

THE SITUATION A BAD ONE.

That is the Agreement of the Western Passenger Association.

CHAIRMAN FINLEY'S POLICY DISCUSSED.

Transactions of the Western Freight Association—The Live Hog and Product Rate—Union Pacific Divisions.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The Western passenger association held perhaps the most important meeting of its history.

Chairman Finley's policy of authorizing reduced rates for managers and sufficient to affect the business was freely discussed.

The Western Freight Association.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The Western Freight association today appointed Traffic Manager Bird of the St. Paul and Freight Agent Johnson of the Rock Island as its permanent board.

The Alton's notice of reduction in the live hog rate to 18 cents from Kansas City to Chicago was made a special order for tomorrow.

A MOTHER'S SUIT.

She Says the Prison Physician Caused Her Convict Son's Death.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] Mrs. Annie M. Wood of Norwich, N. Y., arrived in town last evening and is about to commence suit against Prison Physician Sawyer for causing the death of her son in the prison hospital in April last.

Blaine is the Man.

Senator Pettigrew Thinks the Prospects for 1892 Are Favorable.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] United States Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota is for Blaine in 1892.

Robbery and Murder.

Paris, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] A story of robbery and murder comes from the town of Argis, not far from Rouleux in the Department du Nord.

The Godfrey-Smith Flight Obstructed.

New York, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] Sheriff Gold of Oneida county will not permit the flight between Godfrey and Smith of Denver, to take place.

A Local Affair.

New York, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The Guatemalan consul general in this city has received a cablegram, via Mexico, reporting that a local uprising has taken place at Tecuapala, the capital of Honduras, against the government of President Bogran, receiving the support of the rest of the republic.

An Insane Duke.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—Grand Duke Nicholas is about to be transferred from Yalta to his residence here. His doctors declare he is incurably insane.

KNIGHTS ARE NOT HAMPERED.

They Pay Their Money and May Choose a High or Low Tariff.

SO SAYS MASTER WORKMAN POWDERLY.

Why the New York Central Strike Was a Failure—Powderly's Correspondence with Lee—What He Really Said.

A PLENTIFUL CROP.

Aspirants for Positions Under the Next Congress Springing Up.

Washington, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The crop of aspirants for the elective positions under the fifty-second congress is growing so rapidly as to threaten the place of the men who will control these offices, long before the democratic caucus will meet.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 11.—The general assembly of the Knights of Labor convened this morning with about 30 delegates present. General Master Workman Powderly read the annual address, after which the assembly adjourned until tomorrow.

South Dakota's Senator.

Washington, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] There has been some talk in Washington the past two or three days about the chances of the various candidates for the senatorship in South Dakota to succeed Senator Moody, whose term expires March 4 next.

Chief Wheaton's Troubles.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] Grand Secretary W. H. Daniels of the Order of Railway Conductors was asked today about the acquittal of Wheaton, ex-chief of the same order.

The Strike at Havana Ended.

Havana, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The strike of the coachmen and hostlers of Havana, which for the past two weeks has kept the police and authorities on the qui vive, has at last ended without serious consequences.

Brigandage in Cuba Unabated.

Havana, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The operations of bandit bands are as frequent and bold as ever, and the vaunted preparations of the police have ended in smoke.

A Family Affair.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 11.—There was a most sensational tragedy at the race track here today. The grand stand was packed with men, women and children.

He Will Contest.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 11.—In last Tuesday's election for the legislature, Representative Frank Rowand, (dem.), had 167 majority over John Campbell, (rep.) and farmer's alliance, democratic candidate.

Castion's Free.

London, Nov. 11.—At the conclusion of the hearing in the appeal of Castion, the Swiss radical, who killed Councillor Rossi during the recent revolt at Bellinzona in Switzerland, the court granted the writ of habeas corpus and Castion was discharged from custody tonight.

To Be Considered.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Judges Gresham and Blagden today heard arguments in the application for a preliminary injunction in the celebrated vestible patent litigation brought by the Pullman company against the Wagoners. The judges took the matter under advisement.

Reconciled in Court.

Plymouth, Mass., Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] Mrs. C. W. Perry, in October 1889, found her recent husband living in Brooklyn with another woman and secured a divorce.

Writers of Bogus Passes.

Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—A conspiracy has been unearthed on the part of employes of the general passenger department of the Columbus,ocking Valley & Toledo to defraud the company by placing bogus passes and editing the lower classes against the Wagoners.

WE HAVE HEARD FROM HOOKER.

The Last County in the State to Report Returns.

A DECISION OF IMPORTANCE.

Judge Tuley's Verdict in the Live Stock Commission Company Case.

THE INJUNCTION HERETOFORE ISSUED MUST BE DISSOLVED—AN APPEAL TAKEN AND A BITTER FIGHT IN PROSPECT.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The complainant seeking to obtain a monopoly of the business of selling live stock at the Union stockyards, or seeking to effect a combination by which it can control the live stock market, it can have no claim to the aid of a court of equity to accomplish such purposes.

TERRIBLE WRECK IN ENGLAND.

Ten Killed in a Collision and Six Bodies Burned Up.

London, Nov. 11.—A collision occurred today on the Great Western railway at the Norton Fitzwarren station, between a goods train and a special passenger train from Plymouth.

Sugar Trust Receivers.

New York, Nov. 11.—Judge Pratt this morning appointed as receivers of the sugar trust General Henry W. Sloane, Henry O. Haverney and S. V. White in bonds of $500,000 each.

Chief Wheaton's Troubles.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] Grand Secretary W. H. Daniels of the Order of Railway Conductors was asked today about the acquittal of Wheaton, ex-chief of the same order.

The Players League Meeting.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—The National Players' league held its annual fall meeting here this morning with all the clubs represented. Boston was awarded the championship.

Carriers in Trouble.

New York, Nov. 11.—Through investigations instituted by Chief Postoffice Inspector Rathbone he learned that many postoffice carriers, principally letter carriers, were collecting the rates for the postage on letters of the department that no carrier shall deliver letters to their respective addresses.

Free Again.

London, Nov. 11.—Patrick Delaney, serving a sentence of life imprisonment for implication in the Phoenix park murders and who appeared as a witness for the Times before the Parnell commission, has been released from prison.

Dempsey Will Fight Fitzsimmons.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 11.—Articles of agreement for a fight between Jack Dempsey and Bob Fitzsimmons, the Australian, before the New Orleans athletic club for a purse of $10,000 have been received here signed by Dempsey.

Fatal Election Fights.

Paris, Nov. 11.—A dispatch from Rosario, Argentine Republic, says serious election disorders occurred in that city, during which several persons were killed and a number wounded.

His Sentence Commuted.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The president has commuted to seven months imprisonment the sentence of one year imposed in the case of Simon H. Hank, convicted in Illinois of counterfeiting.

Nebraska, Iowa and Dakota Pensions.

Washington, Nov. 11.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.] The following pensions were granted:

THEY BLAZED AWAY FOR BOYD.

The New Governor's Election Noisily Rated by the Untrified.

THE PROCESSION THROUGH THE STREETS.

The Pageant Brought to an End by a Display of Many Kinds of Fireworks on the County Hill.

IT WAS DEMOCRACY'S NIGHT.

Several thousand wildly-enthusiastic supporters of Governor-elect Boyd, the governor-elect, turned out to celebrate his election. They were aided by more than twenty thousand small boys with large horns and more people than were missed by the census enumerators thronged the streets as witnesses of the demonstration.

General Greeley Has a Few Remarks to Make on the Subject.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The annual report of the chief signal officer, General Greeley, says there has been decided improvement in the condition and efficacy of the army as regards signal practice.

MILD-MANNERED TORNADES.

General Greeley says the duties devolving personally on the forecast officer permit him to refer to the weather branch of the service, General Greeley says the duties devolving personally on the forecast officer permit him to refer to the weather branch of the service.

Guessing Matches Are Legal.

Washington, Nov. 11.—In response to inquiries made by Postmaster General Wainwright under date of October 6 as to whether advertisements in newspapers for guessing matches in its various phases are in violation of section 3894 of the revised statutes, as amended by the anti-lottery act of September 19, 1890, Attorney General Miller has submitted an opinion in which he holds in the negative.

The Dark Cloud Has Passed Away.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The dark cloud which has been hanging over the city since the election of Governor-elect Boyd has passed away. The city is again in the enjoyment of peace and quietude.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

THEY BLAZED AWAY FOR BOYD.

The New Governor's Election Noisily Rated by the Untrified.

THE PROCESSION THROUGH THE STREETS.

The Pageant Brought to an End by a Display of Many Kinds of Fireworks on the County Hill.

IT WAS DEMOCRACY'S NIGHT.

Several thousand wildly-enthusiastic supporters of Governor-elect Boyd, the governor-elect, turned out to celebrate his election. They were aided by more than twenty thousand small boys with large horns and more people than were missed by the census enumerators thronged the streets as witnesses of the demonstration.

General Greeley Has a Few Remarks to Make on the Subject.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The annual report of the chief signal officer, General Greeley, says there has been decided improvement in the condition and efficacy of the army as regards signal practice.

MILD-MANNERED TORNADES.

General Greeley says the duties devolving personally on the forecast officer permit him to refer to the weather branch of the service, General Greeley says the duties devolving personally on the forecast officer permit him to refer to the weather branch of the service.

Guessing Matches Are Legal.

Washington, Nov. 11.—In response to inquiries made by Postmaster General Wainwright under date of October 6 as to whether advertisements in newspapers for guessing matches in its various phases are in violation of section 3894 of the revised statutes, as amended by the anti-lottery act of September 19, 1890, Attorney General Miller has submitted an opinion in which he holds in the negative.

The Dark Cloud Has Passed Away.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The dark cloud which has been hanging over the city since the election of Governor-elect Boyd has passed away. The city is again in the enjoyment of peace and quietude.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

THEY BLAZED AWAY FOR BOYD.

The New Governor's Election Noisily Rated by the Untrified.

THE PROCESSION THROUGH THE STREETS.

The Pageant Brought to an End by a Display of Many Kinds of Fireworks on the County Hill.

IT WAS DEMOCRACY'S NIGHT.

Several thousand wildly-enthusiastic supporters of Governor-elect Boyd, the governor-elect, turned out to celebrate his election. They were aided by more than twenty thousand small boys with large horns and more people than were missed by the census enumerators thronged the streets as witnesses of the demonstration.

General Greeley Has a Few Remarks to Make on the Subject.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The annual report of the chief signal officer, General Greeley, says there has been decided improvement in the condition and efficacy of the army as regards signal practice.

MILD-MANNERED TORNADES.

General Greeley says the duties devolving personally on the forecast officer permit him to refer to the weather branch of the service, General Greeley says the duties devolving personally on the forecast officer permit him to refer to the weather branch of the service.

Guessing Matches Are Legal.

Washington, Nov. 11.—In response to inquiries made by Postmaster General Wainwright under date of October 6 as to whether advertisements in newspapers for guessing matches in its various phases are in violation of section 3894 of the revised statutes, as amended by the anti-lottery act of September 19, 1890, Attorney General Miller has submitted an opinion in which he holds in the negative.

The Dark Cloud Has Passed Away.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The dark cloud which has been hanging over the city since the election of Governor-elect Boyd has passed away. The city is again in the enjoyment of peace and quietude.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today. The weather is so cold that they are having to wear extra clothing.

It's a Cold Day for the Colonels.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—The colonels of the various regiments of the Nebraska National Guard are having a hard time of it today