

GLADSTONE ISSUES A REPLY.

He Denies the Statements Made by Parnell in His Manifesto.

NO SUGGESTIONS OFFERED BY HIM.

A Number of Home Rule Liberal and Tory Papers Severely Criticize the Statements Made by the Irish Leader.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Messrs Gladstone and Morley both dispute Parnell's version of the negotiations which took place between them in regard to home rule and other matters concerning Ireland.

In an interview today, Henry Labouchere, member of parliament and editor of Truth, said it would be charitable to suppose Mr. Parnell mad.

Gladstone has issued a reply to Parnell's manifesto in which he denies in toto the statements made by the Irish leader in regard to the retention of Irish members in the imperial parliament.

The London Standard says that Gladstone's reply is a masterpiece of logic and statesmanship.

THE PASSENGER AGENTS' UNREST.

They Quail Under the Stern Gaze of the Grand Jury.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Some of the general passenger agents of the western roads are now becoming uneasy.

It is reported that the federal grand jury, as soon as it concludes its investigation of the alleged freight rate manipulations, will turn its attention to passenger affairs and endeavor to place the responsibility for the blocks of cut rates tickets that have recently been disturbing the market.

The grand jury is expected to bring about the indictment of as many of the lawless operators as it can get its hands on.

TRIBUTE TO JUDGE SAVAGE.

An Eloquent Panegyric by Hon. John B. Hawley of This City.

The following address was to have been delivered by General John B. Hawley at the memorial services in honor of the late Judge James W. Savage at the Omaha club last Friday evening.

Owing to the sudden illness of the general, however, the address could not be delivered.

By special request, the eloquent effort is here reproduced.

Mr. Chairman—It is the wish of every truly honorable and virtuous man to so live his day of life that when it is ended, he may be remembered and talked of with respect and admiration.

The life of every truly noble man is a blessing to the world while he is in it, and when he has left it.

It is a noble lesson given characteristics of man that the living drop the grave their remembrance, and bury them with the dead beneath the sod.

And whenever may be seen the life of a man who has existed in life, they are forgotten in the presence of death, that great leveler that subdues all races and all conditions of men.

The man to whom we pay tribute of respect, and upon whose brow we drop the tear of friendship this day, was tender and loving as a woman.

He was a man of high intelligence, and of high character, and of high ability.

He was a man of high intelligence, and of high character, and of high ability.

He was a man of high intelligence, and of high character, and of high ability.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

They Were Held Yesterday in the Various Wards of the City.

HOW THE ELECTION WAS CONDUCTED.

Very Little Excitement at Any of the Polling Places—short Sketches of the Several Candidates.

The democratic primaries to nominate candidates for councilmen in the several wards of the city took place yesterday.

In some wards the contest was quite spirited, notably in the First, where the present councilman, Mr. Lowry, was defeated by only three votes.

Charles Thomas—whose duty it was to keep track of the votes as they went into the box.

Very little while Thomas kept Chaffee's men on the outside informed how the votes stood. The victor for that ward, J. H. Kennedy, is yard master for the Missouri Pacific road.

It is distinctly probable that in case of a vacancy the republicans assembled shall fill any such vacancy by vote, but Mr. Chaffee did not propose to take any chances.

Whenever a Kooler ballot was presented the man was at once challenged, first by their challenger on the outside and by Mr. Quayley and by Mr. Cochran on the inside. They would then request the police officer to remove the man, which the policeman did by pushing the man away from the line.

At no time less than seven. This is a larger force than has ever been known to be present at a city election in this city.

These policemen were under instructions and played their part very successfully by building and removing honest voters from the polls.

The Ed Callahan graders were brought up in hails by the foreman, Nolan, and voted like cattle. This gang of men has recently been ordered to quit the city by the city.

Quayley, himself one of the judges or inspectors, voted both at the democratic primaries and for the democratic ticket at the state election, and yet voted for Chaffee and acted as judge at the republican primary.
