HE WANTED TO START A STAMP MILL.

The Alleged Fremont Fence Brought Back from Canada—The Reward for Seal's Arrest—Other Local.

There is a man in jail at Fremont named G. H. Cook and he is believed to be the man who swindled Rev. Seal's A. Brackett of this city out of $3,000 about one year ago.

Cook was in Omaha for some time and became acquainted with Mr. Brackett, who lives on Cuming street. Cook is a man of prepossessing appearance and has a voice that carries conviction in its cadence. He was invited to make his sermon with Mr. Brackett's family for a short time and then disclosed the dexterity of his fine Italian hand.

Rev. Brackett asked Cook to lead in family worship and to say grace at the table. Cook was invited to do so, but to his appearance—that his lot had been cast with Christ and the beautiful benediction he requested the Lord to fall upon that dining table was named, and the prayer was said with the other delicacies of the season.

When it came to family worship Cook was absolutely silent. The pastor, who was a devoted man, in the manner in which he supplicated divine assistance for the poor and needy, the style of his earnest plea for the foreign missionary work, and the fervor of his prayer, good and the pure in all lands and upon the sea would have caused the staid and non-medical, as well as the young and the young Methodist, to say "Amen."

When Cook had thoroughly captured the confidence of the good people, he proposed to Rev. Brackett and son that they furnish the means and let him establish a stamp mill in Denver. After a certain amount of preliminary work Cook secured a permit for $5,000 for the ostensible purpose of operating a stamp mill in Denver, but he simply pocketed the money and disappeared, leaving Rev. Brackett and son holding a very empty sack.

Cook made some very daring and successful deals in Colorado. He was seen at the Colorado Springs, where he secured about $1,000.

Mr. Brackett Jr. went to Fremont to identify Cook.

FIRESTONE CALLED BACK.

The Fremont Business Man Brought Back from Canada.

Sheriff Mallon of Fremont passed through the city Wednesday afternoon in charge of Firestone, who skipped from Fremont as soon as he found he was wanted for keeping a "fence." His operations in that line were revealed by the quartet of burglars arrested in Council Bluffs and taken back to Fremont for trial.

Firestone was arrested in Ottawa, Canada, and Sheriff Mallon found it exceedingly difficult to get him out of the country, but with extradition papers. The prisoner seemed to have several friends who employed an attorney to present the "fence" case, but by bringing him back Mallon expressed the belief that but for the valuable assistance rendered him by the Ottawa chief of detectives he would have been compelled to return without his prisoner.

A KANSAS CITY OFFICER.

Will Secure the Reward for the Arrest of Ed Neal.

Chief Seavey has sent Sheriff Bowles of Kansas City his affidavit regarding the capture of Ed Neal and sent affidavits for the arrest of the other members of the party assigned and return when the reward offered for Neal's arrest will be forwarded to Michael Cary, the Kansas City police officer who arrested Neal.

A sneak thief is making life miserable for the honest residents of Coleridge and a number of shagwags have been primed and loaded with the hope of bringing down the miscreant.

David Armstrong, one of Sarpy county's oldest men and an early settler, died at Earlville, Idaho, Wednesday, March 5, 1891, and came to this country in 1866. He leaves a widow and a large family of children.

Miss Hattie Kimnick and Robert Scribner, both well known and popular society people of St. Paul, were quietly married at the Lincoln hotel, Lincoln, Nebraska, Wednesday afternoon, March 4.

D. A. Holmes of Norfolk spent a night at St. at hotel recently which nearly cost him his life. A stove pipe which passed through the room where he was sleeping, and the smoke filled the room, partially suffocating Holmes and rendering him unconscious. The timely discovery of his condition, however, saved his life.

Judge Hamer failed to be present at Kearney when the district court term was advertised to commence and later sent a telegram advising the police of Kearney. There has been a good deal of indignation expressed at the judge's action and the Kearney people are determined to see that he is called to account for his conduct, uncalculated and altogether outrageous.

A child of William Thobin of Coleridge swallowed a sewing machine bobbin the other day, which stuck in its throat. When an attempt was made to remove the bobbin it slipped and passed into the child's stomach where it still remains. The child supports life principally on milk or other nourishing liquids, as a more dense food seems to be obstructed before it reaches the stomach and is repelled by a sickening sensation.

THE PIERCE PATENT PIANO SWINDLE.

Letters of Inquiry Still Coming In—Photograph Men in Council—The G. A. R. Fair—Other Local News.

The present whereabouts of A. E. Whitney are unknown to a number of anxious creditors in this city and their anxiety amounts in the aggregate to about $800.

Whitney was the proprietor of a livery stable at Fortieth and Hamilton until last December, when he disposed of the place together with the stock and a job lot of good will, and since that time has ostensibly been negotiating for the interest of the senior member of the firm of Fox & Cotton in the stable at Fifteenth and Cass.

He continued to negotiate until he was indebted to Mr. Fox in the sum of $35, having borrowed the last dollar owing to Mr. Fox. Mr. Woodruff, Whitney's partner, has since the time of Whitney's departure to the extent of $200, and the butcher, grocer and others other individuals are also numerous small creditors of Whitney, the depth of which is as yet unknown.
