RUSHING OUT THE FAIR.

Words Are Empty, Weak and Tame, and Can't Express the Slaughter of Stock.

The Reality Exceeds the Most Vivid Imagination—Dry Goods Thrown Out as if Money Were Diet—Brandeis is Selling Out.

DEEPER CUTS, BIGGER CROWDS. J. L. BRANDEIS & SON GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

The closing and selling out of "The Fair" is the most remarkable event in business circles. Ordinary stocks and stores have been sold out with little or but passing interest by the public. The immense amount involved, fully

HALF A MILLION DOLLARS. And the really astonishingly low figures, make the Fair the all-absorbing topic of the day. There is not a department in the whole establishment that is not crowded by eager buyers from early morning to late at night. There is no question of a single article dragging on account of its price. Anything and everything from garret to cellar, from one end of the block to the other, has been marked down far below even the actual cost of manufacture.

The various staples—linens, muslins and flannels, that are as good as gold, and not affected by the seasons, even these prices are cut almost in two. But the greatest cuts, reductions and mark-downs are to be found in the 5000 departments of DRESS GOODS, CLOAKS, CLOTHING, SHOES, MILLINERY. For example, all our 7c and 8c unbleached Canton flannels now go at 4c a yard. Our heaviest grades of 16c and 18c unbleached flannels now go at 10c a yard. Our fine white wool shaker flannels go at 15c a yard. Our 25c wool flannel in solid white, red and blue and shirting stripes go at 15c a yard. Our 35c and 40c grade all wool heavy twilled flannels, in plain colors, indigo blue and stripes go at 25c a yard.

Our dress goods stock is going fast, but we still have a good assortment of black and colored goods. We expect to make a big hole in this department the coming week, as we have still further reduced the prices.

WINTER GOODS MUST GO NOW. Such goods as ladies' and children's yarn mitts, fascinators and toboggans are being sold at about 1/2 their value.

Children's nice 1 1/2 yard mitts now go at 4c. Mitts that were 25c now go at 10c.

Fascinators that sold for 75c now go for 25c.

Toboggans cap almost any way.

Yarns that were 10c a skein now go at 4c. Those 25c ones are now 9c. Those that were even 40c a skein go for 9c also. It would surprise you to see how fast the ladies are buying their cloaks, but as they are all new goods, and as they are this fall's trade, it is no wonder why you can buy a $20 real seal plush 42-inch sack at $13.50, and a fine cloth Newmarket worth from $10 to $15 for $5. So it goes all along the line.

The show was started to close out yesterday, to astonish everyone. People seemed to be buying enough shoes for themselves and family to last them for years. But they could not invest their money in any better way, for every pair we are now selling is guaranteed to be worth twice the money.

Come tomorrow if you can, if not, some other day; but come soon for this is near the end of "THE FAIR."
