The barber shop kept by O. F. Lefferts at 1103 Main street was entered by burglars night before last. The visitors entered by the front door, to which they had in some way secured a key. They cut open a drawer containing Lefferts' tools and took out about $40 worth of razors, scissors, etc. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the crime.

The Chautauqua association held a meeting Monday evening in the board of trade rooms. The main business of the evening was the adoption of several amendments to the by laws of the association, which were intended to remedy certain defects which have caused a great deal of trouble in the association ever since it was organized. At the close of the meeting Secretary Oursler read a set of reso-lutions which he had prepared, in commen-dation of the untiring efforts of the ex-man-ager, J. E. THE SALOONKEEPERS BACKING DOWN. The Dodge Light Guards Give a Party -Justice Patton Likes the Police Force - Minor Mention and Personal.

The city council met last evening with the mayor in the chair and all the aldermen present excepting Alderman Knepher.

On motion of Alderman Everett the city marshal was instructed to remove a shanty ant the corner of Thirteenth street and Seventh avenue at once. Alderman Everest presented a resolution of thanks to Congressman J. R. Reed for the successful way in which he hustled the Interstate bridge bill through both houses of congress in less than a month. It was unanimously adopted.

Attorney O. D. Wheeler presented a communication from a man named Phillips, who lives at the corner of Sixteenth street and Twenty-third avenue, stating that the city had built a dam near his property, which had caused the water to run into his cellar, damaging him in the sum ($100. He asked the council to remunerate him to this amount and take steps to prevent a like oc-Currence in the future.
Alderman Wood presented an ordinance

W. A. Mynster presented a plat of his Benton street addition and asked that it be adopted by the council. It was referred to the city engineer and the committee of the

An ordinance was read and adopted pro-viding for the grading of Eleventh street between Avenues B and G. A motion was made to instruct the city solicitor to begin suit against the street railway company for $50.75 for grading on Ninth street. Alderman Everett moved that he also be instructed to press the suits against the ex-mayor and aldermon who had taken fees for their services as members of the board of equalization. Both motions were carried. An ordinance was then read, which will no doubt fall upon the ears of the embers of the motor company with a duil ud. It reads like this:

"Be it ordained by the common council of the city of Council Bluffs, that in order to enable the city of Council Bluffs to resume and take possession and have full control hereafter of all the streets upon which the Council Bluffs street railway company has not a permanent track laid, and is not no actually operating its cars thereon, and by reason of said Council Bluffs street railway company not complying with the contract by which it obtained certain rights granted under an ordinance approved August 11, 1869, and amended December 21, 1877, entitled as amended, 'An ordinance permitting use of certain streets of the Council Bluffs street railway company all the rights, privileges and franchises granted to said Council Bluffs street railway company by said ordinances and amendments thereto as to all streets where said company has not now permanent tracks laid and actually operating its tracks thereon, are hereby re-sumed by said city and all the rights and privileges thereby granted to said Council Bluffs street rallway company are hereby fully revoked, cancelled, termi-nated and ended thereon, and as to such streets said Council Bluffs street railway company has and shall have no further rights or privileges thereto, and is forever prohib ited from in any manner claiming or exercising the same.

"Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to in any manner affect any right granted to said company by said ordinance or said amendment as to streets where said company has a permanent track and is now actually operating its cars thereon. "Sec. 2. All ordinances and parts of ordi-nances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed. This ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its publication as provided by law."

Alderman Everett spoke in favor of the passage of the ordinance. He said the company had taken advantage of every legal technicality to get out of its obligations to the city, especially in in the matter of paying for the paying between the tracks, which it is compelled to pay by the terms of its con-tract. It had proved itself anything but a rit ecipient for past or future favors.

Wind was afraid the council was getting itself into trouble by considering such an or-dinance; supposing some day the city should want the company to put down some tracks somewhere! Then this ordinance would stare them in the face. But it didn't take him two minutes to come in out of the wet and the ordinance was passed without a dis senting vote.
The council then took under consideration the list of candidates for the offices of judges and clerks for the coming city election, making the following appointments First Ward-Judges, H. Shoemaker, E. S. Barnett and C. C. Bump; clerks, Robert Rain, E. H. Ohlendorf. Second Ward-Judges, W. H. Spera, C. S. Hubbard, O. H. Lucas; cierks, M. F. Rehrer and W. McCreary.

Third Ward-Judges, Ed Britten, Thomas Robinson, George Miller; clerks, Joseph Beremein, Forrest Smith. Fourth Ward First precinct: Judges, F.

A. Conover, B. S. Dawson, B. S. Terwilliger; clerks, Bert Innis, L. Swearington, Second precinct: Judges, M. DeGroat, G. W. Cook, S. J. Dalbey; clerks, George McPeek, Oliver The question of lights on Knepher avenue and on the Sixth street bridge was then taken up, and much the same kind of a seance took place as at the meeting of a week ago. Knepher and Caspar grew tragical once more and the other members grew hilarious. At last both lights were ordere located. A motion was then carried locating a light at the corner of Sixteenth street and Fifth avenue, Caspar and Wind voting no. The city attorney was directed to begin condemnation proceedings against the corner of ground at the intersection of Broadway and Union avenue.

District Court. The attention of Judge Thornell was prin cipally occupied yesterday with the damage suit of Howard vs the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, which was commenced Monday. The prosecution got in all its testimony, by which it tried to prove that the plaintiff's hay and grain had been destroyed by the fire caused by the sparks from a passing engine. The defense cited the law that compels them to use the latest and most approved methods for preventing accidents of all descriptions, and then put Master Mechanic Manchester, of Dubuque, on the stand, to testify as to the construction of their locomotives. He showed a model of the engine to the jury, and ex-plained in detail the way in which the sparks are consumed. Their defense is that the use the most approved method for destroying these sparks, and they claim that they are not responsible for anything beyond that. It is thought the case will be completed to George Coulthard and F. L. Davis, who are alleged to have been connected with the title deed frauds a short time ago, were arraigned, but they did not put in any plea. They were represented by Attorneys H. H. Rodifer and G. A. Holmes.

They Have Cooled Down. A stout opposition was looked for from the saloonkeepers when it came to collecting the monthly fines for February. One reason for this was that when the $50 per month fine was adopted the saloonists, or least many of them, thought that they could not make anything at that rate, but they decided to try it a month and see how it turned out. When the month began to near its end the song and dance began again. The saloonkeepers declared by all that was good and bad that they would not pay $50, and that they would run their places in spite of everything. In case any trouble was made they would bring the city authorities into the state courts and fight the fine ordinance on the ground that it was opposed to the state law. All of which sounds very ferocious indeed.

Yesterday was the last day, according to the ordinance, on which the fines were to be paid, and the result showed that a large part at least of the saloonkeepers' threats were made of wind. At 5 o'clock forty-eight had deposited their $50 apiece with the city clerk. There are said to be seventy-three running at present, so that twenty-five of the number have not yet been heard from. Al-though yesterday was the last day, it has been the practice to give them a day or two of grace, and the marshal will not be or-dered out to look after the delinquents for a day or two. It is not thought there will be any trouble over the collection of the rest of "The Police All Right." "There was a piece published in a morning paper a few days ago, over the signature of a prominent labor agitator of Council Bluffs," said Justice W. F. Patton yesterday. "I was represented as endorsing all the views of the labor man, among others of which were some concerning the police and fire departments. The writer of the paper said that the departments were too big for the size of the city, and that they ought to be reduced by half, at least. I wish you would tell people that I don't have any such idea as that at all. In my opinion the affairs of the city are better managed now than they ever were before, and this fact is due in a great degree to the size of the police force. The views which the writer of the article and I hold in common are the ones with regard to hold in common are the ones with regard to certain political chestnuts whose names are now being mentioned in connection with the coming city election. These fellows I want t see downed, and I don't care who knows it.

AMUSEMENTS.

Maggie Mitchell appeared again last night at Boyd's in "Lorie, or the Artist's Dream," one of the most popular plays of her repertoire, and interpreted the character of Lorie in a manner that left nothing to be criticised, and added many to the long list of admirers. Miss Mitchell's methods are peculiarly ner own. She enters into the spirit of her part with her whole heart and soul, and her auditors can always feet sure of witnessing a thoroughly conscientious and painstaking performance. She is supported this season, as in the past, by a thoroughly competent company, and every attention is paid to the stage settings and details of her presentations. Mr. Howard Gould as Reinhart th artist, gave a manly, artistic portrayal of the role. Mr. R. F. McClannin played the Lin denhost as he does all things, well. Mr George W. Deyo was handsome and digni fied as the prince. Sheridan Tupper as Baro Arthur made much of a small part, which in less capable hands would hardly receive attention. Mr. Edward Poland was hardly up to the requirements of Christoph. Miss Jennie Carroll as Basoel and Ida Burroughs as the countess were bot very satisfactory. Taken as a whole, the very pleasant evening's entertainment. HIGHLY SENSATIONAL REPORT.

It Tells of the Consolidation of All Northwestern Roads - The Western Traffic Association's Very Smooth Move.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE . |- The passenger department of the Transcontinental association is arranging to pool all its business. Two committees, one on westbound business, including emigrants, and the other on eastbound business, have been in session all day in an attempt to form a satisfactory pool. No conclusion was reached, but the committees will remain in session until they can make a report. The freight business was pocled several months ago, except that the Union Pacific is not admitted to the pool. Since Gould gained control, it has been thought best to admit the Union Pacific, this being partly the business which is now bringing Gould west.

A Smooth Move.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10. -[Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- Chairman Midgely of the southwestern division of the Western Freight association was today elected chairman of all divisions, superceding Acting Chairman Osgood. This the smoothest move yet made by the Western Traffic association. Not a solitary change, except in name, is necessary to make this association the lake division of the Western Traffic association, if all the members were willing. The Alton and Kansas City roads at present block the plan, as they absolutely refuse to join the Western Traffic association. This move is the first one towards actually putting the Western Fraffic association into operation.

Status of Joint Rates

DES MOINES, la., Feb. 10.- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- The railway commission awaits legal instructions concerning the status of the joint rate question, pending an appeal to the United States supreme court by the railway company. It is a question as to what is expected of the railroad company in regard to enforcing the joint rate provided an appeal is taken to the higher court. If the rate is now enforced and the decision is re-versed by the supreme court of the United States, the company will have cause of action for damage against the state. If, on the other hand, the decision is affirmed in after years the intention of the law will have been already defeated. In an interview with a prominent lawyer he said that the remedy of the company, however, was in a United States court, where a petition could be filed for a stay of proceedings, pending the appeal. Unless such action is taken the joint rate law is now in force in the state and the railroad companies are subject to penalties for not adopting the rates.

A Sensational Report.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- A highly sensational report was telegraphed from New York today concerning an alleged scheme to consolidate all the large northwestern roads. President Roswell Miller of the Milwaukee & St. Paul, is the only head of any of the coads named that is in the city today. When his attention was called to the report he said:

"I never heard of such negotiations being in progress. If they are, I have never heard of them. I know nothing about the matter at all and never heard of it." Officials of other roads named considered the report as too absurd to deserve considera-tion. They said that such a consolidation as that mentioned was simply an impossibility and they regarded the whole matter as a bing sensation got up for the pur pose of influencing the price of stocks.

WHY HILL WEST 10 THE SENATE. Words of Warning From Henry Watterson Did It.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 10.-The Sun will omorrow publish a dispatch from Wasnington, referring to the report that the conclusion of Governor Hill of New York to come to the senate was because of a letter written him by Henry Watterson last November. The letter is printed in full. In it Mr. Watterson says that outside of the New York threre is a state of well nigh unapimous demand among democrats for the nomination of Clevelandtoo strong for party leaders and managers to resist. If Hill should come to the national convention with the New York delegation solid against Cleveland he would be over-whelmed. "You are powerless to prevent," adds Waterson, "but you can defeat the election of the ticket. There are democrats in every part of the union who believe you did this in 1888. I know it to be false, but it will cling to you as long as you live and will meet you in every national convention if it be not dissipated by some act on your part great enough to blot it out. In default of this if you have any hope of the presidency it will defeat that. If you could reconcile it with your judgment to make peace with Cleveland and take a delegation to the national convention in 1892 to put him in nomination you will save the party and place yourself upon an elevation you can never attain if you fail to do it. You would be received by the country with enthusi-asm and I don't see how you could be kept out of the succession. On the other hand, even if you succeeded in defeating the nomination of Cleveland, you will stand upon sinister and dangerous ground, with a stormy future before you."

ILLEGAL COURT PRACTICES. A Bad State of Affairs Shown in Some of Them.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. - The sub-committee of the house committee on judiciary, which spent some time last session investigating charges of illegal practices in the federal courts in various parts of the country. submitted a lengthy report to the full committee today. The report tells of a general suspension of sentences nounced, principally in the dis-ricts of West Virginia and northern Georgia and m the Northern, Middle and Southern districts of Alabama, thus encouraging the methods of fee-making practices by United States district attorneys, marshals, etc. The evidence shows, says the report, that in some parts of the country men are induced by deputy marshals and United States commissioners to make complaints against each other for violation of the internal revenue and timber laws, are arrested by deputy marshals and brought before the commissioners, where, after hearing, they are bound over to the court after be coming bail for each other and appearing be-fore the court as defendants, witnesses and ballee. A large number of witnesses are summoned in every case, the federal 'officers charging for every petty service, increasing the mileage by unneccessary trips, pecketing the allowances intended for witnesses and others. The United States commissioners by these means secure an annual income rang. from $2,000 to $8,000, Commissioner Hallett of Boston, Mass., is criticised for ob taining fees by practices such as these. Report says that most of these prosecutions are frivolous, and if prosecuted in the courts would be frowned on. The report views in detail the illegal practices existing elsewher than in Boston, and recommends the substi-tution of salaries for fees as the only means of putting an end to corruptions of the fee system. The practice pre-vailing in Boston of allowing court clerks and deputies to naturalize foreigners, charg-ing a fee ranging from $1 to $4 for each step of the process, is condemned in strong terms.

The sub-committee recommends legislation for other phases of the evil and also the dismissal of J. T. Green, United States circuit court commissioner of the Northern district of Alabama. In reference to Judge Bruce of the Northern and Middle districts of Alabama, it says that Judge Bruce is too much inclined to surrender the discretion that belongs to him alone and to register as the judgment of the court the agreement of Treated as a Canard.

PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 10.-The report of a trade between the democrats and independents of South Dakota and Illinois is treated as a canard by the independents. Several prominent alliance men in an interview said that they had heard of no such trade and would not be a party to it; that they would not vote for a democrat and did not expect help from the democrats. Leading democrats when interviewed said no such agreement had been reached, but would not say it had not been considered. It is learned that such a proposition has been suggested by an lilinois party. Colonel East and sentative Pratt, friends of Judge democratic senatorial candidate, said this morning that the fight will be settled in a few days and either Tripp or an independent satisfactory to the democrats will be elected the republicans and it may result in causing them to unite on a candidate SAD STORM STORY. A Dakota Boy Frozen to Death Near Shelter.

RAPID CITY, S. D., Feb. 10.-[Special Tele gram to THE BEE. |- Meta Gray, the young school teacher, and Grant Bays, reported to have perished Saturday, reached shelter and are safe and well.

Charles Kalkbrenner, a youth thirteen years old, residing on a ranch between Elk and Box Elder creeks, about thirty mlles from Rapid, perished in the storm. The story is a sad one. The boy, accompanied by his brother, a child of nine years, left this city with a load of lumber for Friday afternoon, proposing to stop at a friend's about ten miles on this side of their ranch. Some distance out they encountered a storm and, unhitching their team, mounted the horses and continued on their way. The younger boy states that when about three-quarters of a mile from their destination for the night he lost sight of his brother, who had dropped behind. He continued on to the farm-house, supposing that his brother would follow, He was found dead next day near his horse, which had become tangled the fence and had frozen to death.
