Work on the new Broadway Methodist church, which has been suspended for a couple of weeks, was resumed yesterday. The delay was occasioned by the woodworkers. The people in the vicinity who are im-patient to see the building pushed ahead will probably be disappointed, as the building committee are encountering a good deal of difficulty in collecting the subscriptions and there is already a deficiency that is embarasing them.

The case of the state of Iowa against A. W. Wilson, charged with assault with intent to murder Turner on the Coyle farm some time ago, was called in Justice Barnett's court yesterday afternoon. The state was represented by D. M. West and the defense by John Lindt. A motion on the part of the defense to continue the case until next Tues-day was granted. The case unstates the frequency day was granted. The case was taken from Schurz' court on a change of venue.

A few days ago the Council Bluffs insurance company begun a suit in Justice Bar-nett's court on a promissory note given by a man in O'Brien county named W. R. Harris. The original notice was sent to the sheriff of the county by mail, accompanied by an urgent appeal to get prompt service, as it urgent appeal to get prompt service, as it was rumored the man was going to leave the country. The sheriff wrote a brief note acknowledging the receipt of the notice. It was received yesterday and thoroughly sat-isfied the people interested at this end of the line that Harris could be found when wanted, at least for some time tc come. The sheriff wrote: "Served notice on Harris. He is a guest of mine in the county jail and will re-main here until after the March term of the district court unless he can give $2,000 bond." No New Developments in the Failure of Henry Eiseman & Co.

A RUMORED NEWSPAPER EMBARRASSMENT

The Nonpareil Gives a Chattel Mortgage-Accident to Henry Paschal-Hunting for Her Little Daughter-Minor Mention.

There were no new developments yesterday in the heavy failure of Henry Eiseman & Co. A great many inquiries were made by eastern creditors, but no move was made to seek greater protection than that afforded by the assignment of everything to S. P. McConnell.

A schedule of the creditors is being pro pared and was completed last evening, but was not filed. The hasty examination made by the assignce indicates that the liabilities will not be greater than the figures published in THE BEE yesterday morning, and may prove to be a little smaller, while the assets will exceed the figures named. The failure continues to create a sensation, and has called forth many warm and hearty protestations of good will and sympathy from the public and fellow, merchants.

The Nonpareil Rumor.

The report was prevalent in business circles yesterday that the Nonpareil had failed, and the rumor had many preposterous stories tacked onto it as it went the rounds. There wills some color of corroboration given to the rumor by the fact that no paper was issued yesterday morning, but this was in accordance with the ancient custom of that paper to observe Christmas in the old fashioned and country weekly style of skipping a number for each holiday. The Nonparell made the announcement the day before that no paper would be issued on account of Christmas, but would be issued on account of Christmas, but still this did not seem to account satisfactor-ily for its non-appearance. The office was not open until late yesterday morning, and this, too, gave rise to a report that the estab-lishment was shut up. Then there was still stronger coloring given to the story when there appeared on record in the county re-corder's office two mortgages, one on the real mathematical mathematical mathematical mathematical mathematical state and the other on the presses and maestate and the other on the presses and ma-terial, given by the Nonparell to the Council Bluffs savings bank to secure the payment of a note for $11,750, given December 24 and due one day from date. There soon followed various street reports about an assignment, a foreclosure and all sorts of choking-off proeedings.

Mr. Snyder, who is the vice president of the Nonpariel company and manager of the concern, was found in his office, and everything was apparently running as usual. "The report of the Nonparell failing was as much a surprise to me as to anyone," he remarked. "There isn't a thing in it, and I don't know how such a report could start, unless it was from the fact of our not issuing any paper this morning on account of Christ-mas. We have made no assignment, and do not intend to. There's no need of it. The Nonpareil has got more than enough to meet every bill. We simply gave the chattel mortgage to the bank to make secure what we owed there. There will be nothing more done about it, and it was simply a business transaction, and not any indication that the Nonparell is going to fail."

"Are there some changes to be made in the management of the paper?" "None that I know of. I've heard all sorts of rumors, but there is nothing to them so far as I know."

TWO MEN BURNED TO DEATH.

Samuel Malone and John Hicks Perish at Holden, Mo.

HOLDEN, Mo., Dec. 28.-The house of Samnel Malone, on West Fifth street, burned to the ground this morning. As the firemen arrived one side of the house fell out and by the light of the fire they saw Mr. Malone and and w. E. Reid and wile, o list and the entire crew of the bark Fred E. Richards. The Richards left Philadelphia December 2 with a cargo of coal for Havana. During the rough weather of two weeks ngo the Richards went down on December 12 in latitude 32 28 and longitude John Hicks, his brother-in-law, crawling toward a door in their bed room, attempting to escape. Then the roof fell in and the un-fortunate men were hidden from sight. Their charred bodies were found in the ruins.
