A Big Opening in Wheat Again Yields to Wall Street Influences and Closes Lower.

CORN MAINTAINS A GOOD FIRM TRADE.

Diminished Selling Pressure in Oats-Little Support in Provisions-Live Stock Under the Weather-

Financial.

CRICAGO, Nov. 8 .- (Special Telegram to THE Bre.]-There was a big market in wheat early in the session and the show of strength the first hour was encouraging to the bulls. It also drave a lot of small shorts to cover and checked heavy selling. There was some scattering bull news, but it did not count for much. Liverpool was firm for spot wheat and Mid off on futures early, and closed steady and unchanged. Elevator companies reported a falling off in receipts. The figures did not bear this out very well. Minneapolis and Duluth had 761 cars and Chicago had 178 cars, or fifty over the estimate. The primary markets for the week received 152,000 bushels less than last week, and export clearances were 50,000 bushels more. The early estimate on the visible supply was for an increase of 1,300,000 for the week. Minneapolis reports an increase for the week of 435,000 bushels. But the strength early was in the temper of the trade rather than news. Hutchison, Mitchell, Logan & Co., Aldrich & Vance, Counselman & Day, Brosseau, Cudahy and others-besides orders from St. Louis and New York were all on the buying side. While this lasted there was no great selling pressure Scalpers letting go of long wheat constituted the principal offerings. But there was no export clearances. Wall street was again unsettled and stocks rattled down in prices. Congdon and Brosseau began the selling with small shorts covering wheat. Offerings became general, the support petered out, and market became extremely weak and declined to a point %c under the bottom yesterday for December, while May sold again at bottom figures and the premium widened to 6%. The action was as follows: December, 98%c, to 98%c, to 97%c; May, $1.05%, to $1.05%, to $1.04%. There was a very fair recovery in wheat the last haif hour, when the influence of the stock

There was a very fair recovery in wheat the last half hour, when the influence of the stock market was out of the way. Early sellers evidently did not want to be short over Sunday and on a general pleking up of wheat before the close December railed about le from the bottom to % he, closing only ½e under last night, May sold as low as $1.94 and closed at $1.05. November, 57½e, off to % he to 100 he to 100 he close. On the curb December wheat privileges sold at $7.24 to 97½e for puts and $9.24 to 99½e to 90 he for calls.

There was a good, firm market in corn again today. The only weak spot during the session was in sympathy with the break of nearly 2c in wheat. Receipts were less than the estimate at 257 cars. The outward movement was light with out-inspection of 101,000 bushels and shipments of only $5,000 bushels. Export clearances for the day practically none; for the week, from four Atlantic ports, 250,000 bushels. The pit was without news and largely without outside orders. The cash demand keeps the market firm and May sold at 54½e to 54½e to 54½e to 54½e to 11½e to 54½e to 54½e to 11½e to 54½e to 11½e to 54½e to 11½e t hour.

There was little support to provisions early in the day and prices went to lower points under the lead of pork, which broke 20c under last night on free seiling, with the corn market firm if potstrong. Lard and ribs sold off about 50 all around during this morning, but recovered

Common and medium stock was entirely neglected and large numbers were driven undersheds, locked in and will be carried over for Monday's market. Buthers' stock was also neglected and a large number of common cows, buils and rough steers were carried over. Texans were nearly closed out, and a few rangers on sale were also disposed of. FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK Nov. 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—STOCKS—The arest thing Wall street did last night after the stock market close was to feel thankful that the trade had met with no disaster on the great break in prices. The second move was to send dispatches broadcast predicting that the worst was past and a recovery at once certain. The action of the market today threatened for a while to spoil both calculations. The opening was quite irregular with the worst punished stocks of yesterday much improved over night. The market developed renewed weakness from the first sales and within the first half hour material losses were sustained. Some stocks on the drive reached even lower prices than yesterday, and fillino's Central retired? per cent to 88, 8t. Paul. Lackawanna and Chicago Gas 17's per cent each. Western Union 12, Sugar Refineries and Louisville & Nashville each 13, New York Central 14; Northwestern. North American, Missouri Pacific, Northern Pacific Deferred. New England and Burlington & Quincy each 1, and others generally large fractions. At these figures, however, there was a halt in the pressure to sell, and the market becoming comparatively quiet, a partial recovery ensued, but it made no material progress, and before 11 o'clock prices were again declining. The bank statement contained nothing statiling, with reserves decreased about $2,250,000. This added extra weight to the market, and the last prices were close to the bottom for the day. It being Saturday, the trade did not have to resort to borrowling at 5 per cent as on yesterday, and the short session closed with with no disaster on the great break in prices resort to borrowing at 2 per cent as on yes-terday, and the short session closed with sales of 28,000 shares.
