To Colored Voters. OMARA, Oct. 28.-To the Editor of THE Bat: Through your widely circulating me diam, I would like to call the attention of the voters of my race in Omaha to some vital facts, in connection with the coming election All of the negro voters ought to register, and then next to vote, and vote for their own good as the white man does. For the last ten year as the white man does. For the last her years in the ward (Third) in which I have lived one-fourth fully of the legal negro voters have not voted. Now, election day is the only time in Omaha that a negro is the white man's equal. At the ballot-box we ought to vote and work for those on the legislative licket who are willing to give the negregistic. negrojustice. The negrodoes not ask the white man to take him to his home and let him set and sleep with him. What he asks is for equal rights in public places. The ne-gro from 1775 to the present time has always been found true and loyal. He fought to help free the colonies from British oppression; in '61 to save the union and thereby acquire his own freedom. Now as he is free give him a fair show. Vote for the men who will reme-dy the now faulty givil rights bill in the state by the now tainly eiver rights but in the state constitution. As the law is no conviction can be had, then the punishment is too small. We should have a law so that a complaint can be brought and tried before any fair minded judge-we have had some and have some a noo. The democrat judge in Omna is as fair as his eventhic an advergence. The bloom I we save republican colleague. The Hon J. W. Savage once told mo he would deny a negro no right guaranteed him under the law. Vote against guaranteed him under the law. Vote against prohibition, for if it carries the negro as a people will starve. All that the majority of the negro men does in the line of work is per-ter work, what can he do with the business

THE RAILROAD BUDGES President Adams Returns from His Tour of Inspection.

Charles Francis Adams, accompanied by Chief of Construction Cameron, arrived in the city yesterday morning and are registered at the Millard.

President Adams was in close consultation with the Union Pacific officials all day and was not accessible to newspaper men. From indirect sources, however, it was learned that the president is very well satis-fied indeed with the condition of the affairs of the road as observed by him during the past two weeks

The traffic of the system has grown enor mously during the past year and the company has been unable to provide rolling stock sufficient to properly care for its business.

sufficient to properly care for its business. This defect is being rapidly remedied, how-ever, and the prospects for future business is exceptionally bright. Mr. Adams spent a few days at Denver, arriving there just as General Manager Meck had succeeded in winning a victory over the striking switchmen in the Denver yards. The Denver business is now in graduate dama and Gonzel Manager in excellent shape, and General Manager Mosk is reported to have been warmly com-mended by the president for his management of the strike. Mr. Adams then made an extended tour over the Fort Worth branch, and speat some days looking after the matter of branch shops which the company propeses to erect at Union Pacific Bridge at Vancouver. Engineer George E. Lederle, who is to superintend the construction of the Union Pacific's bridge across the Columbia at Vancouver, has been notified that the plans have been approved by the chief of engineers and he has begun the work of framing caissons for the six piers. The bridge will be of steel for the six piers. The bridge will be of steel and as the act authorizing its construction provides that any railroad may use it by pay-ing a reasonable sum, it will have a double track and an upper roadway for teams. The draw will be 470 feet long, gring openings of 200 feet on each side in the clear. The piers will be of concrete, to near the low water mark, and hage iron cylinders filled with concrete above. The bridge will cost $1,000,000 and is to be finished by the end of next year.

Grand Promenade Concert.

Messrs. Rooder and Bell, the indefatigable managers of the building where Patti sang the "Casta Diva" and where Strauss played the exquisite "Blue Danube," have made arrangements to give the amusement loving people of Omaha a rare treat this evening. They have secured a large military band for a promenade concert at the Col-seum in addition to the Mandolin club and other attractions. Tables and chairs are now being put in the building, and ice cream and other refreshments will be served by Balduff, the cateror. A fine musi-cal uncorresonned is being averaged, which will cal programme is being arranged, which will embrace many popular selections played by Strauss when here a short time ago.

And the admission to this concert has been placed at 25 cents, which is quite within the means of everybody who desires to pass a pleasant evening listening to the Mandolin club, and the military band.

As a family medicine Aver's pitls excel all others. They are suited to every age and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. Though searching and thorough in effect, they are mild and pleasant in action, and their use is attended with no injurious results.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The return to Omaha at Boyd's opera nouse Thursday night of that clever comedian, Frank Daniels, is an event of much gratification among a numerous class of our theatre-goers. Frank Daniels is a master of delightful drollery. He has a quaintness about him possessed by no other comedian engaged in 'a farcical work at the present tume. He is at all times irresistibly furny, and certainly is inimitable in his special line of comedy characterizations. He has quietly and good-naturedly wormed himself into the affections of this big fun loving and quick witted nation, and his return here will be welcomed. The sale of seats will begin this morning at 9 o'clock.
