

INGALLS ON COAST DEFENSE.

He Considers Present Annual Expenditures On the Navy Criminal Extravagance.

HIS RESPECTS TO MERRY OLD ENGLAND.

She is Under Bonds to Keep the Peace--Mexico's Plans for the Exhibition--Soldiers Decorated.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--The article contributed to the New York Truth by ex-Senator Ingalls, which created much comment, is in substance as follows:

"The annual shrill about our defenseless coasts, and the bombardment of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, has been omitted. The yearly shriek, describing the blood-curdling incidents and appalling consequences of a war with Chili and Spain in 1890, has been sent to each senator and representative in congress. Editorial estimates in the metropolitan press of the amount of property within reach of an Italian ironclad in the lower bay, and the amount that could be extorted from merchants and bankers, have all been submitted and filed away for use again in 1892.

"Their purpose is to reconcile the people to the passage of the naval appropriation bill and to the enormous and profligate expenditures in time for ships, fortifications and munitions of war. The capacity of the United States to create a navy in an emergency was demonstrated in the rebellion. The duel between the Monitor and Merrimack in Hampton Roads revolutionized naval warfare, and the problem has since been to construct armor that would resist the penetration, and then to invent projectiles that no armor could resist. European nations have been conducting these expensive experiments hitherto, and the ships of 1880 are already antiquated. Dynamite and other explosives complete the scientific armament. The cost of building a vessel of 8,000,000 is not as wasteful as in 1850 as Roman galleys, which sell at their best at 50 per cent of their cost. The millions we are squandering on vessels would better be spent for every working power plant gun to command every roadstead, channel and harbor which a hostile fleet could threaten or assault. Is there any necessity for spending millions and millions for naval defense? Our policy is pacific. Our only enemy is England and she is under bond to keep the peace. England is not so vulnerable, and none so detested. She has incurred the resentment of the human race by centuries of injustice. England is rickety when we were healthy and noble. Sickened and burned the defenseless capital. She rickety Ireland; she rickety Egypt; she rickety Hindustan; she rickety Siam, China, but she is not in the habit of kicking her equal in our world. She is the only nation that has hostility to destroy the union, and she applied and paid damages. Lately we had another contention about seal poaching and the Behring sea. A Canadian vessel was captured, and we were assured that we were assured danger was imminent. Immense appropriations were promptly made for an expedition and navy, and then, when our national hair was standing on end, England suddenly came into our arms, and the whole controversy to that great trial, it was reassuring, but it was laughable, nevertheless."

Provided New Public Buildings.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--The work of the house committee on public buildings and grounds during the fifty-first congress is set forth in a statement prepared by Chairman Milburn.

Four hundred and eleven house bills for the erection of new public buildings, and the completion or extension of existing buildings, and construction were referred to the committee, asking appropriations amounting to $56,435,625; of the bills reported from the committee, amounting to $12,666,689. One hundred and twenty-nine bills were referred to the committee, asking appropriations amounting to $26,122,500. In most cases these bills were for buildings at places for which no bills of similar kind had been introduced. Of the Senate bills eighty-five were reported to the house, with amendments, reducing the appropriations to $24,650,000. $5,000,000 is reported by the committee, the amount was reduced to $14,250,000. Of the bills passed, eighty-five were approved by the president, appropriating $12,666,689. The committee had before it a large number of bills, involving a much larger appropriation than the extension of the present congress since the organization of the government. The policy of the committee has been to restrict the number of places and limit appropriations.

Work of the Exposition Bureau.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Lieutenant A. C. Baker, the commissioner sent on behalf of the Columbian exposition to Mexico, has forwarded an interesting sketch of the plan for the Mexican exhibit, prepared and submitted to the government of Mexico by well known artists of that republic. This plan represents the history of Mexico from the time of the Aztecs to the present time, and is a history of the human race and human habitation in that country. The sketch is a masterpiece of drawing, and the artistic skill of those engaged upon the enterprise warrants the assurance that it will be carried out in a manner creditable to the Republic of Mexico.

Raised a Peculiar Question.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--A queer complication surrounds the question of who shall be United States district judge for Idaho. The president appointed Mr. Beattie for the place. He failed of confirmation. The point has been made that as this is a new office, it can only be filled by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and the president's attempt to fill it having failed, he cannot appoint a man nor have him serve until the senate can act on the nomination. Under this view, no vacancy such as the president is authorized to fill in the senate exists, and that the president has the same right to fill it that he has to fill any vacancy. The question is under consideration at the department of justice.

Fulfilled Men Decorated.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Secretary Prentiss awarded medals of honor to the following named enlisted men, for gallantry in the action of Wounded Knee: First Sergeant Jacob Tammam, troop B, Seventh Cavalry, and Corporal Paul H. Wener, and Privates Joshua B. Hartzig, George Green and John Flood, all of light battery E, First artillery.

DuBois Pegs a Point.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--An important step has been taken in the settlement of the contest over the seat of Senator DuBois of Idaho. His name has been put on the roll of senators, and he will receive his pay as the duly elected United States senator from that state. Senator Edmunds says the law and precedents sustain this action.

A WEEK IN ENGLAND.

Gossip and News of London for Seven Days.

Copyright 1891 by New York Associated Press. LONDON, March 6.--The Liberal official, who expect an early delivery from Mr. Gladstone on the party's electoral programme which will either be issued as a special manifesto, or declared in his coming speech at Hastings. The private and persistent enmity of a number of leading adherents to make his attitude towards the Irish party definite and unambiguously avowed, has been the subject of much talk. Mr. Parnell's reiteration of assurances to the Irish party, by supporting the Liberal government, is resented by the English Liberal leaders. Mr. Gladstone's pronouncement is expected to let the world know that, if the Irish party champion Mr. Parnell, the English Liberals will abandon home rule.

The annual shrill about our defenseless coasts, and the bombardment of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, has been omitted. The yearly shriek, describing the blood-curdling incidents and appalling consequences of a war with Chili and Spain in 1890, has been sent to each senator and representative in congress. Editorial estimates in the metropolitan press of the amount of property within reach of an Italian ironclad in the lower bay, and the amount that could be extorted from merchants and bankers, have all been submitted and filed away for use again in 1892.

Their purpose is to reconcile the people to the passage of the naval appropriation bill and to the enormous and profligate expenditures in time for ships, fortifications and munitions of war. The capacity of the United States to create a navy in an emergency was demonstrated in the rebellion. The duel between the Monitor and Merrimack in Hampton Roads revolutionized naval warfare, and the problem has since been to construct armor that would resist the penetration, and then to invent projectiles that no armor could resist. European nations have been conducting these expensive experiments hitherto, and the ships of 1880 are already antiquated. Dynamite and other explosives complete the scientific armament. The cost of building a vessel of 8,000,000 is not as wasteful as in 1850 as Roman galleys, which sell at their best at 50 per cent of their cost. The millions we are squandering on vessels would better be spent for every working power plant gun to command every roadstead, channel and harbor which a hostile fleet could threaten or assault. Is there any necessity for spending millions and millions for naval defense? Our policy is pacific. Our only enemy is England and she is under bond to keep the peace. England is not so vulnerable, and none so detested. She has incurred the resentment of the human race by centuries of injustice. England is rickety when we were healthy and noble. Sickened and burned the defenseless capital. She rickety Ireland; she rickety Egypt; she rickety Hindustan; she rickety Siam, China, but she is not in the habit of kicking her equal in our world. She is the only nation that has hostility to destroy the union, and she applied and paid damages. Lately we had another contention about seal poaching and the Behring sea. A Canadian vessel was captured, and we were assured that we were assured danger was imminent. Immense appropriations were promptly made for an expedition and navy, and then, when our national hair was standing on end, England suddenly came into our arms, and the whole controversy to that great trial, it was reassuring, but it was laughable, nevertheless."

Provided New Public Buildings.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--The work of the house committee on public buildings and grounds during the fifty-first congress is set forth in a statement prepared by Chairman Milburn.

Four hundred and eleven house bills for the erection of new public buildings, and the completion or extension of existing buildings, and construction were referred to the committee, asking appropriations amounting to $56,435,625; of the bills reported from the committee, amounting to $12,666,689. One hundred and twenty-nine bills were referred to the committee, asking appropriations amounting to $26,122,500. In most cases these bills were for buildings at places for which no bills of similar kind had been introduced. Of the Senate bills eighty-five were reported to the house, with amendments, reducing the appropriations to $24,650,000. $5,000,000 is reported by the committee, the amount was reduced to $14,250,000. Of the bills passed, eighty-five were approved by the president, appropriating $12,666,689. The committee had before it a large number of bills, involving a much larger appropriation than the extension of the present congress since the organization of the government. The policy of the committee has been to restrict the number of places and limit appropriations.

Work of the Exposition Bureau.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Lieutenant A. C. Baker, the commissioner sent on behalf of the Columbian exposition to Mexico, has forwarded an interesting sketch of the plan for the Mexican exhibit, prepared and submitted to the government of Mexico by well known artists of that republic. This plan represents the history of Mexico from the time of the Aztecs to the present time, and is a history of the human race and human habitation in that country. The sketch is a masterpiece of drawing, and the artistic skill of those engaged upon the enterprise warrants the assurance that it will be carried out in a manner creditable to the Republic of Mexico.

Raised a Peculiar Question.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--A queer complication surrounds the question of who shall be United States district judge for Idaho. The president appointed Mr. Beattie for the place. He failed of confirmation. The point has been made that as this is a new office, it can only be filled by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and the president's attempt to fill it having failed, he cannot appoint a man nor have him serve until the senate can act on the nomination. Under this view, no vacancy such as the president is authorized to fill in the senate exists, and that the president has the same right to fill it that he has to fill any vacancy. The question is under consideration at the department of justice.

Fulfilled Men Decorated.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Secretary Prentiss awarded medals of honor to the following named enlisted men, for gallantry in the action of Wounded Knee: First Sergeant Jacob Tammam, troop B, Seventh Cavalry, and Corporal Paul H. Wener, and Privates Joshua B. Hartzig, George Green and John Flood, all of light battery E, First artillery.

DuBois Pegs a Point.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--An important step has been taken in the settlement of the contest over the seat of Senator DuBois of Idaho. His name has been put on the roll of senators, and he will receive his pay as the duly elected United States senator from that state. Senator Edmunds says the law and precedents sustain this action.

Killed by Conscience.

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., March 6.--Christian Bien, conscientious objector for the murder of his five-year-old step-child last September, hanged himself in his cell last night.

THE FOREIGN NEWS BUDGET.

London Undergoes a Revival of the Sir Charles Dilke Scandal.

RUSSIA AND AUSTRIA TOO CORDIAL.

King Humbert Expresses His Friendship for America--Another Death at Morocco--The Chilean Insurgents.

LONDON, March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--The Libera are disgusted and the Tories delighted with the revival by Sir Charles Dilke himself of the scandal reflecting on his morality. People were inclined to ignore the subject, and if Dilke had become a candidate in the Forest of Dean without alluding to it, the affair would not probably have been mentioned by anyone else. As it is, he has dragged the whole disgusting business to public attention again in his pamphlet. Even assuming much of what he says to be true, it only shows that he is in a very dirty mess. Dilke and his friends say that he is almost a monomaniac on the subject of the scandal which led to his political death, so much so that it is impetuous to see in his conduct the intention of making a party set-off against the district against him.

The annual shrill about our defenseless coasts, and the bombardment of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, has been omitted. The yearly shriek, describing the blood-curdling incidents and appalling consequences of a war with Chili and Spain in 1890, has been sent to each senator and representative in congress. Editorial estimates in the metropolitan press of the amount of property within reach of an Italian ironclad in the lower bay, and the amount that could be extorted from merchants and bankers, have all been submitted and filed away for use again in 1892.

Their purpose is to reconcile the people to the passage of the naval appropriation bill and to the enormous and profligate expenditures in time for ships, fortifications and munitions of war. The capacity of the United States to create a navy in an emergency was demonstrated in the rebellion. The duel between the Monitor and Merrimack in Hampton Roads revolutionized naval warfare, and the problem has since been to construct armor that would resist the penetration, and then to invent projectiles that no armor could resist. European nations have been conducting these expensive experiments hitherto, and the ships of 1880 are already antiquated. Dynamite and other explosives complete the scientific armament. The cost of building a vessel of 8,000,000 is not as wasteful as in 1850 as Roman galleys, which sell at their best at 50 per cent of their cost. The millions we are squandering on vessels would better be spent for every working power plant gun to command every roadstead, channel and harbor which a hostile fleet could threaten or assault. Is there any necessity for spending millions and millions for naval defense? Our policy is pacific. Our only enemy is England and she is under bond to keep the peace. England is not so vulnerable, and none so detested. She has incurred the resentment of the human race by centuries of injustice. England is rickety when we were healthy and noble. Sickened and burned the defenseless capital. She rickety Ireland; she rickety Egypt; she rickety Hindustan; she rickety Siam, China, but she is not in the habit of kicking her equal in our world. She is the only nation that has hostility to destroy the union, and she applied and paid damages. Lately we had another contention about seal poaching and the Behring sea. A Canadian vessel was captured, and we were assured that we were assured danger was imminent. Immense appropriations were promptly made for an expedition and navy, and then, when our national hair was standing on end, England suddenly came into our arms, and the whole controversy to that great trial, it was reassuring, but it was laughable, nevertheless."

Provided New Public Buildings.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--The work of the house committee on public buildings and grounds during the fifty-first congress is set forth in a statement prepared by Chairman Milburn.

Four hundred and eleven house bills for the erection of new public buildings, and the completion or extension of existing buildings, and construction were referred to the committee, asking appropriations amounting to $56,435,625; of the bills reported from the committee, amounting to $12,666,689. One hundred and twenty-nine bills were referred to the committee, asking appropriations amounting to $26,122,500. In most cases these bills were for buildings at places for which no bills of similar kind had been introduced. Of the Senate bills eighty-five were reported to the house, with amendments, reducing the appropriations to $24,650,000. $5,000,000 is reported by the committee, the amount was reduced to $14,250,000. Of the bills passed, eighty-five were approved by the president, appropriating $12,666,689. The committee had before it a large number of bills, involving a much larger appropriation than the extension of the present congress since the organization of the government. The policy of the committee has been to restrict the number of places and limit appropriations.

Work of the Exposition Bureau.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Lieutenant A. C. Baker, the commissioner sent on behalf of the Columbian exposition to Mexico, has forwarded an interesting sketch of the plan for the Mexican exhibit, prepared and submitted to the government of Mexico by well known artists of that republic. This plan represents the history of Mexico from the time of the Aztecs to the present time, and is a history of the human race and human habitation in that country. The sketch is a masterpiece of drawing, and the artistic skill of those engaged upon the enterprise warrants the assurance that it will be carried out in a manner creditable to the Republic of Mexico.

Raised a Peculiar Question.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--A queer complication surrounds the question of who shall be United States district judge for Idaho. The president appointed Mr. Beattie for the place. He failed of confirmation. The point has been made that as this is a new office, it can only be filled by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and the president's attempt to fill it having failed, he cannot appoint a man nor have him serve until the senate can act on the nomination. Under this view, no vacancy such as the president is authorized to fill in the senate exists, and that the president has the same right to fill it that he has to fill any vacancy. The question is under consideration at the department of justice.

Fulfilled Men Decorated.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Secretary Prentiss awarded medals of honor to the following named enlisted men, for gallantry in the action of Wounded Knee: First Sergeant Jacob Tammam, troop B, Seventh Cavalry, and Corporal Paul H. Wener, and Privates Joshua B. Hartzig, George Green and John Flood, all of light battery E, First artillery.

DuBois Pegs a Point.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--An important step has been taken in the settlement of the contest over the seat of Senator DuBois of Idaho. His name has been put on the roll of senators, and he will receive his pay as the duly elected United States senator from that state. Senator Edmunds says the law and precedents sustain this action.

Killed by Conscience.

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., March 6.--Christian Bien, conscientious objector for the murder of his five-year-old step-child last September, hanged himself in his cell last night.

was the feature of the Iron market today, caused by bear operations, the bears having been emboldened by the withdrawal of the pig iron bill, which was intended to do away with dealing in pig iron futures.

Another King Crowned.

BERGAMO, March 6.--Brilliant coronations marked the official proclamation today for the accession of King Alexander I. to the throne of Serbia.

Riots in Austria.

VIENNA, March 6.--There was a riot at Kolumera over the elections today, organized by the anti-semites, who wrecked a number of Jewish shops and ravaged the Jewish cemetery, where not one grave stone was left standing. One Jew was killed.

Pushed the Ribosh.

BERLIN, March 6.--The Tagessblatt publishes a dispatch from Zanzibar, stating that Captain Wisman led the Ribosh tribe, and in doing he killed 200, wounded sixty and captured fifty of the tribe's men. The German loss was two men killed and fifty wounded. The Ribosh were reported to have 100 head of cattle and a quantity of ammunition.

Monte Carlo Again Started.

MOSCOW, March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--Monte Carlo has again been started by a sudden death. This time it is an English physician, Dr. Sargent, who had been winning enormous sums at the gaming tables. The unfortunate physician fell dead as he was seated in front of a croupier at one of the gaming tables. Apoplexy is announced as the cause of Dr. Sargent's death.

Rough on the Soldiers.

HALLOW, Mass., March 6.--The ship Orontes, with the first battalion of the Leicestershire regiment, arrived here yesterday from Bermuda. Very bad weather was experienced all the run up. Shortly after leaving England for Bermuda the steamer was boarded by an immense tidal wave, and a number of soldiers were badly injured and twenty-five soldiers more or less hurt. Some had arms broken, others were badly bruised, and in some instances were broken.

Authorities Determined.

PARIS, March 6.--Notwithstanding the recent decision of the chairman of deputies to suppress every kind of betting on horse races, the Attuel races will be held in accordance with the programme already prepared. At a meeting of the municipal council today Prefect Loez said Paris intends to hold the only court of appeal on this subject in the country. The police at the canons will be reinforced and troops sent if necessary.

A Gift From the Emperor.

BERLIN, March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--The Emperor William has presented to Herr Koestler, a Polish member of the Reichstag, who is a strong supporter of the government's naval policy, with a painting of the fleet of the great Elector. The gift was accompanied with an autograph letter from his majesty stating that the painting was the work of the artist who had made the Emperor's portrait. The gift was a most valuable one, and the Emperor's letter was a most gracious one.

King Humbert's Friendship.

ROME, March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--Upon the occasion of the visit of King Humbert Wednesday to the foundry where the statue of the American republic has just been completed, by Mr. Simons, the American sculptor, the king congratulated Mr. Simons on the results of his great work, and said that he was glad to see the statue of the American republic. The king's friendship for the people of the United States is well known, and he has on several occasions expressed his admiration for the American republic.

Another London sensation.

LONDON, March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--The considerable scandal between the Duke of Devonshire and his wife, the Countess of Devonshire, has been the subject of much talk in London. The Duke is reported to have been unfaithful to his wife, and the Countess is reported to have been unfaithful to him. The scandal has caused much gossip and speculation in London, and it is expected that it will continue for some time.

Australia Believes in Protection.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--At today's session of the Australian federal convention Mr. Deakin advocated uniform duties between the federal colonies, but he added, the interests of Victoria, the protectionists' colony, must be guarded, and the conference would fail to do its duty if it allowed the important manufacturing which had been created in the colony of Victoria to be ruthlessly dealt with. Mr. Deakin's speech was a most interesting one, and it is expected that it will cause much discussion in the convention.

Improbability of the Insurrection Against the Queen.

CHICAGO, March 6.--[Special Telegram to The Bee.]--It is now considered highly improbable that the insurrection against the queen, which was organized by the Duke of Devonshire, will succeed. The Duke is reported to have been unfaithful to his wife, and the Countess is reported to have been unfaithful to him. The insurrection is expected to be crushed in a few days.

Discussing Germany's Navy.

BERLIN, March 6.--During the debate on a motion for a second reading of the navy budget in the Reichstag today Herr Rickett said it was impossible for the country to bear the rapidly increasing burden imposed upon it. Dr. Windthorst, leader of the center, said he would support the decision of the committee. Germany, however, could not bear to support a navy equal in strength to England. That country could bear a large navy because her army is small. In conclusion Dr. Windthorst said:

"Let the government submit, not fine words, but a practical scheme for strengthening the navy. The government's proposals have created terror throughout Germany."

Chancellor Von Caprivi said the ministry were unwilling to discuss the matter until an agreement had been reached. Dr. Windthorst agreed to this.

Forming a Parnell Fund.

DUBLIN, March 6.--In an appeal for money to form a Parnell campaign fund Lord Mayor of Dublin Meade and High Sheriff Shaughnessy are appealing to the public. The appeal is for the purpose of raising money to support Mr. Parnell's candidature for the House of Commons. The appeal is expected to be successful.

They Will Retire.

PRAGUE, March 6.--A manifesto has been issued by the old Czechs, upon recent elections. They declare, since the result of the elections shows that it is the desire of the people to adopt a policy different from that followed by the new government, they will retire from the service of the nation, the leaders of the old Czech party will retire from public life.

The Chilean Insurgents.

LONDON, March 6.--A dispatch to the Exchange telegraph company from Chili says the Chilean insurgents are short of ammunition, and they therefore refrain from making an attack upon the capital, where the troops are well armed. President Paraisano is of the opinion that vigorous effort upon the part of the government will quell the rebellion.

Sudden Fall in Scotch Iron.

LONDON, March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--The sudden fall in Scotch iron

DISAPPOINTED BOTH SIDES.

The Result of the Canadian Election Not Exactly Satisfactory.

A MAJORITY FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

But the Liberals Make Gains, Especially in the Border Counties--Comments of the Press on the Situation.

TORONTO, Ont., March 6.--The Empire (government organ) sums up the result of yesterday's election as follows: The conservatives elected 125 and the reformers 83, a majority for the conservatives of 42, with seven seats still to be heard from.

The World government claims a majority of 39 for the government. The Mail (ind.) gives the government a majority of 26, while the Globe (opposition) says the majority for the government throughout the whole country will not exceed 20.

A dispatch from St. John's, N. B., says the latest returns from Kings county show George E. Foster, minister of finance, elected by a small majority.

A Montreal special says: An independent estimate of yesterday's vote gives the government a majority of 42 to 20. The most important feature of the election is the vote that was closer trade routes with the United States are inevitable and that the Liberals will be returned to power at the next election.

HOW THE PRESS TAKE IT.

The Government Organs Call the Liberals Hard Names.

TORONTO, March 6.--[Special Telegram to The Bee.]--Commenting on the election the Empire says: "The issue was momentous. The government was assailed with bitterness almost unprecedented in our politics. By calling in foreign aid the opposition leaders lent themselves to a disgraceful attempt to subvert the independence of Canada and to overturn British rule. The charge of Plottings and schemings were worked out under the guise of a seductive commercial policy. The electors were asked to believe that simply a business proposition was before them for acceptance or rejection, and the strenuous efforts were made, extending over several years, to catch the sympathy of the people and delude them into trusting the enemies of their country. The result was a victory for the government, and the government has made this country strong, prosperous and self-respecting. Canada's reply to the accusations and tradings, veiled or unveiled, is that she despises and rejects their prophecies and scorn, and that public men who are guilty of such a gross and treacherous intrigue will never look for a quarter at the hands of the independent electorate. The government of Sir John Macdonald has been triumphantly vindicated in the face of the world. The policy of unrestricted reciprocity or annexation has received its quietus, and the old flag will fly over the land of the brave and the true. Canada as a whole has been saved from the hands of the traitors and the enemies of her country."

The Globe says: "The press before the election was full of promises and threats. The government was accused of being a party of plottings and schemings. The opposition was accused of being a party of traitors and enemies of the country. The result of the election shows that the government has been vindicated and that the opposition has been defeated. The government has made this country strong, prosperous and self-respecting. Canada's reply to the accusations and tradings, veiled or unveiled, is that she despises and rejects their prophecies and scorn, and that public men who are guilty of such a gross and treacherous intrigue will never look for a quarter at the hands of the independent electorate. The government of Sir John Macdonald has been triumphantly vindicated in the face of the world. The policy of unrestricted reciprocity or annexation has received its quietus, and the old flag will fly over the land of the brave and the true. Canada as a whole has been saved from the hands of the traitors and the enemies of her country."

Preparing to Build.

LESLIEVILLE, Ont., March 6.--[Special to The Bee.]--A large force of men are at work tearing down the old county buildings on Main street to make room for the new court house. Contractor King has been in the city since the morning of the 2nd inst., and has been busy with the work of preparing the site for the new building. The new building is expected to be completed in a few months.

Hand and Feet Amputated.

NORANDA, Neb., March 6.--[Special to The Bee.]--The tramp found in a snow drift near here and called himself Billy Johnson, underwent a surgical operation at the hands of the physician here last night, and had his hands and feet amputated. He is now in the hands of the police, but no one can be found as to his former place, but no one can be found as to his former place, but no one can be found as to his former place.

The Latest Showings.

TORONTO, Ont., March 6.--The following table shows the latest standing of the parties in the Dominion:

Table with 3 columns: Province, Conservatives, Liberals. Rows include Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, British Columbia, Manitoba, Northwest territories, Prince Edward Island, and Totals.

English Press Opinion.

LONDON, March 6.--[Special Cablegram to The Bee.]--The Globe this evening, referring to the Canadian election, says the Canadian government now has a free hand and can conclude the negotiations with the United States which were pending before the elections. The Globe adds: "The most gratifying feature of the result is its significance as a protest against annexation."

The St. James Gazette says: "It is a source of pride and pleasure to Englishmen to note the result made to the annexation cry." adding: "Though England may sometimes be proud of the progress made by Agri-Saxen America, she has more fondness for the fair young daughter of the empire ashering to the old flag."

Sir John's Estimate.

OTTAWA, March 6.--Sir John Macdonald is completely exhausted today. He expects to be all right again in a few days. In an interview with the Associated press correspondent today he estimated his majority at between 30 and 40.

Inherent as to the Result.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Secretary Blaine said this morning he had nothing to say with regard to the Canadian election except that there seemed to be in some quarters the idea that President Harrison's administration was interested in the election. "As a matter of fact," he said, "the administration was utterly indifferent as to the result."

A Haid on Moonshiners.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 6.--[Special Telegram to The Bee.]--A raid upon the moonshiners of South Alabama and northern Florida has just been completed, and resulted in the capture of a large quantity of moonshine stills captured and destroyed. The notorious Wyn brothers, who fought six duels with rifles at Bonifay, Fla., December 18, 1890, wounding two of them, are among the captured.

Indian for the Army.

WASHINGTON, March 6.--Secretary Prentiss issued a general order this morning authorizing the enlistment in the army of not more than 2,000 Indians.

DIED IN HIS FRIENDS.

The Bloody Work of Edward Noah in the Grand Car.

BOSTON, Cal., March 6.--[Special Telegram to The Bee.]--Edward Noah, who shot two men, and then cut his own throat, as a result of the shooting, was reported in these dispatches as having been killed. The man was shot in the face and the other in the back. Someone pulled the bell cord and stopped the train. Noah then sprang from the train and ran 200 yards to the station, where between 400 and 500 people were standing. Noah then ran to the crowd and was shot in the chest, drew a large knife from his pocket and cut his throat from ear to ear.

Some of the spectators, as soon as they were permitted to get near the scene, ran into the depot. With difficulty he gave his name and address. He said his wife was in a good deal of distress. He said he had been with her on his trip to California. He had become despondent accordingly and had tried to commit suicide. He said he had been with her on his trip to California. He had become despondent accordingly and had tried to commit suicide.

One of the wounded men was Field Osborn of New York, and the other was John H. Both were seriously hurt, but will recover.

SEBESKA NEWS.

Knox County Alliance.

NORONDA, Neb., March 6.--[Special Telegram to The Bee.]--The Knox county alliance holds its public meeting tomorrow at the new town of Blumfield, at the terminus of the Omaha line.