stroyed by fire Sunday night, An incendiary fire at Nebraska City de-stroyed the scap works of C. H. Miller, in-flicting a less of $3,500, with no insurance. The state firemen's tournament begins a three days' session at Grand Island today. One hundred and fifty delegates are expected to attend. Rev. C. M. Shepherd of Superior has re-ceived from the United States consul at Lis-bon, Portugal, a bell-muzzled blunderbuss 300 years old. A free fight between a number of neighbors at a school house near Edgar resulted in big crop of black eyes, swelled noses and bruised faces. The Culbertson Sun calls on John H. Powers to return home and attend to his duties as commissioner of Hitchcock county or resign the office. The farmers' institute of Nemaha county will be held at Johnson, beginning today and lasting over Thursday. An interesting programme has been prepared. Rosa Faulkner, who teaches school on the northwestern Nebraska frontier, has been given a vocation by the school trustees on ac-count of the Indian troubles and is spending her spare time visiting her friends at Says the Stella Press: Hon. M. H. Van-deventer came down from Lincoln on Satur-

D., who was suffering from delerium tremens, created great excitement near Clearwater the other day and a posse was called out to capture him. He stood off the officers with a revol-ver and then tried to drown himself, but just as he was about to make the fatat plunge of the men grabbed the gun which he had placed on the ground and then succeeded in placing the crazy man under arrest. A disgraceful row has nearly broken up a country school near Neison. For some cause one of the pupils, a young man, was suspended, whereupon he organized a party of relatives and friends and came back to the school house and mobbed the teacher, George G. Reeves, and the two sons of Hon. Smith Caldwell, leaving one of them lying insensi-ble in front of the school house. The mem-bers of the mob were arrested and fined $5 each by a justice of the peace. An attempt has again been made to destroy the village of Covington by fire. Five buildings were fired out of nine prepared, all being dives communicating with other buildings chiefly wooden, and in each case auger he had been bored through the sidings and oil poured in. Preparations had been made to destroy the pontoon bridge to cut off assist-ance from Sioux City. It was at first believed to be the work of vigilantes to destroy and rid the place of bad resorts and tough characters. But Bob Satter, alias "Beef-steak Bob," a notorious character, has been arrested on strong circumstantial evidence.

Iowa. The old soldiers are to have two days free at the state fair instead of one. Mrs. Jane Everhart, aged ninety-four, died at Fort Madison. She had lived in Iowa fifty years. Colonel P. G. Bailingal of Ottumwa, has arrived safely at Sidney, Australia, in his tour around the world. Mrs. Sarah J. Ballard is dead near Bur-

She was seventy years old and had lived in Iowa since 1835. Hugh Campbell, an old settler of Bellevue, has just died at Hot Springs, Ark., where he went in pursuit of health. The Ottumwa veterans have inaugurated a movement to secure the meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic state encampment in that city in 1893.

The "woodcock" served at the Shriners' banquet in Dubuque was an old-fashioned wooden beer faucet. Those who called for it set up something on the side. Henry Buchhole of Vall, swallowed forty raw egos in five minutes and won a wager of $20. He had thirty minutes to do it in, but did not need but a sixth of the time.

LeMars' postoffice ranks third among the twenty-eight offices in Iowa cities of the second class. Its rovenues last year were $9,400. The offices in the cities of its class which exceed it are Atlantic, with $9,760, and Fort Dodge, with $0,727 in receipts. These places are all in western Iowa.

J. H. Schooley, who recently died in Windfield and was buried in the Friends' cemetery, served his country in two wars, and won the honorable distinction of a certificate of merit from President Polk for distinguished service at Chepultepec. He was sixty-six years old when he died.

William Kellihan died recently at Rock Rapids, aged eighty-two years. When he was seventy years old he walked from New Jersey to Rock Rapids, and the next year walked back to Ohio, from there back to Illinois, and then to New Jersey again. The next summer he walked back to Kock Rapids. Dr. Lorenz D. Eley and Katle B. Elroy, whose marriage at Keokuk was interrupted the other day on account of non-compliance with forms imposed by the church because the bridegroom was not a Catholic, went before Bishop Coggrove at Davenport, received the necessary dispensation and were married. The forthcoming report of the Iows railroad commissioners will contain an appendix containing all the railroad laws of Iowa and notes of all important decisions bearing on these laws. The appendix will also be pub-lished in pamphlet form. It has been pre-pared with great care by Prof. Emlin Me-Lain, dean of the law faculty of the univer-sity and author of McLain's code. The work not only contains all the noise and references contained in the code, but also notes of all cases up to the present day. Its preparation has involved a large amount of work for which Prof. McLain makes no charge.

by electricity. The Brule county board has leased the skating rink and will fit it up for a court house and county offices. Curtis Maynard was overcome and killed by foul air while digging a well at Canton. He was the son of Rey. Mr. Maynard of Beloit, la. R. M. Sprague, formerly cashier of the First National bank of Larimore, is in cus-tedly, charged with the embezzlement of tody, charged with $1,25 from the bank.

The Press and Dakotan says: "Now that it has been ascertained that a good beet and sugar manufactory can be had for $10,000 Yankton county can afford at least two." John Klotz, a farmer living in the northern part of Hutchinson county, sold a load of sanded wheat in Alexan Iria last week and it cost him $55 before he escaped the clutches of the law. A Beadle county lady of large experience in the west and plenty of it in Beadle county, says that more than nine-tenths of the distress in Dakota grows out of the fact that so many have imbiced in the notion that life is un bearable without a "good, easy place" and

Senator Pierce of Bismarck has received a telegram from the secretary of the interior stating that $3,000 additional appropriation for the Fort Totten Indians had been for-warded to Agent Waugh. There are about fifteen hundred at this agency and no signs of trouble whatever. The Armour Chronicle says: The artesian well is a dandy. One section of hose was attached to it last Friday and it threw a stream five feet over the derrick which is seventy-five feet high. On Saturday a test of the pressure showed sixty pounds to the Inch. Give us water mains and hose and a fire would stand nearly. The heavy of it at its would stand no show. The beauty of it all is that it is ready for business at any time. wno roasted the "Deestrict Skule" ment any then made an apology, declares that the retraction was forced. He says: "The retraction which I signed under the muzzles of six-shooters Saturday night I signed under protest, because the mob had the drop on me. They compelled me to say that the Tribune's criticisms were mode out of suite. This is not true, as I had no spite or feeling against anyone connected with the enter-tainment. I offered to make all the amends consistent with honor and fair dealing for having cast any reflection upon the ladies." Several years ago Chamberlain & Co. of Des Moines, Ia., commenced the manufacture of a cough syrup, believing it to be the most prompt and reliable preparation yet produced for coughs, colds and croup; that the public appreciate true merit, and in time it was certain to become popular. Their most sanguine hopes have been more than realized. Over three hundred thousand bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy are now sold each year, and it is recognized as "the best made" wherever known. It will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. For sale by all druggists.

Weather Indices.

Up to this date our monthly prognosti-cations have been fully as reliable as the prophesies of the late lamented Wiggins, but at the beginning of a new year we resolve to do still better. The customary January thaw will be dispensed with and passengers who travel in the electric lighted, steam heated, vestibuled polace car trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., between Omaha and Chi-cago, will be comfortably cared for regardless of the outside atmosphere. City ticket office, 1501 Farnam street (Barker block), Omaha.

A TRAVELER'S TROUBLE. Richard Hubbard Charged With Hav-ing Robbed His Employers. Richard Hubbard, who until recently traveled for the Richardson drug company, was arrested yesterday morning by Detective Haze charged with grand larceny, on a complaint sworn out by his former employers. He has been suspected of stealing from the firm for some time, and since his discharge the detectives have been watching him. De-tective Haze visited his room at the City hotel and found two large valises filled with patent medicines and drugs to the value of $135. A warrant was accordingly secured and the ex-traveler was placed behind the bars.

A Remarkable Case,—Mr. Walter Wheeler of the Washington Mills, Lawrence, Mass., for two years afflicted with varicose veins, accompanied by a troublesome eruption, was completely cured after taking only eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
