

IN ALL SAINTS' SANCTUARY.

What Rev. Louis Zahner Has Done in a Few Years for Religion.

CHURCH CONVENTIONS AND SYNODS.

A Resume of Happenings Among the People of the Church Both at Home and Abroad.

All Saints Episcopal church, beautifully located at the corner of Twenty-sixth and Half Howard streets, will celebrate its fourth annual parish festival today.

This parish of the Episcopal church in Omaha has had almost a phenomenal growth. Four years ago, when the present rector, Rev. Louis Zahner, came to Omaha, there was very little heard or known about this new church enterprise.

The parish has acquired property valued at $50,000, which includes the church and the rectory and the choir room, forming a handsome group of buildings upon a very fine plot of ground.

The vestry is made up of representative men of the city. J. M. Woodworth and A. P. Hopkins are the vestrymen.

The annual reception given by the members of the Young Men's Christian association last Tuesday evening was one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever undertaken by the association.

Many will regret to learn that for financial reasons the Kountze Memorial church has decided to discontinue the services of the organist and choir.

Rev. W. A. Lipe is doing some excellent work at the old mission chapel on Dodge street. He is not only helping materially to furnish spiritual food for the poor, but he also assists them in getting the necessities of life.

Rev. P. S. Merrill of the First Methodist church returned from a very pleasant trip to Colorado last week.

Rev. A. J. Tuckle of the Kountze Memorial Lutheran church, made a trip to Chicago last week to meet his wife, who has been ill for some time at her home in Ohio.

RELIGIOUS.

November 9-15 is appointed as the week of prayer for young men.

Rev. Henry M. Booth, D. D., of Englewood, N. J., declines to become president of Auburn theological seminary.

The Chicago presbytery has petitioned the board of education of that city to make an order requiring the reading of appropriate extracts from the bible each day in all the departments of the public schools of Chicago.

The American missionary association closes its year with a high record. The receipts of the year were $406,038, the largest in its history.

The Catholic Review proposes that representation for the next Catholic congress be fixed on a basis of computation that would result in an equal number of delegates.

The Salvation army is holding "a great cant congress" of its staff and field officers in Chicago and Brooklyn for a week, beginning on November 1.

The number of missionary stations in Africa now exceeds five hundred. There are 400,000 converts, and the number is increasing at the rate of about twenty-five thousand a year.

Those who have been in the city since the beginning have noticed a steady and most substantial growth in membership and in all the departments of church work.

Rev. A. J. Tuckle of the Kountze Memorial Lutheran church, made a trip to Chicago last week to meet his wife, who has been ill for some time at her home in Ohio.

Dr. Burgey of the First Congregational church visited the sad intelligence of the death of his wedded father at his home on Lone Island last Wednesday.

Both Eastern and Western Methodists will meet at the Young Men's Christian association rooms.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS.

At the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Park Place, was last evening an exciting contest in which the revolutionary war was fought over again with patriotic ardor.

"Concours" in American history roused the young ladies of the intermediate class to heroic efforts, crowned by gratifying success.

The grade, for the purposes of the combat, was divided into two equal phalanxes, one representing the army the other the navy, headed, the one by the earliest American flag of the land forces, the other by the first sea flag, both banners painted by one of the ladies of the faculty.

The range of permitted questions covered the entire ground. From the remote causes of the revolution to Washington's inauguration, it embraced dates, facts, laws, battles, speeches, commanders, statesmen, and even memorable book mottoes and literary extracts.

The "Premier" plays high five. The "Premier" High Five club organized at the commencement of the season had its fourth meeting last Wednesday evening at Mrs. Andrew Haas'.
