

THE CITY.

Taylor Bryan, the bright four-year-old boy, of Ben B. Bryan, the commission man, died yesterday morning after a brief illness.

A large number of petty offenders were before Judge Heisley yesterday but his honor did not feel disposed to sentence any of them to turkey. The whole batch was therefore either discharged or released on personal recognizance to appear later for trial.

Thos. E. Drake, a Chicago traveling man, is stopping at the Paxton. Mr. Drake is the gentleman who rescued Cora Tanner, the actress, from a hotel fire in Syracuse, New York, a few weeks ago.

Primary Election Law. The law governing primary elections in this state is as follows. It will be strenuously enforced:

Sec. 117. [Fraudulent voting]. If at any political primary election held by any political party, organization, or association in this state, any individual shall falsely personate and vote under the name of any other person, or shall intentionally vote without the right to do so, or shall wilfully and wrongfully obstruct and prevent others from voting who have a right to do so at such primary, or shall fraudulently or wrongfully deposit ballots in the ballot box, or take them therefrom, or shall commit any other fraud or wrong tending to defeat or affect the result of the election, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 118. [Rules Polls]. Political parties, organizations or associations, in this state may adopt such rules and regulations and appoint presiding officers and inspectors of election at any primary election that they deem just and proper, provided that in all cities of the metropolitan, first or second class the polls at all such primary elections shall be opened at 12 o'clock noon and close at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, standard time, on the day on which such elections are held.

Sec. 119. [Challenges—Oaths]. The vote or ballot of any person offering to vote at an election shall, upon challenge by any lawful voter thereat, be rejected, unless he be sworn as to his qualifications as such voter, and the presiding officer or any inspector of such primary is hereby empowered, and it shall be his duty to administer an oath to such person and to any other person offering to vote, as he may deem advisable, which oath shall be as follows: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will truly answer make no such questions as may be put to you by the presiding officer or either of the inspectors of this primary election touching your name and residence and your qualification as a voter in this district, ward or precinct and whether you have before voted at this primary election." And it shall be the duty of the presiding officer or one of the inspectors of such primary election (if required by the person challenging) to keep a correct record of the interrogatories propounded by such presiding officer or inspector to any person who shall have been duly sworn, as provided by this act, and also a correct record of the answers to all such interrogatories, which record shall be forthwith deposited by him or them with the clerk of the county in which said election is held.

Sec. 120. [Penalty]. In case the person so swearing shall intentionally make false answer to any question so put to him by the presiding officer or inspector, or shall commit any other fraud or wrong tending to defeat or affect the result of the election, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor for a term not less than one year nor more than three years.

Old Cars Withdrawn and New Pullman Dining Cars now on the Pennsylvania Lines. The old "diners" are abandoned and entirely new dining cars, embodying the latest improvements, equipped with every convenience, finished in exquisite taste and fully up to the incomparable standard of excellence constantly maintained by the famous Pullman company, have been placed in service upon the Pennsylvania lines between Chicago, Columbus, Pittsburg and New York, on those quick and popular trains, numbers four, eight and twenty, leaving Chicago at 10:30 a. m., 3:15 p. m. and 11:30 p. m. daily.

This service is in addition to the dining car running on number two, the Pennsylvania Limited, a solid Pullman vestibule train, composed of dining, sleeping, smoking and observation cars, on which an extra fare is charged. No more brief stops for indifferent meals! You can "fare sumptuously every day" at your leisure and in comfort while rolling across the country at forty miles an hour upon the vestibule trains of the Pennsylvania lines, in the new and luxurious dining cars of the Pullman company.

By a recent decision of the United States court, the patent vestibule cannot be used on other than Pullman cars. Particular attention is therefore invited to the fact that the Pennsylvania lines are operating Pullman sleeping and dining cars which are properly fitted with that convenient and appreciable device—the Pullman perfected safety vestibule.

For special information please call upon agents of connecting lines, or address G. B. TEDDICK, Trav. Pass. Ag't, Omaha, Neb.

PRIMA GRADIS. A New Question Suggested by the High School Annex Decision. The proceedings of the district court in the mandamus case brought by the board of education to compel the superintendent of buildings to issue a permit for the erection of a one-story brick building on the high school grounds have been reviewed by the supreme court and the decision of Judge Doane, ordering a mandamus to issue, has been reversed, the case being remanded for the entry of the proper judgment.

When the order of the court was made it was provided that the writ of mandamus should not issue for thirty days, in order to give the city attorney time to take the case before the supreme court and secure a ruling. The issuance of this order was strenuously opposed by Mr. Estelle, the attorney for the board of education, but the court ruled otherwise.

The finding of the supreme court on this question in brief is as follows: "Under the act of 1869 donating 'capitol square' to the city of Omaha, the grant provided that the said property shall be used by said city for the purpose of a high school, college, or other institution of learning, and for no other purpose whatever." Held that this does not include the mere primary department of the primary schools.

"The substitution of the board of education for the board of regents of the high schools made by the act of 1871 did not change the character of the trust but merely of the body which administered the same. "The words 'high school' as used in the act may be defined as a school where the highest branches of common school education are taught."

City Attorney Poppleton was asked his construction of the decision of the supreme court. "The decision effectually settles the question as far as the contemplated building is concerned," said Mr. Poppleton. "It says in no many words that the board of education has no authority to erect a building on the grounds for the use of the primary grades. Just where the court proposes to draw the line, as between the higher grades and the primary grades, I cannot say. It probably intended to include with the high school the higher grades of the graded schools, but I am not prepared to say whether the court specified where the line should be drawn."

"It was just the decision I expected," continued Mr. Poppleton. "At the hearing Justice Maxwell several times intimated his opinion that the land was held in trust for high school purposes and could not be used for the lower grades."

"The cost of the building had nothing to do with the question," concluded Mr. Poppleton. "It was the use to which it was to be put. I don't think there could be any objection made if the board saw fit to erect a building costing only a few thousand dollars to be used for an observatory, for instance, or for any other purpose connected with the high school."

"Do you infer that this decision will interfere with the right of the board to use any portion of the present building for the lower grades?" "No, I think not. I think it only refers to the right of the board to erect a building which is manifestly to be used for the lower grades. I do not think it would have any bearing upon a proposition to erect an addition or extension to the present building even though a portion of it might be used for the primary grades."

Judge Doane was seen by a reporter for this Bee and asked how he construed the supreme court decision. "I don't exactly understand it. I would take it, however, that the decision excludes the primary department of the high school, but here in Omaha we have so many grades, from one to eight or nine, that I don't know where they would draw the primary line."

Gessler's Magic Headache Wafers. Cure all headaches in 20 minutes. At all druggists. There will be a meeting this evening at the corner of Sixteenth and Vinton streets to consider improvements in the southern part of the ward, as also the aspirants for councilman.

Dr. Birney cures catarrh, Bee bldg. The only railroad train out of Omaha run expressly for the accommodation of Omaha, Council Bluffs, Des Moines and Chicago business is the Rock Island vestibule limited, leaving Omaha at 4:15 p. m. daily. Ticket office, 1602 Sixteenth and Farnam sts., Omaha.

Albright's Choice, great bargains. ANNOUNCEMENTS. The attraction at the Grand on Sunday and the two following evenings will be "Lights and Shadows," a play said to present a remarkable series of striking stage situations. Among them a scene where a rising tide enters the room where hero and heroine are bound and nearly suffocates them, is remarkably effective. Excellent, too, is the steel room scene, where the hero is entrapped. "Lights and Shadows" holds its interest to the curtain's fall, and the last act, though short, is full of surprises.

Charles A. Gardner, the sweet singer and German dialect comedian, will appear at the Opera on Sunday evening next in his pretty comedy, "Fatherland." The play was written specially for Mr. Gardner, and enables him to display his abilities to the greatest advantage.

Commencing Monday evening and continuing the remainder of the week, McNally's comedy, "A Straight Tip," will occupy the boards of the Boyd. Mr. James F. Powers, the famous comedian of the New York Casino, will play the principal part, and will be supported by a competent company under the management of Rich & Harris of the Boston Athenaeum.

ESCAPED DEATH IN BATTLE.

Samuel Cotter, a recently discharged veteran, blew out the gas in his room at the Jennings' hotel Wednesday night, and was dead when discovered this morning. The deceased and a comrade named James Patterson were retired from the service last Saturday at Fort Mead, S. D., having been in the regular army for thirty years. With a younger comrade, C. H. Stead, who was discharged last Monday, they came south, arriving here Wednesday evening. Stead left directions at the hotel for the two veterans to be carefully looked after, and went out to take in the town.

Cotter and Patterson retired in adjoining rooms about 9:30 o'clock, and the porter turned out the gas for them. Cotter was partially undressed when the porter left him, but said that the murderer was lying in wait which shone through the transom from the hall was amply sufficient.

When Patterson awoke yesterday morning he found Cotter's door still locked, and made no attempt to arouse his companion for nearly two hours. He was unsuccessful and the murderer's door still locked, and the transom was burst open. Cotter was dead and his body was cold. He had apparently gotten up during the night to smoke and on again retiring had blown out the gas.

A partly smoked pipe and sack of tobacco were lying near the bed, and the gas was turned on full. Cotter was lying partially across the bed with one foot on the floor, and had on his coat. The room was closed tightly.

Cotter was sixty years of age. He was a private in troop C, Eighth cavalry, and went to Fort Meau with his regiment about two years ago from Fort Brown, Texas. He and Patterson were going to St. Antonio. Coroner Harrigan was notified of the asphyxiation of Cotter and made preparations for holding the inquest.

Of so-called coughs do little more than impair the digestive functions and create bile. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it cures the cough, does not interfere with the functions of either stomach or liver. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in diseases of the throat and lungs.

Four years ago I took a severe cold, which was followed by a terrible cough. I was very sick, and confined to my bed about four months. I employed a physician most of the time, who finally said I was in consumption, and that he could not help me. One of my neighbors advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I tried it, and before I had finished taking the first bottle was able to sit up all the time, and to go out. By the time I had finished the bottle I was well, and have remained so ever since.—L. D. Dabry, Bartonsville, Vt.

We intend to turn the overcoat trade of Omaha "upside down" for the next few days as it was never turned before. Our buyer displays his nerve by making a second purchase this season of a manufacturer's entire stock of overcoats. There are enough overcoats in our store today to give one to every man in a small city, and they've got to be sold. It took nerve to buy them and it takes nerve to sell them at the prices we're going to make. Today we will begin the greatest

Special Sale of OVERCOATS.

Omaha ever saw, when we will sell A beautiful all wool wide wale overcoat for six dollars. A splendid chinchilla, for six fifty. A twelve dollar Kersey for eight dollars.
