From 4 to 4:30 o'clock the time was occupied with general business and with the discussion of current events. At 4:30 o'clock, the topic of the day was brought up for discussion.

A number of Captain D. C. Crawford's friends invaded his home at 1519 F street Friday evening to help him remember that he had just reached the fifty-first milestone of life. The evening was spent in pleasant social intercourse, being interrupted only long enough to partake of the refreshments which were served. The captain was the recipient of some useful and beautiful presents. The company dispersed at a late hour, wishing the captain many happy returns of the day and saying that for once he had been

Some of the friends of Miss Bertie, daughter of Mr. W. Perkins, gave her a happy surprise party Friday evening, the occasion being the seventeenth anniversary of her birth. She had dined out and upon return found a number of friends assembled to honor her and extend congratulations. Among the many presents procedure was a new many the many presents received was a new plane from her father. The evening passed most enjoyably, closing with dancing followed by refreshments. It was a delightful entertaining occasion, and all participants renewed their expressions of friendship on departing.

The W. and H. debating club held its second banquet at the pleasant home of Mr. J. A. Snyder, 1809 N street, Saturday evening. It was even more of a success than the last one. The evening was spent in playing cards, tiddledy winks, and in dancing. Elaborate refreshments were served by the boys. The refreshments were served by the boys. The entire success of the banquet amply proves the skill of the young men in this line as well as in debate. Those present were Misses Leland, Wright, G.
