The Schwab Habeas Corpas.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29 .- Judge Gresham this morning took up the application for a writ of habeas corpus for the release from the penitentiary of Michael Schwab, the anarchist, who was sent to Joliet for life. Attorney-General Hunt filed a special demurrer, setting forth that the allegations in the petition were insufficient to warrant the granting of the prayer. Schwab's attorney asked for time to examine the demurrer and the court gave him until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

It is a mistaken idea that our prison popuation is drawn almost entirely from the ignorant classes; 1,243 of our inmates had a common school education, 13 had an academic sducation, 6 a collegiate education, leaving nly 120 uneducated. It is also a mistaken idea that criminals are
