The seduction case of E. E. Deed will be called in Justice Schurz court today. It is rumored, however, that the case has been settled and will not be tried, but that the girl that will overtake her charge.

The man Melchior, who is said to have kicked up a row at the court, is reported to have drawn a revolver with intent to kill called at the office yesterday to enter his denial. The only declaration concerning the affair that has been made was, "I don't know anything about it."

E. E. Deed effected a compromise last night with Miss Sadie Patterson, who had him arrested on the charge of seduction. She signed a statement drawn up by an attorney employed by Deed that practically admits that she was attempting to levy blackmail on him and that Deed had paid the costs in the case and it will go no further.

A morning paper has been publishing for the past two or three days a sensational article in its issue, the gist of which is that the leading Main street hotels, the hotel people emphatically deny the story, and say that it has caused them and their guests a great deal of annoyance. The hotel people are not conducting a private insane asylum, and have no guests who have lost their mental equilibrium.

The issues are not yet through with Mr. Paul's sand cases, and it is probable that there will be several other prosecutions. A new batch of warrants were issued yesterday and two more will be made. E. E. Deed and a man named Lindsay were the unfortunate. Lindsay's case was set for hearing yesterday afternoon, but he demanded a jury trial, which was granted, and hearing was postponed until this afternoon.

Pete Holin, the wretch who was caught in the outhouse of the Bloomer school building, had a partial hearing in the superior court last night. He pleaded not guilty, when arraigned, but afterwards reconsidered the matter and consented to write examination of the case, which was completed this morning. The continuance was granted, and if he waives this morning he will be sent to the county jail and the grand jury meets for the January term of the district court.

Last night at 10 o'clock the fire department was called out in the care of a fire that had broken out in the barn of George H. Jackson at 517 South First street. The fire had secured a good start before it was discovered, and it was too late to save a handsome Illinois Jersey cow stable in the barn and highly prized by the family. The building was wrapped in flames when the department arrived, but the fire was quickly extinguished. The loss, including the cow, will amount to several hundred dollars. Mr. Jackson is a tractor employed by the Union Pacific railroad at the time.

The board of trade meeting last night was fairly well attended. The various railway rumors and the circulation of the petition published yesterday were the main topics. The unusually large number of members being present. The union depot question came up when Mr. Fussy stated that the roads had decided not to take the petition. The local committee had not turned over to the board, but the stock had been reported. He urged that nothing be done to antagonize the present condition of things. A committee consisting of Messrs. D. Macrae, J. F. Kimball and Judge W. C. James was appointed to confer with the management of the roads.
