Fairfield Herald, the only paper in the county ticket, has just returned from Red Cloud, where he went to look up McKeighan's record. In an interview today he admitted that the charges against McKeighan were substantially correct but had an excuse for each one and said that the Herald would continue to shout for McKeighan. "Why," said Mr. Oliver, "I interviewed at least a dozen men in Red Cloud who hold unpaid bills repring from 30 to 81, 200 against the judge ranging from $10 to $1,200 against the judge ranging from $10 to $1,200 against the plage and every one of them is enthusiastically in favor of his election." To an outsider it does not seem strange that they should be, as his election offers the only possible chance of collecting the debts against him.

Secretary Rusk at Grand Island. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Sept. 30. - Special Telegram to THE BRE. |-Hon. Jeremiah Rusk, secretary of agriculture, accompanied by Professor Wiley, chief chemist of the department, George H. Hill, Mr. Ladow private secretary, Hon. John M. Thurston and Vice President Holcomb of the Union Pacific, arrived here this morning. At 9 o'clock they paid a visit to the Oxnard beetsugar factory, this being the main object of Mr. Rusk's visit to Nebraska. All were greatly surprised at the magnitude of the enterprise and the enormous amount of machinery contained in the factory. Professor Wiley, who has visited all the large sugar factories in Europe, said it was the largest and most complete of the kind he had ever visited. They also visited several beet farms in the vicinity and Secretary Rusk said his only regret was that it was not a Wisconsin enterprise. He ex-pressed great confidence in its success and renounced a recent alleged interview pubpronounced a resent ance in every lished in an Omaha paper as false in every particular and wished to be quoted as saying this in justice to Mr. Oxnard himself and the deleast for the industry. FOR THE RELIEF OF IRELAND.

An Appeal to American People for Contributions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 .- The Sun temorrow will publish an appeal to the people of America from the American committee for the rerief of the famine in Ireland. It says the point of actual suffering from hunger has not been reached, but the days of starvation unless help comes are not far off. In the last great famine in 1878-79 Parnell, Davitt and others who voiced the country's appeal for food pledged themselves never again to appear as supplicants before the world on behalf of starving Ireland. So no appeal has been sent out and probably none would come from that source until the situation became desperate, and it became no less than crimfinal any longer to withhold it. A movement is on foot among well known men not connected with any Irish societies or political bodies to bring to the attention of America the appalling calamity which now threatens Ireland beforeactual death from hunger claims any victims. It has been decided to organize under the name of the American com for the relief of the famine in Ireland. proposed to make its work cover both North and South America. At the Exposition. Notwithstanding the strong counter-attrac-

Barnum's show offered ! was yet another great crowd at the exposition, which may be attributed in a great measure to the matchless musical attraction the management has secured in Miss Alice Raymond, the lady cornetist. She was accorded a most cordial reception and as a consequence was at her very best. She charmed everybody, not alone by reason of her incomparable execution but by her charms of person and carriage as well. All her renditions were marked by a simplicity and strength seldom heard—never before, ir fact, in a female performer on this difficult astrument-and by a power and knowledge of the cornet that is admirable. She was recalled again and again and again and greeted frequently with sincerely hearty and well merited appluase. Goodcor-net players are a rarity even among men, and a woman who can master the art and has a winsome face is quite certain to succeed in a city full of lovers of good music.

Trouble Again Imminent Between the Board of Health and the City Council-New Registrars Appointed.

The difficulty between the board of health and the city council was opened up again at the council meeting last night. City Physician Gapen presented a communication calling attention to the prevalence of diphtheria in the city. He showed that there were twenty-one deaths from this contagion in August, and that eighty-three cases had been reported in September. He urged the co-operation of the council in furnishing funds for stamping out the contagions.

Dr. Gapen asked the privilege of making a statement to the council. This was granted, and Dr. Gapen began by stating that there were some matters upon which the board of health and the council did not agree. Atthis point City Attorney Poppleton asked ermission to offer a suggestion. He said that it was a matter of general notoriety that Dr. Gapen and Mr. Wheeler had antagonized each other in the conduct of matters pertaining to the board of health, and that as Mr. Wheeler was absent it would be much better if Dr. Gapen would postpone any statement he had to make until Mr. Wheeler could be

Mr. Lowry seconded Mr. Poppleton's suggestion. "There has been too much sanitary law here now," said Mr. Lowry. "The busi-ness is being prostituted by the city's agents," and Mr. Lowry cited several instances in which property owners had been charged exorbitant prices for sanitary work.
On motion of Mr. Bechel the entire matter was laid over for one week, and Dr. Gapen withdrew.

Mayor Cushing returned a veto with the ordinance granting to the Nebraska telephone company the right to lay conduits and place its wires under ground. The mayor held that the ordinance granted a too sweeping franchise; that the city should have use for its own wires in the conduits free of original cost; that the term of the franchise should be made less than fifty years as provided in the proposed ordinance. The vet was sustained, the ordinance reconsidered and referred to the committee on judiciary.
