Beauty without grace the French think. Whether it be true or not, there are many American women who do not possess the look, beauty and attractiveness are denied them. Why? Because they're languid, cross and irritable. They know not what it is to be without pain or discomfort half the time.

That's it; suffer in silence—misunderstood—when there's a remedy—Dr. Parnell's Favorite Prescription—at hand that isn't an experiment, but which is sold by druggists, under the guarantee that if you are disappointed in any way with it, you get your money back by applying to its maker.

For overworked, debilitated women, teachers, milliners, seamstresses, house-girls, nursing mothers—one and all are cured by it.
