

THE OMAHA BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE, NO. 12 PEARL ST. Delivered by Carrier in any part of the city. H. W. TILTON, MANAGER. TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 41. Night Editor, No. 23.

THE NEWS IN THE BUFFS.

A Citizen Contributes Some Opinions on the School Board Controversy. WHAT THE FARMERS' CONGRESS IS. Dr. Phelps Talks of the B auties of Old Age—More Ponton Talk—Chautauqua Secretaryship—News Notes and Personal.

HAZARD REACTION.

N. Y. P. Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co. coal. Miss K. C. Holt returned yesterday morning from New York City.

The anti-Red club will meet at the headquarters at 7:30 this evening.

Deputy Marshal Boswick is doing special detective work for the Union Pacific.

The democratic club of the Sixth ward will meet tomorrow evening at the office of W. W. Conner.

The special cars occupied by a crowd of hunters and pleasure seekers from Boston went west over the Union Pacific yesterday.

Corn is reported to be very scarce in the city markets and is commanding the highest prices that it has reached during the past ten years.

The funeral of Mrs. A. W. Coffman of Avoca occurred at that place yesterday. Her sudden death is a great blow to her husband and friends.

The school club went to Missouri Valley yesterday. The boys report the roads in excellent condition and pronounce the trip a delightful one.

The piece of plastic work and modern style of decorating in the city is the work that C. J. Gillette has just finished in the opera house.

Every member of the team to work the thirtieth degree, A. A. S. R., is called to meet for work this (Monday) evening at the cathedral. By order of J. J. Steadman, illustrious commander.

The Models went to Fremont, Neb., yesterday and were beaten by a club picked up at that place for the purpose. It is intimated that the Fremont club contained some first class professional players.

A new paper has made its appearance in this city. It is called the Wasp. It is an advertising sheet exclusively and will be printed once a week. Mr. A. B. Cline, one of the defendants in the case, is the proprietor.

Farwell sermons were preached in all the Methodist churches in the city last night. The ministers leave this morning to attend the conference, and none of them know whether they will be returned or not.

Charles T. Lovell, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. W. Lovell, died at the family residence, 286 Lincoln avenue, yesterday morning. The funeral will take place from the house this afternoon.

There were many fishing and boating parties at Lake Manawa yesterday. The wind was too light to make good sailing, but it was a good day for fishing, and some fine strings were brought into town in the evening.

It will require two days more to finish taking the evidence in the Whittlessey divorce case. The defendant expects to be in court this afternoon on the stand to deny and have the case go into the hands of the unhappy life she leads with her husband.

Charles White and J. C. Day were arrested by Deputy Marshal Boswick yesterday, charged with stealing brass boxings from Union Pacific freight cars. They were taken to the city jail and will appear in court this morning.

All hope of finding R. T. Beebe, who has been missing for several weeks, has been abandoned and the search parties have discontinued their efforts to find him. His friends believe he has fallen into the river and carried many miles away by the current.

The country and the woods drew the crowds yesterday, and even the parks were comparatively deserted. There were thousands of people from the city strolling through the woods around town, enjoying the glories of the first autumn days and in gathering nuts.

The electric motor company has a force of men at work on the line to the driving park. The work will be completed and the trains running by the time the October races commence. When this time is finished the foot of horse car track in the city will have disappeared.

The barber, Barnett, who escaped from Officer White's street gang last week and left the city, returned yesterday morning and was promptly gathered in. He held a long personal conference with Judge McGee yesterday, but his case was not announced. His case will be disposed of this morning at the 7 o'clock session of the police court.

Rev. Dr. Phelps, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has engaged Edward Wright, the well known evangelist, to make verbal reports of his sermons. Dr. Phelps speaks without notes and does not write out his text, but he is able to keep his sermons in and compelled to call to aid the services of a first class stenographer.

Mrs. Hunter, a woman from Sioux Falls, S. D., is in the city with her daughter, who left her several days ago and is supposed to have come in this direction. The daughter is afflicted mentally and the mother is nearly distracted over the matter, enjoying the love she has been enticed away by some evilly disposed man. She did not succeed in obtaining any trace of her in this city.

Rev. D. C. Franklin preached the farewell sermons yesterday. There was a very large attendance at the morning hour, and he held a very interesting conference with the members of the church. He is going to this city, taking for his text, "Come unto me all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest." He referred to the almost certain fact that he is being returned by the bishop and earnestly hoped that a greater and a better man would be sent to give better satisfaction and to push the work of the church along faster than he had been able to do. In the evening he spoke with special reference to the work of the Army of the Republic and their kindred associations. The Ladies' relief corps met at the army headquarters and marched to the church in a body.

The board of education meets tonight, and the probability of a very strong session is great. The three members who are determined to force the resignation of the superintendent will meet the board, and whatever they propose will meet the opposition of the other three members. The plans of attack and defense have been carefully matured, and the board is expected to have a very interesting session. During the night, will have a decision that they are able to force the resignation of the superintendent. Wells, Schoontgen & Hunter by simply stopping with their opposition anything they may propose. Both sides will be equipped with lawyers skilled in all the quips and quibbles of the profession, and it is certain they will be able to force the resignation of the superintendent. The audience that will be able to get into the circular chamber in the Washington avenue building.

The Manhattan sporting headquarters, 418 Broadway.

Buy your lumber of The Judd & Wells Co., 818 Broadway.

J. C. Bixby, steam heating, sanitary engineer, 948 L. building, Omaha; 203 Merriam block, Council Bluffs.

The Chautauqua Secretaryship. At the close of the Chautauqua assembly last summer the directors and stockholders held a meeting and decided not to re-elect Secretary Harkness, but to elect a new secretary.

The plan was to divide up the work among the members of the board, which would save the amount of the secretary's salary and add but a trifle more to the duties of the officers when the work was evenly divided. But there is some doubt expressed now as to whether such a course is a growing probability that the association will reconsider the matter and elect a secretary before the work for another year commences.

This action will be hastened by the departure of Prof. McNeill, who was one of the hardest workers in the association. During the last assembly he was an intelligent and indefatigable worker, and he will be sadly missed next year.

Scott house, nice rooms, clean beds, fare equal to the best, $1 per day. Special low rates to regular customers. 22 and 24 N. Main st., Council Bluffs.

New fall goods just received at Reiter's, merchant tailor, 913 Broadway.

WHAT THE FARMERS' CONGRESS IS.

Dr. Phelps Talks of the B auties of Old Age—More Ponton Talk—Chautauqua Secretaryship—News Notes and Personal.

To the Editor of THE BEE: The charges against Dr. McNaughton published in the Sunday issue of THE BEE are of the most vague and flimsy character. The people certainly expected, after such a storm of threats and threatened charges, that when the end came McNaughton and Schoontgen would either acknowledge their error or be able to produce some good reason for their position in this conflict. The article is not deserving of the name of charges, and to me it seems nothing but an expression of the personal whims of Members Wells and Schoontgen.

Seven years of successful supervision of our schools and his repeated statements in relation plainly shows that the charge of incompetency is simply a ridiculous pretext for his discharge. There is no doubt that Dr. McNaughton is ready to refute the charges, but can they be impartially tried under existing circumstances?

What would you think, Mr. Editor, of submitting the question to a jury, two of whom had already rendered their verdict in favor of the defendant, and the other two to prosecute you, and to persecute you? A few days ago there was a case of Wright & Baldwin in the Nonpareil wherein they expressly state that they are not to be persecuted. Schoontgen is a fair play! What must the fair minded people of Council Bluffs think of a mock trial at that place for the purpose. It is intimated that the Fremont club contained some first class professional players.

The Models went to Fremont, Neb., yesterday and were beaten by a club picked up at that place for the purpose. It is intimated that the Fremont club contained some first class professional players.

A new paper has made its appearance in this city. It is called the Wasp. It is an advertising sheet exclusively and will be printed once a week. Mr. A. B. Cline, one of the defendants in the case, is the proprietor.

Farwell sermons were preached in all the Methodist churches in the city last night. The ministers leave this morning to attend the conference, and none of them know whether they will be returned or not.

Charles T. Lovell, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. W. Lovell, died at the family residence, 286 Lincoln avenue, yesterday morning. The funeral will take place from the house this afternoon.

There were many fishing and boating parties at Lake Manawa yesterday. The wind was too light to make good sailing, but it was a good day for fishing, and some fine strings were brought into town in the evening.

It will require two days more to finish taking the evidence in the Whittlessey divorce case. The defendant expects to be in court this afternoon on the stand to deny and have the case go into the hands of the unhappy life she leads with her husband.

Charles White and J. C. Day were arrested by Deputy Marshal Boswick yesterday, charged with stealing brass boxings from Union Pacific freight cars. They were taken to the city jail and will appear in court this morning.

All hope of finding R. T. Beebe, who has been missing for several weeks, has been abandoned and the search parties have discontinued their efforts to find him. His friends believe he has fallen into the river and carried many miles away by the current.

The country and the woods drew the crowds yesterday, and even the parks were comparatively deserted. There were thousands of people from the city strolling through the woods around town, enjoying the glories of the first autumn days and in gathering nuts.

The electric motor company has a force of men at work on the line to the driving park. The work will be completed and the trains running by the time the October races commence. When this time is finished the foot of horse car track in the city will have disappeared.

The barber, Barnett, who escaped from Officer White's street gang last week and left the city, returned yesterday morning and was promptly gathered in. He held a long personal conference with Judge McGee yesterday, but his case was not announced. His case will be disposed of this morning at the 7 o'clock session of the police court.

Rev. Dr. Phelps, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has engaged Edward Wright, the well known evangelist, to make verbal reports of his sermons. Dr. Phelps speaks without notes and does not write out his text, but he is able to keep his sermons in and compelled to call to aid the services of a first class stenographer.

Mrs. Hunter, a woman from Sioux Falls, S. D., is in the city with her daughter, who left her several days ago and is supposed to have come in this direction. The daughter is afflicted mentally and the mother is nearly distracted over the matter, enjoying the love she has been enticed away by some evilly disposed man. She did not succeed in obtaining any trace of her in this city.

Rev. D. C. Franklin preached the farewell sermons yesterday. There was a very large attendance at the morning hour, and he held a very interesting conference with the members of the church. He is going to this city, taking for his text, "Come unto me all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest." He referred to the almost certain fact that he is being returned by the bishop and earnestly hoped that a greater and a better man would be sent to give better satisfaction and to push the work of the church along faster than he had been able to do. In the evening he spoke with special reference to the work of the Army of the Republic and their kindred associations. The Ladies' relief corps met at the army headquarters and marched to the church in a body.

The board of education meets tonight, and the probability of a very strong session is great. The three members who are determined to force the resignation of the superintendent will meet the board, and whatever they propose will meet the opposition of the other three members. The plans of attack and defense have been carefully matured, and the board is expected to have a very interesting session. During the night, will have a decision that they are able to force the resignation of the superintendent. Wells, Schoontgen & Hunter by simply stopping with their opposition anything they may propose. Both sides will be equipped with lawyers skilled in all the quips and quibbles of the profession, and it is certain they will be able to force the resignation of the superintendent. The audience that will be able to get into the circular chamber in the Washington avenue building.

The Manhattan sporting headquarters, 418 Broadway.

Buy your lumber of The Judd & Wells Co., 818 Broadway.

J. C. Bixby, steam heating, sanitary engineer, 948 L. building, Omaha; 203 Merriam block, Council Bluffs.

The Chautauqua Secretaryship. At the close of the Chautauqua assembly last summer the directors and stockholders held a meeting and decided not to re-elect Secretary Harkness, but to elect a new secretary.

The plan was to divide up the work among the members of the board, which would save the amount of the secretary's salary and add but a trifle more to the duties of the officers when the work was evenly divided. But there is some doubt expressed now as to whether such a course is a growing probability that the association will reconsider the matter and elect a secretary before the work for another year commences.

This action will be hastened by the departure of Prof. McNeill, who was one of the hardest workers in the association. During the last assembly he was an intelligent and indefatigable worker, and he will be sadly missed next year.

Scott house, nice rooms, clean beds, fare equal to the best, $1 per day. Special low rates to regular customers. 22 and 24 N. Main st., Council Bluffs.

New fall goods just received at Reiter's, merchant tailor, 913 Broadway.

HOW JOCKEYS ARE TRAINED.

Methods in Use for Reducing the Weight of Riders. "HARD SWEATING" AND ITS FINAL RESULT. Some of the Best Known Jockeys and the Amount of Flesh They Will Pull Off Before They are Proper Form for a Race.

HOW JOCKEYS ARE TRAINED.

I have been very much interested in the methods of training adopted by men who are engaged in athletic sports and callings of various sorts. Many curious facts have come under my notice in a rambling way, but I doubt if anything is of more interest to a casual man than the manner in which jockeys reduce their weight in order to ride at the number of pounds prescribed for them on the race-tracks, writes Blakely Hall in Frank Leslie's.

Any man who has frequented the Russian baths in New York has doubtless observed at times the small, attenuated, and sometimes skinny figures that recline in the hottest corners of the Turkish room, or soak with melancholy determination on the hottest of the hot, and they take away no notice of their surroundings, but it is to be noted that the bath attendants treat them with elaborate and almost absurd respect. Once in a while a bather comes in who sits off at a distance and gazes at the bathers with an interest at one of the skinny little men or boys. This particular bather is in all probability a racing man, and he feels the keen admiration which all race-goers accord to a successful jockey. We understand that the bath attendants endeavor to insure a better lot of youngsters than the turf boys take today. The boys have not, as a rule, a just and proper notion of what they owe to the public or to the jockey, and they are not at all scrupulous in their methods. They are known as the winter tracks, that the boys have grown careless in some instances and criminal in others. There is one quality, however, which I admire in all of them, and that is their tremendous perseverance and pluck. I have known a jockey to go into a Russian bath in the morning after taking a particularly rigorous course of medicine, with the extreme heat of the establishment until he had lost four or five pounds in weight. The boys have not, as a rule, a just and proper notion of what they owe to the public or to the jockey, and they are not at all scrupulous in their methods. They are known as the winter tracks, that the boys have grown careless in some instances and criminal in others. There is one quality, however, which I admire in all of them, and that is their tremendous perseverance and pluck. I have known a jockey to go into a Russian bath in the morning after taking a particularly rigorous course of medicine, with the extreme heat of the establishment until he had lost four or five pounds in weight. The boys have not, as a rule, a just and proper notion of what they owe to the public or to the jockey, and they are not at all scrupulous in their methods. They are known as the winter tracks, that the boys have grown careless in some instances and criminal in others. There is one quality, however, which I admire in all of them, and that is their tremendous perseverance and pluck. I have known a jockey to go into a Russian bath in the morning after taking a particularly rigorous course of medicine, with the extreme heat of the establishment until he had lost four or five pounds in weight.

I remember one instance when Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have seen Garrison, who is, I think, in the opinion of most race-goers, the most intelligent, plucky, and wide-awake jockey in the country, had lost eight pounds in twelve hours in a Russian bath, and he was out evening until 6 the following morning. I have never heard of any other jockey taking such a course of self-torture as this. I have not gone into the Turkish baths, but I have