OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1891-SIXTEEN PAGES.

WHAT SOCIETY IS DOING. Movements of the Devotees of Dame Fashion. THE RECORD OF A VERY BUSY WEEK

The Dancing Party at Hillside-Mrs. Ed. Peck's Pretty Entertainment -Other Doings in Which the Smart World Figured.

Sir Cupid once, as I have heard. Determined to discover What kind of a man a maid preferred Selecting for a lover. Se, putting on a soldier's coat, He talked of martial glory; And from the way he talked, they say Shoseemed to like-the story!

> Then, with a smile sedate and grim He changed his style and station, In shovel hat and gaiters trim, He made his visitation. He talked of this, discoursed on that, Of Palestine and Hormon; And from the way he preached, they say, She seemed to like - the sermon!

Then changed again, he came to her A maring, rattling sailor, He cried : "Yoho! I love you so?" And vowed he'd never fail her. He talked of star and compass true, The glories of the ocean. And from the way he sang, they say, She seemed to like-the notion!

Then Cupid, puzzled in his mind, Discarded his disguises; "That you no preference seem to find, My fancy much surprises." "Why, so?" sheerled, with roguish smile, "Why, prithee, why so stupid! I do not care what garb you wear Solong as you are-Cupid !"

While the week just past has not been particularly remarkable for large entertainments, like its predecessor, there have been a number of very pretty and modish affairs which have been the talk of the smart world. The dancing party at the beautiful resi-Sence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates de gervedly ranks high among the leading events of the season, and the atternoon teas at Hamilton place brought out the leaders of the beau monde in large numbers. A luncheen or two at the homes of several well known society favorites gave piquancy to the week, and afforded an opportunity for many of our residents to renew past friendships and form new ones, something that is slways pleasing and delightful.

You may not know it, but the very proper thing in these "time bettering days," as Shakes neare says, is to have your guests announced, notwithstanding that the host and hostess are on quite good terms, with every guest expected.

In New York all first class caterors now send out "callers," along with door openers and maids for the cloak rooms.

and maids for the cloak rooms. In speaking of this very pleasant custom a New York hady said: "it's too much like Washington and official crushes. It's Eng-lish too you know, but I like to pay my guests the compliment of recalling them without having my memory stimulated by a servant." "That's all very well, " said her compan-tor also often a pattern what

"That's all very well," said her compan-ion, also often a hostess, "but in my case without their aid I should pay many of my very good friends the poor compliment of inability to say their names at all. I really couldn't get through an 'at home,' creditably if deprived of this assistance. I find great difficulty in making names fit faces and in the constantly arriving throng I should get homelessly conarriving throng I should get hopelessly con fused if things were not arranged for me." The only instance we recall of announcing this winter, wore a pretty mousselline de soire, while she wore as a girdle an effective arrangement of smilax and caruations. Miss Wakeley appeared in a pretty costume f white slik trimmed effectively with Miss Doane, who has stood the season's round remarkably well, set off a combination dress of white silk and net, wearing red roses in her hair and carrying a bouquet of Nucles, Italy. The galiery is open to the public all day on Sunday and every Thursthe same flowers. Miss Curtis wore a fetching gown of white day, and is free. et trimmed with forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Hill, white satin and lace made in the style of the empire. Miss Murray, a very pretty, petite blonde, graced a costume of bright blue china slig made with soft shirrings of the same macerial Miss Carter, blue crepe made Grecian style, full draperies and carries a beautiful bunch of white roses. Miss Mabel Smith, white mousselline de re trimmed with white silk mulle.

Mrs

ind

Mr.

Miss Nash wore a pretty pink nun's vell-ing trimmed with lavender, high neck and her grand parents, 2223 Burt street, with her aunt's assistance. Her schoolmates of the Miss Hitbard, black crepe trimmed with Omaha kindergartes, Davenport street, in charge of Miss Everyn Griffeth, and ber Sunold passementerie. The following were the guests who were day school classmates of the Second Presbyortunate enough to be present at this, the terian church on Saunders street, with their crowning dancing party of the year: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Millard, Dr. and Mrs. Gifteacher, Mrs. Anderson, with many other friends, were present. The house was gayly decorated with bright ribbons ford, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, General and Mrs. Cowin, Mrs. Rollins, Mrs. Redick, Genracely decorated with bright ribbons and evergreens. A beautiful tree hanging between the spachous parlors at-tracted special attention from the little folks, being loaded down with candy bags and eral and Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Scobie of St. Louis, Mrs. Matheson, Mr. Louis, Milliam William Mrs. William S. Poppleton, and Mrs. Levi Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. oranges. The company was entertained by songs and recitations and the pretty circle N. H. Patrick, Miss Summers, Miss Nash, Miss Williams, Miss Woolworth, Miss Ames, Miss Orchard, Miss Laura Hougland, Miss games of the kindergarten enildren. Miss Orchard, Miss Laura Hoagland, Miss Wyman, Miss Smith, Miss McCord, Miss Emily Wakeley, Miss Doane, Miss Norris of St. Louis, Miss Carter, Miss Leola Carter, Miss Shenra, Miss Hibbard, Mr. Sumders, Mr. Shears, Mr. Barton, Mr. Hanilton, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Turner, Mr. Drake, Mr. Bariow, Mr. Chiford Smith, Mr. A. C. Smith, Mr. Hodges, Mr. Patrick, Mr. J. E. Patrick, Mr. Wyman, Mr. Will Wyman, Mr. Briggs, Mr. How, Mr. Guiou, Mr. Berlin, Mr. Fair-field, Mr. Coughlin, Mr. Jordan, Mr. Cragin, little white-rabed heroine of the day, sur-rounded by lovely presents, made the center of a nicture worthy of the brush of an artist of a picture worth of the brush of an artist. Intense interest marked the little faces at the lighting up of the birthday cake and as Mrs. Angel lit the central taper for the coming year all wished little Nina every joy. Among the children present were: Gracie McMillan, Lavinia Craft, Myra Anderson, Alma Claftin, Lyda Edmis-ton, Walton Woolly, Adelina Fagan, Amy Martin, Fannie French, Ira McKelvey, Frances Riley, Ethel Ware, Maud McCagne, Marguerite Caldwell, Lillian Richardson, Wil-

Frances Riley, Ethel Ware, Maud McCague, Marguerite Caldwell, Lillian Richardson, Wil-so McLain, Dottie Hunter, Frances Muroby, Gladys Haynes, Risley Haynes, James Det-weller, Jay Dickey, Jessie Cutler, Minnie Mezer, Herbert Meyer, Viola Cahn, Amelia Catlin, May Scollard, Joog Bullard, Madge Bullard, May Oberfeider, Morton Harvey Frank Simpson, Maggie King, Annie Hun-ter Elemene Marchy and Cyrna Bowrun. Orchard-Walnut Hill Whist Club. The third meeting of the Orchard-Walnut Hill club was held at the cozy residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Neely on West Hamilton street last Saturday evening. High five had been chosen as the game to be played on this occasion, there being present enough for six ter, Florence Murphy and Cyrus Bowuran. tables. After a spirited contest of almost three hours the nonors were awarded to Mrs. E. R. Perfect and Mr. H. B. Corvell, the con The music for the promenade Began to fill the hall, And by its sweetness slowly lured olation prizes being carried away by Mrs. W. G. Templeton and Mr. C. P. Needham. A dainty lunch was served in the course of the evening, doing much credit to the host-The "flower" from the wall the evening, doing much credit to the host-ess. The following members and guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Austin, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Coryell, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Perfect, Mr and Mrs. A. B. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Fagan, Mrs. L. F. Weeks and Mr. W. G. Bohn, Guests : Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Temple ton, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Johannes, Mrs. J. F. Wag-ner, Dr. Kern and Miasse Johns. CHe came and stood beside her, And his supplication made; le asked to be her partner H In the hazy promenade, She bowed assent and half arose, Then settled down again, With a look of mingled misery, Reproachfulness and pain.

er, Dr. Kern and Misses Johns.

A Church Social.

But beseeching was in vain, fill she murmured, "I should like to; On Thursday evening of this week the Won't you please get off my train !? oung people of Beth-Eden Baptist church held a social in the church parlors. In spite Pleasant Church Entertainmont. of the bad condition of the streets, making The entertainment given at Washington pedestrianism anything but agreeable, there hall Thursday evening by the King's Daughvas quite a gathering out. The stay-atters of All Saints church was a very enjoyomes missed a rare literary and musical able one and resulted in a financial success reat. During the evening a very pleasant that placed a neat sum in the treasury of the programme was given, consisting of an organ organization. Over $100 worth of tickets olo rendered by Mr. Colo in a very pleasing were sold, and the purchasers very largely manner. Recitations by Miss Balch, a young elocution ist of no little merit, two thoroughly attended. The programme, which was well arranged, opened with a tambourine drill by sixteen misses dressed in white, and led by Miss Mattie Bothwell and Miss Fay Cole. The mjoyable vocal selections by Mrs. Smith and selected readings by Mr. Charles F Drexel. Later something more substantial was offered in a delightful little lunch served drill was very creditably executed. Miss Alice Howell recited "Searching for the Slain." Miss Howell is a young lady of by the young ladies of the church. It might be said these monthly social gatherings of the young people of this church are becoming quite a popular feature in their end of the fine stage presence and more than ordinary elecutionary ability, and her recitation was

Daisy's Valentine. He may be true. Yet, Daisy, dear, city.

Heller.

Lobmun.

That even youth grows colder You'll find is no new thing, I fear; And when you're somewhat older, Hou'll read of one Dardanian boy pleasing manner. In conclusion the cantata, "The Musical Flowers," was presented by Mr. Ponnell, chorister of All Saints, and eight members of Who "wooed with gifts" a maiden coy-Then took the morning train for Troy ables" by Mr. Fowler, after which a general discussion of the story was participated in. The same subject will be continued at the throws it on the pictures. All the pictures have been rehung and all copies excluded, so that every picture now in the gallery is an original. Among other additions to the col-lection are six new paintings from the Omana next meeting of the novel section of this club, which occurs February 13, art exhibit, just closed, which was held in the D M. Steele building, and twenty-two gens just received from the center of art, Doubt.

The queen of Sheba, so folks say, In gems and jeweis had all things; I'll bet an engle to a jay No baseball diamonds came her way

Celebrating Her Natal Day.

Monday was a glad day for the friends of

The Promenade.

New York Herald.

'Won't you rise!" he then besought her,

little Lily Nina Chase, who celebrated her sixth birthday by entertaining at the home of

Or saw lust circus rings.

Marriages of the Week. M'DONALD AND MEWHIRTER.

The

Thomas A. McDonald of Hastings and Miss Dora Mewhirter of this city were married by Rev. T. E. Cramblet, Tuesday evening at 213 South Twenty-sinth avenue. The young couple left at once for Hastings, where they will make their future home HALE AND HAMMAN.

Mr. Harry Hale and Miss Emma Hamman wore married on Wedaesday night, January 28, at the residence of the bride, 2016 Grant street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. D. Lloyd.

CRUICKSHANK AND HAINES. Mr. James Cruicksbank and Miss Effle Haires of North Omaha were united in mar-riage last Thursday night at 9 p. m. at the Church of the Good Shepherd by the rector, Rev. J. P. D. Lloyd.

The Cleofan.

Under this title, the word "Cleofan" being the good old Saxon for club, an organization has been formed, which is the culmination of Mrs. W. H. Hanchett's effort, as a teacher of English history. For several years the lady has conducted a class or two through the mazes of English history, and as her classes have grown each season more popular she conceived the idea of forming a closer orshe conceived the idea of forming a closer of-ganization than a mere class, which eventually might grow to be as famous as the Woman's club in Grand Rapids, Mich. The subject was broached to the leaders of her English history class early in the season, and a short the constitution and by-laws adopted, thus forming the nucleus of a wonan's club. One section of the constitution provides that members shall pay an initiation fee of $5, and yearly dues to the amount of $4, pay-able quarterly. All the buaness of the club is vested in a committee of censors composed of seven members, the officers and three others elected by the organization constituting the committee.

club meets every Wednesday morning in the Pythian lodge rooms opposite the pub-he library, and this is a great help for all the members who find it necessary to spend a good deal of time in the library, especially hen preparing their papers, which are read Mrs. Hanchett disavows any attempt to teach history, but on the contrary she says she gives only the outlines, which act as helps to a more intelligent reading of the sub-ject now under consideration by "The Cleo-

The members are enthusiastic and they study their lessons like children at schools, with the idea of having to stand an examination upon the periods covered "at stated times. The class has completed the Celts, the Romans and the Picts and Scots, the Saxons, and will take up the house of the Plantagenets at the next meeting. It is hoped to complete the whole history of the English people down to the present by the time spring is fully established in Omaha. The authorities used are Hume, Froude, Knight, Greene, Hallam's "Middle Ages," Blackstone and Shakespeare for certain his-torical characters. The founder of the club has been greatly interested in all that would tend to the higher development of her sex and her work is con-development of her sex and her work is con-tributed to "The Cleofan" con amoro. The officers of the new organization are: President, Mrs. Geo. Clouser; vice-president, Mrs. R. C. Moore; secretary, Mrs. M. R. Risdon; treasurer, Mrs. Geo. Natinger, The membership is composed of the following ladies: Mesdames Bullingen, F. N. Jaynes, Buchanan, Gardner, Haynes, Leavenworth, E. S. Dundy, Egans Geo. Clouser, Natinger, Buchanan, Gardner, Haynes, Leavenworth, E. S. Dundy, Evans, Geo. Clouser, Nattinger, A. J. Simpson, Geo. Damrow, W. G. Sloan, M. C. Nichols, R. C. Moore, M. R. Risdon; Miss Hattie Hawley, Miss Crozier, Mrs. Geo. J. Gilbert, Mrs. W. F. Allen, Mrs. James Viles, jr.; Mrs. C. C. Hughes, Mrs. Geo. Kelley, Mrs. Z. T. Lindsey. The organization is not exclusive by any means and members are desired.

as and members are desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert's High Five Party. Mr. and Mrs. George S. Gilbert were asisted by Miss Hartman, Miss McClelland, Miss Mable Pratt and Miss Clark Gilbert in entertaining at a delightful high five party on Fridny evening, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Wessels, Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ames, Mr. and Mrs. J. Barker, Mr. and Mrs.

Ames, Mr. and Mrs. J. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, General and Mrs. Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. Cowin, Mr. and Mrs. Horbach, Mr. and Mrs. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. H. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. Wakeley, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Richasdson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Mr. and Mrs.

Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark Jones,

Mr. and Mrs. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Dundy Mr. and Mrs. Peabody, Miss Foos and Mis

Kate Foos. After refreshments, which were particularly pleasing, in keeping with Mrs.

Gilbert's well known reputation as a hostess, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Hill, Mr.

Two Very Pretty Teas.

Kensingtons Wednesday and Thursday after noons of this week, at their residence Hamilton Place, Twentleth and Leavenworth

The decorations were especially pretty

They are lavish in their warm

jr., Arthur,

Me

Mrs. Charles W. Hamilton and her sister.

prizes were awarded to Mrs. Branch and Mr. Augustus Pratt.

streets.

foreign

Cuming.

of the south

pretty, the dining room especially calling out many pleasant words. The center place was of linea, embroidered in yellow silk. A huge china bowl occupied a place on the cloth, filled to the brim with jonquils. At each plate was placed a yellow rose for the guests, while the silver service was tied with yellow ribbon. The guests were: Misses Hoag-land, Laura Hoagland. Mary Ludington, Mrs. Dr. Smith, Miss Nellio Hall, Miss Burns, Miss Lyonberger, Miss Hutchinson, Miss Margaret Williams, Mrs. Chambers, nee Miss Emma Field, and Miss Brown. and join his sisters in London, and together they will seek warm weather until they find Muss Curtia, who announces a reception from 8 until 11 next Friday evening, will be assisted by twenty-one of the pretuest girls in the city.

Mrs. Peck's Pretty Luncheon.

Mr. W. H. Kornig has returned from a fortnight's visit to New York city, in the in-terest of his firm, Kilpatrick-Koch dry goods company. Miss Luna Dundy contemplates a visit to Annual Clearance Chicago, this week. It is now well known that her marriage will take place in April, which will be one of the big society mar-Thursday at 1 Mrs. Ed Peck gave one of riages of the year. the prettiest luncheons of the season. The A literary and musical entertainment will be given at the Young Women's Home, 109 South Soventeenth street, Tuesday, Febru-ary 3; also a number of Mrs. Jarley's wax works will be exhibited. Admission 25 cents. house was elaborately decorated with daffodils, jonquils and narcissus. In the dining room the flowers were particularly numerroom the howers were particularly numer-ous and artistically arranged. The re-freshments were served at both large and small tables, the center pieces of silk worked in colors, the booquets cor-responding in color to the hand wrought cen-ters. There were an endless number of courses almost, and the guests who were provide the state of the smart world ware en-The engagement of Mr. William Krug, well known in German circles and Miss Kate Griesedeek, the eldest daughter of Mr. Anton Griesedeek, the St. Louis brewer, is announced. This will be very pleasant news to Mr. Krug's host of friends in Omaha. Mrs. Charles Needham gave a lovely uncheon Thursday at her home, 42:20 Nicholas street. The guosts were Mrs. John Guild, Mrs. F. L. Loomis, Mrs. T. C. Bruner, Mrs. P. O. Hawes, Mrs. M. A. Atwood, Mrs. Charles Crawl, Mrs. C. J. Needham, Mrs. H. D. Neely. representatives of the smart world, were en-thusiastic in praise of Mrs. Peck's success. Among the gnests were: Mesdames Clark-son, Kilpatrick, Miss Norris, Mesdames Meday, J. J. Brown, Barns, Lininger, Till-son of Illinois, Lewis Reed, Hithebcock, Joe Barton, Cotton, Ben Wood, Hillman, Levi Carter, Miss Carter, Mrs. Muir, Miss Lee. Mrs. Bemington, Mrs. Mayrer, McCormick D. Neely. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Stoddart gave a high Mrs. Remington, Mrs. Harry McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Stodiart give a night five party Wednesday evening at their home, 621 Park avenue, in honor of their guests, Miss Keenan of Madison, Wis., a cousin of General Vilas, and Miss Atlen of Fort Sid-ney, who are visiting them. The guests of the evening numbered thirty-six and the occasion neared very delichtful for all. Mr. and Mrs. Benson's Card Party. Notwithstanding the unpleasantness of the weather the Dundee high five club had what might be called a red letter evening at the occasion proved very delightful for all. spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Benson

Dr. J. C. Denise delivered a very instructive lecture on the car to the pupils of the higher grades of the Lake school Friday week. The pleasing address of the doctor, week. his kind thoughtfulness in bringing a num-ber of interesting specimens, his care to suit his language to his hearers, all served to make the lecture one that will not be soon forgotten.

The members of Prof. Lambert's classes are delighted with their rapid progress in French, as they realize that they are at last grasping facts and not shadows, and that there is a practical way of mastering French conversation without books or grammars, by a fascinating, common sense system, where every lesson tells. The classes meet daily at 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., at 717 New York Life building, where all are welcome to trial lessons

CONNUBLALITIES.

A treasure which time cannot blot Is matrimonial peace: But he must be an argue—not

Who culls this golden floece. May McKinley of Williamsburg, N. Y., a wetty blonde of nineteen has already had rouble with two husbands.

There is a bill before the Oregon legislature prohibiting the marriage of divorced persons with a third party within one year after the divorce is granted. Chicago has again been discredited in a domestic way. A judge in that city has just granted a man a divorce because his wife preterred life in New York to living in Chi-cago with her husband. A Maine man being sued for alienating the affections of another man's wife, contests the charge on the ground that there were no affections to alienate, and that consequently the claim for damages is based upon a mere iction Delaware is coming to the front as a divorce state, as decrees are granted there by legisla-tive enactment and without publicity. Fashionable people take up a residence there to free themselves of irksome bonds. Already there are ninety-five applications before the legislature,

Mrs. Mary Macejko of Passale, N. J., is entitled to the belt as a champion eloper. She has run away from her husband and been forgiven six times, and is now engaged in a vain effort to effect a seventh reconciliation. Macejko's patience has been at jast worn out with the monotony of forgiving, and the cruel man positively refuses to take her back again. Cora May Ellison was granted a divorce from James B. Ellison in Cincinnati on the ground of neglect. Ellison is a laborer and had a handsome wife. He asked her to pose for an artist in a costume which she thou too scant. She declined to submit to proposed Clemenceau-like unveiling and they quarreled. As a consequence he failed to properly provide for her, whereupon she sued with a young man, "a handsomer man John is," as she told a neighbor. Mrs.

is a good deal younger than her husband, and man until finally the forbearing fisherman aw the young man go dut of town with her.

Mrs. Edward Carr of Freedom, Pa., took

Again he urged the re-solemniza-a dose of laudanum with the intention o committing suicide. Her husband is a Cath together. Again he urged the re-solemniza-tion of the marriage, threatening to leave her. She still refused and he went away

Are You Going South This Winter?

Parties contemplating a visit to the Louisville, as via St. Louis, with the ad-service which are characteristic of Weather indices.

Up to this date our monthly prognostications have been fully as reliable as the prophesies of the late lamented Wiggins, out at the beginning of a new year we esolve to do still better. The customary passengers who travel in the electric ighted, steam heated, vestibuled polace car trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee &

St. Paul Ry., between Omaha and Chi-cago, will be comfortably cared for re-

California Excursions.

Pullman tourist sleeping car excur-dons to California and Pacific coast points leave Chicago every Thursday,

Kansas City every Friday via the Santa Fe route. Ticket rate from Chicago

847.50, from Sloux City, Omaha, Lincoln

Kansas City $3 per double berth. Every-thing furnished except meals. These excursions are personally conducted by experienced excursion managers who excursion folder containing full particu lars and map folder and time table of Santa Fe route and reserving of sleeping car berths, address S.M. Osgood, gen eral agent, E. L. Palmer, freight and accompany parties to destination.

Fo

cago, will

January thaw will be dispensed with and

She finally went after him.

again.

We have no "odds and ends," we have no "shop-worngoods," all our shoes are new and fresh stock. The object of our 20 per cent discount sale is to reduce our immense stock of fine shoes. Weather too fine, down go prices. We will give a general discount of 20 per cent on all warm or felt shoes, aretics and rubber goods, and a large lot of ladies' and gents' fine shoes. LADIES: YOU CAN BUY

> A fine kid $5 shoe, 20 per cent discount, nt 84.

COOK'S

CUT PRICE

SHOE SALE!

$10,000 WORTH OF

AT 20 PER CENT DISCOUNT.

- A fine kid patent leather tip $5 shoe. 20 per cent discount, at $4. Our French kid hand-made $7 shoe, 20
- per cent discount, at $5.60. A Reynolds Bros.' U. T. K. fine kid $4
- A lot of $3 kid shoes, 20 per cent dis-
- A ladies' hand-turned $3 shoe, 20 per cont discount, at $2.40.
- with patent leather tip, 20 per cent discount, at $2.
- A ladies' kid patent tip $2 shoe, 20 per cent discount, at $1.60.
- count, at $1.20. A ladies' working shoe at $1.
- All goods marked in plain figures.

BURT & MEARS GENTLEMEN:

At Cook's Shoe Store you can buy Burt Mears' French call hand-made $8 shoe for $5, as I want to close out this line. Stacy, Adams & Co.'s fine $5 calf shoes at $4 a pair. Attend our cut price clearance sale.

Cook's Shoe Store, 1312 FARNAM.

PEPPERMINT DROPS.

Kisses don't improve with age. Noah saw the first ark light. A sea of trouble-the Behring. Uttering false notes-falsetto singing. An old-time song-grand father's clock. Love eats axle-greae and calls it butter There is nothing improbable to a jealons S. B. Nichols of Cold Spring and Mrs. Sarah A. Gross of Huntington, L. L., several months ago eloped, taking with them Mrs. Gross' three children. Nichols left a wife voman. When small people fall in love they increase

Friday night. The large number present testified most decidedly what a social success the club has proved. The large billiard room brought the seven tables into closer proximity, thereby increasing the merriment and enjoyment. After very delicious refresh-ments were served the prizes were given. Mrs. W. Murphy carried off in triumph a giass rose howl filled with choice flowers. Mr. T. Smith won a bottle of fine perfume.

guest for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Murphy gave a very

Mrs. H. Benson received a lone slipper in china as a consolation, Mr. W. H. Hancock, who had won several first prizes, was obliged to accept a booby in the shape of a small sized minstrel show. Miss Charkson was a pleasant high five party at their cosy home on North Twentieth street Tuesday evening

After the cards elegant refreshments were served.

Mrs. Thomas Godfrey received the first prize, a very handsome drape, and Mr. Will O'Shaughnessy a beautiful vase. The booby prizes, a bisque ornament and inck-in-the-box, were awarded to Mrs. Jerry Whalen and Mr.

A. Houser. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Muffit, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Deiss, Mr. and Mrs. A. Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Morwin,

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Godfrey, Mesdanees Whaten, Hannebery and Hawley, Miss Hawley, Mr. Will O'Shaughnessy and Master Henry Hanneberry. An Angling Party.

An angling party in midwinter is an artistic novelty, and though the ponds were confined to tables and outing costumes were supplanted by full dress, the affair given by Mrs. S. J. Fisher to Miss Bloom's friends was de-S. J. Fisher to Miss Bloom's triends was de-lightful. Every detail was perfect and twenty couples were charmingly entortained. Mr. Ed. Wessel, an excellent angler, won the royal prize, a silver topped blotter; Miss Lillie Newman, a silver pin tray. Mr. Alex Wessel and Miss Bonns carried off second favors. The gay time enjoyed by all is an-other proof of Mrs. Fisher's charming hos-itality and Miss Bloom's canacity as hostess. pitality and Miss Bloom's capacity as hostess

Mrs. Doud's Tea.

Mrs. Eli H. Doud, Twenty-third and H streets, South Omaha, served tea to a company of lady friends Thursday afternoon. Those present were : Mesdames Dwight L. Holmes, James C. Carley, George F. French, A. V. Miller, Fred C. Van Liew, L. C. Gib-son, John P. Evers, B. F. Carpenter, Wil-liam G. Sloane, James H. Van Dusen and Wather E. Asia Nathan E. Acker.

Mrs. Holmes Entertains.

Mrs. Dwight L. Holmes Friday evening for divorce added another to her list of social triumphs by her tea served to a dozen ladies. Those present were Mesdames John P. Evers, L. C. Gibson, John A. Doe, George T. French Gibson, John A. Doe, George T. French, James C. Carley, Howard Meyers, Fred M. Smith, Fidelia M. Van Orsdol, Arthur W. Saxe and Fred C. Van Liew and Miss shoe, 20 per cent discount, $3.20. count, at $2.40, A ladies' hand-welt, fine kid $2.50 shoe,

- A ladies' kid $1.50 shoe, 20 per cent disgnests in Omaha, was at the reception ten-dered Hoa, Russell A. Alger last summer by Hoa. John M. Thurston. Then Major T. S. Clarkson officiated in the capacity of "caller" and knowing everybody almost in the city, he made Mr. and Mrs. Thurston's duties par-ticularity light. ticularly light.

It is a very pleasant custom and we look forward to the time when it will be the custom in this metropolis of the north

The London Graphic prophesies that the fashion of wedding rings for the husband will rapidly become popular. It is an inno cent fashion enough and might sometime prevent awkward mistakes. Dutiful hus playing, chatting, jesting and partaking of the rich menu set before them by the bands, unaccompanied by their wives, would not inadvertantly have the air of being gay bachelors, thus leading the other sex to lose ng gay dish, was won by Mrs. J. Lobman; the valuable time. Of course, when a man wishes to pass himself off as unmarried-de-signing persons are sometimes guilty of this valuable time. impropriety-a mere finger ring would be no It would have to be a nose ring, and this fashion is unlikely ever to become the vogue. However, if married men wish to wear weading rings there is nothing to prevent them. Some husbands seem to like their domestic status to be known as widely as possible; people have been known to talk of their children to strangers.

What kind of paper do you use? The very latest is card-like in shape, being theordinary note size, but not doubled. It is tolerably stiff and a pale gray, and your cipher must be wrought in gold at the top of it, while your address is in gold at the foot of the sheet. This is written on with white ink. This is written on with white ink and in the largest hand-writing imaginable The sheet goes into the envelope without folding, and when the letter comes to you it looks like an official document. A messenger boy can't get it into his pocket, so he usually marks it with hand decorations. The post each game the winners were presented with man can't strap it in with his other letters so he carries it by itself, and considers you a swell to get it, and the person who great wrote it somebody with more money than he has. Nobody over makes a mistake in writ ing on plain white paper that folds once.

The Yates Dancing Party.

"Hillside," the very beautiful home of Mr and Mrs. Heary W. Yates, situated on Day enport street and Thirty-second, was the scene Tuesday evening of the handsomest dancing party given this season. In honor of Miss Yates and Miss Bessie Yates.

Thoroughly Romanesque in architecture this house of one of Ornaha's prominent bankers is pointed out to the stranger within our gates as the representative mansion of the city, and not without reason, for it would bean ornament to any eastern city which may boast of beautiful homes. Interiorally the residence is quite in keeping with its prevaiing style of architecture The large, square hallway is panelled in oak, The large stone mantel extending from floor to ceiling gives an imposing appearance to the hall, while wide oaken stairs and the balcony which projects from the second landing remind one for all the world of the pictures now and then seen of Roman interiors. The decorations, which were a charming feature of the occasion, were in pink. Upon the mantels in the drawing room and library plants stood in pots, these pots being en closed in tissue coverings prettily tied with 11 k ribbons, and bunches of La France roses placed in prominent places gave an added beauty to the scene. The dining room table gave a tropical linge to the entertainment, being luxuriantly decorated with fruits and plants from the south land. Roses and ferns were interspersed throughout the rooms, everything being on a scale of magnificence seldom seen in the west which has already made a reputation for lavish display.

The Musical Union orchestra stationed in the music room interspersed file dance music with a number of concert selections, the exellence of the music being particularly remarked

Mrs. Yates received her guests in a beautiful gown of black lace, prettily trimmed. Miss Yates wore a handsome costume of hue talle trimmed with white hyacinthes. which became her delicate beauty wonder-evening, the 3d inst., a paper on "The En-glish Drama and the Shakespearean Plays" will be read by a member of the local press. The beautiful art gallery in which these meetings of "The Club" take place has been entirely renovated, the side walls being mainted a rich margon color and the avelage fully well. Miss Bessie Yates wore yellow silk trimmed with fuffings of yellow. Gold

Miss Orchard, fresh from her triumph in Knoxville, Tenn., wore a modish gown of yellow crepe, domi train, very simply made, but none the less effective. Yellow slippers and she carried a beautiful bunch of roses. Miss Williams, who is one of the belles painted a rich marcon color and the arches a Pompeilan yellow with gold leaf mouldings. A canopy has been hung under the skylight to cut off the direct light from the eye and

In spite of all he'd totd her. -Austin Dolson.

Luncheon and HighFive. On Wednesday Mrs. Albert Heller gave an hostess. The first prize, an elegant olive second, a hand some cup and saucer, by Mrs.

S. Lewis, and the booby prize, a doil's nurs

Mr. and Mrs. Peck Entertain.

was presented with a small round Japanes basket filled with roses. At the completion of being won by Mrs. Thurston and Mr. Barke and Mr. and Mrs. Hill. The booby prize were in the form of paper poppies and were won by Mrs. Barker and Mr. Funkhouser.

The guests enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Pock were Judge and Mrs. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ringwalt, Mr. and Mrs. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Viles, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord, Mr. and Mrs. Funkhouser,

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green, Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs

and Mrs. W. V. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yost, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Barkalow, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey, Mr.

and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Contant, Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins, the Misses Millard,

His Demurrer.

Send me a simple rose to tell your love,"

And he replied, "I think I'll send a note in

For note and postage cost but one small dime,

While roses cost today just twice their weight

"Thetlub" Meetings.

At the last meeting of "The Club," which ras held at the Lininger art gallery and presided over by Mr. Frank L. Haller, Mr. John

Hoss road an excellent and exhaustive paper on "Money." Mr. Hoss had evidently spent considerable time in the preparation of his paper, and the result was that he was able to give his auditors a mass of information on this subject, couched in very attractive language. He also gave a concise epitome of the financial policy of the United States since the year 1789. At the close of his paper he was greeted with a burst of hearty and well-

Mr. John Wilson Battin performed the duties of secretary on this occasion. At the next meeting, which takes place Monday

Mr

Miss Miles.

Barker, Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace,

Lyons, Bishop and Mr. Lander.

she said.

stead

all told.

in gold.'

deserved applause.

their residence, 1734 Davenport street.

Rose-Frank Manchester Buttercup-Miss Daisy Higgins. Tulip-Charles Bail. -John Gill. afternoon luncheon and highfive to some of Surflower-John McEwing. her numerous friends, in honor of Mrs. So Man-in-the-Moon-Walter Dale. Gardener-T. J. Pennell. Lewis of San Francisco, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Hellman and other relatives The participants were stationed behind a in this city. The time was spent in card

The parts w

Daisy-Mrs. W. S. Marshall, Pansy-Dick Welty.

well received.

Mrs

cenic curtain, on which also appeared the lowers, the faces of the singers forming the center of the flowers. Several catchy songs, los aud choruses were sung. The affair passed off very pleasantly and reflected much credit on the young ladies of the society under whose auspices it was given.

Messrs. Max Lentz and T.J. Pennell gave a violin and 'cello duet, with piano accompani-ment by W. S. Marshali.

Hoel recited "The Sick King" in a na takon as follows

ing bottle, by Mrs. H. Hiller. Mrs. Heller will give another highfive party on next Luncheon for Miss McCord. Quite out of the ordinary was the luncheon Thursday, Those invited were: Mesdames S. Lewis, M. Hellman, S. Race, C. Kirsh-braun, L. Kirshbraun, S. Schlesinger, I enjoyed by Mrs. A. C. Wakeley, Mrs. Benjamin Smith, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. McCord, Oberfelder, E. Kirsnoraun, S. Schussinker, L. Oberfelder, B. Newman, Aaron Cahn, E. Rosewater, E. Seligsohn, Max Meyer, Ad Meyer, Moritz Meyer, Jeanette Meyer, H. Rehfeld, I. Fisher, F. Adler, G. Becker, S. Blath, A. Polak, S. Katz, A. Jacobson, Louis Haller, J. Schuld Golder, H. Willow, P. B. Mrs. W. B. Millard, Mrs. Rollins, Mrs. Yost, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Morsman and the Misses Ames, Yates and Smith, on Tuesday last given by Mrs. George E. Pritchett in honor of Miss McCord of St. deller, Leopold Heller, H. Hiller, R. R. Brotte, S. Bergman, B. Kohn, J. L. Brandeis, Joseph. Between the courses were passed slips of paper on which were written quota-tions, each guest trying to place the author of the couplet on her card. Miss Ames named correctly eleven of the authors thus winning the first prize, while Mrs. W. B. Millard Mr. and Mrs. Ed P. Peckentertained quite number of Omaha's society ladies and gentook the second prize. After the luncheon the guests assembled in the drawing rooms tlemen with a charming high five party at When the guests were all assembled each when a game of character study was introduced, each woman being given a card con-taining fourteen questions, from the answers all were asked to guess the writer. Mrs. Morseman coming off winner by having guessed the greatest number of characters and was given a handsome prize.

pinks, which they placed in their basket for tailies. At the rounding up of the game those who had played most cleverly had quite a basact full of carnations. The prizes, also, were all in the form of some flower, the first Kountz · Place Plays High Five. The Kountze Place High Five club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George L. Fisher at their charming residence, 1622 Lothrop street, on Friday evening. The rooms were very prettily decorated with cut flowers, which, covering the mantels, bookcases, sideboard, etc., together with the brilliant illuminations and all the cosy and handsome appointments of the house, produced a most pleasing effect. After the games most delightful luncheon was served by hostess and a most enjoyable time was had by all present. The gentleman's prize, a handsome paper knife, was carried away by Mr. D. C. Dun-

The Unity Club Meeting.

hood to the marvellous height attained in his old age. The work was manifestly a labor of love on the part of Mr. Mann, who said what perhaps no American and few Frenchmen can say -viz, that he had read everything he could find written by Hugo. His conclusion after this exhaustive study of the author is that he is greatest as a in which capacity America knows bu

A Pupils' Recital.

and Barkalow.

Miss Cannie E. Curtis of California

dames, S. S. Curtis, Clowry, Deuei, Redick,

Programme to be given by the pupils of har, while the ladies' prize, a delicately engraved silver spoon, was taken by Mrs. J. P. Bay, for the second time this season. Mr. Fred S. Robbins at the Lininger art gallery, Wednesday evening, February 4. PART L

The following is a list of the members and guests present: Members: Mr. and Mrs. Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Blum, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. Edmiston, Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Jaynes, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Miss Lipps, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrie, Mr, and Mrs. Minahan, Mr. and Mrs. Shields, Mr. and

Mrs. Van Court. Guests: Mr. Burdick, sr., Mr. Burdick, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Tate, Mrs. Captain Reynolds, Mrs. Kildroth, Mr. C. Fisher, Miss McCall, Miss. Millost. (c) Boltz (Miss Lucy Broderick. (c) Ductt (Spanische Tanze, Nos. 1 and 2). Mozekowski Mable Boyd, Annie McDowel

PART.I. Victor Hugo's masterpiece, "Les Miser-(a) Sonata (Op. 13 Pathetiage) Beethoven Miss May VoMiller. ables," was the subject of discussion at the Friday night meeting of the Unity club. A large audience gathered in spite of the storm and were abundantly repaid for their trouble by the masterly paper of Rev. Mr. Mann, in which he sketched the career of the only great French poet from his remarkable childwenty lessons.)

A Pretty Yellow Luncheon.

Miss Fannie Coburn, revived pleasant memories of "ye olden times" by inviting a number of her friends, who have figured in the social circles of the city for several sea-in which capacity America another and more-of him, because he is untractable-and moreover, not only the greatest French poet, but in the opinion of the writer of the paper per sons, to a yellow luncheon Friday afternoon haps the greatest of poets. This splendid paper was followed by a short but interesting study of the characters in the first part of the story of "Les Miserat her residence 2022 Webster street. Miss Coburn was assisted by her sister, Mrs. S. G. V. Griswold.

The decorations were very dainty and

Augusta J. Clark.

tage.

A Dinner at Happy Hollow

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. H. Patrick at their ome, Happy Hollow, gave a dinner on Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Morseman, Mr. and Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Hawley, Miss Hawley, Miss Ames and Mr. and Mrs. Burt. exceedingly high mettled. She "gadded about," the neighbors say, with the young Calla lilles and white roses composed the lecorations, the green and white throwing man until unarry the forbearing inserman was nettled, and approached her. Then she retorted: "Well, John, if you don't like it, you can get out." John didn't like it and didn't get out. That night, however, Mrs. Rand "got out," and some of the neighbors ut the beauty of the rooms to great advan-Mrs. T. B. Cuming, gave two very charming Promised Pleasures.

Miss Curtis, on Friday, a reception from 8 intil 11, 517 Virginia avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith, a dancing party or Miss Smith, Wednesday evening. roses predominating. The house is filled Mrs. Remington and Mrs. Harry McCorwith rare pictures and marbles which Mrs. mick, a reception from 3 until 6 on Friday. Juming acquired during a long residence in Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wood give a reception countries. Probably in no home in Omaha can one realize more fully what is meant by the old school in the matter of entertainment than at the house of Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Thursday evening from S to 11, at their resi-dence, 128 South Twenty-fifth street.

Mrs. J. C. Cowin, a reception on Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock, 3 Worthing ton Place. Mrs. Richard C. Cushing has issued cards hearted, generous hospitality, and one instantly feels on entering Hamilton place that here is found that southern grace which is to for a luncheon and progressive high five party on Wednesday afternoon, February 4. be found so rarely outside the first families Miss Nichols, a Kensington, Thursday at 2, 012 Mason street.

Assisting the hostesses in the service of re-Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, a high five Assisting the hostesses in the service of re-freshments, were Mrs. C. Will Hamilton, Miss Hamilton, Miss MaeHamilton and Miss Curtis. The guests present on Wednesday and Thursday were Mesdames Joe Barker, Sam'l Burns, Hulse, Mercer, Berry, Smith, Cowin, Colpetzer, DuBois, Turner, Dan Wheeler sr., Doane, Wakeley, Brown, Cor-nish, Broatch, Briggs, Thurston, Meredith, Denise, Dariei Brown, O. M. Carter, Cou-tant H. R. Smith, Robert Clarkson Ligin. Thursday ever barty, L. P. Funkhouser, a luncheon on Mrs.

far-famed Sutherland, the favorite re-Wednesday. Mrs. W. H. Alexander, a Kensington. sort of Oma ha people, or to other points in Florida, will find that the rates and Wednesday afternoon, followed by a supper time are the same via The Burlington ot n Thursday Chicago and thence via Cincinnati or

Wednesday evening, a recital by the pupils of F. S. Robbins at the Lininger gallery. Denise, Darler Brown, O. al Carler, Con-tant, H. B. Smith, Robert Clarkson, Linin-ger, W. V. Morse, McKenna, Yost, Pritchell, Rustin, Wallace, Dan Wheeler jr., Will Redick, Ed Baum, Dr. Smith, Arthur, Wakeley, Estabrooke, Chase, Keller, Haller,

Movements and Whereabouts. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burns will go abroad

May. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn are in Chi-ago this week. Miss Webster of Kansas City is the guest of Miss Tukey.

via St. Louis, offering a greater variety of routes than any other line. For full Mr. Charles Wilson is back among old information, tickets and sleeping berths Omaha friends. call at city ticket office, 1223 Fart am street. W. F. Vaill, agent.

The German club will give a dancing party Chursday evening. Miss Maud G. Paul is visiting in St. Louis and will return March 1. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Roeder have gone to .....Chopin Denver for a short time. Wagner-Schwalm The closing assembly will be given on

Shrove Tuesday eveningClementi Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith of Dundee Place

open their home next week. Colonel C. S. Chase and Mr. Clement Chase eft for New York on Friday.

The Concordia Singing society will give its annual masquerade February 14. Miss Orchard has returned home from a delightful visit of two months in Knoxville, gardless of the outside atmosphere. City Tenn. ticket office, 1501 Farnam street (Barker Mr. Harry Deuel and Mr. Charles L block), Omaha.

Deuel left last evening on a six week's tour through Mexico. J. D. Bird of New York city is the Mrs.

guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. S. Curtis, 517 Virginia avenue. Miss Brown and Mrs. J. J. Brown go south this week, if Miss Brown is enough to travel.

An old Omaha boy, Mr. Morris Hall, nov of Boston, is to be married to a lovely Cambridge girl in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Squires left Tuesdey on a fortnight's visit to Boston, Syracuse and New York city.

Miss Downs gave a pretty Kensington yes terday afternoon at her residence, 1226 South wenty-ninth street.

Mrs. Wheaton gives a dancing reception Monday afternoon, February 9, between the hours of 9 and 5 o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. Gifford began housekeeping this week at their new residence on Capitol avenue and Nineteenth street.

passenger agent, A.,T. & S. F. railroad, 411 N. Y. Life Bldg., Omaha, Nebraska. Mr. Fred Gray will go abroad this month

Gross' three children. Nichols left a write and family. A few weeks ago he wrote a letter from Denver to his wife asking her to forgive him and let him return home. Friends subscribed money to pay his way their sighs. A Knight of Malta-an evening spent in a beer tunnel

The Pittsburg couple who eloped on skates robably fell in love. back. Mrs. Gross has been heard from, too The coming lobbyist will wear more whis

She is now in a hospital, but promises to make things lively when she returns. kers than diamonds. "Oh, what a snap," ejaculated the tramp Mrs. John Rand, the wife of a well-known when the dog bit him. fisherman of Essex, Conn., recently eloped The only man contented with his lot occu that pies it in the cemetery. Mrs. Rand

Do not tell your wife of things you would not wish her to tell you.

The fool overestimates himself, the wise man is prone to modesty.

The man who teaches people to waltz is well up in society circles

The production of lymph doesn't appear to e equal to the consumption.

The fortune hunter is not after the girl whose complexion is alone rich.

In every love affair, one party gives the love, and the other the gratitude

It is when one lacks the bear necessities of life, that the wolf is at the door.

olic, and they were recently married, the cer-emony being performed by a Presbyterian clergyman. Friends kept insisting the mar-The successful theatrical manager has a riage was illegal, and husband and wife be-came greatly agitated. The wife would not good deal to thank his stars for.

No laugh sounds more mechanical than the laugh of the wife of a funny man. consent to another marriage by a priest. The husband left her and went to Pittsburg. When a lover has his arms around an They came back adored one he knows what he is about. A passage of arms-a promenade through the United States arsenal at Springfield.

Too many people believe that the milk of human kindness needs to be kept on ice. "My heart failed me," he said, as he drew a club to fill a bobtail flush of red cards. "Then what reason have you for marry-

"I've no reason at all. I'm in love ing?" The chief value of procrastination is in putting off ill "tempered letters and interviews, A man who is crushed under a falling ceiling would not be apt to consider the situation ditional advantages of the vestibule sublime. limited trains and elegant dining car The kind-hearted policeman who returns this the lost child is the best heir restorer over route. The Burlington also has on sale known. A reputation must be tarnished indeed round trip tickets to all southern points either via Kansas City and Memphis, or when it no longer returns reflections cast upon it. In peace prepare for war, especially when it is one piece of pie and two hungry boys are after it. There never was a cheeky man who did not think native modesty his distinguishing characteristic

Well, that's the first break I ever made remarked the bright young chicken as the shell parted. The man who lost his money is in a position to denounce prize fighting and its attendant immorality.

The dancing master and the dairyman have this in common, that they both use pumps in their business.

For a new way to pay old debts see Shakes "or an old way to pay new debts see peare. ninety-day note.

"Advertising pays" said the artist who abandoned "studies" and went to work decorating dead walls.

This has been a very bad season for dra-matic companies. As the ghost doesn't walk, the actors have to.

The man who has something to sell has a great deal to say about other people improving their opportunities.

It is the man that never advertises who discovers that he gets more dust on his goods than in his cash drawer.

A man of the world is usually well ac orKansas City $35, sleeping car rate from Chicago $4 per double berth, from quainted with the other members of his fam ily—the fiesh and the devil. When Shakespeare wrote that parting such sweet sorrow he voiced the regret of many a bald-headed man.

You can't blame some people for seeming

It is a bad idea to lock the stable door after

"Love is a devouring flame," the poet says.

It's a pity it doesn't burn up most of the the horse is stolen. What if the thief should ashamed to be found at work after you have seen the kind of work they do.

repent and bring back the horse.

love-letters that are written, too.