

BOYD THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

Official Returns from All But Two Counties Make His Election Certain.

M'PHERSON AND HOOKER TO HEAR FROM.

He Will Have a Majority Over Powers of About One Thousand Votes—The Next Legislature.

There is no longer any doubt of the election of James E. Boyd as governor of Nebraska. All but two counties, Hooker and McPherson, have been heard from and Boyd leads Powers by 1,000 votes.

Table of election results for Nebraska counties, listing candidates and vote counts.

THE CONGRESSMEN.

The revised figures from the Third District.

The two counties yet to hear from are in the Third district and are thinly populated.

Table of congressional district results, showing vote counts for various candidates.

AGAINST PROHIBITION.

How the Vote Stands So Far as Yet.

A number of counties have failed as yet to report the vote on the prohibition amendment.

Table showing the status of counties regarding the prohibition amendment, including those that have failed to report.

ROSWATER AND HON. JOHN L. WEBSTER.

Omaha, Nov. 8.—The undersigned, representing the officers and a broad array of services rendered by you in the fight for the business, social and private interests of the citizen of Nebraska, irrespective of party, heartily congratulate you on the great victory you won yesterday and prophesy abundant prosperity and gigantic growth of our commonwealth in the years to come. May you live long and prosper.

ENGLISH MANUFACTURERS.

They Ridicule the Idea of Risking Capital in the States.

London, Nov. 8.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE.]—I understand that the Bartlett family is taking the opinion of eminent counsel today as to the best and speediest means of bringing Stanley to a court of justice with reference to his new charges against the late Mr. James.

THE LEGISLATURE.

It is Strongly Alliance a Both Senate and House.

The following have been elected members of the legislature. The straight republicans are marked "R," the democrats "D" and the alliance "A."

Table listing elected members of the Nebraska legislature, categorized by party affiliation.

POPULAR VOTE FOR GOVERNOR SINCE 1860.

Table showing the popular vote for Nebraska governors from 1860 to 1890.

THE COUNT OF PARIS AT QUEENSTOWN.

London, Nov. 8.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE.]—The count of Paris and party on the Servia arrived at Queenstown tonight. All are well. They will probably go to the count's country house at Richmond tomorrow.

EXTENDED THEIR EXISTENCE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The comptroller of the currency has extended the corporate existence of the State national bank of Springfield, Ill., and the First national bank of Appleton, Wis.

A WORLD'S FAIR APPOINTMENT.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Daniel H. Burnham, the well known architect, was today appointed by the World's fair directors as chief of construction with a salary of $150,000 a year.

HENDERSON ELECTED IN IOWA.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—A dispatch from Des Moines, Ia., says that Henderson is elected by 203 majority. The official count Monday will not change the result materially.

A TRAIL OF BLOOD OVER ALL.

Disgust the Prevalent Feeling Over the Stanley-Bartlett Controversy.

CHARGES THAT ONLY DEEPEN THE GLOOM.

The Bartlett Family Endeavoring to Bring Stanley to Court—Charges and Countercharges—Stanley's Last Statement.

London, Nov. 8.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE.]—I understand that the Bartlett family is taking the opinion of eminent counsel today as to the best and speediest means of bringing Stanley to a court of justice with reference to his new charges against the late Mr. James.

The general feeling is one of disgust of the entire business and the public is completely cured of any passion for African exploration. It is expected that the queen's speech at the opening of parliament will be uninteresting. No measure of importance will be announced except, perhaps, the bill providing for free or assisted elementary education.

BARTLETT'S CHARGES.

London, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Mr. Bartlett says that Stanley's account of his brother's death is completely at variance with Jameson's account and Sora's confession.

A NEGRO BOY'S TERRIBLE REVENGE.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 8.—A horrible instance of youthful depravity is reported from Anderson county. Willie two small white boys, named McGee and Wansley, were packing lint cotton in the press of a cotton gin yesterday, a negro boy about seventeen years old passed by the press, and striking a match threw it into the cotton.

FATALLY KICKED.

Gainesville, Tex., Nov. 8.—A Dutchman named Johnson, who was visiting his brother's family in the western part of the state last night, being in state of intoxication, became incensed at his brother's wife because she reproved him for some unpremeditated remark.

ATTEMPTED TO KILL HIS WIFE.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 8.—John Daniels made an unsuccessful attempt to murder his wife at the Electric City hotel here last night. He fired three shots at her from a .38-caliber revolver, one of which took effect in the leg.

BIT OFF HIS NOSE.

Alton, Ill., Nov. 8.—Allen Barbed and Emanuel Wright, both colored, quarreled on Thursday at the Illinois glass works. The quarrel resulted in a fracas during which Bibb bit off Wright's nose. The injury is a shocking one and Wright will be maimed for life.

BATTLE OF BELMONT COMMEMORATED.

Monticello, Ill., Nov. 8.—The twenty-ninth anniversary of the battle of Belmont was observed here today.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR SPEAKS OF HIS CONFERENCE WITH ITALY'S PRIME MINISTER.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Chancellor von Caprivi, who has been visiting Milan, this morning received a despatch of German residents of the city, who presented a petition in reply to the chancellor's speech in terms of official frankness of the objects and results of his meeting with the Italian prime minister. He congratulated his visitors upon living in a beautiful country, which was the center of art interest and which was under a government that was linked with that of Germany by a policy of peace.

WILL BEAT THE TARIFF.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The following is the proclamation by the president of the United States: By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the past year, which have been full of the blessings of peace and the comfort of plenty.

CANADIANS HAVE A SCHEME TO OUTFIT MCKINLEY'S GREAT MEASURE.

Montreal, Nov. 8.—One effect of the heavy duties imposed by the McKinley bill upon Canadian eggs is shown by a new business enterprise that has been started by a number of capitalists here, operations on which will be commenced in a few days.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUD IN FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—The Harrison and Morton club, composed of two hundred or more leading white Republicans of this city, has issued a stirring address denouncing the Democratic party for their wholesale fraud and other republican crimes.

ALABAMA BAPTISTS.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 8.—The twenty-second annual convention of the Alabama Baptist association met here today, 150 clerical and lay delegates being in attendance.

DETAINED ON RECRUITING SERVICE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—By order of the secretary of war Sergeant Charles H. Reiden, Company K (attached to Company G), Eighth infantry, now at Fort Niagara, N. Y., is detained for duty on recruiting service and will be sent to New Haven, Conn., reporting upon his arrival there to the officer in charge of the recruiting rendezvous in that city.

PIRACY IN TONGAREVA.

Paris, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Le Soleil has received from Tongareva a dispatch stating that piracy is rampant there and that the French outposts are being attacked constantly. The fact that these disorders are occurring is kept secret, the advice says, as it is feared that if publicity were given to the piracy, the Tongarevan archipelago would be seriously interfered with.

A WOMAN RAIDS A GAMBLING HOUSE.

Mattoon, Ill., Nov. 8.—A woman and two policemen raided a gambling house in this city last night and captured about twenty players, with two complete poker outfits, which were confiscated. The players were obliged to walk up to the magistrate's office today and settle, but the city marshal has been interceding for them, and it remains to be seen whether or not the law will be enforced.

A TRUCE FOR SIX MONTHS.

London, Nov. 8.—The English and Portuguese governments have agreed upon a modus vivendi, to remain in force six months, pending negotiations between the two governments regarding disputed territory in Africa.

THE PRICE OF SILVER.

Amsterdam, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Fine silver is quoted at 89 guilders per kilo.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR SPEAKS OF HIS CONFERENCE WITH ITALY'S PRIME MINISTER.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Chancellor von Caprivi, who has been visiting Milan, this morning received a despatch of German residents of the city, who presented a petition in reply to the chancellor's speech in terms of official frankness of the objects and results of his meeting with the Italian prime minister. He congratulated his visitors upon living in a beautiful country, which was the center of art interest and which was under a government that was linked with that of Germany by a policy of peace.

WILL BEAT THE TARIFF.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The following is the proclamation by the president of the United States: By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the past year, which have been full of the blessings of peace and the comfort of plenty.

CANADIANS HAVE A SCHEME TO OUTFIT MCKINLEY'S GREAT MEASURE.

Montreal, Nov. 8.—One effect of the heavy duties imposed by the McKinley bill upon Canadian eggs is shown by a new business enterprise that has been started by a number of capitalists here, operations on which will be commenced in a few days.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUD IN FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—The Harrison and Morton club, composed of two hundred or more leading white Republicans of this city, has issued a stirring address denouncing the Democratic party for their wholesale fraud and other republican crimes.

ALABAMA BAPTISTS.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 8.—The twenty-second annual convention of the Alabama Baptist association met here today, 150 clerical and lay delegates being in attendance.

DETAINED ON RECRUITING SERVICE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—By order of the secretary of war Sergeant Charles H. Reiden, Company K (attached to Company G), Eighth infantry, now at Fort Niagara, N. Y., is detained for duty on recruiting service and will be sent to New Haven, Conn., reporting upon his arrival there to the officer in charge of the recruiting rendezvous in that city.

PIRACY IN TONGAREVA.

Paris, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Le Soleil has received from Tongareva a dispatch stating that piracy is rampant there and that the French outposts are being attacked constantly. The fact that these disorders are occurring is kept secret, the advice says, as it is feared that if publicity were given to the piracy, the Tongarevan archipelago would be seriously interfered with.

A WOMAN RAIDS A GAMBLING HOUSE.

Mattoon, Ill., Nov. 8.—A woman and two policemen raided a gambling house in this city last night and captured about twenty players, with two complete poker outfits, which were confiscated. The players were obliged to walk up to the magistrate's office today and settle, but the city marshal has been interceding for them, and it remains to be seen whether or not the law will be enforced.

A TRUCE FOR SIX MONTHS.

London, Nov. 8.—The English and Portuguese governments have agreed upon a modus vivendi, to remain in force six months, pending negotiations between the two governments regarding disputed territory in Africa.

THE PRICE OF SILVER.

Amsterdam, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Fine silver is quoted at 89 guilders per kilo.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR SPEAKS OF HIS CONFERENCE WITH ITALY'S PRIME MINISTER.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Chancellor von Caprivi, who has been visiting Milan, this morning received a despatch of German residents of the city, who presented a petition in reply to the chancellor's speech in terms of official frankness of the objects and results of his meeting with the Italian prime minister. He congratulated his visitors upon living in a beautiful country, which was the center of art interest and which was under a government that was linked with that of Germany by a policy of peace.

WILL BEAT THE TARIFF.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The following is the proclamation by the president of the United States: By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the past year, which have been full of the blessings of peace and the comfort of plenty.

CANADIANS HAVE A SCHEME TO OUTFIT MCKINLEY'S GREAT MEASURE.

Montreal, Nov. 8.—One effect of the heavy duties imposed by the McKinley bill upon Canadian eggs is shown by a new business enterprise that has been started by a number of capitalists here, operations on which will be commenced in a few days.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUD IN FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—The Harrison and Morton club, composed of two hundred or more leading white Republicans of this city, has issued a stirring address denouncing the Democratic party for their wholesale fraud and other republican crimes.

ALABAMA BAPTISTS.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 8.—The twenty-second annual convention of the Alabama Baptist association met here today, 150 clerical and lay delegates being in attendance.

DETAINED ON RECRUITING SERVICE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—By order of the secretary of war Sergeant Charles H. Reiden, Company K (attached to Company G), Eighth infantry, now at Fort Niagara, N. Y., is detained for duty on recruiting service and will be sent to New Haven, Conn., reporting upon his arrival there to the officer in charge of the recruiting rendezvous in that city.

PIRACY IN TONGAREVA.

Paris, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Le Soleil has received from Tongareva a dispatch stating that piracy is rampant there and that the French outposts are being attacked constantly. The fact that these disorders are occurring is kept secret, the advice says, as it is feared that if publicity were given to the piracy, the Tongarevan archipelago would be seriously interfered with.

A WOMAN RAIDS A GAMBLING HOUSE.

Mattoon, Ill., Nov. 8.—A woman and two policemen raided a gambling house in this city last night and captured about twenty players, with two complete poker outfits, which were confiscated. The players were obliged to walk up to the magistrate's office today and settle, but the city marshal has been interceding for them, and it remains to be seen whether or not the law will be enforced.

A TRUCE FOR SIX MONTHS.

London, Nov. 8.—The English and Portuguese governments have agreed upon a modus vivendi, to remain in force six months, pending negotiations between the two governments regarding disputed territory in Africa.

THE PRICE OF SILVER.

Amsterdam, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Fine silver is quoted at 89 guilders per kilo.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR SPEAKS OF HIS CONFERENCE WITH ITALY'S PRIME MINISTER.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Chancellor von Caprivi, who has been visiting Milan, this morning received a despatch of German residents of the city, who presented a petition in reply to the chancellor's speech in terms of official frankness of the objects and results of his meeting with the Italian prime minister. He congratulated his visitors upon living in a beautiful country, which was the center of art interest and which was under a government that was linked with that of Germany by a policy of peace.

WILL BEAT THE TARIFF.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The following is the proclamation by the president of the United States: By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the past year, which have been full of the blessings of peace and the comfort of plenty.

CANADIANS HAVE A SCHEME TO OUTFIT MCKINLEY'S GREAT MEASURE.

Montreal, Nov. 8.—One effect of the heavy duties imposed by the McKinley bill upon Canadian eggs is shown by a new business enterprise that has been started by a number of capitalists here, operations on which will be commenced in a few days.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUD IN FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—The Harrison and Morton club, composed of two hundred or more leading white Republicans of this city, has issued a stirring address denouncing the Democratic party for their wholesale fraud and other republican crimes.

ALABAMA BAPTISTS.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 8.—The twenty-second annual convention of the Alabama Baptist association met here today, 150 clerical and lay delegates being in attendance.

DETAINED ON RECRUITING SERVICE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—By order of the secretary of war Sergeant Charles H. Reiden, Company K (attached to Company G), Eighth infantry, now at Fort Niagara, N. Y., is detained for duty on recruiting service and will be sent to New Haven, Conn., reporting upon his arrival there to the officer in charge of the recruiting rendezvous in that city.

PIRACY IN TONGAREVA.

Paris, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Le Soleil has received from Tongareva a dispatch stating that piracy is rampant there and that the French outposts are being attacked constantly. The fact that these disorders are occurring is kept secret, the advice says, as it is feared that if publicity were given to the piracy, the Tongarevan archipelago would be seriously interfered with.

A WOMAN RAIDS A GAMBLING HOUSE.

Mattoon, Ill., Nov. 8.—A woman and two policemen raided a gambling house in this city last night and captured about twenty players, with two complete poker outfits, which were confiscated. The players were obliged to walk up to the magistrate's office today and settle, but the city marshal has been interceding for them, and it remains to be seen whether or not the law will be enforced.

A TRUCE FOR SIX MONTHS.

London, Nov. 8.—The English and Portuguese governments have agreed upon a modus vivendi, to remain in force six months, pending negotiations between the two governments regarding disputed territory in Africa.

THE PRICE OF SILVER.

Amsterdam, Nov. 8.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Fine silver is quoted at 89 guilders per kilo.