FOR THE PRESIDENT'S DAY.

Omaha Will Welcome the Chief Executive in Loyal Fashion.

PLANS FOR RECEPTION AND PARADE,

Arrangements Discussed and Committees Appointed at Last Night's Meeting-Chances for the People to Sec.

That Omaha desires to accord to President Harrison a cordial welcome and fitting reception was conclusively shown last evening In response to an invitation from the mayor to the various municipal business and social leaders of the city, a number of the leading representative citizens met in the chamber of the fire and police commission to take the Initial steps in preparation for the notable event. . There were present: Mayor Cushing, President Martin and Secretary Nason of the board of trade, Postmaster Clarkson, President Hartman of the real estate exchange, Major D. H. Wheeler, Councilmen Chaffee and Davis, General Brooke, commander of the department of the Platte, Hon, E. Rosewater of THE BEE, Julius Meyer, C. F. Weller and Fred Metz, sr.

Mayor Cushing occupied the chair, and Mayor Cushing occupied the chair, and stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of discussing plans and appointing such committees as might be necessary to carry them out. He suggested the appointment of the following committees: Finance, reception, parade, speeches, entertainment military display, flowers, decorations and banquet in case it was decided to give one. Major Clarkson said that the president was not coming here to eat, but to see people and be seen. The worst feature connected with his visit is that he will arrive at luncheon time, and vast crowds of people will be on time, and vast crowds of people will be on the streets and will not want to be kept waiting. Ex-Governor Alvin Saunders, who is connected with the president's family, wants the chief executive to lunch with him, and the speaker thought this the better plan.

as many would be offended if there was a public banquet, because they would necessarily be left out.

The mayor thought the suggestion a good one.

Major Wheeler also favored it, as the presidential party would have lunch on the train. He thought they should be driven about the city until 2 o'clock, and then taken to some public place to receive the people and shake bands.

Major Clarkson thought the handshaking whajor Clarkson thought the handshaking should come first and the drive afterwards. When President Cleveland was here the streets were crowded as early as 8 o'clock, and it would be the same in this case, and the people ought not to be kept standing so long. He suggested having a military escort from the depot to the stand.

from the depot to the stand.

Mayor Cushing suggested that the meeting would better get down to work, and W. N. Nason was chosen secretary. Mr. Martin said the school children must be provided for, and favored giving them a holiday and reserving a good place for them.

The mayor favored the High school grounds, and the location was approved. No one but school children and their teachers will be allowed on the grounds and no adults but teachers on that side of the street. The president will drive by in his carriage and probably make a short speech.

Major Wheeler wanted to know if that meeting was to appoint the committees and the mayor said that such was his intention. General Brooke was called for to outline a plan of reception, but begged off on the ground that all his life had been spent in the wilderness until three years ago and he thought other gentlemen present better prepared on that subject. He said it would be very little trouble to have troops on hand for escort duty and favored the high school grounds for a public stand.

Mayor Cushing thought the court house the may be subject to the man her rietta cloth, silk finished, in every new and fashionable spring color.

Mayor Cushing thought the court house yard the best place for the speeches, and the court of The Best building the proper place for the reception.

General Brooke thought the air would be come bad in a short time. He advised stopping all street cars during the parade, and the mayor said it should be done.

Mr. Metz favored the court house grounds, and it was decided to have the speech-making there and the reception in The Bre building rotunds.

Major Wheeler thought the executive com mittee should consist of fifteen members with the mayor as chairman,

This was objected to because it would make the committee too unwelldy, and the number was reduced to eleven. The mayor appointed the following gentleman as members of the committee: Euclid Martin, C. F. Weiler, W. F. Bechel, Major T. S. Clarkson, General Brooke, C. Hartman, H. W. Yates, Fred Metz, sr., F. S. Lowry and Herman Kountze.
On suggestion of Major Clarkson it was decided become cided to have each member the chairman of one of the committees.

Then the question of finances came up and Morris, Chaffee and Davis were in favor of Morris, Chaffee and Davis were in Tavor of having the council make an appropriation sufficient to cover the expenses, but inasmuch as a republican council had refused to make such an appropriation when President Cleve-land was here and certain democrats were in favor of making that a precedent, he couldn't promise that an appropriation would be made in this case.

Mayor Cushing said that if they would get all the republican votes in the council he would furnish two democrats.

Mr. Hartman said the real estate exchange favored such an appropriation as they dis-liked begging, and offered the following resolution which was adopted: Resolved. That the city bouncil through the executive committee be requested to appropriate $4,500 to defray the expenses of the reception tendered to President Harrison.

Some thought the amount too small, but it was allowed to stand as no arches are to erected or bands engaged, as the Se Infantry band from Fort Omaha will be all that is necessary.

The mayor appointed as members of the

The mayor appointed as members of the finance committee H. W. Yates, J. L. Mc-Cague, Thomas Swobe, J. A. Wakefield and W. N. Nason, and on military parade General Brooke and Colonel Sheridan, the general stating that he thought they could handle it. C. L. Chaffee, Julius Meyer and C. E. Burmeister were appointed a committee on decorations, and the chairman will appoint such others as he choses.

Major Ciarkson was unanimously requested to act as grand marshal, but positively de-cilned, saying that he had been ridiculed enough on the grand marshal business, and he was tired of it. He didn't want to figure prominently in the reception, but would do all he could to push it.

F. Weller was appointed grand marshal and will appoint his own aides. General Brooke will constitute the committee on music. The mayor suggested inviting the Gaand Army of the Republic posts. Major Clarkson said they would probably not turn out, as there was to be no parade except the military display, but the old soldiers will be invited just the same. The reception committee was instructed to have several members go to Lincoln and rereive the presidential party, and several ladies will accompany them to look after the ladies of the party. The mayor will head this committee, and will appoint the other members and make the committee as large as he pleases.

Euclid Martin will look after the transportation and carriages and select such assistants

Major Clarkson said that Mr. Clark Voodman had tendered his fine carriage and team for the use of Mrs. Harrison, and the offer was accepted with thanks.

Mr. Rosewater thought that all buildings along the line of march should be decorated, and a committee will visit all owners and

Mr. Nason was sick of enemp bunting and discussing the matter of outside invita-s, Major Clarkson said that 150,000 strangers would be in Omaha on that day.

Major Wheeler thought that invitations should be sent to Council Bluffs, Platts mouth, Nebraska City, Columbus and Blair. Mr. Hartman raised it to let every town be invited in any event.

Major Wheeler wanted the mayor to invite the state officers.

Mr. Martin said he wanted to be selfish Morse Dry Goods Co Morse Dry Goods Co.

For one week on account of the back ward season we reduce prices all over the store. This is simply to start the general trade movement kept back by the weather. We give illustrations in each department to show how great an opportunity is offered.

This week you can buy a dress for less than the cloth can be imported. 90 pieces of various plaid and striped effects, the latest spring patterns, guaranteed every fibre wool, and not a yard ever sold before at less than 62;c and 75c, for this week only 44C A YARD.

Take your choice at this price on the center table, first floor.

Another lot of fine wool shepherd checks and broken plaids, beautiful goods and just the right weight for the present season; the regular price has been 75c. For this week only, 471 A YARD.

50 pieces finest quality French challis, Koechlin and Gros, Roman & Co.'s best goods, for this week only

Our $1.25 quality for one week at per yard. We have a surplus of this uality, hence the re-

Morse Dry Goods Co.

just a little bit. The distinguished party made no stop in Chicago, but they would stop in Omaha for several hours, and he wanted them accorded a distinctively Omaha reception. Others could come and all would be welcome, but the reception belonged to Omaha.

Mr. Rosewater wanted everybody invited to come and participate, and said that Omaha's location would render it something of an interstate affair.

Major Clarkson said it would be discour ous not to invite the governor of Iowa.

Mr. Rosewater favored printing 500 or

,000 neatly printed invitations to send to the mayors and councils of surrounding cities.

Mr. Hartman said this would make 300 or 400 guests to transport and lunch, but Mr. Rosewater thought there was no need of feeding them, though citizens would give the use of carriages to give them a drive. He said it would be a good advertisement for Omaha and the city could afford it.

Mr. Martin thought they would all expect to be looked after and given special attention if thus invited, and favored giving everybody a general invitation and letting all come in on the same plan.

Mr. Rosewater insisted that Council Bluffs should be invited as it was so near, and it was essential to cultivate as friendly relations as possible with neighboring towns. He did not think officials thus invited would expect such great personal attentions, he was invited to attend the opening of the New York World building, and found out that 4,000 invitations were sent out. Only about two dozen were shown any actual at-tention. The others were given the freedom of the building and saw the fireworks. Those not invited were not allowed to enter.

He couldn't see why any special attention should be shown or expected. Mr. Martin was certain that they would have to be given a place in line Mr. Metz thought Council Bluffs and South Omaha enough to invite especially, and did not think more could be cared for. He knew that folks would come from the outside in any Mr. Hartman said that this advertisemen was not for the citizens of Omaha, but for the citizens of outside towns. He would notify them with their invitation to be here at such a time and go to a certain place and get a badge That was as much as he was in favor of doing. Mr. Rosewater thought that perhaps 200 officials would come and Omaha could afford to do a little for them in the way of enter-tainment. It would make quite an impression. Kansus City had derived benefit. the commercial congress and Denver will do the same in a short time. If people are invited they will tell of it, papers will publish it and quite an ad would be received in that way.

Mr. Metz favored making no move in the matter until it is seen what action the council will take.

Mr. Hartman denied that everything de-pended on the council. He said that if the word went out that fifteen thousand or twenty thousand were to be herethere would be no difficulty in raising the money if it came to a show down

"We raised $2,300 in two or three days to entertain the Pan-Americans," said Mr. Rosewater, "and it can certainly be done again in this case if necessary." Mr. Nason thought the city officials of Council Bluffs and South Omaha and the mayors of other cities had enough, and Mayor Wheeler wanted all mayors added to the re-ception committee n committee.

Mr. Hartman said: "Invite 'em; get badges and a half-rate for 100 miles, and that is all they'll expect. They will bring money to take care of themselves. Then even if it rains we will get a good ad out of it."

Mr. Martin favored no badges, no carriages, no nothing. Said he: "Your badges wont be worth a continental. Don't think that 50,000 people are going to stand back and let 100 mayors waltz in ahead. The crowd would walk over the policeman at the door and wouldn't know he was there. Invite

DRESS GOODS.

We have purchased from a New York

HIGH ART

French and German

Just a word to the shopping public This purchase was made this last week, and Monday morning at 8 o'clock we shall have them on our counters.

This entire lot are all NEW GOODS of THIS SEASON'S IMPORTATION. No broken lines of colorings or fag ends. Don't miss this sale if you are going to want a dress in the next six months. We shall divide this purchase into two lots:

Will be a genuine surprise for this reason, each and every piece of goods in this lot cost to import from $1.50 to $2.50 per yard. Do not let this opportunity pass. We claim pass. We claim this is the biggest bargain ever offer

Per Yard. High Art

Stuffs.

In this lot you will find a great many beautiful fabrics; each and every piece costing the importer $1.00 to $1.25 per yard. We anticipate an enormous rush for these handsome goods, and ask you to come as early as possible.

Per Yard.

PRINTED

10,000 YARDS. Printed on a good dress quality of silk, excellent colorings and designs, sold up to Saturday night at 75c a yard.

Your choice at

We will not cut samples at this price We do not expect they will last over twf days. Out-of-town ladies desirous o procuring a dress pattern of this silk can give us an idea of what they want we will make the selections, and if not everybody through the papers and they will come with a reduced rate offered them." Mr. Rosewater said it wasn't definite enough, and Mr. Hartman protested that it would be the biggest thing over in Omaha.

Morse Dry Goods Co.

Mr. Chaffee thought it advisable to send in petition with five hundred or one thousand names to the council asking for the appro-priation, as it would have effect and show the will of the people. Mr. Davis said the council had no authority in law to make the appropriation, and a petition would give them a sentiment to work Secretary Wilson of the real estate ex change, and Secretary Brownice of the fire and police commission, were instructed to circulate a petition and have it ready for the ouncil Tuesday night.

On suggestion of Mr. Rosewater it was de cided to invite all the congressmen of the state to have seats on the platform. Party lines will be ignored, and a general good feel ing toward Omaha fostered.

Mr. Hartman advised a heavy police de tall, and the chief will be directed to be out with two platoons of 75 men. It was decided to leave the invitation ques tion unsettled until after the council taker some definite action, and the meeting ther same place. LOCAL BREVITIES.

adjourned until next Wednesday evening when another session will be held at the Machinery has been ordered for the Grand sphalt company's new plant. The firm will be ready for work by June 1. Rev. R. V. Atkinson will conduct the services at the First Presbyterian church this morning. There will be no evening

J. H. Harvey, a carpenter, was tried in Justice Hart's court yesterday afternoon for forgery. He cashed a forged check for $22 at the Drum saloon.

The members of the painters' union will hold an open meeting at Schroeder's hall, on Cuming street, Tuesday evening. All paint-ers in the city are invited to attend. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Sells of Omaha attended the funeral of their son, David Sells, at Salt Lake on Tuesday. The young man was killed in a wreck on the Central Pacific near Ogden. Work has been commenced on tearing down the old wall under which Captain Carter met his death at the recent Paxton hotel fire five story wing will be built on the site of the old structure.

Wednesday evening the barbers of Omaha and South Omaha will hold an open meeting in Custer Post hall on Fifteenth street. The object is for the purpose of organizing a union. Boss as well as journeymen barbers are expected to attend.

"A Race for a Wife" will be produced at the Boyd Friday evening next under the management of Mrs. Bouscaren, who has left nothing undone to give a meritorious performance. The lady is determined to prove beyond question that she has an enternaining play of high order.

The regular meeting and election of officers of the Omaha Ministerial union will be held of the Omana Ministerial union will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow at the Kountze Me-morial church. The special order of the meeting will be a review of General Booth's "Darkest England" by Rev. W. K. Beans of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Harry Hirsch, who recently sui-cided in South Omaha, was formerly Bertha Mischner, who swore out a warrant a few months ago for a young man for a criminal assault committed in a phetographic studio in this city. The fellow jumped the city, but caused the girl a great deal of trouble by prosecuting her for stealing his diamond ring. Shortly after her marriage the girl took her own life.

took her own life. Miss Anna Schultz left yesterday for her home in Portland, Ore.

REGARDLESS OF COST

2,000 Inventoried by the Manufacturer at 50c on the Dollar.

Greater :-: Reduction.

with colored border, a regular 65c quality; for 39c. Misses' Parasols 25c.

sale only 97c.

200 misses' striped satine parasols, siz 22-in, strong frame and neat handles. Satin Parasols Ladies' 50 dozen 5-8 bleached napkins, with colored borders, worth $1.50; at this

$1.23. 560 ladies' satin parasols, silk lined, lace trimmed, colors black, fawn slate, ecru, navy, cardinal and copper; worth from $2.50 to $4.

Satin Parasols $1.00.

1,000 ladies' satin parasols, in figures, dots, plaids and assorted colors, in light, dark and medium shades; reguar price $2 to $2.50.

Enormous Sacrifice Dress Buttons 10c Card

Of two dozen .- 5,000 horn and metal dress buttons, sold by us formerly at 15c to 25c a dozen; choice in one basket 10c

Dress Buttons 15c Card. Of two dozen.-10,000 dozen finest French metal and imported pearl but-tons, regularly sold from 35c to $1 a dozen; choice in one basket 15c a card.

Dress Trimmings 35c. Consisting of a lot of fine silk mohair, to 83 a yard; for this week 35c. Dress Trimmings 50c.

gilt and fancy dress trimmings, sold up

In this lot we have some rich black and colored silk aress trimmings, worth from $1.25 to $2; this week only 50c a Dress Trimmings $1.00. Black and colored silk dress trimnings, mixed with tinsol from $2.50 to $3; now only $1 a yard.

Morse Dry Goods Co.

HOW HAUENSTINE WAS SAVED

Story of an Eye Witness to the Uprising in Custer County.

THEY ARE DETERMINED ON HIS DEATH.

People Out There Will Wait on the Law, but the Victim Must Be Executed to Prevent Lynching.

A citizen of Broken Bow was seen last night at the Paxton hotel by a reporter for THE BEE. The gentleman was an eye witness to the uprising in the Custer county capital Friday, when the people attempted to lynen Murderer Hauenstine.

"That was the most sprightly crowd of men I have seen for many a year," said the Custer county gentleman, "and it looked very much for a few hours as though the will of the people would decide the fate of Hauenstine without further delay. You see the day set for the execution of Hauenstine was last Friday and the citizens of Custer county believed that the guilty man would be duly hanged. But they were disappointed for the condemned man had beer granted a new trial upon a plea of insanity and as the two experts, Drs. Knapp and Carter of Lincoln, sent by Governor Boyd, at the request of Judge Hamer, to examing the condemned man, and several other witnesses had given it as their opinion that he was partially insane, and the additional fact that the jury was still out on Thursday evening, Governor Boyd telegraphed a respite of thirty days in order to give more time in which to ascertain Hauerstine's condition and to give the jury more time, if necessary, in which to bring in a verdict. "When the news of the respite from Gov-ernor Boyd became known among the people great dissatisfaction became at once appar-The jury brought in a verdict early Friday morning which found that Hauenstine was sane and then the people began to grow more impatient. When it was learned by a second telegram from Governor Boyd that the respite would stick, notwithstanding the verdict, the people began to gather in knots near the court house and discuss the situaon. Men began to swarm about and follow the sheriff through the balls and corridors of the court house and the jail, which is in the basement.

"About 11 o'clock Judge E. P. Hamer, who tried the case, saw that serious trouble was imm.nent, and he went to some of the relatives of the murdered men and explained the situation, assuring them that the respite would in no way interfere with the final execution of the law, and that if they would but wait patiently the law would certainly be properly executed. Some of the men seemed to be satisfied with the explanation, but others were not. Finally Judge Hamer mounted the rinally Judge Hamer mounted the steps of the court house and addressed the crowd. He explained that Governor Boyd had simply done his duty in the case. It was no more than right that Hauenstine's mental condition should be the ughly determined before the execution should proceed, but Governor Boyd had not intended to interfere with the administration of justice. The crowd seemed to be satisfied with this The crowd seemed to be satisfied with this and gradually dispersed.

Shortly after, a double column of men armed with crowbars and sledge hammers, marched down the street and made for the jail. Sheriff Jones stationed himself in the hall leading to the door of the jail and made a dotermined resistance, Judge Hamer rushed Morse Dry Goods Co.

From the Robinson &

We will sell men's pure silk under-wear from the Robinson & Garmon stock which they sold for $12 per suit, for one week, $6.50 a suit.

50 dozen men's fine unlaundried shirts, made of New York mills muslin, 16 2-3c. set in bosom and all the modern improvements, for one week, 49c.

For 98c

Bon Bon's finest grade balbriggan underwear in all sizes shirts and drawers sold by Robinson & Garmon at $1.75 per garment, we offer them for one week only at 98c

350 men's madras flannel shirts, per fect fitting and good styles, in fact, they are just the right thing for summer wear; for one week at $1,50 each.

500 pairs boys' knee pants, made of good strong cassimere cloth; on sale for

At our boys' clothing department we shall sell 500 pairs of a superior grade of boys' knee pants, with patent band and an excellent grade of cloth; actual value $1. For one week only,

Send us your name and address and we will mail free of cost one of our spring and summer fashion catalogues.

that they thought he was feigning a state of SOUTH OMAHA. Church Notices. Rev. H. A. Treiber, of the German Methodist church, Twenty-eighth and F streets, will have Sunday school at 2 o'clock and preaching at 3 o'clock. Rev. Marion Boles, pastor of the First Christian church, will hold services in the Swedish Baptist church, Twenty-second and Swedish Baptist church, Twenty-second and K streets at follows: Sunday school at 10 o'clock; preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "The Great Commission." Evening subject, "Faith, What is It?" Rev. C. N. Dawson, pastor of the First Methodist church, Twenty-third and N streets, makes Sunday announcements as follows: Exc. F. W. Passer of the Street Sunday announcements. as follows: Rev. F. W. Bross of the Mo. mouth Park church, Omaha, will fill the pulpit in the morning and Rev. Mr. Dawson will assist at the quarterly meeting in Rev. Bross' church. In the evening the pulpit will be occupied by the pastor. Fire Orders. Manager Hy H. Meday of the G. H. Hamnond has issued fire order No. 33 as follows: 'In case of any fire in our packing houses the whistle will be blown with quick, short blasts. Should there be a false alarm o should the fire be put out the whistle will be Should there be a false alarm or blown with two quick, short blasts. The fire marshal is charged with reporting to the en gineer when the fire is extinguished. A Herd of Buffalo. A herd of Buffalo came in on the B. & M. road last night and will be objects of curiosity today to all visitors at South Omaha,

Notes About the City. L. C. Gibson is suffering with a serious houmatic attack. Fred Gatchall and James Dunn will run a foot race today, to decide a $25 bet O. D. Bratton of the Stockyards bank, with family, is at Brownville, visiting his parents. Clidie, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. James, who has been so dangerously sick, is South Omaha Typographical Union No. 269 will give a dance in Rowley's hall Friday evening, May 1. Fred Kliffell, local agent of the Western Freight association, went to Kansas City to pend Sunday. Miss Nettie Powell, a charming young lady of West Side, Ia., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Marsh.

better.

other dance in the club rooms, McGinnis block, Thursday evening, April 23. H. A. Houghton, proprietor of the Denver Live Stock Record, was a welcome visitor at the yards and among stock and commission Mayor William G. Sloane, Hollis E. Hogle and Manager A. C. Foster of Swift & Co., have returned after a duck slaughtering

The South Omaha Social club will give anjaunt near Clarks. Harry Jackson, one of the popular young men at the Exchange, met with a painful ac-cident yesterday. An iron rod was run in his left leg near the thigh.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will give a 6 o'clock dinner at the residence of Mayor and Mrs. William G. Sloane, Twentythird street, Wednesday evening, April 22. The musical and literary entertuinment given by the young people in the Albright Methodist church last night was well attended as the excellent entertainment merited. The proceeds went to the church

Frank Thomas and A. V. Millenberger were before Judge King, charged with going into Hellis E. Hoge's shoe store and stealing a pair of shoes. These light-fine wed knights Morse Dry Coods Co. Hosiery Department.

LINWORTH STOCKING

A product of genius; the greatest invention in Hosiery.

The process of constructing the Lin-The process of constructing the Lin-worth Hosiery consists of REINFORC-ING the HEEL and TOE, the parts sub-jected to the greatest wear, with an EXTRA THREAD OF LINEN, the most serviceable of all fibres, which re-sults in a stocking of GREAT PRACTI-CAL MERIT, possessing more DUR-ABILITY and COMFORT than any that has ever been produced. One pair of the Linworth Stockings is guaran-teed to outwear two pairs made in tha

Notwithstanding this great morit

Guaranteed Stainless Black. One pair of "Linworth" will outwear two pairs made in the old way. Dura-

Cotton Stockings

Guaranteed Stain'ess Black.

LADIES' ROYAL STAINLESS Cotton Hose, 25c, 35c, 42c and 50c.

Guaranteed Stainless Black.

Ladies' Daisy Fast Black is an extra length and trunk tops, all guaranteed siminless black.

Morse Dry Goods Co.

of the green cloth and nocturnal pursuits went in the store and had L. T. Stearns show them shoes. In an opportune moment the foot wear was deftly presto passed and was gone with the would-be purchasers.

Mr. Stevens at once notified the police and by the timestand by the timestand by the close of the police and by the timestand by the close of the police and by the timestand by the close of the police and by the timestand by the close of the police and by the timestand by the close of the police and by the timestand by the police of the poli and by the time they had nicely scated them-selves in a social game in a rendezvous that leadeth our young men to worthlessness, a policeman had his ruthless hand on them. The shoes were recovered. The judge assessed a fine of $15 on each and committed them to the care of Shefiff Boyd.

THEY ARE ALL AFTER HIM. Nelson O. Brown's Lively Experience with Numerous Creditors. Nelson O. Brown, the late proprietor of the Clifton house, has been playing in hard tuck of late. A few days ago he differed physically with a neighbor named Reed, and their fullest capacity issuing attachments on Brown and his goods. Yesterday Mrs. Brown joined the opposition ficer to hurry and serve the warrant, as Brown was packing up his things and preparing to fly to Ogden. No anxiety was manifested by the officers, however, who claim that they can get Mr. Brown whenever they want him Judge Advocate Crowder. General Brooke received telegraphic inforto see if the dissatisfied property owners down there could not be pacified and the obtructions removed from the rifle range with-

The following permits were issued by the uperintendent of buildings yesterday : Roger Carroll, one and one-fourth-story frame cottago, Pinckney and Tairtyfirst streets ligst streets loger Carroll, one and one-fourth-story frame cottage, Pinckney and Thirty-make this request. wanted everybody to use banners.

3,500

The secretary was instructed to have all details as to route, exercises and routine published in the city papers a day or two before the president is to be here.

within a radius of 100 miles come in.

Mr. Rosewater said the city officials of Council Bluffs and the state officers should

Morse Dry Goods Co. Morse Dry Goods Co.

This Week

Half Bleached

15 pieces of half bleached table linen

Bleached Napkins 97c.

Bleached Turkish Towels

50 dozen large size bleached Turkish towels, a 25c quality; during this sale only 16tc each

Bleached Crash 12 yds

for $1.00. 5,000 yards of bleached crash, a splendid quality, usually sold at 12½c a yard; now 12 yards for $1.

Bed Spreads $1.19. One case large 11-4 crochet bedspreads handsome Marseilles patterns, former price $1.75; for sale at only $1.19.

Bleached Muslin 5c.

Standard quality, yard wide, limit

Standard make, 36-in wide. limit 20

Send for our illustrated and descriptive catalogue for spring and summer.

Morse Dry Goods Co. Morse Dry Goods Co. into the crowd, seizing hold of one of the leaders, who carried a sledge hammer, and tried to dissuade him from carying out the desperate purpose that was then forcing the crowd forward. The determined men called out to their leaders to go ahead and shove the judge aside. They did go ahead, but Judge Hamer rushed heroically into the hall leading to the jail door and as the men thronged around him he called at the top of his voice: 'In the name of the law I command you to keen the of the law, I command you to keep the "I had gone in with the crowd and stood near the judge. He then began a speech which lasted fully half an hour and commanded the attention of the throng of men wedged into that hall like sardines. Some one got a chair for the judge and he talked eloquently, pleading for moderation, reason "Then James Stockham mounted the chair and made a capital speech for the occasion. He said: 'This is no mob. You are intelli gent citizens of Custer county, and you will listen to reason. He admonished them to disperse and let the law take its course. "Then James Whitehead took the stump, and in a clear voice he told the crowd that it would be madness to allow passion to spur them on to deeds of violence. He knew the people of Custer county loved law and order would wait patiently for the law to be "Judge Wall and several others spoke in a like strain, and then some one in the crowd spoke up and said that if Judge Hamer would promise that Hauenstine should not be taken away from Broken Bow until the thirty days' respite had expired, then the crowd disperse and wait for the thirty days to pass. Judge Hamer assured them that the con demned man would not and could not be taken away. He had to remain there, and if at the end of thirty days Governor Boyd did nothing further Hauenstine must be hanged as though the respite had not been granted. "Then the crowd insisted upon sending committee to wait upon Governor Boyd and get him to promise not to interfere further with the execution of the law. "There was a tragic and fearfully pathetic incident to the affair just at this point. The widow of one of the murdered men had gained an entrance to the crowded hall and her presence seemed to urge the men on. She was asked to speak to the men and per-She was asked to speak to the men and per-suade them not to make further disturbance, but she replied that these were the friends and neighbors of her dead husband. She had come a long way to attend the different trials of the condemned man, and now could not find it in her heart to dissuade the men, if they had deeided to carry out what the law should per-Finally a committee consisting of James Whitehead, James Stockham and Attorney Campbell was appointed to see Governor Boyd and get his promise that he would not interfere further with the edict of the court. Judge Hamer was also requested to accom-pany the committee to Lincoln and see the governor. The crowd then began to disperse, the leaders promised that they would wait until May 22, when the respite expires, and then, 'if the law does not hang him, we will,' said one of the most determined of the

"Do you think there will be another attempt to hang Hauenstine before the expiration of the thirty days?"

"No. The people up there will wait now and let the law have its way. But if he is not hanged by the hand of the law at the appropriated line on May 29, you may but your pointed time, on May 22, you may bet your last cent the people of Custer county will do that little job themselves. "How did Hauenstine act during the trial."

He pretended to be preoccupied with something aside from the trial. He sat with his head down and kept fumbling something in his hands."

"Do you think there will be another at-

"Did the local physicians believe that Hauenstine was insane?"
"No, they all stated on the witness stand

Special Bargains for One Week.

Garmon Stock.

toed to outwear two pairs made in the old way there is no increase in the cost.

Ladies' Linworth Cotton Stockings

bility and comfort combined. Children's Linworth

One pair of "Linworth" will outwear two pairs made in the old way. Durability and comfort combined.

50c, 69c and 98c.

the latter decorated his countenance with a Sullivanesque frieze.

Since then his creditors haven't given him time to sieep, and even the servant girls have kept the justice shops grinding to Yesterday Mrs. Brown joined the opposition and flied a complaint charging him with adultery with Jessie Dol, who has been assisting the landlord of the Clifton for some weeks past. Mrs. Brown stepped down and out when Jessie stepped in, and has been and its running a boarding house at Forty-third and Harney streets.

A number of creditors and several of the female waiters flocked into the polyer state. female waiters flocked into the police sta-tion shortly before noon and besought an of-ever they want him. mation yesterday from Washington to the ffect that Lieutenant Epoch Crowder of the Eighth cavalry had been appointed to suc-ceed Captain P. H. Ray as judge advocate of the Department of the Platte. Lieutenant Crowder will doubtless arrive and report for duty in a few days. Major Benham went to Bellevue yesterday out further difficulty. Every lot in Potter & George Co.'s new addition is a good one.

Building Permits.

Mark Hanson one-story frame cottage, Ninth and Bancroft streets 1,000 Three minor permits.....

J. L. Robson, two-story frame residence,
Thirty-second and Woolworth ave. ... $
St. Paul Congregational church, twostory frame church and parsonage, Twenty-sinth and Eim streets.
Tukey & Alien, one-story frame cottage,
Lake and Forty-third atreets.
Three minor permits.

Ask about Potter & George Co's new addition.