THE CITY.

Andrew Carlisle has been appointed a United States storekeeper to act in the event of the resume of business by the Nebraska City distillery company. The winter supply of potatoes for the county jail is being received and stored away. It consists of about seven hun-dred bushels, which Sheriff Boyd bought at 90 cents per bushel.

Visit Morse's house furnishing department for tin kettles, tin pans, tin dishes of all kinds, coffee mills, step ladders, wooden ware-everything in china and glassware-everything that you use in your kitchen or dining room in the new housekeepers' department at Morse's.

Quint E. Ware is under arrest for a heinous crime. He is charged by Mrs. Lizzie Heag with assaulting her thirteen-year-old daughter on October 28. Ware was until a few days ago bookkeeper in the store department of the Missouri Pacific, but had resigned and was preparing to skip to Kansas City.

Mrs. Sarah Parker of Deadwood, S. D., who is visiting with the family of Mr. Alfred A. Raymond, the superin-tendent of construction on the Tenth street viaduct, while riding on Sixteenth street with Mr. Raymond Wednesday, was thrown violently from the buggy near the corner of Cass street breaking her leg above the ankle. The lady was carried into an adjoining drug store and medical aid summoned. She was afterwards conveyed to the residence of Mr. Raymond at 1625 Lathrop street. The patient was resting easily this morning with indications of a speedy recovery.

"Don't Cireto Eat."

It is with the greatest confidence that Hood's Sarsaparilla is recommended for loss of appetite, indigestion, sick headache and similar troubles. This medicine gently tones the stomach, assists digestion and makes one 'real hungry.' Persons in deli-cate health, after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a few days, find themselves longing for and cating the plainrst food with unexpected relish.

Army Notes.

Lieutenant Hubert, Eighth infantry, has had his leave of absence of seven days extended ten days.

Assistant Surgeon Walker, stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, has been granted a leave of absence for one month, to take effect November 15. Private O'Donnell, Company D, Twenty-first infantry, stationed at Fort Douglas, has been granted a furlough for three months from November 28, with permission to apply for his discharge to date February 27, 1891. A circular has been issued at headquarters, department of the Platte, rearranging the number of hospital matrons to be allowed at the several posts in the department. The attendance will be based on the number of its label.

They say that last week a young lady was brought from Lyons, Neb., to a house on Webster street between Seventeenth house on Webster street between Seventeenth and Eighteenth, occupied by one Peterson. She was very ill with a severe attack of diphtheria, and Peterson, it is said, declined to allow her to remain in his house. She was then taken to the house of Mr. Mathis on Bristol street, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fith streets, and the city physician was notified of the case. A placard was posted on the house, but the citizens claim that it was placed at the rear under a porch, where it cannot be seen, and they are fearful that the disease may spread in the neighborthat the disease may spread in the neighbor-County Court.

The unlucky No. 13 came to the front in the county court when the case of C. S. Walbridge against the motor company was called before Judge Shields. The plaintiff sucs for $1,000 damages for injuries sustained. He says that while driving along the route of the motor company, car No. 13 came along and was handled so recklessly as to scare his horse. He was thrown out against the curb-ing he claims, thus sustaining great bodily ing, he claims, thus sustaining great souny injury.

Judge Hopewell has taken up the case of Olsen vs. Moore, being an appeal from the county court, wherein $300 and various amounts of interest are asked for.

Louis Bradford has sued Sidney Smith on $500 note and Conway & Rice have brought suit against D. J. Bergen to recover $423 for rent, damages and taxes.

Charged with Embezzling.

Parke Godwin was arrested yesterday on complaint of Mary Carney, charging him with the embezzlement of $100. The infor-mation alleges that Godwin, while acting as her attorney in the case of Mary Carney vs. the Omaha horse railroad company, received $100 for hor, and instead of paying it over to her converted it to his own use.

Tribute to Justice Miller. Just before adjourning the last term of the United States circuit court, Judge Dundy appointed a committee to report to the court resolutions upon the death of the late Justice Miller of the supreme court of the United States.

The committee has withheld any action in the expectation of the circuit judge being here at an early day. He has not arrived, nor is it known when he will be here. Yesterday morning Judge Dundy announced from the bench that he would receive the report of the committee this morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Woolworth will present the resolutions and make an address upon the life and character of the deceased justice. Other members of the bar will probably follow him. The occasion has been looked forward to by the profession and the public with great interest.
