

THE CITY.

Mr. Gibberson will assume his duties as deputy city clerk today. Commissioner O'Keefe is out in the country looking after bridges and roads.

The Omaha Democrat has suspended its daily publication, but will publish a weekly and Sunday edition.

The only marriage license issued by the county judge yesterday was to George Brown and Miss Tony Wolf, both of Omaha.

There will be a special meeting of the city council this afternoon at 2 o'clock to take some action on the proposed amendments to the city charter.

An important meeting of the Clifton Hill citizens' club will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at 1810 Military avenue. Matters of importance will be presented for the consideration of the club and a full attendance is requested.

I have suffered with rheumatism for quite a number of years, and after trying Serravallo's Tonic the best remedy I ever used. Mrs. J. Zimmerman, Wetheredville, Mo.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Fell Into a Cellar. Late Thursday night a Hollis E. Hogie fell through a trap door into his cellar.

North Star Scandinavian Society. Past President Peter J. Hanson installed the officers elect of North Star Scandinavian society.

School-Boy Riot. A regular school-boy riot, in which clubs, stones and knives took conspicuous part, occurred Thursday afternoon at Albright Hall.

Fell Off a Car. An intoxicated man, who gave his name as Fred T. Compton of Deadwood, at 6:30 o'clock last night fell off a motor car near Twenty-fourth and D streets.

South Omaha Club Social. The social given by the South Omaha club Thursday night attracted a good attendance.

Notes About the City. Mrs. John Buzard is on the sick list. Peter McCabe and Patrick Gaffney of Atlantic, Ia., are visiting friends in this city.

Relief for Vet. rans. Department Commander Clarkson of the Grand Army of the Republic is in receipt of contributions from posts in all sections of the country for the relief of members of the Grand Army in the western part of the state who are in destitute circumstances.

Horford's Acid Phosphate cures indigestion, dyspepsia, etc.

The Fire Record. The fire department was called out twice yesterday. A small cottage at 104 North Twelfth street, owned by the heirs of the Hengen estate and occupied by Mrs. Mary Dean, colored, was destroyed and a shanty occupied by Dennis Connors in the hollow near the Sixteenth street viaduct was burned.

Withdraw His Endorsement. W. A. Paxton a few days ago signed a petition recommending that the county commissioners appoint a certain doctor as county physician. Yesterday he sent a note to the board asking that his name be canceled from the petition, explaining that he signed the paper without really knowing what he had signed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. Seats will be on sale this morning for "The Ironmaster," a well known and exceptionally strong five-act drama, which will be presented at the Grand opera house Sunday evening by the Stuart dramatic company, at popular prices.

William J. Gilmore is a Philadelphian in so far that he has managed for many years past the Central theater in this city, but he is perhaps better known in Omaha as a skillful and energetic manager of spectacular things, such as "The Devil's Auction," and "The Twelve Tomatoes," with which in recent years he has made a great deal of money. No one who has seen the production of "The Sea King" will deny that not only are the scenery and costumes elaborately expensive, but are also to be commended from an artistic point of view.

Commencing this afternoon and continuing till Saturday night, three performances of Rice's beautiful "Evanche" will be the attraction at the Boyd. It is coming with all the accessories of a metropolitan attraction, and many of the old-time people are in the cast.

"The Cannock," a comedy drama which enjoyed a run of some one hundred nights at the Bijou theater, New York, will be given at the Grand opera house Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week by McKee Rankin and company.

Next Monday We shall open our new stock of SCOTCH GINGHAMS and wash fabrics for spring. We have some beautiful fancy plaids and stripes, as well as all the small staple checks in our usual fine qualities.

At the same time we shall open a new shipment of EMBROIDERIES and LACES.

They are exhibited in one of our 16th street show windows and are very handsome.

Ladies who wish to purchase will do well to visit this sale and ALL are invited to at least call and examine the goods.

Remember Monday, January 19, 1891, second floor, 16th street wing.

RELICS OF THE FIGHT.

Pickings From the Battle Field on Wounded Knee Creek. The show window at Macoy & Bro.'s store, Sixteenth and Farnam streets, contains a display of Indian relics secured by Mr. C. H. Cressy, Third Regt. correspondent, from the battle field on Wounded Knee creek.

Ghost dance shirt and leggings taken from the body of the medicine man, who led the incantation pow-wow. He gave the signal to fire by picking up a handful of dirt and throwing it into the air, exclaiming: "Remember the soldiers' bullets cannot go through our ghost shirts!"

His head was literally shot off. One of the Indian pickets that Big Foot's squaw took from her own wrists and gave to Mr. Cressy as a "thank offering" for a drink of water that he gave her after she had been shot and was carried to the rear in a dying condition. The bracelets are the finest porcupine work.

Doors which Big Foot fell upon when riddled with bullets. Indian psalm book found under a ghost shirt on the body of a dead brave after the battle.

Pair of porcupine moccasins found on the battlefield after the fight. The "boots" that Big Foot wore at the time he was shot down. Indian war club used in the fight; stone and rawhide.

Porcupine quills used by squaw for making fancy work and in the torture of wounded victims. Found in the hostile camp at the close of the fight.

Big Foot's pipe and tobacco pouch. One of the one hundred and fifty or more belts of ammunition with which the Indian devils were equipped at the battle.

Blow which Big Foot received when taken from the body of a dead squaw who led a rush of squaws at the soldiers. The point of the knife was broken by a soldier's wounding off a blow which Big Foot received when taken from the body of a dead squaw who led a rush of squaws at the soldiers.

Winchester rifle used by the Indian correspondent at the battle and carried by him all through the campaign. The Indian had many just like it—the latest pattern.

A SOLDIER'S CRIME.

He Confesses to Burglary and is Suspected of Forgery. It has only been a few days since Fred Fitzgerald received, so he claimed, an honorable discharge from the regular army at Rushville, Neb. His title was sergeant major of the Seventh cavalry. Upon receiving his discharge Fitzgerald came direct to Omaha.

Yesterday he was placed under arrest by Detectives Savage and Dempsey, and it was a good catch. The fellow admits that he burglarized Sam Snyder's jewelry store and the officers think they can also prove that Fitzgerald is a forger. They also suspect him of being the man who worked the grocery rack. He is an intelligent fellow and a good penman.

The detectives have been shadowing Fitzgerald for several days. He was frequently seen in bad company and was getting ready to leave the city when placed under arrest at the California house on Douglas street.

After being locked up Fitzgerald confessed that he had burglarized Sam Snyder's jewelry store and told the officers where he had disposed of the booty.

There is also evidence that he forged the name of John Simpson and passed two $25 checks, one on the Continental clothing company and the other on Browning, King & Co. The prisoner will not be arraigned until more detailed evidence is secured.

Later in the day the detectives learned that Fitzgerald was wanted in Sioux City, Covington, Chicago and several other places in the United States as well as Canada. He then confessed that it had been six years since he had been in the employ of the government as a soldier.

RUSH'S ANNUAL.

The Treasurer's Report of the City's Financial Transactions. The annual report of City Treasurer John Rush has been completed and contains a vast amount of information regarding the financial condition of Omaha.

The receipts for the year 1890 were as follows: Total tax collections (regular) $8,799,600.00. Total tax collections (special) $3,447,371.00. Proceeds of bonds sold $5,361,310.00.

From police court $1,518,000.00. From building inspector $4,233,000.00. From planing mill $1,960,000.00. From boiler inspector $1,434,000.00.

From city engineer $1,574,000.00. From board of public works, certified check $1,000,000.00. From dog licenses, all kinds, other licenses paid $2,807,000.00.

From state appropriation, account school $28,667,500.00. From state appropriation, account school $28,667,500.00. From state appropriation, account school $28,667,500.00.

The following table shows the disbursements of the office: Salaries $1,883,429.00. Fees to county treasurer $11,164.00.

The total general bonded indebtedness is shown to be $1,936,100. Taxes collected amounted to $88,799,600.

An interesting table shows the valuation of the city, the levy for taxes and the amount received during the years from 1890 to 1890 inclusive.

In the year 1890 the levy was 5 mills, and this on a valuation of $1,059,950 brought the total into the city $5,299,750.00.

TO CONVERT THE HEATHEN.

Thirty Scandinavian Missionaries to Leave Omaha Today for China. The overland fast mail, today at 5:30 p.m., leave with an extra car attached containing over thirty missionaries for Shanghai, China.

These missionaries are all young Scandinavian people, young men and ladies from over the United States. They are selected for the work by the great Swedish Evangelist, Rev. E. Emanuelson, who for the last ten years has done missionary work in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Germany, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, Palestine and other countries.

During the past two weeks Rev. Franson has conducted services in the Swedish Mission church in this city, giving special attention to the training and encouragement of the missionaries for their work.

He has been assisted by Rev. J. A. Hultman, pastor of the church, and by Dr. Holmquist of Burlington, Ia., who has given the missionaries the medical instruction necessary to fit them for the emergencies of their calling.

Over forty applicants for missionary work have been in attendance at the services held during the past two weeks and from these about thirty will start for China today have been chosen. The others will be further drilled for the work and a dozen or more of them will form a second party that will be sent out in a few weeks.

Investigating the Major. The council committee appointed to investigate the plumbing inspector meets at 10 o'clock today in Councilman Morearty's office in the Range block.

The committee is composed of Councilmen Tuttle, Donnelly and Morearty. It is understood that the committee will probe the charges to the bottom and will call witnesses on both sides, so that all the facts which are brought out. The Bee has been notified that parties mentioned in its columns as having paid fees on certain dates will be asked to testify as to the date of payment. It is supposed that the comptroller and city treasurer will also be called to testify that these bills were not reported and paid in promptly, and were not, even included in the inspector's annual report.

Many Clergymen.

Singers, actors, and public speakers on Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is the favorite remedy for hoarseness and all affections of the vocal organs, throat, and lungs.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has done me great good. It is a splendid remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and I have much pleasure in testifying to its merits.

In my profession of an auctioneer, my affection of the voice or throat is a serious matter, but, at each attack, I have been relieved by a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This remedy, with ordinary care, has worked such a magical effect that I have suffered very little inconvenience.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle, 25c.

CLEANING UP.

The Ten Dollar sale of overcoats we inaugurated last week has reduced our stock considerable, still we have yet quite a few to dispose of. In a week or so the season will be closed, and what is not sold will have to be carried over till next fall. We have no room for unseasonable stock. We have always made it a point to clean out at the end of each season, and are determined to do it this time.

CORK SOLE SHOES.

This has been a poor season for all winter shoes. We have a lot of excellent calf shoes with genuine cork soles, which we are forced to sacrifice. We offer these at $2.75. Every pair guaranteed. There is not a shoe store in the country that will think of selling such shoes for less than $4.80.

CLEANING UP ALL AROUND.

In every one of our departments we have something or other which must be cleared out, and have made extraordinary reductions. In some instances the price is cut just one-half. In the underwear department, a lot of scarlet heavy shirts and drawers, worth 50c, marked down to 25c.

In the hat department we offer a lot of good knit caps, in men's and boys' sizes, at 15c they always sold for 30c. In hosiery, excellent all wool seamless socks at 15c; every store sells them at 30c.

At the glove counter you will find several lots of gloves and mitts, reduced to about half their former prices.
