COKE STRIKERS SHOT DOWN.

Desperate Eattle Between Armed Guards and Rictous Workmen.

SEVEN PEOPLE. INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Reign of Terror in the Vicinity of Mount Plensant-Governor Pattison Sending Troops to the Scene.

MOUNT PLEASANT. Pa., April 2 .- Ominous signs of the gathering of a storm in the coke region have been observed for some time, and at 2 o'clock this morning it burst at the Morewood plant. The fight was brief and deadly. Two rounds of cartridges were fired by a band of sixty-five guards and seven of the charging mob of strikers fell dead, while at least forty others were wounded, how militia. badly cannot be definitely stated, as they were taken away by their companions The strikers killed instantly were: CREZENO BINERO, Italian. JOHN FUDORA, Pole. ANTONIO RIST, Pole. JACOB SHUCKASKY, Pole. JAMES BROCHTE, Pole. VALENTINE ZEIDEL, Slav, PAUL DOHANNIS, Slav.

The attack was well planned and headed by men determined evidently to intimidate the men working there once for all.

At 1 o'clock small bodies of strikers began to gather on the hills. They were ar med with revolvers, stones, iron bars and every conceivable weapon. They were headed by a drum corps and marched first to the Standand works, where they destroyed both telephone and telegraph wires so that word could not be sent to Morewood. While at the Standard works incidentally destroying anything movable they might find the strikers created all the noise possible from the surrounding hills, intending to apprise those of their fel low strikers in the vicinity of their intentions of the raid.

The few frightened men left at the Standard managed to repair the wires and the warning reached the Morewood plant none too soon. As the noisy band of strikers, now numbering fully 1,200 men, approached that plant their outcries increased, their drum corps was silonced and the ugly crowd gathered in a bunch on the black hills overlook ing the plant for a moment's parley before attacking the place they knew to be well guarded Then they separated, one large detachment advancing on the plant by the main road, while the others scouted over the brows of the hill, and shortly after 3 o'clock at a given signal all moved downon the works.

Under the orders of Captain Lear the sixty five guards stood quietly in line before the works.

Suddenly a break was made by the ad vancing mob towards the fences of the com pany. The stern order of halt was given, but the only attention it received was the firing of three shots by members of the mob, which whistled close to the heads of the im passive guards.

After the shots were fired the strikers turned and went towards the stables of the company with a dash. Without firing a shot the guards were ordered to follow, and the command was again given

A striker named Dann, who was among the lenders of the rioters, said tonight that he was with a body of men on the bridge and stopped to light a cigar. He thinks the rumors about bombs had alarmed the guards and that they took the lighting of the match as a portent of something dangerous. Any-way, he says, they fired directly toward where he stood and men fell all around him. Another statement made tonight was that Cantain Loar said he was ordered to fire by Men of All Shades of Politics En lorse the Captain Loar said he was ordered to firs by Deputy Sheriff McDonald. In fact, any num-bers of conflicting stories are being told on both sides. At least 6,000 men are in the vi-cinity of Mount Pleasant tonight, and the feeling generated by the appearance of several companies of the Eighteenth and Teath regi-ments tonight is one of security, both among the strikers and citizens. Austrian Consul Shomberg received a dispatch this afternoon from Parker, leader of the strikers, informing him that several of the men killed were subjects of Austria. He replied that he would investigate the matter, but declined to talk further.

He adds that it would have been absurd to claim punishment for the offenders without the guarantees afforded by a reg-ular trial. #### A PERILOUS QUARREL.

The English Press on the American-Italian Situation.

Loxbox, April 2.-The Telegraph says: "It could scarcely appear practical to Italy to be told that it was uncertain whether the murdered men were Italians whilst they were lynched and the lynching palliated on the ground that they were members of an Italian secret society. The contrast between the savage precipitancy of the slayers, the complacency of the municipal authorities of New Orleans and the deliberate skepticism of Blaine might well have moved a less high-spirited nation than Italy to resolute measures. We we deeply grieved to doclare that the coinion of the civil-ized world ranges itself against America. It is scarcely wise for American papers to bluster. The Italian navy is in a condition of highest efficiency. The hope of a speedy, equitable adjustment of this perilous quarrel lies with the vast body of upright and hon-orable feeling prevailing in the republic." The Standard says: "Marquis Rudni has every right to insist that the sins of the Mafia have nothing to do with the case. King lute measures. We are deeply grie ved have nothing to do with the case. King Humbert is doing a service to the world at large in thus drawing attention to the defect of the American constitution."

A Representative Italian Talks.

LONDON, April 2. -In an interview today Signor Bonacias, president of the Italian chamber of commerce in this city, said he regarded Baron Fava's action as "somewhat precipitated." It was a mere flash in the will mean that the legation of Italy in Washington is closed to all business. That the supposition is correct which said that the acpan, which would end in nothing. Signor Bonacina added: "There is not much symtion of Italy was merely a cool bluff is evi-denced from the fact that Dr. Verdi, an Italian physician of this city, came direct pathy among the Italians in London with the men who were lynched in New Orleans. Verdi is generally looked upon as a sort of deputy minister, and although he has resided in this country more than thirty years and has been naturalized, he speaks like an Italian and seems to hold stronger alot safe." The Pall Mail Gazette this afternoon says the incident will not add to the reputation of the United States. It has revealed a weak place in the American constitution, with all its pretensions. Mr. Blaine would be glad enough, perhaps, to depose King Lynch, but Louisiana is of a different opinion. Foreign elements in the United States give them some security as well as involving them in some security is improbable that Italy some danger. came mocking cries, and the order to fire was then siven by Captain Lear. The volleys from the Winchesters were well directed, and a tew rounds were necessary to driv the rioters back into the hills, where hun dreds of their fellow-strikers had gathered in anticipation of assisting the raid, but not in a battle with such a determined band of guards

The firing on both sides continued hardly three minutes. The volleys from the guards had a terrible effect on the compact mass of strikers, while the latter made an attempt return the fire with what weapons they possessed, but without effect.

The dead were left lying in the road, while the wounded, estimated at between forty and fifty, were assisted or bodily carried into the hills by their fellows.

All day the entire coke regions have presented scenes of the wildest excitement. The foreign element especially has been driven frantle by this woeful result of their anticipated victorious raid. Always turbulent sullen and ready for desperate measures, they are not a whit cowed by the death of severa of their number, while they have sedule concealed in their homes those of who were wounded no number doubt into death, Anathemas, loud and deep, have been heard on all sides all day. Word has been sent by secret means all over the region that their comrades were fired on and mowed down without any provocation, and deadly vengeance on each and every member of the guards has been sworn to. This all comes from the foreign element.

It will be noticed that all the men killed bear foreign names, and it is a fact that not one of them was a saturalized citizen of this country. It is also supposed that many of the wounded were foreign, and this explains the deep resontment expressed in every foreign face in the regions tonight. The Slavs and Hungarians were the most fearless, the deputies say. Not one was struck on the back, but all bore marks of pullets on the face, indicating that they died fighting with what weapons they possessed. Thousands of strikers and their friends poured into this place from all over the re-gion to have a look at the dead, and perhaps hear what the living have to say. As darkness fell tonight the foreigners began to draw away in knots, and the night after the not lowered amidst great fear of what might happen before another dawn. Late tonight word was received here that two more men concerned in the rist had died in a striker's house. Their names could not be learned. These two deaths make nine in be learned. These two deaths make nine in all as far as known as a result of the firing of the guards, but there is no doubt others are either dead or in a critical condition, as the guards had orders to fire to kill, and evi-dentic did so dentiv did so.

Reports late tonight from all over the region indicate a fearfully dangerous and ex-cited condition of affairs, and word that the military was soon to be on guard was re-ceived by law-abiding labor officials and coke operators alike with the liveliest evidence of satisfaction.

At Leisenring Constable Campbell at-tempted to arrest John Lushka, a Russian, for complicity in the bomb throwing that oc-cured there Monday. Lushka fiercely re-sisted and called for aid. A fellow countryman who was on the outside of the offic where Lushka had been trapped gave the alarm and in a few moments there was a howling mob of foreigners surrounding place. Lushka lapped through the office window, carrying with him a pair of hand-cuffs. Several shots were fired after him, but he escaped. Tonight a warrant was placed in the hands of Sheriff McCormick and with a large posse of men he has started for Leisenring to make the arrest. Lushica and his companions were armed and a fight will certainly follow unless the man is sur-
