The Farewell Session.

Judge Thernell held the final session of the January term of district court yesterday by himself, in company with Clerk Campbell. The main business of the session was the reading of the docket, and after listening to this for seven hours on Tuesday it became so monotonous as to disgust even the most persistent of the court room loafers. The collossal aggregation of legal talent that is now exhibiting in the government building also had something to do with thinning the ranks. Judge Thornell set aside the verdict ranks. Judge Thornell set aside the verdict, which was returned by a jury in favor of the defendant in the case of Snyder vs. Pruitt. This will necessitate the trial of the case again. The motion which was filed Tuesday by the plaintiff in the case of the Lake Manawa railway company vs. J. W. Squire, asking for a new trial, was overruled. Court then adjourned sine die.

HOW HIS LITTLE GAME WAS CHECKED.

Judge Shiras Announces His Willingness to Decide the Railroad Cases at Once-Death of Mrs. Miller Yesterday.

THE BEE'S expose of the peculiar business methods employed by H. B. Eastman, artias Elton Hunt, in working up trade in the tombstone line, has brought to light a number of prominent citizens who were victimized into signing contracts for monuments for their relatives who have died recently. It is found that Mr. Eastman has been over Omaha as well as this city, and has a number of scalps at his belt that were formerly worn by people across the river. After his crookedness had been made public his victims began making inquiries as to what they could do towards bringing the tembstone man to justice. The attorneys who were consulted in nearly every case informed their clients tney had good grounds for actions against him for fraud. The police too began investigating. In accordance with an invitation extended to him by the chief of police, Mr. Eastman presented himself at the police station. He was put through a large part of the catechism by the chief, and although he tried hard to make his actions appear to good advantage, there were some gaps in his story which he could not fill. He stated that he was a representative of the Vermont Granite company, located at Barri, Vt., the same firm that he pretended to be traveling for when he was drumming up trade. Chief Carey telegraphed the company, and yesterday forenoon received a reply, stating that there were no men travel-Among those who were inveigled into signing contracts for tembstones are George Damon, who signed for a $1,500 monument, T. L. Marcy and the John T. Baldwin estate for $500 each, and C. C. Bump and Mrs. A. B. Casey, who each bargained for a $250 stone. These figures do not represent the net loss which will have to be shouldered by each one, as the disclosure of the scheme before Eastman had had an opportunity to get rid of his contracts and get out of the city prevented the same from working.

Eastman is now lying ill at the house of Ira Platner, at the corner of Broadway and den avenue, where he goes by the name of lunt. His wife and child are with him. He is kept under constant surveillance, so that every move is known by the police as soon as it is made. He refuses to give up the contracts which have seen signed by the various parties, or even present them for examination, to find out whether or not they correspond with the ones which are in the pos-session of the signers. The most of the vic-tims care for is to get back their contracts. and if Eastman persists in his refusal to give them up it is probable that proceedings will be brought against him on a charge of cheating by false preteuses.

FEDERAL COURT NEWS.

Railroad Cases Will Be Argued Today -Yesterday's Proceedings. In federal court yesterday morning Judge Shiras, in referring to the railroad cases which are now pending against the five main trank lines entering at this point, stated that he had held a consultation with Judge Love, and that they had come to the conclusion that there was no use in waiting for a full bench, and that the question as to the remanding of the case to the state court could just as well be decided now as to wait until the May term at Des Moines, as it was not at all certain that Judge Caldwell would be there at that time.

John N. Baldwin, one of the railroad attorneys, wanted a time set for the hearing of the nrguments pro and con. The judge stated that there was not one chance in a stated that there was not one chance in a hundred that any argument that might be made in the case would affect him one way or another, as he had already rendered one argument in a similar case, and he was not likely to change his mind. He was willing likely to change his mind. He was willing that it should be argued, however, and so be set tomorrow as the day upon which he would hear arguments. At that time John W. Carey of Milwaukee, J. W. Blythe of Burlington, T. S. Wright of Chicago, N. M. Hubbard of Cedar Rapids, will be present in the interests of the various reads which they represent, and will be assisted by Mr. John N. Badwin of this city in the care. N. Baldwin of this city in the case. What-ever decision may be rendered by the court in this instance, the case will probably be appealed by the losing party to the federal su preme court.

After this point has been settled, the case of Grant against the Union Pacific was resumed. The evidence on the side of the plaintiff was all in by noon, and in the after-noon the testimony in favor of the railroad company was introduced. Six witnesses were put upon the stand, and the trial prowere put upon the stand, and the trial pro-gressed with such alarming rapidity that by 3:30 o'clock all the six witnesses who had been subprensed for the occasion had testi-fied, and the court had to take a recess until this morning in order to allow other wit-

Shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday night Mrs J. C. Miller died at the residence of Mrs. R. P. Scaly, 208 Fourth avenue, aged forty years. The death was the result of an accident which befell Mrs. Miller last August.

At that time she was thrown from a carriage, and one of her limbs was broken by the force of the fall. Ever since the most strenuous efforts have been made to save the injured efforts have been made to save the injured member, but to no purpose, and a day or two ago the physician announced that the only wny whereby her life could possibly be; saved was by the amputation of the limb. Mrs. Miller was somewhat fearful of the result, but she realized the critical condition she was in, and at last consented to have the act was formed. She was missed upon the table performed. She was placed upon the table Tuesday evening and the limb was amputated, but the shock attending the operation was too severe for the feeble body to stand, and shortly after it had been completed she passed away. During the months that succeeded the acci-cent, the deceased bore the suffering that it occasioned with such heroic fortitude as to win the admiration of all who knew her. She was always loved on account of her beauties was always loved on account of her beauties of character, but at no time did these beauties shine out with more splendor than when the body was racked with pain. She leaves a husband, an aged mother and two brothers. The funeral will take place this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. P. Sealy, at 3 o'clock, Rev. G. W. CHICAGO HELFENSTINES. A Big Scheme to Get Possession o Valuable Property.

MEADVILLE, Pa., March 25 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-A meeting of the Herrington family of Crawford county has been held in this city and an association formed for the purpose of attempting to get possession of a very valuable piece of property in the heart of the city of Chi-James Herrington, sr., was a for and assisted in laying out the city of Chicago. This was sixty years ago and Mr. Herrington pre-empted 160 acres of land. Later his son, James Herrington. ir. sold the land, forging the name of his father. The original deed on the land was recorded and was among the as-sets of James Herrington. sr., at the time of his death in East Fairfield township, Crawford county, many years ago. Mr. John Harris of Chicago, representing the Illinois branch of the Herrington ramily, met with the relations here and avrangements were made for a vigorous prosecution of the case. An effort will be made to secure the services of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll as counsel. The land in question is almost fabulour in value, as on it is situated the depot of the Chicago & Rock Island railway.

It is not the extremes of heat and cold so much as the sudden changes in temperature that cause certain climates to be un healthful When, however, the system is invigorated with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, these changes are rarely attended with injurious results.

Chicago's Frainage Canal. CHICAGO, March 25 .- Chicago's drainage canal trustees today adopted resolutions virtually requesting the Illinois legislature to amend the law so that the canal need be only ten feet deep instead of fourteen to eighteen feet. President Prendergast, in an interview after the meeting, declared that the idea was visionary that lake vessels might ever go down the Mississippi river or to the Illinois river. He held that ten foot depth would accommodate all vessels that would ever pass up to Chicago through the Illinois river, no matter how greatly the latter stream is improved. Judge Prendergast said the proposed amendment would effect a saving of $25,000,-000 in the cost of the canal. Ten feet depth would empty the Chicago river five times every twenty-four hours and the dilution of the swage would be so great as to render the flow perfectly odorless. Peoria would be the only possible sufferer, and, according to Judge Prendergast, the city of Chicago could better afford to furnish Peoria with a new water supply system than to build the canal ander the present statute. The judge ridi-culed the bill introduced in the legislature today to repeal the drainage law, and inti-mated that those making the proposition did not know what they were talking about. Deadbeats Held Up to Rid cule. NEW YORK, March 25.-There was an exciting scene at the real estate exchange today when Martin F. Haten, acting for the merchant tailors' society, stood before a crowd of several hundred prominent business and society men and sold to the highest bidder thirty-five unpaid tailor bills. These bills bore the names of well known New Yorkers, and those who did not pay up be-fore the sale were held up for public ridicule. The ridiculousness of the sale can be realized when several bilis amounting to $700 were sold in a bunch to a Hebrew tailor for $1.

Some energetic electioneering was done by the candidates who wish to be selected as the delegate to Boston. Only two could go, and there are five candidates. There are about two hundred and thirty-five printers in Omaha who have a right to vote at this election. The election will cost the union considerable on account of the fact that the stalls and other fixtures had to be built in the hall for this especial election, but the printers are anxious to be up with the times and the Australian system is considered by and the Australian system is considered by members of the union as a great improve-ment over the old method. PITTSBURG, Pa., March 25 .- Eva Brannock, the faith curist, and incidentally teacher of music in the Bethany home has just finished a successful forty days' fast. This lady, who is a religious enthusiast, was struck by the fact that whenever and wherever she opened the bible there was found a command to fast. She began a forty days' fast, which differed from all others in that she attended to her regular duties as teacher and keeper of rooms in the home. Her fast ended today and she joyfully consumed a dinner, which did not harm her in the least. There is no doubt as to her having lived forty days on nothing but water, as the story is substandiated by reliable people.

Indiana Pugilists. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 25.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Jack Stanton and Polk Woods, two local pugilists, fought eighteen rounds at Broad Ripple at an early hour this morning. Stanton outweighed Woods twenty-five pounds, and although the latter made a very gamy and scientific fight he was beaten in the last round. There was little fighting until the fifteenth round, when Stanton began to force things and landed several heavy body blows. It was conceded that Stanton had fairly won the fight. Fouls were frequently claimed on both sides.
