

THE DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily and Sunday, One Year, $10.00

Omaha, The Bee Building, South Omaha, Corner N and 24th Streets. Council Bluffs, 127 Park Street.

FOREIGN STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss. George B. Tschuck, Secretary of The Bee Publishing Company.

From to before me and subscribed in my presence the full title of THE DAILY BEE. I, N. P. Felt, Notary Public.

The impending session of the legislature will be of vital concern to the people of this state. It is of the utmost importance that members of the legislature shall understand the wants of their constituents.

IRELAND is cheering for Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea. Sweet old Ireland.

IT WILL be observed that Mr. Balfour is putting no obstacle in the path of the factions now slashing the throat of home rule.

IT IS likely that the first Alliance senator will come from South Carolina, but he will be about nine-tenths democrat to one-tenth Alliance.

THE Indian question is rapidly approaching a crisis. The famous Squaw Chief Tibbles is moving on the ghost dancers with his mouth.

IF WE are to have exclusively agricultural politics in 1892 the star of Uncle Jerry Rusk may be found to occupy a prominent place in the sky.

SENATOR DAWES says Sitting Bull is "the most pious hypocrite alive." Does the senator forget his old enemies, the Massachusetts mugwumps?

MR. THURMAN is to have another birthday banquet. As only neighbors are to be invited the country will be spared another ponderous speech by Grover Cleveland.

THE reward of $50,000 for the capture of Tassett has been renewed by the bereaved widow of Snell. As a means of masking the real criminal, the reward is a pronounced success.

SENATOR CAMERON displays wholesome regard for public sentiment in opposing the federal elections bill as a needless disturber of the business and social relations of the north and south.

IF PARNELL'S methods in Dublin are a sample of what may be expected when the uncrowned king is really crowned, Ireland will pay an extortionate price for substituting political tyranny for Tory coercion.

THE impression grows in Washington that Attorney General Miller will succeed his namesake on the supreme bench. Nothing has occurred, however, to alter the prevailing belief that Judge Gresham is the right man for the place.

IT is interesting to observe that Kate Field says there is no reason for Parnell to retire from the leadership of a cause "which he has not betrayed." It is not likely, however, that Kate's opinion is generally shared by American women.

THE final footings of the census will show a total population of 63,000,000. The number might have been run up another half million had Superintendent Porter permitted St. Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City and Denver to enumerate the residents of the surrounding cemeteries.

THE managing editor of the Congressional Record should be discharged. He carelessly allowed some political interviews to get into his publication, to the scandal of the honorable senators, who long ago established the rule that nothing of any human interest should appear in the publication.

A FEW newspapers are predicting that the legislature will not entertain the proposition to appropriate $150,000 for Nebraska's exhibit at the world's fair. In that case Nebraska will miss an opportunity for distinction which comes only once in 400 years.

ANOTHER RAILROAD CONFERENCE.

A conference of railroad presidents is called to meet in New York next Monday. It is understood that the suggestion of a meeting proceeded from Mr. Jay Gould, and it is not difficult to infer what its objects are.

It will be interesting in this connection to refer to the opinions of Mr. Aldace F. Walker, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Railway association, as expressed in a letter written a few weeks ago and just made public.

Very likely the deliberations of the coming conference of presidents will be in part on lines laid down in this letter of Chairman Walker, and it is quite possible that more radical suggestions than he presents will be adopted.

SECRETARY RUSK does not like the looks of the new trust in farm implements and says so plainly. He is a sincere friend of the farmers and uses all his energy and intelligence in their interest through the workings of the agricultural bureau.

It is stated from Washington that something important is likely soon to transpire in connection with the Behring sea controversy, and the opinion is said to be expressed by persons holding close relations to department diplomatic circles that the governments of the United States and Great Britain must soon come to an agreement or an open rupture on this subject.

It is now stated that in view of the well authenticated reports of the serious damage to the seal fisheries by Canadian poachers the state department is determined to push this controversy to a conclusion.

By a very decisive majority the house of representatives rejected the senate joint resolution relative to the removal of the remains of General Grant from Riverside Park, New York, to Arlington.

Washington, and it was offered in the belief that she was willing and ready to give her assent to a proposal thus formally made in the name of the government and in accordance with general public opinion.

The action of the house will doubtless put an end, for a considerable time at least, to all controversy and effort relating to the removal of General Grant's remains and the result will be disappointing to a very great majority of the people, and also, there is every reason to believe, to the family of the great soldier.

OMAHA AS A TAXPAYER. The prompt payment of taxes is one of the strongest proofs of the confidence and prosperity of a community. In this respect Omaha may safely challenge comparison with any city in the west.

RAILROAD POLITICS IN IDAHO. The Union Pacific railroad, according to a late dispatch from Boise City, has gone into politics in Idaho.

It will not be strange, therefore, if the wonderful energy, the Napoleonic charges and the faculty of seizing upon the resources of the opposition, carries Parnellism through Ireland like a political cyclone.

WHATEVER may be omitted or overlooked, the success of the world's fair hinges on the display of national guards. According to the Illinois department this feature of the exhibit is essential.

INDUSTRIES are steadily multiplying throughout the state. Every progressive city is reaching out for factories which will not only employ labor but manufacture the products of the surrounding country.

Between two Millstones. Chicago Intro-Oscum. Jay Gould is said to have "a double." Heaven help the country.

An Easy Combination. Chicago Tribune. The gambling houses are closed, but they can be opened by anybody who knows how to turn the knob on a door.

No Trust Here. Chicago City Times. The fact that a thief stole all the stock of a big thermometer manufacturing concern yesterday does not necessarily indicate that there will be a rise in the temperature.

Rough on the Rev. Malthus. Kansas City Times. Unless President Elihu Root produce new specifics for the destruction of disease man will soon be able to live forever, and what then will happen to the ghost of our old friend, Malthus?

Mr. Parnell as a Gaiety. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. No American example of candor in politics is at all comparable in originality and picturesqueness with that which has recently been displayed by Mr. Parnell in running the Irish party.

More to the Point. Milwaukee News. "What shall we do with our millionaires?" is the caption of a lengthy article in the latest North American Review.

An Inducement to Mr. Dana. Kansas City Journal. If Mr. Dana, by accepting the Herald's offer of the senatorship, could keep Governor Hill in line for the presidential nomination and thereby defeat Grover Cleveland's aspirations he would probably be a candidate.

Mr. Watterson's S. E. G. Chicago News. As nothing has been heard from the star-eyed goddess since the election it is safe to presume that she is still skipping airily through the paces of the ghost dance of victory, stopping over and anon to weave chapters of laurel for the brows of her Kentucky warrior, Henry Watterson.

Mr. Parnell's Head. New York World. Parnell seems to be losing his head, and at the same time having Ireland's cause. It could do neither himself nor the cause.

Congress and 1892. Baltimore Herald. As the short sessions of congress are usually characterized by a large amount of private jobbery, it is not likely that the present one will be free from that evil.

THE STORY ABOUT DR. HART. A Second Attempt to Kill Sheedy—A Lover in Jail—A Young Thief—Other Lincoln Notes.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 11.—[Special to THE BEE.]—In a darkened room in a small house at Second and J streets today lies the crushed and mangled remains of little Paul Schultz. Paul was aged about nine years, and yesterday afternoon left school at the accustomed hour for his home, accompanied by several companions.

THE PACKING EXODUS. Indications That It is Not a Thing of the Near Future.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The exodus of the packers to the new stockyards site in northern Indiana on Lake Michigan will certainly not take place soon, Edward Martin of Armour & Co., who is one of the gentlemen in whom the title to the new property stands, has made a statement which gives the present status of the enterprise.
