ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Charles S. Gayler's melo-drama "Lights and Shadows," will be the next Sunday evening attraction at the Grand, the engagement being for three nights at popular prices. The New York Dramatic News says: "The house was packed from floor to ceiling, and the piece was rendered with a 'go' that was remarkable. The sensational incidents that followed one upon another worked the audience up to a pitch of excitement and culminated in the scene of the steel room, which brought down the house again and again." The advance sale opens this morning.

This morning at 9 o'clock seats will be put on sale for the engagement of Charles A. Gardner in his romantic comedy "Fatherland," which takes place at the Boyd on next Sunday evening. Mr. Gardner has the reputation of being one of the finest balladists in the profession, and has a number of new songs, among which is his great hit, "The Liliac." The scene of the play is laid in the Tyrol, which affords it the romantic features. Mr. Gardner will be assisted by a competent company and by the celebrated Tyrolean quartette.

J. J. McNally's new comedy, "A Straight Tip," which is a satire on the American custom of gambling, will be produced at the Boyd on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week by Mr. James T. Powers, and a strong company of comedians. "A Straight Tip" company worked last week at the Columbia theater, Chicago, to the largest business of the season.

The attraction at the Boyd for the latter part of next week will be Kiralfy's "Eighty Days Around the World."

Sec. 120. (Penalty.) In case the person so swearing shall intentionally make a false answer to any question so put to him by the presiding officer or any inspector, or either of them at such primary election, he shall, upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of perjury and shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than one year nor more than three years.

Sec. 121. (Officers.) If any person acting as an officer, inspector, teller or canvasser at any such primary election shall knowingly receive the vote of any individual who shall have been challenged, or who is known to him not to be entitled by the rules or regulations of the association, organization or political party holding the primary election, to vote at such primary, unless the same shall first be sworn in as aforesaid or shall in any manner fraudulently or wrongfully deposit or put any ballot into or take any from the ballot box of any primary election, or shall fraudulently or wrongfully mix any ballots with those cast at any primary election, or shall knowingly make any false count, canvass or statement certificate or return of the ballots cast or vote taken at said primary election, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 122. (Bribery.) If any person who is entitled to vote or is elected a delegate at such primary or convention shall accept or receive any money or valuable thing as a consideration for his vote, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 123. (Words construed.) The words "primary election" as used in this act shall be construed so as to embrace all elections, held by any political party, convention, organization or association, or delegates therefrom for the purpose of choosing candidates for office or the election of delegates to other conventions or for the purpose of any local party organization, convention or association.

Sec. 124. (Qualification of voters.) No person shall be entitled to vote at any primary election unless of the age of twenty-one years and a duly qualified voter under the laws and regulations of the political party, organization or association holding primary election.

Sec. 125. (Penalties.) The punishment of any of the offenses in this act declared to be misdemeanors shall be a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both such fine and imprisonment.

Corporations Must Go.

The big fight at the democratic primaries today will be in the Fifth ward where four candidates are in the field. They are Ed O'Connor, Tim Conway and Chris Toft, three saloonkeepers, and J. Notes About the City.

Union Thanksgiving services were held in the Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. C. N. Dawson, who was assisted by other clergy. The congregation was large, the music was fine and the sermon a remarkably vigorous, appropriate and interesting one.

Is the Indian Wronged?

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 28.—To the Editor of THE BEE: I do not agree with you in your conclusion of your article "Is Hunger the Real Cause?" The people of the United States cannot afford to supply all the wants of the 300,000 Indians in the land. I am not surprised at General Brooke's opinion of the matter. He is a soldier and as such he is used to see the army supplied with all the necessities in abundance, without asking where they come from and who pays for them. But our Indians are not defenders; they are an early good to the people of the country. The people of this land have no reason, and have not undertaken, as I understand it, to take care of all the Indians and supply all their wants, so they could now and forever live in laziness on the fat of the land. In accordance with treaties the Indians are entitled to some supplies, which, however, are not supposed to fill all their wants. They are expected to do something towards earning a living, and the allowance is to help them along in their efforts. If they are not receiving all that belongs to them, which they probably do not, it is wrong and should be looked after and corrected. But to do as you suggest, to fill their capacious stomachs to overflowing, would be neither just nor right nor human. The Indians have no right to demand it, the country cannot afford to do it, and the only remedy would be to continue the Indian in barbarism. He will not work, he will not learn to work, he will not civilize himself, as long as he be fed and taken care of.

The Majority

Of so-called cough-cures do little more than impair the digestive functions and create bile. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it cures the cough, does not interfere with the functions of either stomach or liver. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in diseases of the throat and lungs. "Four years ago I took a severe cold, which was followed by a terrible cough. I was very sick, and confined to my bed about four months. I employed a physician most of the time, who finally said I was in consumption, and that he could not help me. One of my neighbors advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and before I had finished taking the first bottle was able to sit up all the time, and to go out. By the time I had finished the bottle I was well, and have remained so ever since."—L. D. Bixby, Hartsville, Vt.

ROBINSON & GARMON

1517 FARNAM

NEBRASKA CLOTHING

We intend to turn the overcoat trade of Omaha "upside down" for the next few days as it was never turned before. Our buyer displays his nerve by making a second purchase this season of a manufacturer's entire stock of overcoats. There are enough overcoats in our store today to give one to every man in a small city, and they've got to be sold. It took nerve to buy them and it takes nerve to sell them at the prices we're going to make. Today we will begin the greatest

Special Sale of OVERCOATS.

- Omaha ever saw, when we will sell A beautiful all wool wide wale overcoat for six dollars. A splendid chinchilla, for six fifty. A twelve dollar Kersey for eight dollars. A sixteen dollar Kersey for ten fifty. A Kersey sold the world over for eighteen dollars, for twelve fifty. A handsome twenty dollar Kersey for fourteen seventy-five. A ten dollar Chinchilla Ulster for seven fifty. An excellent heavy Irish Frieze Ulster for nine seventy five. A heavy fur trimmed Storm Coat for ten fifty. To add interest to the occasion we have reduced the price on several lines of fine overcoats to a limit that makes them to-day the cheapest fine coats in America. Remember, the prices advertised are by a house known as one of the cheapest clothing houses in this country, if not THE cheapest, and every price is guaranteed by a house that says to its patrons: "If you're not suited in your purchase in any shape or manner, you'll get your money back."
