FREMONT'S SEASON OPENS BRIGHTLY.

The Festive Tiddledy-wink Received with Open Arms by Nebraska's Prettiest-Gossip from Hastings - Events at Beatrice.

The movements of society people in some of the leading towns of the state are detailed below. The season may be said to have only fairly opened. In later issues THE BEE will attempt to cover the important society events of the chief towns in the state.

Fremont. Never in the history of Fremont has there been experienced a more brilliant social season than the present one. Parties, teas, Kensingtons, tiddledy-winks, chocolataires and high five and balls, have chased each other in rapid succession. An extraordinary degree of sociability has been awakened and scores of hospitable homes have been thrown pen for society's entertainment. Mr. Theodore F. Hummel returned a few days ago from Morrison, Ill., where he was wedded last week to one of Morrison's best girls, Miss Ivy Green, who accompanies him and who has been given a cordial welcome by Fremont society, in which she is so well qualified to take a prominent part. Mr. and Mrs. Hummel have begun housekeeping at 118 west Ninth street.
