The prevailing color for signals of distress on the Union Pacific is old Gould.

The board of public works is convinced that new brooms sweep clean, and acts accordingly.

If a Little Wound throws the wretched waltzers into spells, a fatal wound would doubtless produce spasms.

A RESOLUTION of sympathy from the county commissioners to the board of public works is in order.

The anxiety of the infant smelting combine to take in the great Omaha plant recalls the story of the small boy who offered his father a half interest in his young but promising circus to suspend the operation of the paternal trap.

The importation of a copyist from Plattsmouth to work on the Omaha tax-list does not imply a scarcity of competent penmen in this city.

AND now Church Howe finds a contentant bold enough to dispute his sovereign rights on the murdering Nemaha.

THE political pipe lines of the combine are a source of grave mental anxiety to the plumbing inspectors.

BUFFALO BILL will be welcomed back to Nebraska tonight by the people of Omaha, who recognize in him the best advertised citizen of the state.

It is evident the news of Brigadier General Colby's preparations to take the field in person has not reached the camp of the Messiah.

In the long and lurid proclamation counter-signed by Prittle, Dech & Co., there is one gaunt, gasping truth—a thing of substance amid a mass of hideous shadows and wierd fabrications.

The affairs of the Columbian exposition appear to be moving forward with a little more harmony and clarity than before.

REPUBLICANS are in honor bound to repudiate the men who deliberately conspired to slaughter the republican ticket last December.

A BLOOD-CURDLING MANIFESTO.

In Mexico, Central and South America every revolutionary movement is preceded by soul-stirring appeals from factional leaders and would-be dictators.

To Friends of the People's Cause: We congratulate you upon the part you have taken in winning on Tuesday, November 4, the grandest people's victory ever won in Nebraska.

Never in the history of a free people were ever such perfidies, promulgated and systematic attempt to defeat their will.

Men who had the courage of their convictions, who attempted to assist the people's cause at the polls, were mobbed, knocked down, driven away or dragged off to jail on some flimsy pretext.

It must not be supposed that farming in the United States has attained its highest possible development.

More than half of the state of Nebraska yet remains to be developed by railroad construction.

It is pleasant to be able to record that no person who has been notified that his election will be contested has yet said that he feared an attempt to cheat him out of his office if the returns show he was elected.

THE success of Gordon in Georgia demonstrates that it is one thing to elect an Alliance majority to the legislature and quite another thing to handle it as a solid mass.

THE bloody scalpings now surround Pine Ridge agency clamoring for their rations, but the country is safe.

ABRAM S. HEWITT is the latest suggestion for the democratic senatorship from New York.

ONLY two companies of soldiers are left at Fort Omaha.

THE new agricultural implement trust still insists that it will sell its wares cheaper than formerly.

THE Illinois democrats now claim that they can get along without the three alliance men in the legislature.

Nebraska's Fortunate Escape. The prohibitions of Nebraska on election day sent telegrams all over the state saying that those who were attempting to vote for the amendment in the city of Omaha were large numbers killed.
