MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. P. Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal. Craft's chaffel looms, 304 Sapp block. Real Rock Springs coal, Thacker, 10 Main. If you want water in your yard or house go to Bixby's, 202 Merriam block.

Mrs. J. H. Wyman of Des Moines is in the city, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wallace. The Married Ladies' Social society meets this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Drew, 621 Myer street.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Samuel S. Cherry of Harrison county and Mary Reed of this city. The ladies of the Congregational church will give a New England maple sugar party Friday evening in the church parlors. Supper served from 7 to 9, 25 cents.

A "num" social will be given this evening by the ladies of All Saints' mission at the residence of Mrs. James Hill, 1820 West Broadway. Every body is invited.

Charles Harney and Florence E. Wilson, both of Macdonald, were married yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the Congregational church, Rev. G. W. Croft officiating. F. A. Dunsen officiated in the superior court yesterday afternoon against Dan Currier to collect $700.00, which he claims is due him for professional services as architect of the Currier flats on Fourth street.

The ladies of the Fifth Avenue Methodist church will give a social and supper in the church parlors, corner of Fifth avenue and Eighteenth street, this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. A fine literary and musical programme has been prepared, and a general good time is assured to one and all.

E. Ward, A. M. Reynolds and C. B. Ivy were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Keap for hooding at a carriage load of ladies who were passing them on Lower Broadway. They were carried to the station, where they were searched. A whisky flask considerably less than half full told the tale. They were booked with drunkenness and will have a hearing this morning. The three were from Omaha, and are said to be highly exemplary young men when they are at home.

The finest line of beaded capes ever brought to the city is now shown at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs. Prices range from $1.25, $2.50, $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00, only about one-half their real value. BOSTON STORE, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Will Bring Them to Time. Two suits were commenced yesterday by the state railway commissioners against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway company, one of which was to compel the company to place a flag station at Showman, and the other to compel it to erect depots at Cylinder and at Bouton. These stations were ordered by the commissioners after a full investigation made some time ago, in accordance with the demands made by the citizens, but the company, it is alleged, has neglected to carry out the orders. A suit was also commenced against the Illinois Central to compel it to conform to the orders made by the commissioners in regard to elevators, the person interested in this case being residents of Primhar. The commissioners made an order some time ago that if of charge, it should grant the station to any one else who may ask it on the same terms. The railroad company refused to obey the order, and the present suit is brought to compel it to do so.

Seed coats, corn, millet and seed potatoes, garden seeds of all kinds, at H. L. Carman's, 403 Main and 501 Pearl streets. Shugart & Co. carry largest stock of bulk field, garden and flower seeds in the west Catalogue and samples by mail.

It is to your interest to consult Mandel & Klein before you buy your furniture, carpets or stoves. A Fast Trip. Jay Gould and party started eastward yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, from the transfer, where their special car had stayed all night. At 8:30 they reached Boone, having covered 150 miles of territory, and at 1:35 a telegram was received here stating that the train had just arrived at Clinton, 350 miles away. At 3:30 they reached the train with its distinguished company on board pulled into the Northwestern depot at Chicago, having gone the entire distance, 408 miles, in nine hours and thirty-one minutes, which makes an average of about fifty-two and one-half miles an hour including stops. This is said to be the best time that has ever been made on any of the roads between Chicago and Council Bluffs. From Council Bluffs the train was handled by Engineer Phillip McKeen and thirty-one minutes as far as Boone, where Pickering was relieved by John Jackson, who took charge of the throttle as far as Clinton.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

The New Hotel Grand Opened with a Great Banquet.

PROMINENT GUESTS WHO WERE PRESENT.

Around the Festal Board—Toasts and Speakers—A Magnificent Hospitality of Which the City is Proud.

The Hotel Grand was a place of glory last evening. The building was lighted from basement to dome with the brilliancy of a thousand electric lights, while through the long corridors the guests wandered to and fro, awaiting the summons to the sixth floor, where the tables were spread sumptuously, in honor of the grand opening.

The guests had been seated at the four tables which had been assigned to the lay-members, John N. Baldwin, with Governor Boies on his arm, entered at the head of a procession consisting of the other speakers, and took their seats at the table amid the loud clapping of hands. Mr. Baldwin, the toastmaster, requested the audience to arise, and Rev. J. T. Mackay offered a brief invocation, after which the guests were given an opportunity to test the qualities of the following menu:

- Consumption Princess. Olives. Baked Black Bass. Cucumbers. Fillets of Beef, Larded, with Mushrooms. New Potatoes. Cauliflower. Sweet Breads, with Sweet Peas. Banana Fritters. Roman Punch. Broiled Quince. Dressed Lettuce. Cake. Nesselrode Ice Cream. Fruit. Confectionery. Cheese. Roquefort.

The printed menu was an elaborate affair. The cover was richly engraved on the front, with the name of the hotel, under which were the words, "Opening Banquet of Hotel Grand, by the Board of Trade of Council Bluffs." On the interior were the menu, the list of toasts and the names of the members of each committee, one page of the programme being devoted to each subject. The whole, bound together in the form of a book, made a souvenir which will be long preserved as a reminder of the occasion.

Without exception the menu was the finest that has ever been served before at a banquet in Council Bluffs. All the preparations had been made with the utmost skill and the banquet passed off without anything but the most perfect success. At 11:30 the supper was finished and the toasts were commenced. John N. Baldwin, in his capacity as toastmaster, introduced the various speakers in happy vein. Mayor Macrae was the first speaker. His toast was "Welcome." He extended a hearty welcome to the visitors who had been brought to the city, and wished the opening of the magnificent hospitality of which the city is justly so proud.

After this toast had been drunk with a hearty good will Governor Horace Boies was introduced, his subject being "The State of Iowa." The governor was listened to with the closest attention, and the audience which he made to the prosperity of the state under its present administration were cheered lustily, except by the case of Rink & Schultz, which is still on in district court, and is to be completed, perhaps, on the 30th, shall be decided. The writs will probably be served in a few days, although there is no law that provides definitely for the time a saloonist shall be given after he has been downed, to hunt around for some one who wants to buy him out.

refused to pay for. The suit was decided by Justice Cones, in favor of Clatterback, and Wickham some time later began suit against Cones on a writ of certiorari, claiming that he had no right to be thus treated, as there had been an irregularity in the election of the justices. This irregularity consisted in the fact that Cones had taken the books of Justice Schure, before whom the case was commenced in the first place, while the statutes provide that the succession of justices shall be decided by lot, which was not done in the case of Justice Schure. An Old Offender. George Harper achieved some notoriety in the Bluffs about six months ago by the peculiar method he had of making a living. His scheme was to visit a house under the pretense of having been sent there for some article of value by a member of the family who was away. Having obtained the article called for, he would pass on to the next house and sell it for whatever he could get for it. He would then go to the next town and repeat the same scheme, and so on, until he had made a fortune. He was taken to the city jail, where he was confined to await a trial on the charge of drunkenness, which was given him after he had been in the jail for some time.

braska, Colorado, Wyoming, Nevada and California and the territory of Utah. This is the great business belt of the west and at every step of the business progress of the country, the tourist, business man or merely pleasure seeker. Nebraska and its prairies; Colorado and its mountains; Utah and its wonderful Salt Lake; Nevada and its arid plains and California with its innumerable attractions, are all compressed in this trip. Omaha, the most prosperous city in the Union today; Denver, the queen city of the Rockies; Salt Lake, the Zion of the West; San Francisco, the City of the Golden Gate, and Los Angeles, the City of our Mother of the Angels, form a string of jewels of rarest water.

Those are all prosperous cities; they are all beautiful cities; they are all wonderful cities. Each is remarkable for some particular reason. No two of them are alike in attractions and no traveler can afford missing to see each and all. In the months of June, July, August and September the prairie of Nebraska, the Rocky mountains, the valleys of Utah and the great Sierra range are seen to the best possible advantage. It is the first season of the year, the sight seeing period of the mountain countries and the pleasurable part of the year for travel.

The ticket offered by THE BEE in return for the second largest list of weekly subscribers obtained by June 10, 1891, allows stop-overs at all points of interest between Omaha and Denver. A week or more may be spent at Denver visiting the picturesque mountain resorts adjacent and another week can likewise be enjoyed at Salt Lake in hunting, fishing, seeing and bathing in the great inland sea. As much time as the passenger likes may be enjoyably spent in San Francisco and other points in California, not accepting the lovely orange groves and fruit orchards of southern California.

Niagara falls, the world's greatest cataract, needs no glowing description. It cannot be described. Pouring over a precipice 160 feet high, the immense volume of water of Niagara river, the outlet of the great lakes, is hurled over the edge of the world's most tremendous waterfall, above it and below it, all about the falls, are the most beautiful and most interesting views of the world. Goat island, the burning spring, the whirlpool rapids, the suspension bridge, are all within easy reach of Niagara falls. The field on which the battle of Lundy's Lane was fought is within a few minutes drive on the Canadian side. The facilities for visiting all points of interest on either side of the river are superior. The regulations controlling access to and from the falls are strictly enforced. The excursions charges which were formerly almost as famous as the cataract. A day or two at Niagara falls is one great event in an average tourist's American tour.
