

REVIEWED BY THE GOVERNOR.

His Excellency Pleas with the Proficiency of the University Cadets.

GAGE COUNTY ODDFELLOWS CELEBRATE.

Lincoln Citizens Preparing to Receive President Harrison and Party—A Station Agent's Narrow Escape—State News.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 27.—[Special to The Bee.]—This afternoon Governor Boyd reviewed the university battalion of cadets on the campus of the university. The young soldiers presented a splendid appearance and the immense crowd in attendance was delighted with the skill shown in the manual of arms and in the various evolutions. The music was furnished by the university band. Governor Boyd was assisted in the review by General Vignain, his adjutant. His excellency carried himself with the air of an old military commander. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the proficiency shown by the cadets in the drill and added their commendation, Lieutenant Griffith, to his staff as aide-de-camp and issued to him a colonel's commission. The honor that had been conferred on Lieutenant Griffith by the board of Adjutant General Vignain to the cadets and they made the campus ring with their enthusiastic cheers for Governor Boyd. Lieutenant Griffith was also cheered.

Opportunities for two Patriots.

FREMONT, Neb., April 27.—[Special to The Bee.]—A special meeting of the board of supervisors of this county has been called by the clerk for May 4. The principal business of this meeting will be to fill the vacancies in the offices of sheriff and clerk of the district court. For the latter position J. M. Shively, Gus Kerrow, Z. T. Wilcox and James Murray are struggling for appointment. The office of sheriff there will not be so many applicants, since there are very few patriots who feel willing to accept it with the unenviable duty of officiating at a double hanging which is to come off on June 5. Hon. Hal Christy of Scribner and Deputy Sheriff Walter Winterstein are candidates for appointment.

Minus a Clerk of the Court.

FREMONT, Neb., April 27.—[Special to The Bee.]—Dodge county is now and for the next few days will be without a clerk of the district court, and court is in session, too. George W. Davy, the old clerk, has resigned his position and has departed for Nashville, where he expects to locate permanently. Having removed from the state for the purpose of disestablishing his citizenship Judge Post holds that even though his resignation has been taken in and has not yet been acted on, he is not legally clerk because of his disestablished citizenship. This condition of affairs will continue until the court adjourns at the county board, which has been called for May 4.

Great Crop Prospects.

HARTINGTON, Neb., April 27.—[Special to The Bee.]—Never, even in this section of never failing harvests were crop prospects as bright as at present. Numerous rainfalls succeeded by a steady rain, have transformed the grainfields into hotbeds of growth that give assurance of yields that have not been equaled for many years. The lateness of spring has been more than offset by the unusually favorable atmospheric conditions of the past two weeks. Crops planted are already as far advanced as an early spring would have placed them. The acreage of wheat is about 100,000 acres, of corn 150,000, while corn and flax will be greatly increased.

Oldf. Hous. Celebrate.

BEATRICE, Neb., April 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Gage County Association of Oddfellows, comprising about ten lodges, celebrated in this city today the twenty-second anniversary of the institution of the order. The exercises consisted of an address of welcome by Mayor E. R. Fozz and a response by F. N. Pratt, of Beatrice lodge No. 19, a procession of lodges and bands and a grand ball in the evening at the Grand Hotel. The celebration closed tonight with a ball at the Auditorium, which was largely attended by citizens generally.

Death at Albion.

ALBION, Neb., April 27.—[Special to The Bee.]—Rev. Thomas Thompson died at his residence at Albion of cancer of the stomach yesterday. He had been a great sufferer for many months.

An Agent's Narrow Escape.

ASHLAND, Neb., April 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Oscar Steele, the B. & M. station agent at this place, was severely injured this afternoon by being knocked from the top of a moving freight train. He was dragged about thirty feet between two cars, having been fortunate in getting his feet caught as he fell. Dr. Mansfield attended him and found the greatest injury to be a deep cut in the neck, which lacerated a little of the proving fatal.

Building Officers' Quarters.

FOUR ROXBOROUGH, Neb., April 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Mr. George W. Jewett of Arlington arrived here this morning and started right to work on the preliminary work of building six sets of officers' quarters. Actual work will commence next Tuesday, when he expects to have fifty men at work on the interior of the tract completed by the middle of September, although he has until October 31 to finish the job.

Leaves for a New Field.

HONOLULU, Neb., April 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Rev. H. T. Bell, late pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, has accepted a call to a more extended field of work at Falls City and will leave for that place tomorrow. This evening he preached a large congregation and had to overstep with many friends and admirers who presented the reverend gentleman with a handsome engraved watch.

Preparations at Hastings.

HASTINGS, Neb., April 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—At a mass meeting of business men tonight at the Westwick hotel a delegation was selected to go to Denver to meet the presidential party. A reception committee was also appointed to receive the party in this city. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event.

AVAILABLE CASH BALANCE.

Mint Director Leach Explains His Statement of Saturday.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—A Star reporter this afternoon asked Director of the Mint Leach for an explanation of the statement made by him Saturday that there was an available cash balance of $298,000,000 in the treasury. Leach said he holds that gold and silver certificates amounting to $403,000,000 represent trust money; that is, the coin has been deposited by individuals and the government has issued a certificate to pay back the same on demand. Possibly the fund of $7,000,000 placed with the treasury by national banks in keeping a reserve of gold in good condition to trust money, but as congress has just ordered the money placed by national banks for retirement, the circulation to be covered into the general balance, it is difficult to conceive why this is any more sacred. The remainder of the money in the treasury, some $288,000,000, Leach holds, belongs absolutely to the government.

IRIGATION IN NEW MEXICO.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—A census bulletin on the subject of irrigation in New Mexico shows that in the territory there are 3,085 farms irrigated out of a total number of 4,171, not including those of the Pueblo Indians. The average first cost of water right is $5.38 per acre, and the cost of the land, cost of the canal, and cost of the machinery, including the average cost to the farmer up to $18.54 per acre. The estimated present value of irrigated farms, including improvements, averages $200 per acre. The average annual profit, less cost of buildings, of $22.44 per acre. Comparing the average annual value of the water right with the average annual value of productions, which is $12.50 per acre, it appears that the average annual return per acre is $11.92. Two per cent of the water right is sufficient to irrigate a productive land, excluding non-irrigated areas.
