

HIS LOVE COST HIS LIFE.

Eugene Groom, a Shenandoah student, shoots himself to death. 'GOD BLESS YOU, FOR I CAN'T.'

His Farewell Message to the Girl He Loved—Letters to His Relatives and Friends— Iowa News.

SHENANDOAH, Ia., April 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Eugene Groom of Table Rock, Neb., committed suicide at his boarding house in this city about 10 o'clock this morning.

He was a student at the Western normal college, having entered that institution just two weeks ago. Today the coroner's jury returned the following verdict:

'We, the jury, find that the deceased, Eugene Groom, came to his death by a revolver shot from his own hand about 10 o'clock April 4, A. D. 1891.'

On his study table were found a note and some letters. The note read: 'Send for my folks at once.' This was written on an ordinary blank piece of paper taken from a table note book. The letters were neatly sealed and addressed one to father and mother, which read:

'My dear father, mother and rest, for I am going to shoot myself. Give the rest of my friends my regards, for I would rather die than cry. Lay it all at my feet. This is the one that has done me wrong.'

'EUGENE GROOM. 'P. S.—Do not bury me alive.' 'You would never want to see me in the avium.'

The other letter was addressed to Myrtle Jones, and read: 'Myrtle, you have ruined my life, and now you see the fruits of it. God bless you, for I can't live any longer. Eugene Groom.'

On his study table was found a letter addressed to one of his friends, dated this morning, but no mention was made in reference to taking his life.

The revolver used was a Smith & Wesson, No. 39, which he had bought in the city on the right side, just below the ear and came out on the left side of the head. The ball was found lodged in the window casing on the opposite side of the room.

His parents expected tomorrow, when they will take the body to Iowa for burial.

'PLAY BALL!' The inaugural game at McCormick Park tomorrow.

Major General Dave Howe with his 'Farmers' Alliance team will have this morning. They are a doubtful lot of people and it is rumored now something about playing ball. Anyway, they will go out to McCormick park this afternoon and endeavor to take a fall out of Shannon's lams.

FATAL RESULT OF A QUARREL.

A Wayne County Farmer Shot in a Dispute Over Fifty Cents. HERMAN NEUGENFIND A MURDERER.

William Viertzg, the Victim, Old and Inoffensive—A Feud of Long Standing—Fire at St. Paul.

NORFOLK, Neb., April 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—An altercation that occurred this morning near Haskins, Wayne county, seven miles from this city; Herman Neugenfind shot and mortally wounded his neighbor, William Viertzg, an old man nearly sixty years of age.

Neugenfind had taken up some of Viertzg's cattle and when the latter and his son came to claim the animals Viertzg claimed fifty cents damages, and over this amount hot words were passed and Neugenfind ended the dispute by drawing a .38-caliber revolver and shooting Viertzg, the bullet entering his left side just below the ribs passing nearly through the body and lodging in his spine.

When the old man fell the younger Neugenfind jumped on him and struck him several times with a club about the head and face, inflicting a number of severe cuts and bruises. The Neugenfinds then fled but were captured this afternoon, taken to Wagner and lodged in jail.

Vierzg was carried to his home and Drs. Saiter and Thibault were summoned. The bullet was extracted and Viertzg's wounds dressed, but neither physician thinks there is any chance for him to recover.

Neugenfind is of a quarrelsome disposition, and between him and the Viertzg family there has been a feud for several years, which terminated, as many expected, in this morning's tragedy.

The duke just opposite Cartier square on the body of ice was shoveled in, bearing the promenade. The ice was about 100 feet falling over the dyke to the street and piling up thirty feet high. The conditions are almost identical with those in 1887, when a big flood occurred, and much apprehension is felt.

Strikers Centering in Scottsdale. SCOTTSDALE, Pa., April 3.—The strikers are centering in Scottsdale tonight to attend the funerals of seven of the ten victims, who are to be buried in the Catholic cemetery here tonight. Long lines already prepared to recite their names are gathered here already in such numbers that by tomorrow fully 10,000 men will be present at the funeral.

It is reported from Mount Pleasant that a considerable number of militia men entered a store belonging to a carpenter, Daniel Somers and made demands which he refused, whereupon they broke the windows and splintered the door into fragments. One of the guards became so enraged that a striker named Kelly struck him in the head with a pick handle, inflicting a very serious injury. The militia men were arrested and have been ordered to take steps to discipline the unruly members.

The arrest of deputies on charges of labor officials for feloniously shooting continues. It is reported here tonight that a striker died in New Orleans. The police officers were reported to have been a victim of the Morocrow riot.

Colonel Hawkins, in command of the Pennsylvania National Guard, is reported to have been perfectly justified in firing on the strikers at Morewood, and that he should strongly advise the strikers to return to their homes. He says: 'It is time for all parties to reflect. The strikers should be replaced or displaced and the militia should be used to break an unjust and a violent strike. The militia should be used to break an unjust and a violent strike. The militia should be used to break an unjust and a violent strike.'

Dr. O'Reilly has written a letter to Fitzgerald in which he takes a decided stand in opposition to Parnell and says Fitzgerald will meet with opposition in the council, as he has written to the public office official and advises all friends of Ireland not to contribute a dollar to the Parnellites, as it will be used to continue the disgraceful scenes now being enacted in Ireland by that faction.

A Disruptive Meeting. PARIS, April 3.—During today's session of the international workers' congress the divisibility of a general strike was brought up and a stormy debate ensued. The discussion was brought to a close amid the utmost disorder, the socialists and anarchist delegates vociferously exhorting Delegate Basly, who as a result of the display of bogus telegrams from Rome to the effect that the pope disapproved of the anti-Parnell policy of the German semi-official papers has been a back door.

PLAN TO CAPTURE PITTSBURG.

Wild Scheme of an Italian to Avenge the New Orleans Lynching. TWENTY THOUSAND TO CENTER THERE. Marquis Rudini's Note to Secretary Blaine Considered by the Cabinet—Investigating at New Orleans.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 3.—A special from New Orleans, Pa., says: Today Sebastian Guarino, leader of 350 Italians employed near Warrington, seemed to place considerable weight upon the information imparted. He said a strange Italian agent had offered him to go into a plot to avenge his countrymen who had been killed in New Orleans. The stranger said 20,000 Italians could be brought into Pittsburgh in five hours time and with the aid of guns, snuffing the citizens, they could be able to take the city without much trouble. He urged Guarino to meet the Italians at Warrington to consent to meet others in Pittsburgh and to send a large delegation. He then told how the Italian settlement in Allegheny and every Italian settlement in the vicinity of Warrington were receiving the same information, and how each settlement was expected to send a large delegation. In the afternoon the Pittsburgh envoy left for New Orleans to talk the matter over among themselves.

A dispatch from Wheeling states that 2,000 Italian immigrants, now employed on the railroad and who have been in the city for some time, are expected to be sent to New Orleans, though for what purpose they refuse to state.

Whatever the truth may be in the reports from New Orleans and Wheeling as to the attack on Pittsburgh in case of trouble between Italy and Italy, one thing is certain, that for the past week an unusual number of Italians have been arriving in this city daily, and today squads of twenty and thirty were usually numerous. The police department has been quietly at work and secured a list of several hundred Italian boarding houses, and the daily invoice of strangers is being supervised.

Fears are entertained for the safety of Captain Loe, whose men did the shooting in New Orleans. The police department is looking for in Fayette county, and it is probable a regiment of militia will be sent there.

English High Class Weeklies Comment on the Pava Incident. LONDON, April 3.—Current opinion here is decidedly against the action of Marquis di Rudini in trying to force his demands on Mr. Blaine in the matter of the lynching of the Italians in New Orleans. Tomorrow's leading high class weeklies devote considerable attention to an analysis of their position and generally discuss the affair from the standpoint of the United States constitution.

The Spectator holds that 'serious thinking' by the Americans will admit the imperfection of the constitution and are bound to remedy the defect, all the more because there is small chance of their being compelled to remedy it. Touching the talk of war, the Spectator ridicules the notion of Italy declaring war against one of the greatest powers of the world, a power capable within six months of buying and building a fleet that would block every port of Italy. American indignantly would be so simulated to outdo itself that it would turn every steamer that it could out into an improved ironclad.

The Economist says: 'Marquis di Rudini and his government are in a dilemma. They cannot still, they cannot fight and they cannot obtain the redress they want without fighting. Italy's allies will never permit her to risk a war that would disturb European combinations. The United States holds the exceptional position that it cannot be conquered by any power, and its combination of powers even if all Europe were allied and made the attempt.'

The Tablet, 'begged every question at issue.' The conservative press apply the difficulty to justify the evil that would result from the concession of home rule to Ireland, and the comparison will have undoubtedly potency to electoral platforms.

GERMAN EMBARGO ON PORK.

Negotiations Resumed Between Minister Phelps and Chancellor Caprivi. EARLY AND FAVORABLE ISSUE HOPED FOR. According to Rumor President Carnot is to Visit Moscow in Order to Test Public Opinion—The Bulgarian Intubgolo.

[Copyright 1891 by New York Associated Press.] BERLIN, April 4.—Negotiations have resumed between United States Minister Phelps and Chancellor Von Caprivi on the question of the withdrawal of the prohibition against American pork producers, and there are more hopeful prospects of an early and successful issue than recent reports have led the public to believe. An important indication of the government's intentions is given in tonight's North German Gazette. Commenting upon the American dispatch published in the Berlin papers, headed: 'No pigs, no beef nor sugar,' the Gazette says: 'Contrary to the adverse views expressed in this dispatch, the American government in endeavoring by measures of sanitary reform to put an end to the German embargo upon the importation of American pork, has not only means to lead to the desired agreement. Public satisfaction over the admission of American cattle increases as the quality of the imports become recognized.' This Hamburg official returns for March says that during the month 31 American cattle were imported. The list of 296 brought last in February by the steamer Amalith is added to the five weeks total, promises a rapid expansion of the trade.

Chancellor Von Caprivi yesterday received a memorial from the delegates representing various German industries, prepared after two days' discussion, regarding the Chicago world's fair asking for the appointment of imperial commissioners and that the government otherwise assist in the fair. The delegates German exhibitors to make a display worthy of the country. Tonight's Politische Nachrichten states that the dominant official view is in favor of the representation of German trades at the fair in a manner worthy of their present development.

Count Schouvaloff, the Russian ambassador here, returned to the Russian embassy on Saturday, St. Petersburg yesterday and immediately held a conference with Chancellor Von Caprivi.

A communication has appeared in the North German Gazette saying that the rumor of the transfer of Russian troops to the Gallien frontier is unfounded. The communication further says that the bestowal of the order of St. Andrew upon President Carnot was merely an act of courtesy upon the part of the czar in return for the funeral honors rendered to the czar's father. This feeble official reference is worse than absolute silence. Count Schouvaloff's leave of absence is short. Prince Lobanoff, the Russian ambassador at Vienna, has just come from the embassy and has been several weeks through the czar's sudden decision to institute a military expedition into the Balkans. Moscow papers, simultaneously with Russian organs in Paris and Brussels, report that President Carnot is going to Moscow, ostensibly to visit the czar, but really to assist in the czar's decision to institute a military expedition into the Balkans. A significant incident has just occurred in Sofia. Baron Nagelesheim, German consul here, telegraphed to Chancellor Von Caprivi for instructions as to how he should respond to Premier Stamboff's demand for the surrender of M. Schouvaloff, a Russian agent, who is accused of instigating menacing letters to Prince Ferdinand and his mother, Princess Clémentine, and to M. Grousseau, the French minister of finance. Baron Von Waegele represents Russia since her own minister has been withdrawn. Chancellor Von Caprivi instantly authorized the surrender of Schouvaloff. Prince Bismarck has received a telegram from the emperor congratulating him upon the analysis of his telegram. The telegram was so short and formal that it was not published.

Count Von Walderssee took luncheon at Friedrichsruhe today. He is expected to return to meet the emperor at Lubok. Prince Bismarck's intimate friends blame him for his yielding ability toward the emperor. The Prussian papers continue to pile up the accusation against the prince of misappropriation of the Guelph fund. Over a million marks of the fund, it is stated, were used by Bismarck in support of his personal policy. A prince insists upon maintaining his dignity and will not permit his friends to respond to the charges until they become a question for the consideration of the Reichstag. The government Guelph fund bill does not mention any withdrawal of the decree relative to the sequestration of the property to the royal house of Hannover.

Developed Nothing Sensational. CHICAGO, April 3.—Contrary to expectation today's session of the world's fair national commission developed nothing sensational. A communication urging economy was received from Secretary of the Treasury Foster, but no action was taken toward reducing the appropriation for the fair. The executive committee of the board of lady managers was approved notwithstanding the protest of Secretary Cousins.

Chinese Protest Against Blair. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 3.—The Chinese merchants of this city at a meeting today agreed to forward a petition to the Chinese minister at Washington, protesting in the name of the Chinese residents against the appointment of ex-senator Blair as minister to China. They declare that they have not received by the Chinese government.
