

THE OMAHA BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE, NO. 12 PEARL ST.

Delivered by Carrier in any part of the City.
H. W. TILTON, MANAGER.
TELEPHONE:
Business Office, No. 41
Night Editor, No. 23.

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. P. Co.
Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal.
There were 300 excursionists from Neola at Lake Manawa yesterday. They spent a very pleasant day.

The interior work on the new Grand hotel will be commenced next week. A. L. T. Landon was the first Presbyterian church entertained a large number of their friends at a social held in the parlors of the church last evening.

A brief term of the superior court will be held today, and Judge McGee will render a number of decisions in cases that have been under advisement for some time.

Charles Nicholson is wearing a fine red leather dress suit which was presented to him by that great friend of the freedom, E. B. Chandler of the Gannett fire alarm company.

The old three-quarter spring wagon that was fixed up by the boys of No. 3 several years ago as a sort of jaunting car for pleasure trips to the lake, is being used as a horse wagon to take the place of the broken relic.

The official board of the Broadway Methodist church has about decided upon securing the Masonic temple for holding their meetings until the new church is finished. They are afraid that Hughes hall will be too small.

The Model baseball club will not go to Blair tomorrow but will play a game at Manawa instead. Their opponents will be the Omaha Braves. The ball game will be played at Manawa tomorrow.

The boys of No. 4 have company but a fine one from their school. They are at the hotel at John N. Baldwin's on Wednesday. It is a department car and easily identified, and the boys will not be able to make any other distinction of it than that it is a school car, which will receive the devoted thanks of the boys.

Lewis Hammer recovered his stolen horse last evening. The animal was found about seven miles from Council Bluffs, and the rider, who had been left by some person who had apparently ridden it very hard, and the animal had been taken by a farmer, and when found was without rider, saddle or bridle.

Mr. S. B. Wadsworth has purchased the magnificent painting of Fairmount park that attracted so much attention on exhibition during Chapman's art display last spring and in the windows of the Fountain glass store, where an art exhibition is now being held. The picture is a reproduction of the painting by Mr. H. B. Rogers of Lincoln. Mr. Wadsworth has a large collection of the works of this artist, but the Fairmount picture is his highest of all, and has placed it in his office.

The boy choir of St. Paul's church will resume its duties tomorrow and will take the place of the quartette choir which has given such satisfaction during the summer months. It is much to be regretted that a regular quartette cannot be engaged to assist the boys in the higher class of anthem music.

The pastor of St. Paul's church will deliver his sermon tomorrow, and he will then deliver his annual address on the needs and condition of the church, and other matters of great interest to his hearers.

Lewis Hammer, the dealer in Missouri Valley trying to get some trace of a miserable thief who slipped into his barn after midnight last night and stole his good natured old family horse which would never leave him. The thief was a regular old stable and ridden away. Following the tracks Mr. Hammer was able to trace the thief out to the Council City road and took the early train for the Valley in the hope of finding him at that place. The animal is an iron gray, six years old, weighs about one thousand and fifty pounds, and is a good natured old horse. When running his lower lip drops unusually.

There was a little trouble yesterday and the evening preceding between Mrs. George H. Mescheder and Mrs. S. E. Missetead, a dressmaker, who lives on the same floor with her. The latter had used some abusive language to Mrs. Mescheder's daughter, and was called to account for it. Her manner did not please Mrs. Missetead and she had arrested on the charge of assault and battery. The case was called for hearing in the court last evening and Mrs. Mescheder was discharged and the costs taxed against her. Mrs. Mescheder has filed an information against the other woman, charging her with profane and abusive language to her daughter, which constitutes a breach of the peace.

Last evening Mr. F. W. Neal, the great sportsman and his wife were walking in Hayes park, accompanied by one of the gentlemen's water sports. When the fountain was reached the dog plunged into the basin and was having a big time. Mr. Neal thought it would be a lesson to him, and he knew that such conduct was a violation of the city ordinances. He called him out and took a little scolding, and was administered a slight chastisement, when he was assaulted by "Reddy" Ross, the well known sprinter. The latter, without restraining words, jumped upon him with his feet and seriously injured him. Ross was arrested for assault and battery and will have a hearing this morning.

BOS ON STORE.

A Few Specialties to Be Found There This Week.

Some kind of interest to every lady is to be found at the Boston Store. The store is a little early to talk of fall goods yet, but we have a few specialties that won't last in the way of the fall goods. This week only, 50 pieces 35-inch, all-wool, dark stripes and mixtures at 35c, worth 50c; 100 pieces 35-inch, all-wool, dark, 35c, worth 50c; 100 pieces 35-inch, all-wool, dark, 35c, worth 50c.

We show the finest line of gentlemen's neckwear and our half line in the city. The best 25c and 50c neckties in the market; 25c dozen gentlemen's white shirts, prices 25c, 30c and 35c; complete line of night shirts from 50c up.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Arthur Luchow left Thursday to visit various places in Colorado.

Mrs. A. B. Wilkes of Kansas City is in the city, the guest of Mrs. J. T. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilson of the Ben Ben last evening for a few days' visit in their old home at Janesville, Wis.

Klancy Smith, now of New York, was in the city yesterday and was greeted most cordially by the boys of the city. He is now twenty years ago, at which time he was the manager of the Western Union. He took a drive about the city with Mr. J. E. Stevens, and after a short stay he will leave for New York. Mr. Smith occupies a very responsible position with Western Union.

Prof. D. W. McDevitt has been tendered the position of superintendent of the institution for the deaf and dumb at Winnipeg, Manitoba. The position is a very desirable one in many respects, and he has concluded to accept it. He will leave for Winnipeg with his family in about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McDevitt have been here for about eight years, and taught in an Ontario institution for six years before that. He is remembered as a very kind and generous man. During his years here he has not only been highly esteemed by those associated with him in the school, but in social and business circles many friends who regret the parting. He will take with him some kindly wishes, and friends here will watch for the success which will surely come to him in his new field of labor.

Just at east, we are going to quit handling garden hose, and have doubtly the largest stock in the city. To close out we will sell all grades of garden hose at 50c per coil, C. H. P. and O. company, Nos. 1 and 3, Masonic temple.

New fall goods just received at Belter's, merchant tailor, 30 Broadway.

J. C. Tipton, real estate, 327 Broadway.

THE NEWS IN THE BLUFFS.

Reuben T. Beebe, an Old Citizen, Supposed to Have Wandered Off and Perished.

TALKS ABOUT TAXES AND FINANCE.

The Situation of the School Board—Muddle—Hurt in a Runaway—Personal—General Notes—About the City.

A few days ago there were notices published in the local papers making inquiries concerning Mr. R. T. Beebe, an old resident of this city, who had been missing nearly two months.

Mr. Beebe, a native of New York, was a member of the American Express company in this city. The notice which was published by his wife stated that he had been in poor health for some time and the indications pointed to the loss of reasoning powers.

Inquiry revealed the fact that Mr. Beebe had left home and for several days nothing was heard of his disappearance, as it was supposed he had gone to visit relatives at Beckett in Harrison county. As time rolled on, his family concluded to write to that place, and they were very much surprised by a visit from Mr. Beebe of that place, who stated he had not seen or heard of his brother for some time.

It was found that Mr. Beebe had gone to the Valley and from there had started from Beckett in a stagecoach, not having his brother's name, and he had been left there. None of them thought anything was wrong with their passenger. From that time on, nothing was heard of him.

It has been learned that when Mr. Beebe left his home at Friday morning he went to the hotel at Chicago and Chicago and left company. There he boarded the express car of an outgoing train and went to Missouri Valley with the express.

At Missouri Valley he stopped over to visit a brother, R. W. Beebe, who resides there. He passed a few hours with his brother, and then returned to the hotel. He seemed bright and his mind was apparently clear during the time he was in their company. Arriving at Beckett, he was demonstrated by the fact that as they drew up to the front gate of the residence of the missing man's brother, Mr. Beebe, he was asked to get out of the wagon, and the driver parties drove off, supposing of course that he was all right. But not so. The man had been entirely bewitched and turning around walked away from his brother's house, and since then he has not been heard of.

Mr. H. Beebe went to Missouri Valley and Beckett yesterday for the purpose of making a search, and it was expected that he would return on the 10 o'clock train with some tidings of the missing man. He is a man about forty years of age, of average size, and has a wife and two or three children in this city.

First-class dressmaking by Miss Wallace, over Catterline's bank.

A good horse red free with every 100 feet of hose purchased at 15c.

Slightly Lower Taxes.

"The taxes for 1890 will be a little bit lower than last year, and they are not as low as I would like to see them. The finance committee, and especially Alderman Lacy, felt very much disappointed when they found it would be impossible to make the promised reduction. When the condition of the various funds had been first glanced at and the needs of the city considered, the finance committee assured that a reduction of at least 10 cents could be made from the levy of 1889. But after the committee got through with the work they found that they could not make the reductions promised. It was expected that the judgment fund could be cut down 5 mills, but it was found to be impossible to reduce it, and 4 mills was provided for the greatest contingency. It was possible to make a slight reduction in the bridge fund, but there were some other funds where an increase was imperative. After all the needs for the year had been provided for it was found that there could only be a reduction of 1 mill in the levy of 1889, when it was 31 mills for all city, park and school taxes. This is a small reduction, and will make the taxes for the year a trifle less than last year.

To think the financial showing of City Treasurer Kitchin and the recommendations he made at the last meeting of the city council deserved more attention than they received at the hands of the council, the treasurer recommended the creation of a sinking fund to pay the principal of the funded debt as the bonds become payable. The statement was that the total amount of the bonded indebtedness of the city is now $850,000. The bonds run at 6 percent per annum. At the end of twenty years, therefore, from the date when these bonds were issued the city will have to pay $1,000,000. The treasurer suggested that it would be a good idea to create a sinking fund of $67,500. The treasurer argues that this is too small a fund to get them out of the way. The city has due it will have paid at the end of twenty years the sum of $600,000 in interest. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The payment of the bonds is optional after ten years, and a large amount of them will be paid off. The sinking fund would amount to 10 percent of the principal, and he is in favor of shutting it off by paying every year a portion of the principal. The council will have to get them out of the way. The