That Revoking Ordinance. The action of the city council, in revoking the charter of the Council Bluffs and Omaha street railway company over all streets on which they have not now trains actually in operation, caused no little stir among the citizens vesterday. That the council would dare to stand so firmly against that mighty organization, which has heretofore had things just about as it pleased, had never been dreamed of. As a general thing, however, the feeling over the matter seemed to be that the move was in the right direction, especially among the citizens who have been compelled to try by law to recover the money which they had paid for the paving of the street

The members of the motor company claim not to feel any anxiety over the action of the council. One of them thus expressed his views yesterday: "It makes no difference to us what the council does as long as they don't do anything that hurts us any worse than that does. Why, they've no right to pass any such ordinance as that. The su-preme court has ruled that a city ordinance such as the one under which we built and are operating our line takes the nature of a contract, and when we once go to work under contract, and when we once go to work under the contract and show by our actions that we mean to accept it, the contract becomes binding and they can't come in and abro-gate it any more than I can abrogate that little bill I owe at my tailor's. So you see we can afford to lie back and laugh at the city's lawmakers when they try to get the better of us in any such way."

One of the council who was in the lead in favor of the passage of the ordinance spoke as follows: oranch, but just as soon as they do th such an ordinance will have to be decided by

The farmers' alliance, having had so much success in unsetting the politics in various states, now propose to move on Canada and take a hand in the coming struggle in the Dominion. Delegate Cole, who represented Michigan in the recent gathering of alliance magnates here, has just returned west by way of Niagara Falls, at which point he will branch off into Canada and begin organizing alliance bodies. This move is in response to requests which have been coming into the alliance officials here from farmers and farmers' organizations through Ontario. The Canadian farmers have county organiza-

He Didn't Know Annie.

Among the unfortunate ones who stood before Judge McGee yesterday was one little fellow who had been arrested on the charge of vagrancy. He was attired in a pair of trousers that looked as though they might have been made for his prother who went to the army and never returned. The rest of his clothing was to match. When asked what his occupation was he replied that he sang for a living. "Well," said the judge, "you may stand out there and give us a specinen of your singing." So the little fellow stood up and sang

"Johnnie, Get Your Gun," "Where Did You Get That Hat?" and a number of other choice elections in a way that sent the city marshaland his deputy into a fit of uncontroliable weeping. When the boy had finished the judge looked at him in a way that meant, "Now be careful what you say," and said in voice of thunder, "Young man, do you sing Little Annie Rooney ?" " The boy looked up as if insulted, and re-

phed with a good deal of dignity, "No, sir: I don't know 'Annie Rooney.'" The court heared a great sigh of relief, and said, "The prisoner is discharged. "I should have hated terribly to give that boy a term in the county jail," said the judge to a bystander a little later, "but if he had been reckless enough to admit that he sang "Annie Rooney," I should have folt it my duty to give him thirty days." A Card.

To the Citizens of Council Bluffs-The Council Blufs theater company assumed control of Dohany's opera house Tuesday, February 10, 1891. No labor or expense will be spared to make the house attractive and the anterimination of the state of the entertainments enjoyable. It will take a little time to accomplish needed reforms. This evening the company will present "Maggie Mitchell." We have not had time to make the changes contemplated, but we assure the public that this evening the house will be clean, the music fine and the per-formance good. We carnestly ask a liberal patronage for our "opening night."

She Was a Missourian.

A queer looking couple wended their way wearily up the stairs of the Everrett block a day or two ago in search of the matrimonial parlors of Justice Cones. They displayed none of the embarrassment that young people are usually supposed to have when bent on similar errands, and it way very evident they had both been there before. After the justice had said the fateful words that were to make them one for better or worse, the usual legal formality had to be gone through usual legal formality had to be plank form with, of filling out a blank form stating the name, age, nationality, etc., of the parties, and asking a great of the parties, more averaged as a state of the plant of th many more questions which are commonly supposed to have been invented for the pur pose of impressing it upon the youthful couple that the justice has had to work hard to earn that $2. Graves is a Rustler. While the city council was choosing clerks and judges for the coming city election last Tuesday night, a little remark was made by Alderman Mikesell, who has a special aptitude for saying things in a charmingly innocent way, that nearly brought down the house. The name of Frank Graves was mentioned for the office of clerk for the democrats. "What's that?" said Alderman Mikesell. "Frank Graves for derk. Not much. I kick on that.' "What is the matter with Graves!" asked "O, Graves is all right," said the Sixth ward alderman, "but he is too good a man on the outside; we can't spare him." A laugh then went the rounds, the cause of which seemed to be a mystery to Mikesell. But the demonstrate antidate space to the democrats quickly came to the conclusion that Mikesell was right, and the republicans knew that they would do the same thing if they ever got the chance, and Graves' name was left of the list was left off the list.

A Dead Shot on a Cough or Cold. The editor of the Lewis, Iowa, Independ ant, relates his experience for the benefit of the public, as follows: "We have adver-tised a great many different patent medicines but have never taken the pains to editorially "puff" one. We are going to do so now for ie first time. Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa, manufacture a cough remedy which is absolutely the best thing we have ever seen. We have used it in our family for the past year, and consider it indispensable. Its effects are almost instantaneous, and there is no use talking, it is a dead shot on a cough or cold. We don't say this for pay, but because we consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best made, and we want the people to know it and use it.

LOOKS LIKE POSTER.

There is an impression tonight which appears to have a very firm foundation in official circles that ex-Governor Charles Foster of Ohio will be appointed to the vacant secretaryship of the treasury. The president has consulted the Ohio delegation in congress and has received expressions from the load-ing republicans in the state, and Foster appears to be so well recommended and so thoroughly equipped and so well fitted for the place that it is probable he will be asked into the cabinet.

A STATEMENT FROM DORSEY.

Representative Dorsey of Nebraska today voluntarily went before the house committee investigating the alleged silver pool and paid his respects to J. A. Owenby, the Chicago witness who said the other day in an interview that a Nebraska congressman had offered nim $2,500 not to testify against so and so before the committee. Mr. Dorsey said he never saw Owenby to know him but once, and that was when he was under arrest and in charge of the sergeantat-arms of the house. He went into the office of the sergeant-at-arms to look at Owenby simply to satisfy his caricelty. He never talked with Owenby anywhere or any time about silver or anything else, and if Owenby intended to convey the idea that he (Dorsey) had approached him in reference to testifying before the committee he was a liar, pure and simple, an ordinary liar, too. Mr. Dorsey reiterated that he had never bought an ounce of silver bullion in his life or had an option upon it and had no interest in any form in the silver speculation. He stated further that he believed this all to anniv and he true, of both his collegence. apply and be true of both his colleagues. Messrs, Connell and Laws. Both of the intter gentlemen make the same statement. Witnesses are being summoned by the com-mittee to impeach Owenby as a witness. Several senators, representatives and privato eitizens will testify. It appears that Owenby is very visionary and is constantly building air castles. He represented while here that he broke the North River bank of New York y unloading a lot of cheap stock which the astitution was trying to "bull" upon the institution was trying to "bull" upon the market, and that he made a sharp drive by threatening to unload enormous blocks of it far below the price fixed by the bank. It is not known here that Owenby ever owned a collar's worth of anything. He is reported o have been a small borrower, however,

PERGY S. HEATH. They Give Their Reasons.

Below are given ten reasons why Cham-berlain's Cough Remedy is the best: It will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment.

2. It does not suppress a cough or cold : but If does not show a phone is a congregation of the phone
 It relieves the lungs, which is of great

If freely used as soon as the first symp-toms appear, it will cure a severe cold in a single day 7. It will prevent croup and avert all dan-ger and anxiety arising from that dreaded disease. 8. It has cured thousands of cases of croup, and careful inquiry fails to discover a single case in which it has ever failed. 9. It does not contain opium, chloroform, nor any other injurious substance. There is not the least danger in giving it to children. 10. Chamberiain's Cough Remedy acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids na-ture in relieving the lungs, and freeing the system of morbid matter, accumulated by ause of the cold. 50 cents per bottle, I was so lame with rheumatism that I
