THE CITY.

A party of prominent democrats will go to Columbus, O., on Thursday next to participate in the celebration of Hon. Allen G. Thurman's seventy-seventh birthday anniversary.

The new hose wagon built for the city by W. R. Drummond, was put into service Thursday at No. 5 engine house. Members of the board of fire and police commissioners inspected it and expressed their approval of it. It is a beauty, and is as complete and as finely constructed as any of the apparatus turned out by outside builders.

The St. Joseph Daily Herald of Thursday says: Prof. Dodgo, the linguist, has opened up at Omaha under the most inviting, favorable circumstances. It is but the demonstration of appreciation—and the Omaha people can congratulate themselves on the opportunity at their hands. The professor left many warm friends in St. Joseph. He infused new ideas, and prompted new action in the study of the essential principles of diversified literature.

The opening of Morse's household-furnishing department takes place today. We have aimed to make this department worthy of our store and the city and are pleased to say that it is the best household-furnishing department in the west. We have some surprises in the way of low prices.

Everything we sell will be of the best quality of the kind and we have a particularly fine line of

 of Haviland and other fine china at half usual price.

THE MORSE DRY GOODS CO.

She Gives Up the Fight.

Mrs. Brady, who for twenty years, as a squatter, has held possession of that portion of Eighth street between Douglas and Dodge, has decided to hold the lot no longer. A dozen times or more she has been in the police court on the charge of obstructing the street, but always escaped punishment. Once or twice she has held the officers at bay, standing them off with a hatchet, but at last, having become discouraged over the delay of the law, she has moved out, upon the condition that the city will provide for her support for an indefinite period.

Wanted.
 A first class drapery salesman capable of earning a good salary. Don't apply unless you have had experience and can handle first class trade.

County Court.

In the county court the following judgments were rendered yesterday: Hoagland vs Lindsay, $119; Moine, Milburn, Stoddard & Co. vs the Don Carlos lumber company, $417; Boyd vs Horrigan, $117, and the Bohn cash and door company vs Mills, $38.
 Edward Ainscow has sued A. Hanson and C. A. Jensen to recover $300 due on a promissory note.

Gustave Andreen has brought suit against I. S. Hascall. The plaintiff claims that on February 5, 1890, as an accommodation, he signed a note of $50 for Hascall and had to pay the same. Now he has brought suit to recover the amount.

IN THE COURTS.

Ed Ball Safe for Three Months—Other Cases.

The trial of Ed Ball, charged with horse-stealing, was set for yesterday. When brought into court he was allowed to plead guilty to the charge of taking a horse and buggy temporarily without permission, and was given three months in the county jail.

Mrs. Dora Knowles, charged with adultery, was put on trial yesterday before Judge Clarkson. The defendant appeared in court heavily veiled. Very little interest is manifested in the trial.

The supreme court has affirmed the verdict in the case of Daniel F. Randolph vs Omaha, which was tried in the district court here a short time ago. The plaintiff in driving into the city of Omaha after dark followed from Twenty-eighth to Twenty-seventh street a public way that had been used by the public for years, although it had never been laid out as a road. The city was at the time grading Twenty-seventh street and had excavated the same perpendicular to the depth of three feet at the intersection of this road, but placed no barriers or lights at or near the same. It being dark the plaintiff was unable to see the condition of the street and his team was precipitated into the excavation, causing the plaintiff to receive permanent injuries, for which he claimed $2,500. The jury gave him $1,000, and the city appealed the case. The supreme court held that the city was guilty of negligence.

Before the adjournment of court last night Judge Clarkson announced the trial of the following state cases for next week: Monday, Thomas Carroll, charged with grand larceny; Tuesday, John Carpenter, horse stealing; Wednesday, J. S. O'Neil, obtaining property by false pretenses; Thursday, Fred Hagen, embezzlement; Friday, John J. McManary, larceny.

Wanted.

Board of Public Works.

Messrs. Richardson and Furay transacted the business of the board of public works yesterday afternoon.

O. E. Squires, in a letter, said: "Judge Doane and other owners of property on Eighth street, between Dodge street and Capitol avenue, anticipate a change, resulting from a possible lowering of Dodge street some time in the near future. If the board has no objection I will discontinue work upon this street until next spring."

Major Wheeler of the city council dropped in and said: "I think the grade referred to in Mr. Squires' letter will come down, as I understand a petition asking for the change is now being circulated and will be presented to the council at its next meeting."

After the reading of the letter and hearing the remarks of Major Wheeler, the chairman was instructed to call upon the council and ask that Mr. Squires' request be granted.

Upon motion of Mr. Furay, the chairman will advertise for bids for the filling of some eighty lots that have been declared detrimental to the good of the public health by the board. The contract will be awarded on the 28th of the present month, and each party submitting a bid will be compelled to enclose a certified check of $50.

A Bellamy Apartment House.

Omaha will soon have an apartment house that will be built according to the Edward Bellamy idea. J. H. Van Dorn is now having the plans for such a building prepared. It will be located at Twenty-second and Leavenworth streets. It will be a brick structure, four stories high, and containing twenty-five apartments. The plan of living in this building will be cooperative, as all of the cooking will be done in one kitchen, each individual sharing his or her expense. The house will be put in operation about January 1 next.

A Card.

From this date Omaha's growth will be unprecedented. Capital will seek investment in real estate from all parts of the country. Omaha is the only city that went through a real estate depression without a crash and property which had a commercial value at the end of the boom three years ago has steadily enhanced.

We deem it advisable at this time to caution the public against mushroom investments. Secure good property within your means from reliable firms and unquestionable titles.

Feeling satisfied that prohibition would be defeated when voted upon, we purchased a large amount of property at Albright and are now prepared to offer a limited number of choice bargains in "Albright's Choice" addition on easy terms.

Postmaster Clarkson's Plan.

Postmaster Clarkson finds the postoffice quarters too crowded for the transaction of the vast amount of business, and to remedy this has already taken steps to afford better accommodation for the convenience of the public. Yesterday he looked over the rooms on the second floor, and has about decided to remove the money order department to the small court room, which is usually occupied by the circuit judge. Should Mr. Clarkson decide upon these rooms the removal will not take place until after the November term of the United States court.
