

THE HIGHWAYMAN'S TACTICS.

Adopted by the Parnellites to Suppress Anti-Parnellite United Ireland.

AN EDITION OF THE PAPER DESTROYED.

Two Masked and Armed Men Compel the Driver of a Wagon to Dump His Newspaper Load Into the River.

DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—The anti-Parnellite edition of United Ireland was issued today from the office of the Nation (T. D. Sullivan's paper). It contains an article addressed in William O'Brien's name to every true lover of Ireland the world over, declaring the sole alternative now is Parnell or home rule, and that home rule is impossible under Parnell's leadership.

The Parnellite edition of the paper was also issued from the regular office. It quotes a legal opinion justifying the seizure of the paper by Parnell. A wagon loaded with copies of the anti-Parnellite edition of United Ireland was driven to the King's Bridge railway station today. It being the intention to send them for publication in the south of Ireland. As the wagon drove up at the station, two men, one of whom had a mask on his face and the other a revolver, sprang upon the vehicle and compelled the driver to proceed with his load to the island bridge. Arriving there, the masked man ordered the driver to get out of the wagon. An attempt was made to seize a second wagon loaded with papers standing at the entrance of the depot, and the attempt would probably have proved successful had not the police interfered to protect the driver. Under their guard the papers were loaded upon the train.

PARNELL ASKED TO WITHDRAW.

The Irish Parliamentary Fund Association Issues an Address.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The Irish Parliamentary Fund association has issued an address, in which they say that while not seeking to dictate to the people of Ireland, they feel it a duty of conscience to ask that Ireland's political life be not controlled by a personal interest or factional strife, deeply grateful for Parnell's services, they cannot consent to have all that has been purchased for Ireland at such a cost shattered and lost in an hour of passion. The address continues: "While it pains us to take a stand against him, we are not prepared to do so as Ireland's leader, we unhesitatingly assert that the cause of home rule is superior to any man or set of men. We therefore endorse the position taken by the visiting parliamentary delegation and unite with them in asking that Parnell recognize the will of the majority and by a personal sacrifice save the cause of Ireland from the hands of his enemies, disheartens her friends, alienates her allies and must result in the total destruction of the cause which he has gained by his race since the present constitutional movement began." Among the signers are James R. Connelley, J. O'Donohue, William R. Grace, John Byrne, Joseph F. Daly and James S. Colman.

Parnell and the Press.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—The Star this morning makes fierce attacks upon Mr. Parnell, accusing him of Fenianism. It says:

"Today, possibly dynamite; tomorrow, rebellion. He is dragging Ireland to red ruin and throwing the blame on the shoulders of his party, and is fighting with poisoned weapons in a traitor's hands." The Pall Mall Gazette says: "There is too much pocket handkerchief about the American patriot's manner. They are anxious to heal all wounds and their copious dropping of tears will give Parnell fresh powder for his campaign. Let his patriots preserve a tender peace in their hearts. Parnell, for which Parnell—for Parnell drunk or Parnell sober? If they would still love Jekyll they should first extinguish Hyde."

O'Brien and Gill Will Split Today.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Messrs. O'Brien and Gill, the Irish envoys, were busy today making preparations to embark tonight on the steamer Oblom for Rotterdam, which sails at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning. Mr. Dillon said today that the rest of the party have not yet decided on any future plans beyond remaining quietly in this city. Their movements will then be determined by the result of the conference it is expected Messrs. O'Brien and Gill will have with Justice McCarthy in France. Mr. Harcourt intends to sail tomorrow on the Aurania. It is probable that he will land at Queenstown and immediately join Parnell. It is not expected that any further statements will be made at present by any of the Irish members now here.

Priests Denounce Parnell.

DUBLIN, Dec. 10.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—The priests of Killarney and London have joined in denouncing the action of Mr. Parnell in refusing to resign his position of Irish leadership. The Clonmilly poor law guardians have demanded of Mr. J. E. Kenney, member of the house of commons for Cork county, south, that he shall either support Mr. McCarthy or resign his seat. The committee of the Cork and county of Cork, formed to oppose Mr. Parnell, have elected the names of a large number of priests, town commissioners and tradesmen from Queenstown, Youghall, Fermoy, and other places, to pledge themselves to support the cause of the seceders.

Supporting Pope Hennessy.

DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—Although the bishop of Ossory yesterday advised the electors of Kilkenny to cast their ballots in the coming election according to the dictates of their conscience, he himself and the priests of the diocese in which Kilkenny is situated are supporting the canvass of Sir John Pope Hennessy. Messrs. Power, Mahoney, Dalton, Redmond and Fitzgerald at Kilkenny and elsewhere are in the interest of Mr. Vincent Scully, the nominee of the Parnellites.

The Clergy Against Parnell.

DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—The clergy of the parliamentary division of North Cork and East Limerick are actively engaged in organizing public opinion against Mr. Parnell. A priest at Mitchelstown threw down a number of placards that had been placed about the town, calling upon the people to support Mr. Parnell.

Wants to Criticize Parnell's Treason.

COKE, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—Rev. Canon Byron O'Mahoney, administrator of the cathedral, has written a letter to Mr. Parnell asking him to call a meeting of his constituents so as to give him (O'Mahoney) an opportunity to criticize in Mr. Parnell's presence his treason to the Irish parliamentary party.

Only a Fictitious Defense.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—The Daily News says it would be ashamed to weary its readers by dissecting the fictitious defense concocted by Parnell. It reminds its readers that Parnell's only friends in England are the supporters of Balfour and perpetual coercion.

Urged to Fight Parnell.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—The Pall Mall Gazette today urges the members of the McCarthy section of the Irish nationalists to take off their coats and fight the Parnellites.

Burned the Papers.

DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—On the arrival of Parnell's United Ireland at Castle Island today a crowd seized the papers and burned them.

David Starts for Kilkenny.

DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—Michael Davitt arrived in this city today en route to Kilkenny, where he will take an active part in the campaign in the interest of Sir John Pope Hennessy, parliamentary candidate of the McCarthy faction.

Believes in Reciprocity.

COKE, Dec. 12.—(Special Cablegram to THE BEE.)—The Cork branch of the national league, in an address to the committee he said he looked forward to them to support him and that in return he would support them.

Canon O'Mahoney's Denunciation.

COKE, Dec. 12.—At a meeting of the nationalist committee of Cork county tonight Canon O'Mahoney made an address, declaring that Parnell had left the city without replying to his challenge to call a meeting to give him an opportunity to show Parnell's treason. He said money had been distributed to organize demonstrations in favor of Parnell.

The New Anti-Parnell Organ.

DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—A committee representing the anti-Parnell section of the nationalist party secured an office today. Numerous applications for membership were received. They include letters from clergymen and others, expressing a readiness to subscribe funds if necessary for organization and the founding of the contemplated newspaper. It was decided to publish the first number of the paper Monday next under the title of "The Suppressed United Ireland," with the name of William O'Brien as publisher.

Parnell at Kilkenny.

DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—Parnell left Cork today for Kilkenny. As the train was drawing out of the station he expressed thanks to a body of Queen's college students for sympathy shown him by coming to witness his departure. The journey was without incident till the train reached Athy. Here a crowd headed by Parnell's supporters shouted "To—l—w—t—h—P—r—n—e—l—" gave three cheers for the bishops and priests, and cried, "Long live Dillon and O'Brien." At other stations the people cheered and waved their flags. At a torchlight procession, headed by the corporation officials, was in waiting and escorted Parnell to a hotel, where he addressed the crowd.

What the London Times Says.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The Times, referring to the Kilkenny campaign, says: "The efforts of the priests to obtain a cheer for Davitt failed and Healy was vigorously greeted and would probably have been handled roughly had not the police held the crowd back. At the hotel Healy tried to address the crowd, but was only allowed to utter a few words. Healy shouted, 'Who paid you for this?' and was answered with cheers for Parnell. He retorted by yelling, 'Three cheers for Mr. O'Brien.'" A dispatch to the Daily News from Kilkenny says: "Davitt was received with a tempest of cheering, but hissing and shouting were only too audible from the boys and youths. It is alleged that all over town boys were paid by the Parnellites to hoot Davitt."

THE REAPPORTIONMENT BILL.

Representative Frank's Measure Favorably Acted Upon.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The reapportionment bill, based upon a representation of 356 members of the house of representatives, originally proposed by Mr. Frank of Missouri, has been favorably acted upon by the house committee on census. Dannel subsequently reported the bill to the house. The report notes the charges and says that from the population of the United States the committee subtracted the population of the District of Columbia, Oklahoma and Utah. The remainder was 61,988,908. With this number the different ratios were obtained by taking as the divisor any proposed number. Each number was taken from the list of numbers and the ratio was found which would give a ratio which in application would secure each state against any loss in membership and in no instance leave a major fraction. This number was found to be 556. The ratio was 123,001. The number of members obtained on an even division was 529. The additional 27 needed to make 556 was secured by giving another member to each of the states having left to it a major fraction. These states are: Alabama, California, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Virginia and Wisconsin.

His Widow Will Contest.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The widow of the deceased leather merchant, Daniel B. Fayerweather, who will contest over $2,000,000 to colleges, will contest the instrument. The whole estate is expected to realize $5,500,000. The fourth and last codicil to the will was signed by Fayerweather on the day of his death. It removed Mr. Rich from the position of simple executor and gave him a joint residuary interest with Henry B. Fayerweather and John B. Fayerweather, which Mrs. Fayerweather holds in this and not to the bequests to the colleges. What she fails to comprehend is why the three executors should be named in the will and not out of them having any particular claim on it. The contest will be made on the grounds of undue influence.

A Quest with a Prolegue Prologue.

ATCHISON, Kan., Dec. 12.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—T. M. Walker, a banker of Atchison, Kan., is in town today looking for ninety head of cattle recently stolen from him. He says the cattle were shipped east and presented in Omaha, Chicago or St. Louis. He had a list of names in Washington, consisting of 15 head. A man named Beecher stole them. Outstanding proof of Beecher's name is Walker went to Beecher's place after the cattle. He found that Beecher was a prominent citizen, had just committed suicide. Walker found sixty head of the cattle at Beecher's place, but the rest had been sent out of the country.

Skipped Just in Time.

Ed. L. Hodges was in police court yesterday charged with being a vagrant and a suspicious character. Judge Holsley fined him $5 and costs and Hodges settled the bill and left the station. Half an hour later Miss Mary Mack, who works at the Ferris hotel, appeared and said that Hodges had stolen a gold watch from her about a month ago, and she has not recovered it. He borrowed the watch and immediately disappeared. She had found no trace of him until she noticed that he was in jail. Hodges had made his escape again and Miss Mack left the station very much disappointed.

Want the Bonded Paper Extended.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Before the McKinley bill went into effect importers bought very heavily. The recent financial stringency has made many of them doubt their ability to take goods out of bond. A number of merchants and bankers of this section are preparing a petition to congress to extend the bonded period to October 1, 1901. THE ILLINOIS SENATORSHIP.

An Emergency Whose Issues Will Probably Favor the Democrats. CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—It has developed that the democratic contest against the right of Representative McCrone to his seat in the general assembly is based upon apparently tenable grounds, and the republicans seriously fear that McCrone's ineligibility will lose the party the United States senatorship and result in the election of General John M. Palmer. The fact which McCrone is elected as the minority representative is overwhelmingly democratic, so that if his seat should be declared vacant there is no doubt of the democrats electing his successor.

The constitution of Illinois declares that a member of the general assembly must be a bona fide citizen of the state for the entire period of five years immediately preceding his election. The secretary of state of Kansas reports that on March 3, 1887, McCrone addressed a letter to Governor John A. Martin, applying for an appointment as notary public of Sedgewick county, Kansas. In his application he certified that he was a citizen of Sedgewick county; that he was over twenty-one years old, and that he held no notarial commission for any other county. The facts in the application were verified by several citizens of Sedgewick county, who testified as to the integrity of Mr. McCrone, and that he was a bona fide resident of Sedgewick county. The facts in the application were verified by several citizens of Wichita, was approved by A. B. Wright, clerk of the district court of Sedgewick county. The facts in the application were verified by McCrone, will certainly disqualify him as a representative and give the democrats the necessary 103 votes to elect a United States senator.
