Notice is hereby given that the firm of Derbyshire & Borom, 1614 Chicago street, Omaha, Neb., was, on the 24th day of March, 1891, dissolved by mutual consent, P. O. Derbyshire retiring therefrom and S. C. Borom succeeding thereto and to all rights, contracts and books of account of the old firm. P. O. DERBYSHIRE. Notice is hereby given that S. C. Borom has sold out all his rights, title and interest to the Borom manufacturing company, which will continue to do business at 1614 Chicago street, in the city of Omaha and state of Nebraska, with of Omaha and State S. S. C. Borom as manager, S. C. Borom.

Important to the Public and Our Customers.

We wish to refer to an article pub lished in THE SUNDAY BEE, April 5, respecting the sale of Brown & Besley's cabinet letter files, the Shannon bill and letter files, etc., etc., by John H. Cornes to some concern in this The sale is all right, no doubt, but it occurs to us that a certain portion of the article relative to the Shannon bill and letter files is intended to mislead, inasmuch as Mr. Cornes thoroughly understood that we were given the exclusive sale about sixty days prior to the publishing of his notice, and hold a contract with the Office Specialty manufacturing company for Omaha, South Omaha, Council Bluffs and adjacent territory. Mr. Cornes has sold some of our celebrated Files mentioned within the last thirty days and, in every instance, he has turned the orders over to us. We hear, however, that when his connection was severed with the Office specialty manufacturing company that he had some of the No. 4 files and cases on hand which he has managed to dispose of in this last In conclusion, we consider it a pleasure to inform our patrons and the general public that we not only keep in stock document files and cabinets, but represent everything in the line of metallic vault and office furniture manufactured and sold by the Office Specialty manufacturing company, consisting of roller book shelves, compressing files, expansive files, check files, pigeonholes, drawers, cupboards, tables and desks. The line made up in hard wood consists of Shannon cabinet bill and letter files. decument files, rapid roller copiers, Schlicht's standard indexes, etc Miscellaneous office supplies, Thaddeus David's inks, Chadwick's copying books, map cases in antique oak, walnut or mahogany, office desks, railings, etc., etc. Not only do we feel confident that we can make it an object to any one who may favor us with their patronage, but we invite personal investigation.

Very respectfully, THE BOROM MANUFACTURING Co., Successors to Derbyshire & Boron nanufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers in a high grade of school, church and opera house seating, office desks and supplies, teachers' and parlor desks maps, globes and blackboards.

CLINE WAS CAUGHT. Serious Charge Made Against a Well

Known Worker. Thomas Cline was of the opinion that mis fortunes were blessings in disguise until this morning, but now he is inclined to think that he was mistaken.

Thomas is a cripple, and though strongly tempted on several occasions to run him in for vagrancy, the police forbore on that ac count. However, the theory that a crook will hang himself if given rope enough proved true in this case, and Mr. Cline is now in jail on a charge of sufficient gravity to send him to the penitentiary.

J. C. Mahoney is the complaining witness, and he alleges that Cline robbed him of $40

Friday night. He says that Cline took him to his room and there drugged him. He can only remember drinking two glasses of beer, and then all was oblivious until this morning when he awoke and found Cline and the $40

He met Cline upon the street later in the day, but the latter said his name was Davis, and declared that he bad never seen Mahoney before.

Mahoney soon ran across Detective Ellis and the officer -proceeded to South Omaha, where he found Cline and placed him under

As the jailer was about to search him at the station, Cline reached down in his pocket and pulled out $1.50, remarking that he "wasn't very well fixed," but the bluff failed to work, and the search revealed $38.70. The stolen money consisted of two $20 gold pieces, and Cline had one of them intact, although be had been compelled to have the other broken. He thought it was "a shame to lock up a gentleman," and was very much crest fallen when he was hustled In police court yesterday afternoon Thomas Cline waived examination and was bound

KENTUCKY'S BIG COAL FIELDS.

A Magnificent Tract of Cannel and Bituminous Coal Beds.

The Omaha Mining and Lumber Company of Nebraska Secures 19,000 Acres of These Dress Goods. i Lands.

The state of Kentucky has long been famous for fine horses, handsome women and brave men, but few people are aware that within her undulating surface are hidden some of the finest mines of cannot and bituminous coal in the U. S. In Johnson county, which occupies the extreme eastern portion of Kentucky, is a vast deposit of coal of as fine quality as ever came from the banks of the Monongahela. This vein of coal is nearly 7 feet thick and very accessible, the coal cropping out at the surface in many places. The entire 19,000 acres is underlaid with a layer of coal. The Cannel coal, which can be easily lighted from a match, is of excellent quality, whilst the Bituminous quality is fully equal to the best Rock Springs variety. This coal is wonderfully free from sulphur or slate, and is a fine coal for domestic purposes. This property is located on the east bank of the Levisa fork of the Big Sandy river, thus affording it cheap transportation this river being navigable the greater portion of the year. The three C's railroad, running from Cincinnati to Charlestown, S. C., passes through this coal belt making shipments easy. At Catletsburgh, about 60 miles distant, an English syndicate will erect large steel works the coming year. this town and at Ashland, Ky., 90 miles distant, large rolling mills are already in operation. In addition to the coal these lands are covered with a fine growth of maple, poplar and oak timber. This splendid property is owned in fee simple by the Omaha mining and lumcompany of Nebraska, whose capital stock is $800,000.00, non-assessable. As fast as this stock is sold the the proceeds will be applied to the development of their great mineral and lumber property. The personel of the company is splendid. They are reliable men, such as would inspire confidence in any enterprise. The officers of the company are as follows: E. Cauld-well, president; James Balding, vice president; E. J. Boyd, secretary, and H. J. Nash, treasurer, all of them gentlemen of known integrity and enter prise, who will certainly take good care of the interests of the company.

May Rival the Famous Calf Case. Two neighbors in East Livermore, Me., own rams. One of the rams jumped over the fence into the field of the neighbor and while there injured one of

The committees representing the several the cattle which was grazing in the field. The neighbor caught the ram tied him in the barn where his own ram was tied. As he happened to give him too much slack rope the ram got at themore securely tied ram belonging to the man who had tied him and killed him. After having performed this feat he managed through the extra amount of rope to get so entangled as to get hanged by the neck until he was dead. The legal question involved was as to who should pay for the ram-the neighbor who by letting his ram loose caused all the trouble, or the neighbor who by tying him in the barn so carelessly caused the death of both animals.

New Story.

W. T. Murray, a merchant of Lincol-ton, Ga., says that while he was a sol-dier in Virginia he came across a farmer who had just housed a crib of popcorn, and pretty soon after the hands had left the crib, it caught fire and every grain of the corn popped, and very soon the whole plantation was covered with the white corn. A mule about twenty-eight years old, which was in a barn near by, saw the ground covered with white corn, and though the thermometer registered 90 c in the shade the mule froze to death, thinking that it was a terrible heavy snow.
