

HELD UP BY HIGHWAYMEN.

County Clerk O'Malley Has a Thrilling Mid-night Experience with Robbers.

RELIEVED HIM OF ALL HIS VALUABLES.

A Daring Robbery Under the Shadow of the High School—A Dry Goods Palace Secured—Other Local News.

County Clerk O'Malley had a thrilling experience with footpads Tuesday night.

His experience cost him $50 in cash and a gold watch and chain worth $125.

The county clerk lives at Twenty-sixth and Chicago streets, and in going home usually goes west on Farnam to Twentieth, on Twentieth to Dodge and west on Dodge to Twenty-fifth, following the route of the Harney and West Dodge motor line to take advantage of the electric lights that illuminate the way.

He was going home Tuesday night a little later than usual and was passing along the Dodge street side of the high school grounds when he met with the experience he will not soon forget.

When just in front of the stone steps that lead up to the high school from Dodge street two men with mask-covered faces and revolvers in hand sprang from the shadow of the wall and commanded Mr. O'Malley to throw up his hands, a command that the surprised official did not time in obeying.

The highwaymen evidently understood their business and went to work in a manner that convinced Mr. O'Malley that he was in the hands of experts in their line.

One of the men placed a revolver at Mr. O'Malley's temple and admonished him in language convincing if not elegant that any attempted resistance or outcry would be taken as an excuse for some pistol practice with the county clerk's brain-holder as a target.

Mr. O'Malley didn't say a word.

The partner of the gentleman with the pistol with left fingers went through Mr. O'Malley's pockets, relieving them of their valuable contents. He was apparently satisfied with results, as he drew out $50 in cash and a fine gold watch and chain. These he transferred to his own pocket and then hastily beat a retreat down a neighboring street.

As the sound of this villain's footsteps died away the robber who was making the gun play for Mr. O'Malley toward home and told him to skip, threatening to shoot him if he looked back.

Mr. O'Malley remembered the story of Lot's wife with a shudder, and kept his eyes in front of him until he was safe in his home.

The matter was reported to the detective force, and an effort is being made to locate the robbers from descriptions furnished by Mr. O'Malley.

Omaha parties, will be established one of the largest wholesale and retail dry goods stores in the west. It will be conducted on a most liberal scale such as the operation of the location affords and will in every manner be worthy of Omaha.
