Return of Mr. Graham Purs Mr. Shugart Out of His New Office.

CLOSE OF THE HANK HALL MURDER TRIAL.

Promise of a Prize Fight—Landlord vs Tenant—Mrs. Syster's Painful Mishap—List of the Jurors.

A. C. Graham, chairman of the board of park commissioners, returned yesterday morning from an extensive trip through the west. He had in his valise when he carried with him on his journey all the knowledge and regulations of the commissioners, and the up-to-date of his valise gave rise to a queer complication in the matter. It was ascertained that Mr. Syster, who was directed to take the office of park commissioner, which it was supposed had just been vacated by J. L. Perogy, was not elected at all from the fact that Mr. Perogy's term of office had not expired and he had not resigned.

Mr. Perogy states that the name of the attorney upon whom he had conferred the matter of this term had expired and it was in order to elect a successor. He thought at the time that the term of office was only three years, and nothing different was learned until Mr. Graham returned and said that the term of office was not at all used up over the unexpected term affairs had taken. He had secured his bond and taken the office, but he is not at all at ease at being laid on the shelf in order to allow Mr. Perogy to serve out the rest of his term. There is considerable work connected with the office, and there is no pay. Mr. Shugart secured the endorsement of the people and had the honor of being elected without being asked to do so. He is a native of Council Bluffs, the result of all of which is that Mr. E. L. Shugart, a young man of considerable means as will be found out.

Mr. Graham, after leaving from the west loaded to the muzzle for Perogy, who he supposed had resigned his position, having seen an account in the paper of the election of the city clerk. When he reached the bluff's first thing he did was to hunt up Perogy and inform himself. He found that he was laboring under a mistake, and it did not take long to find out the true state of affairs and that Mr. Graham was not at all at ease at being laid on the shelf in order to allow Mr. Perogy to serve out the rest of his term.

Bank Hall Convicted of Murder in the First Degree.

The Hall murder trial was resumed in the district court yesterday morning. It was evident from the smallness of the audience that the majority of court-room loafers had become somewhat satiated with murder trials, after a steady diet on them for ten days. But little interest was manifested in the testimony, and to make matters worse, the testimony was not such as would arouse much interest in the most favorable circumstances.

Dr. E. B. Lacy was called upon to testify to the general symptoms of insanity, which as a matter of fact, the opinion of the jury, so far as could be seen.

Dr. Stewart was then put upon the stand, and during his cross-examination was asked the testimony, and to make matters worse, the testimony was not such as would arouse much interest in the most favorable circumstances.

Robert Phillips began suit yesterday afternoon in district court against the city and C. J. Mitchell, the contractor, for 6000 damages for injuries which he claims he suffered by reason of a dam which was constructed by the contractor of Twenty-third avenue and sixteenth street, and which caused the water from Indian creek to flow over his premises, inundating his lot, entering his cellar, spilling his grain, preventing him from using his stable, and putting him to various other inconveniences. The injuries are the result of improvements which were ordered on the creek, and which were made by Contractor Mitchell last month.

The following quiet little resolution was adopted by the municipal union at its last meeting: Resolved, That in the judgment of this municipal association that the same municipal power of the city of Council Bluffs that now without law collects $200 monthly as "fines" or "forfeits" of the saloons or so-called "disorderly houses" of this city, and that now in harmony with law closes them on the Sabbath day, is much more severe than it would have been in the case of a younger person. She suffers great deal from its effects.

Dislocated Both Wrists.

Mrs. A. Syster, the mother of Mrs. J. J. Stewart, met with a severe accident on Tuesday at her residence, 730 Mynter street. She was at once taken to the house, where medical assistance was rendered. Mrs. Syster is somewhat aged, and the injury is much more severe than it would have been in the case of a younger person.
