it is, as I have heard it today. And oh how it will griat the five or six men to whom I offered the position of dog-catcher before I gave it to Pulaski. I have just been given an idea of the figures for the first time. It is now very plain to me why Pulaski has allowed himself to be cursed up hill and down by everybody and the newspapers in particular for his bold raids upon the camine doment of the town! Why, sir, you never would have thought it for a minute, but the fact is that during the six moaths Pulaski has been in office as dog catcher he but the fact is that during the six moaths Pulaski has been in office as dog catcher he has made about $3,000. JURORS MUST EAT.

Marshal Slaughter Endeavoring to Ascertain How to Pay for the Food. United States Marshal Slaughter has returned from an eartern trip in which he combined business and pleasure. Speaking of his bill against the government for meals farnished jurors, which has been referred to at length in the Washington news of THE BEE, Mr. Shaughter said he was not the only marshal who had cause to complain. In fact all the United States marshals were in the same boat, but he was the first to put in his bill and get a ruling on it.

The law governing the fees of marshals was changed about two years ago, but the change had been overlooked by the department. As the law new stands, it provides that "the marshal shall receive remuneration from the government upon an order of the court, in cases where the United States is a party to the suit." The change consisted of inserting

"What is the remedy?"
"The appropriation committee will take steps to have the law changed, and it will be necessary to pass a deficiency bill to reimburse the marshals. "Last year," concluded the marshal, "there was not a case, in which the government was a party, where the jury remained out over meal time."
